LOCAL AND GENERAL.

MRS. W. S. JAYNE, of East Canton, died on the 27th ult.

J. A. WILT has been elected Worthy Chief, Templar of the Lodge in this place

SUBSCRIBE for the REPORTER, and thus be prepared to spend the long evenings pleasantly and profitably.

WILLIAM COOK, of Windham Summit, has a speckled turnip of his own raising, weighing 2½ pounds. Who can beat it.

Two weeks from to-day will be thanksgiving, and the American people will make their annual assault upon Turkey.

SEVERAL of our Towanda builders went to Milan on Tuesday, for the purpose of bidding on the new church about to be erected there.

A PORTION of the wall of the reservoir of the Canton Water Co., burst on Mill creek was undermined and fell one day last week.

NEPHERSON'S majority over both his competitors for District Attorney is 888. He would have won had there been half-a-dozen democrats pitted against him.

AN entertainment for the benefit of the Methodist S S will be given in the basement of the Church on next evening the 29th inst. Refreshments will be served.

L. HIBER and C. H. ALLEN addressed a large Murphy meeting at Mercur Grange Hall, State Road, on Saturday evening last. Thirty-one names were added to the roll.

THE borough authorities having decided not to light the streets, Dr. PRATT has at his own expense lighted the lamp at the north east corner of Main and State streets.

THE Canton Sentinel, says the Borough needs street lamps. We have a number of street lamps, but just as the Council have decided to shut off the gas, they are not of much account.

A RESOLUTION offered in council at last meeting to light the street lamps during the winter, failed to pass, the vote being a tie. As the Burgess is a stockholder in the gas company he declined to vote.

THE Towanda township Grange will meet next Saturday afternoon. An interesting programme has been arranged, and a pleasant time is anticipated. Members of other granges are invited.

THE third game of ball between the College B B C and the Graded School B B C was played on Wednesday last, resulting in a victory for the Graded School boys by a score of 17 to 9.

HON. P. D. MORROW, having been employed as counsel in the Sullivan & Erie railroad cases at one time, has invited Judge ELWELL to preside in his place this week while those cases are being disposed of.

OUR venerable friend Deacon ELLIOTT contributes two interesting articles to our columns this week. Although in the ninetieth year of his age, the deacon still enjoys excellent health, and retains vigorous mental faculties.

THE Tioga says the barn of JESSE BROWN, of Sesshequin was burned on the 12th instant, together with a quantity of grain, etc. Loss $600, no insurance. It is only a short time since Mr. B. was robbed of one hundred dollars.

G W C T BESTWICK is making a tour of the portion of the state, and will be present at the quarterly convention in Granville on the 27th. He is an earnest worker in the temperance cause, and should be met with a hearty reception in this county.

AN attempt was made to burglarize the grocery store of G. L. Ross on Friday night. Several angular holes were bored in the vicinity where the lock was supposed to be, but the would-be burglars evidently missed their reckoning and didn't tap the mark, and so had their labor for their pains.

C. D. HUMPHREY, of this place enjoys the reputation of being the shrewdest and most successful salesman on the road.—CHURCH attributes his large sales all to the superior quality and world-wide reputation of the celebrated "Towanda Boots," manufactured by his house, and which he says sell themselves.

WE have received an invitation and complimentary ticket to the first annual ball of the "Skirmishing Club," to be given in Mercur Hall Thanksgiving eve. We have no idea what the "Skirmishing Club" is, but from the names of the committee, we conclude the entertainment will be enjoyable to those who have any taste for such performances.

THE subscription price of "St. Nicholas," the best Magazine for boys and girls published the world, is $3. We will furnish the REPORTER and Magazine together for three dollars and fifty cents, sent anywhere in this county.

SUNDAY next being the tenth anniversary of the organization of Rome Lodge, the Good Templars will celebrate the occasion with appropriate ceremonies. The Lodge at Rome is one of the most flourishing temperance organizations in the county.

THE annual convention of the W C T U of the 15th Congressional District of this state, will be held in Tunkhannock November 21 and 22. On Friday evening the 23, a temperance meeting under the Union will be held in the M E Church, in this place. Mrs. COOK, President will be present and preside at both meetings.

A LARGE number of workmen are now busily engaged on the new block being erected for a store and bank at Minnequa. Mr. HERPIC is certainly entitled to praise for the enterprise and liberality displayed in building up a town at the celebrated watering place, and baring his new county project, we wish him abundant success in his operations.

THE general convention of the Mutual Musical Alliance for the year 1877 will open at Wyalusing Tuesday morning. November 20th, continuing four days with three sessions per day, closing with a grand concert Friday evening November 23. L. O. EMERSON, of Boston Musical Director. Excursion tickets will be placed on sale at all stations between Tunkhannock and Towanda, inclusive. By order of Executive Committee.

SOME of the students in the graded school are manifesting a great deal of interest in Prof. RYAN's project to supply the building with apparatus. CHARLIE FELTS, GEORGE ROCKWELL and JOHN NEAL have shown a great deal of skill in the construction of machinery for this purpose. Who knows but these boys may yet turn out to be FRANKLINS, PRITCHARDS or STEPHENSONS? They at least deserve credit for their thoughtful example to their fellow pupils.

A MEETING of the Bradford county Medical Society was held at the office of Dr. E. D. PAYNE in Towanda, Wednesday, November 7, 1877, with Vice President, W. C. HEIF, of Monroeton in the chair. After an informal discussion on various medical subjects, an interesting paper was read by Dr. S. M. WOODRUFF, of Towanda. The meeting then adjourned until Wednesday December 5, at 1 o'clock, p. m., at the office of Dr. T. B. JOHNSON, in Towanda.

SEVERAL of our Towanda builders went to Milan on Tuesday, for the purpose of bidding on the new church about to be erected there.

THE Episcopal social gatherings have proven very successful so far, both in bringing the members of the congregation together and pecuniarily. The meeting at Mrs. BARTLETT'S on Monday evening was rendered peculiarly enjoyable by the large attendance, and the hearty welcome extended to all by Mrs. BARTLETT and her two daughters whose very zealous in advancing the temporal as well as spiritual interests of the Church. The "mite" amounted to about $15. The next meeting will be held at the Rectory next Monday evening.

WE learn that quite a high council have been asked to make an among they are willing to pay for a sufficient supply of water for fire purposes, and are assured that if anything like a liberal offer is made, the question will be put to destine water works here. We most sincerely hope that a satisfactory arrangement may be entered into, by which property in every portion of the town can be protected from fire. Such a consumation would not only prove a great convenience, but would result in causing insurance rates at least twenty-five per cent.

THE Sheriffs sales this week do not furnish much encouragement to holders of Building Association shares. Several associations upon which the delinquent associations in this county have liens, are advertised for sale, and thousands as though they had money to loan, and then be compelled to accept real estate instead of the money. Those who are withdrawing from the Associations now make sure of what they have put in, with interest. A large number of members are pursuing this course.

WILLIAM MCCREIGHT, of Waverly, a gentleman well known, in this county, made us a pleasant call on Monday morning. About a year ago he was supposed to be so seriously afflicted with disease of the lungs, that his life was disputed of. Having no desire of "shuffle off this mortal coil," he decided to seek change of climate, and his sport the last twelve months in Colorado and New Mexico, and now returns, apparently in vigorous and robust health. Mr. MCCREIGHT is of the decided opinion that the climate in the vicinity of Pueblo is most beneficial for people seeking relief from affection of the lungs. His healthy appearance is certainly a strong argument in favor of his theory. We hope his cure has been radical and permanent.

PERSONAL.—Hon. M. F. ELLIOTT, one of the most successful and prominent members of the Tioga county bar, spent several days in town last week.

—H. N. WILLIAMS, having disposed of his legal business in Canton, to Capt. J. H. SHAW, will devote his entire time to the practice of his profession here.

—Mr. WEKEMAN, of Connecticut, is visiting at the Rectory. He is a brother of Mrs. BEERS.

—Mrs. COLEMAN, and daughter, Mrs. DAVIS, of Philadelphia, are visiting at L. B. ROGERS' on Chestnut street.

—Col. GREEN, of Elmira, was a guest at the Ward House on Tuesday.

—CHAS. W. DAVIDSON has been appointed Night Policeman. The position was tendered to Capt D. L. SWEENY, but he declined it.

—Miss KATE PORTER is visiting her aunt, Mrs MEANS, in Philadelphia.

—C. E. GLADDING was in town this week. Mr. G. is a genuine granger now, having given his attention to farming and planting during the past season. As purchasing agent of the State Grange, Mr. G. became very popular throughout the state, and his retirement from the position was generally regretted by Patrons who made their purchases through the agency.

—S. W. BUCK who has been occupying a clerkship under the Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives at Washington for the past two sessions, has been superseded to make room for a "southern brother." Mr. BUCK is one of the most effective workers the democracy have in this county, and is a competent clerk; but we presume he will quietly submit for the good of the party, to the snubbing Mr. RANDALL has given him.

AN ADMIRABLE SCHOOL-BOOK.—The admonition, "Get the Best," applies with remarkable force to school text-books. As no good farmer buys an inferior horse or implement when he knows a better may be had for the same cost; as no wide-awake mechanic is content to work with poor tools when he is aware he can do much more and better execution with good ones; so the youthful mind should not be confronted with obstacles and embarrassments in school, which may be readily avoided by the selection of proper manuals of instruction.

Many of the schools of the State have labored under the impediment of a poor text-book of history, and it is time to find a remedy. We have examined with pleasure and instruction a new work by Prof. J. C. RIDPATH, which is a clear and concise history of the country, in terse, impressive narrative, with elegant maps, chronological charts, instructive diagrams, apt illustrations, and a degree of freshness and vivacity which are peculiarly attractive. It is being rapidly introduced in all progressive communities, and as a change would benefit the schools of our own locality, we trust those who feel an interest in the subject—who does not?—will not fail to examine this most worthy and admirable candidate for adoption.

RIDGBURY.—That "disappointment comes to all men," is a plain unvarnished truth, and it really does seem to me that lately it comes to one SAMUEL J. plainer and more unvarnished than ever. I never was since my remembrance as great a friend to Truth as some are, and especially when it presents itself in such a spiteful old adage as that which heads this letter. In short, Mr. Editor, I am nearly frantic! Think I must have an attack of the blues! I wish your would feel my pulse! I think you would shake your revered head, and say sweetly, "Sammy, my boy, tell me what aileth thee, that I may pour oil on thy wounded heart."

Well, in the first place, election didn't go to suit me: the poor house was voted down, and now I ask in my most heart-rending tones, "where, oh where is to be my future abiding place?" and echo answers "where?" In the second place it was Grange night, and as I saw the swarthy farmers and their buxom wives crowding into STEVENS' hall, I was almost a mind to play Zacheus, and climb a tree, but my better nature prevailed, and I turned sorrowfully away, singing softly, as I went to bea Tempter, and with the Tempter stand;" but when Thursday night came the very delegates of Heaven seemed opened, the rain fell in torrents, and of course there was no lodge. I trudged wildly to the door and peeped cautiously out: it was very dark, and the wind and rain were awful. It was so dark I could see nothing only the lights in the barroom, and I said lightly,

"Let your lower light be burning,
Some poor wandering one may see,
Some poor lonely, struggling Tempter,
You may teach, you may save."

even in dear old Pennsville, sweet land of my birth, if there is no Lodge, erected.

November 9.

REV. DAVID BURR furnishes the following sketch of the life and death of Mr. A. A. which died in Wyalusing recently:

Died, at Wyalusing, November 5, 1877, ALBERT A. BURR, in the 20th year of his age. The death of this young man has cast a gloom over the community which will for some time to come remove. He was the oldest son of Mr. JOHN BURR of Blackalmut, where he was born February 28, 1857. His early life was spent on his father's farm and in acquiring a good business education. Immediately after leaving school he entered the office of the Pine N Y R R Co. at Laceyville, for the purpose of acquiring a knowledge of telegraphy and the general business of a railroad office. For a time he was employed as night operator at Meshoppen, from which place about five years ago he was transferred to Wyalusing, where he remained until his death. On the retirement of Mr. POTTER from the charge of the Wyalusing office in January 1875, Mr. BURR was appointed to the place. The position was a difficult and responsible one, but his uniformly kind and obliging disposition, combined with promptness and the strictest integrity in business, won for him the confidence of his employers and the greatest good will of all those who had occasion to do business at his office. In the community where he lived he was highly respected, and in the narrower circle of intimate personal friends he was greatly beloved. It was truthfully said of him that there no one ever knew him to do a mean action, or ever heard him speak a bad word. In February last he married Mrs. ADDIE, daughter of Geo. TIMMONS, of Herrick, and in a short time left his accomplished bride were rendered a home which he had abundantly supplied with comforts, and beautified with his own hands. His sickness was of short duration, and his death so unexpected as to send a shock through the neighborhood. On a brilliant afternoon day a large congregation assembled in the Presbyterian church at Wyalusing, where the funeral services were conducted by the pastor. All the places of business in the village were closed, and all joined in paying the tribute of a sigh to one whom they had so often hailed as friend. His body was taken to Blackwalnut for burial, where with solemn services ashes were committed to ashes and dust to dust, amid the rustling of the faded leaves and the fragrance of withering flowers. Superintendent GOODMAN kindly furnished an extra car for the special accommodation of immediate friends.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Tunkhannock Breakthrough furnishes that journal with an account of a very interesting affair which came off at Wyalusing recently:

"The evening of the 17th was signalized in these parts by a festive event long to be remembered by those present.

The affair was a tin wedding combined and celebrated by JOHN B. STALLSMITH and his devoted wife at their homestead near the famous and historic Moravian settlement one and a half miles below this village.

JOHN is an enterprising and successful farmer as well as a humble straightforward fellow, notwithstanding the charge once made against him by the Tunkhannock Republican that "he goes to churches and votes the Democratic ticket."

We found the old mansion in readiness, illuminated from top to bottom and presenting an air of comfort, cheerfulness and life. Standing upon the dining table was a conical shaped structure about one and a half feet high composed of the fruit of the trees of his farm. It was well made, received much attention and reminded one of the Kansas and Colorado exhibit at the Centennial.

The word "Welcome" upon the wall at one end of the room showed artistic skill at rustic work, also the several significant figures "17" upon the walls of other rooms. These fine art displays were attributed to Mrs. AVERY and Miss MARTIN of Tunkhannock. There was a large company, the following places being represented, viz., Pittston, Tunkhannock, Laceyville, Lovelton, Terrytown, Sugar Run, Camptown, and Wyalusing. The presents were numerous, unique, ornamental and useful, ranging from a tiny set of tin jewelry to mammoth tin horns, and from the clothes pin to a huge wash tub and butter bowl with capacity for a barrel or wagon box. There were fine chromos, stereoscope views, and a fancy mirror, elaborate brackets, toilet articles, those forming parts of the house as well as shop and field. One table failed to hold them, so No. 2 was brought into use and both laden, they presented the appearance of a fancy and variety store with few duplicated articles. About 10 o'clock Mr. GEO. H. WELLES made a happy, humorous and fitting speech which we regret being unable to give.

Next came the refreshments, the abundance of which showed a well regulated commissary department while the relish with which they were eaten gave evidence of appreciation of luxuries on the part of the guests. The cakes being the handiwork of Miss REBECCA MARTIN, showed that she is well skilled in the culinary art. It was a pleasant evening, everybody seeming to enjoy it, some at parlor games others visiting and chatting.

Towards midnight the company broke up and howeward marched, carrying pleasant recollections of the entertainment and leaving heartfelt wishes for the happiness and prosperity of JOHN and wife and that they may celebrate not only their silver wedding but golden also."

A FATAL accident occurred near Forksville last Sunday. A youth about seventeen years of age named CAMPBELL from East Troy, Bradford counyty, who was visiting friends in or near Forksville was instantly killed. CAMPBELL in company with two younger lads went out riding and had a gun with them. A piece of brush becoming entangled in one of the wheels CAMPBELL got out and removed it, when he resumed his seat in the buggy he took the gun and shoved it stock first, down between his feet, and in doing this the hammer of the gun was raised, exploding the cap and fiving the charge, which entered CAMPBELL'S body a little to the right and above the heart, severing the large blood vein, and almost instantly killing the boy. The other two boys returned immediately with the corpse to Forksville.—Sullivan County Democrat.

ANOTHER old citizen is gone. D. H. ABEL, Esq., one of the oldest residents of Warren township, died a week ago last Saturday. The deceased was universally esteemed, and was an upright, useful citizen. He was the father of Mrs. Dr. D. S. PRATT, of this place. In the Baltimore Sun of the 9th inst., we find this notice of Mr. A.: "DANIEL H. ABEL died in Warren, Bradford County, Pa., on the 3rd instant, aged eighty-two years. He had enjoyed good health until a few days before his death, when he was stricken with paralysis, which resulted fatally. He had been engaged in early life in active business pursuits, but for a number of years had quietly devoted his time to the cultivation of the soil, and thus lived to the age of four score and two years, beloved and esteemed by all who knew him. He was the eldest brother of A. S. ABEL, of this city."

MINNEQUA Grange adopted the following preamble and resolutions on the death of the late RICHARD SELLARD:

WHEREAS; It has pleased the Great Master of the Universe to remove from our number by death, brother RICHARD SELLARD, an exemplary and worthy member of Minnequa Grange, No 222, P. of H. of Pennsylvania. He was a faithful and efficient officer; not only gracing our Grange officially, but also endearing himself to us and the Order by an amiable and charitable disposition, civil and moral deportment, loved and esteemed by all; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of brother Sellard, this Grange has lost a valuable member and worthy officer, whose loss we deeply mourn.

Resolved, That his stricken family have our most heartfelt sympathies, and that God who can comfort in distress can heal the wounds that have been inflicted upon them; and with the hope that there will be a future reunion where all is peace, and where the work of the present shall be exchanged for the unsuming activities of a bright future.

Resolved, That out of respect for the memory of the deceased, our Charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes of the Company's proceedings, and be printed in the several newspapers of the Borough, and that a copy of the same be presented to the family of the deceased, expressing the assurance of our sympathy with them in their great affliction.

THE District Convention I O of G T will be held at West Granville, commencing Tuesday November 27, at 11 o'clock, a.m. G W C T Bestwick will be present.
