RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO AN AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the second section of the fifth article, so that it read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of this Commonwealth, in the manner following, to wit: The Judges of the Supreme Courts, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges; and the Associate Judges in the Courts of Common Pleas by qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for, subsequent to the first election,) the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds for impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of the aforesaid Judges on the address of two thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of the Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. Those persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for nine years, one for twelve years, and one for fifteen years, the term of each to be determined by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, that the commissions may be issued in accordance therewith. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during his term, and thereafter each Judge whose commission shall first expire shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and in case two or more commissions shall expire on the same day, the Judges holding them shall decide by lot which shall be the Chief Justice. Any vacancies happening by death, resignation, or otherwise, in any of the said courts, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the first Monday of December succeeding the next general election. The Judges of the Supreme Court and the Presidents of the several Courts of Common Pleas shall, at stated times, receive for their services an adequate compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fees or perquisites of office, nor hold any other office of profit under this Commonwealth, or under the government of the United States, or any other State of this Union. The Judges of the Supreme Court, during their continuance in office, shall reside within this Commonwealth; and the other Judges, during their continuance in office, shall reside within the district or county for which they were respectively elected.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
V. BEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

AN ACT:

Prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people for their ratification or rejection the proposed Amendment of the Constitution.

WHEREAS, a joint resolution to amend the Constitution of this Commonwealth, in the second section of the fifth article thereof, by providing for the election of the Judges of this Commonwealth by the people, has been agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each house of the Legislature, at two successive sessions of the same, the first commencing on the first Tuesday of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty nine, and the second commencing on the first Tuesday of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty

And whereas, It is provided in the tenth article of the Constitution, that any amendment so agreed upon shall be submitted to the people in such manner and at such time, at least three months after being so agreed to by the two houses, as the Legislature shall prescribe; therefore

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That for the purpose of ascertaining the sense of the citizens of this Commonwealth in regard to the adoption or rejection of the said amendment, the Governor of this Commonwealth shall issue a writ of election, directed to the sheriff of each and every county of this Commonwealth, commanding such sheriff to give notice in the usual manner that such election will be held in each of the townships, wards, and districts therein, on the second Tuesday in October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, for the purpose of deciding upon the adoption or rejection of said amendment, which said election shall be held at the places and be opened and closed at the time, and within which the general elections of the Commonwealth are held, opened and closed, and it shall be the duty of the judges, inspectors, and clerks of each said township, ward, district, or place, to receive, count and return the votes given at said election, in the same manner as votes given at general elections, and the votes given at said election, shall be written and partly printed, from eleven o'clock forenoon to vote for members of the General Assembly, and be deposit them in a box or boxes to be for that purpose provided by the proper officers, which tickets shall be labelled on the outside "Amendment," and there who are favorable to the amendment may express their desire by voting each a written or printed or partly written and partly printed ballot, containing on the inside thereof the words "For the amendment," and those who are opposed to said amendment, may express their opposition by voting each a similar ballot containing on the inside thereof the words "Against the amendment."

Section 2. That the election on the said proposed amendment shall in all respects be conducted as the general elections of this Commonwealth are now conducted, and it shall be the duty of the return judges of the respective counties and districts thereof, first having carefully ascertained the number of votes given for or against the said amendment in the manner aforesaid, to make out duplicate returns thereof expressed in words, at length, and not in figures, only one of which returns so made shall be lodged in the prothonotary's office of the proper county, and the other sealed and directed to the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and in one of the said judges forthwith deposited in the most convenient post office.

Section 3. That it shall further be the duty of the Secretary of the Commonwealth on receiving the returns for the election for and against the said amendment, to deliver the same to the Speaker of the Senate, on or before the first Monday after the organization of the next Legislature after said returns shall be so received, who shall open and publish the same in the presence of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives on the next Tuesday thereafter, and when the number of votes given for and against the said amendment shall have been ascertained, duplicate certificates thereof shall be signed by the Speaker of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, one of which shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and the other delivered to the Governor, whose duty it shall be to declare by proclamation whether the said amendment has been or has not been approved and ratified by the citizens of this Commonwealth.

Section 4. The sheriffs and commissioners of the several counties of this Commonwealth shall do and perform all the duties and have and receive all the fees to be done to give effect to this act, as the same are provided for by the laws of this Commonwealth.

J. S. McCALMONT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
W. BEST,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved—The ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
WM. F. JOHNSTON.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS.

I do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original Act of the General Assembly entitled "An Act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people for their ratification or rejection the proposed amendment of the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the Secretary's Office at Harrisburg, the ninth day of September, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty.
A. L. RUSSELL,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

And by virtue of the 10th section of the act of the 3d of July, 1839, it is made my duty to apprise every person except Justices of the Peace, and such other officers as are appointments of print or write under the Government of the United States or of this State, or of any city, or incorporated district, whatever, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the Legislature, Judiciary, Executive Departments of this State or the United States, or of any Judge or incorporate district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, of the select and Common Councils of any city, or incorporated district, and the officers of these, is by the law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election of the Commonwealth, and that any Inspector, Judge or other officer of any such election, shall not be eligible to any office to be then voted.

Also in and by the 4th section of an act approved the 19th of April, 1839, it enacted, that in the 4th section of the act passed July 21, 1839, entitled an act relating to the election of this Commonwealth, shall not be construed so to prevent any person from being a borough officer, from serving as Judge, Inspector, or Clerk at any election or special Election in this Commonwealth.

And I do return Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are required to meet at the Court House in the city of Pittsburgh, on the Friday after the second Tuesday of October next, then and there to prepare for those duties respectively by law.

Given under my hand and seal at Pittsburgh, this 12th day of August, A. D. 1850, and of the independence of the United States the seventy fifth.
