Sellers' Cough Syrup—Without a Rival!

PITTSBURGH (9th Ward,) Feb 15th, 1850.

MR R E SELLERS—On the 16th ult., I caught a very severe cold. The night following I went to bed earlier than usual, yet notwithstanding I had slept none the night before, my cough was so severe that I could not sleep, neither could those in the room with me. The person sleeping with me was so much annoyed by my coughing that he got up and went to a drug store and bought a bottle of your Cough Syrup, and one dose of which, to my great astonishment, stopped my cough as if by magic. I went to work in the morning, and am now quite well. Yours, &c.,
John Drew.

I hereby certify that I am well acquainted with the above circumstances, and that the statement given is true. A Johnson,

PROFESSOR BARRY'S TRICOPHEROUS OR MEDICATED COMPOUND.

INFALLIBLE for renewing, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair, removing Scurf, Dandruff, and all affections of the Scalp, and curing Eruptions on the Skin, Diseases of the Glands, Muscles and Integuments, and relieving Stings, Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, &c. &c. With this preparation, "there is no such word as fail." The first journals in America, medical men of the highest eminence, prominent citizens of all professions, and ladies who have used it for years in their dressing rooms and nurseries, admit with one accord, that, for imparting vigor, gloss, luxuriance and curl to the hair, eradicating scurf and dandruff, healing wounds, curing contusions, sprains, stings, &c., and relieving diseases of the skin, the glands, and the muscles it has no equal among the multitudes of compounds advertised in the public prints, or used in private practice. In cheapness as well as efficacy, Barry's Tricopherous is unrivalled.

The affinity between the membranes which constitute the skin, and the hair which draws its sustenance from this triple envelope in every clime, all diseases of the hair originates in the skin of the head. If the pores of the scalp are clogged, or if the blood and other fluids do not circulate freely through the small vessels which feed the roots with moisture and impart life to the fibres, the result is scurf, dandruff, shedding of the hair, grayness, dryness, and barenesss of the head, and entire baldness as the case may be.—Stimulate the skin to healthful action with the Tricopherous, and the hair grows luxuriantly and regains its active principle, and the disease and the effect are the same.

It is upon the skin, the muscular fibre, and the glands, that the Tricopherous has its specific action, and in all affections and injuries of these, organs, it is a sovereign remedy.
