THE MOST REMARKABLE WORK OF THE AGE.—"Layard's Nineveh—Nineveh and its Remains, with an account of a visit to the Chaldean Christians of Kurdistan, and Yezidis, or Devil Worshippers, and an inquiry into the manners and arts of the ancient Assyrians, by Austen Henry Layard, Esq. D. C. L.: in two volumes, with numerous illustrations. "There is a remarkable and delightful combination in the work before us, of valuable discovery and interesting personal adventure, such as rarely rewards an adventurous travel or discovery. * * In the interest and is not surpassed by the old travelers. In the science of this story he has to tell, he very much surpasses them all.
"We repeat that there has been no such picture in any modern book of travels. Pain is not braver or more adventurous. Burkhardt is not more truthful. Felton not more gay or pleasant—nor the hero of Lisbon more cool and undaunted."—London Examiner.
"One of the most remarkable works of the day."—London Times, 1st Feb. Quarterly Review, oct
