LOCAL ITEMS.

LOCAL NEWS.—Our friends will oblige us by sending in any items of local interest, including deaths, marriages, &c., as such are eagerly read by your friends in the west, many of whom get the Reporter. We would esteem it a favor if our kind parons would occasionally mail a copy of he Reporter to relatives and acquaintances who formerly lived in Centre county and removed to other parts, which would induce many to become subscribers.

BLANKS.—Blank Summons, Vendu Notes, Executions, and Judgment and Exemption Note combined, Justices Warrants, &c., for sale at this Office.

IMPORTANT TO BUSINESS MEN.—The circulation of the REPORTER, on this side of the county, is now greater than that of any two papers in the county, hence business men who wish to reach the Pennsvalley trade, wih advance their own interests, by advertising in the REPORTER. Our subscrition list is open to the inspection of all who wish to advertise.

GOLDEN FOUNTAIN PEN.—Something new and novel. Be sure and read the advertisement in our paper, headed "Greatest Invention of the Age." We believe the Golden Fountain Pen is unsurpassed. A good pen is a necessity to every man, woman and child. Agents, here is a chance to make money in introducing a good and saleable article. jan 27 y.

NATURE'S HAIR RESTORATIVE excels everything. No dirt, no sediment, no poison! Perfectly reliable. It does the work most effectually. A treatise giving full particulars sent postage free upon application to PROCTER BROS., Gloucester, Mass., sole agents. See advertisement. 2t.

Shiloh Sunday School of Pleasant Gap, will give a musical entertainment, Saturday evening, September 9th.

Mr. Daniel Keller, of this place in taking up his potatoes, the other day, found one stock upon which he counted 107 potatoes, varying in size from an acorn to a hen's egg.

OUR R. R.—As we stated in last week's REPORTER, the contracts for grading our railroad, from the Fork's, about 2 miles south of Millheim to Oak Hall in Harris twp., were awarded to two parties. The work from the Forks to a distance west of Spring Mills, to Mr. D. M. Lutz, of Pottsville, and the balance to Messrs. Van Dyke and Moore. The contract calls for commencing work in twenty days from date of article, 29th August, and to be completed in six months. We may therefore expect to see men with horses, carts, picks and shovels along the line in a few days.

The road from the Forks east to Mifflinburg will also be ready for a letting in a short time and be put under contract.

An engineer corps has been engaged locating east from Pennsylvania Furnace, to Pine Grove, and thence near as possible to Boalsburg to intersect our line somewhere in Harris township for the through line.

N. B.—Since writing the above, we have seen Messrs. Vandyke & Moore, contractors, they inform us that they will commence work on next week and have a force of hands at work, from Spring Mills to near Centre Hall, on about 6 miles of the road. Work to commence on Tuesday next.

COUNTY FAIR.—The Annual County Fair will be held on the 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th of October next.

The Corner Stone of the new Reformed Church at Gouserville will be laid (D. V.) on Sunday Sept. 10th.

PURSUIT AND CAPTURE OF A HORSE THIEF.—Last week we briefly noticed the theft of two valuable horses from a gentleman residing near Clearfield, Pa. The owner, a Mr. Reichard, was from home at the time, but several persons started in pursuit and after tracing the horses and thief as far as Brookville, gave up the chase and returned home. In the mean time Mr. R. returned home and also started, taking the trail at Brookville, followed and overtook the scoundrel somewhere in Warren county. As soon as discovered the thief cut loose from the lead horse and started at full speed, and Reichard after him. By a desperate effort the distance between the pursued and pursuer was soon shortened; but Reichard's horse began to fail, not, however, until he was within pistol shot, and he fired, hitting the villian in the thigh. He then slackened his pace, feeling confident that the capture of his victim was only a question of time, and after a chase of twenty miles he secured both thief and horse almost within sight of the New York State line. At last accounts he was on his return to Clearfield with the thief and both horses.—Clearfield Republican.

Parties wanting a good hair restorative should get Natures Hair Restorer. Read the advertisement in another column. We recommend the article.

HORSE THIEF.—A horse was stolen last week near Penn'a Furnace. The owner tracked the horse and thief, until he reached Mr. Whiteleathers, a few miles east of this place, where he came across his horse and also the thief. He pulled a revolver to shoot, but the thief spang into a cornfield and made his escape. The owner recovered his horse again. Several persons were present when the thief took to flight, and we think they should have been able to capture him.

About twelve schools which failed to report have been estimated as accurately as possible.

Nineteen New schools have been organized by means of the County Sabbath School Association, and by other agencies, since the first of January.

More than eleven hundred persons in all have been gathered into these new schools.

Schools from which the largest number of communicants have been received into the churches, during the year, report also the largest comparative number of adult scholars.

The prosperity of the churches in the county is in almost exact proportion to the interest which they manifest in their Sabbath Schools.

The Union Schools, which are such from necessity, as well as from choice, are for the most part, in a flourishing condition.

The statistical table, gratifying as it is in many respects, plainly shows that the present condttion of our county loudly calls for the faithful use of every suitable means for elevating the standard of teaching, and more thoroughly realizing the great objects of the Sabbath School—that of imparting a knowledge of the Word of God to the young, so that it may be the power of God unto their salvation.

A map has been constructed, the same size as the county map, which shows the location etc., of all the Sabbath schools in the county.

In the prosecution of his labors in Centre county, since April first the missionary has traveled six hundred and three miles, made one hundred and sixteen family visits and delivered twenty-seven sermons and addresses.

Our friends and co-workers in all parts of the county have abundant occasion to "thank God and take courage."

Clinton County.

The act appointing an auctioneer for Clinton county, was repealed last winter.

The taxes assessed upon all dogs, within the limits of the city of Lock Haven, shall be paid to the Lock Haven Library Company, instead of the sheep fund, as heretofore provided by law.

An Act relating to dogs in Allegheny, Chester, Northampton, Schuylkill and Lancaster counties," approved the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, be and the same is hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to taxing of dogs in the townships of Green and Logan, and the borough of Logansville, in the county of Clinton; and all moneys collected and to be collected as dog tax shall be appropriated to the school fund of said townships and borough aforesaid for school purposes, also passed last winter.

The candidates and ballotings in the radical county convention, last week, were as follows:

Benjamin Ligget, Liberty,	40

For Treasurer, G. A. Bay rd, by accl'n.

For Commissioner: A. J. Swartz 57—David Parsons 5—J. M. Kephart 4.

For District Attorney, Isaac Lytle, by acclamation. At this point Bill Brown arose and protested earnestly against Lytle's nomination until he fully explained his connection with the Lytle-Meek-Chambers letter matter. Mr. Brown not being a delegate, the chairman, Mr. John Irwin, jr., called him to order, saying the convention would call upon him when it desired to hear from him.

A VETERAN GONE.—At the residence of his son, Geo. Morrison, in Goshen township, on Monday, August 21st, 1871 Joseph Morrison, aged about 91 years.

The deceased was born in Chester county, this State, and removed with his parents into Lycoming county. After residing there for a time, he went to Centre county, and there was drafted into the United States service, during the war of 1812, and served his country until he honhonorably dischared. He again returned to Centre county, and was there married to Sarah Ardrey, who is still lingering on the shores of time till her deliverer comes. He came with his family to this county about 41 years ago, and has lived in this community about 29 years, loved and respected by all his neighbors. Truley his was a ripe old age. He is now gathered to his fathers. Clearfield Republican.

MORE HOUSES.—Centre Hall keeps on growing and improving.—There are some ten new houses in contemplation again, which are to be erected between this and next spring—for several of these ground was already broken last week.

A man in Union county got lost in his corn field, and didn't find his way out for twenty-four hours. Buy your goods of Hoffer Bros. and you will not get lost nor cheated.

Mr. David Young, of Ferguson township, was struck by lightning on Thursday last, while ploughing in a field. The bolt first struck one of his horses about the head, killing it instantly, and then passed along the animal to the plow, knocking Mr. Young senseless to the ground. At the time, he had let go one of the plow handles, it was shattered to pieces An examination revealed the fact that the lightning had passed up one of Mr. Young's arms and made a complete circle round his body, leaving a sort of a blue-black ring. He was badly hurt, but will recover..—Watchman.

Constitutional Convention.

At the coming October election the citizens of Pennsylvania will vote upon the question of calling a convention to amend the State Constitution, under the following act passed by the last Legislature:

An Act to authorize a popular vote upon the question of calling a Convention to amend the Constisution of Pennsylvania.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the question of calling a convention to amend the Constitution of this commonwealth be submitted to a vote of the people at the general election, to be held on the second Tuesday of October next, the said question to be voted upon in manner following, to wit: In counties and cities in which slip ticket voting is authorized by law, votes for and against a convention may be expressed and given upon the ticket, headed or endorsed with the word "State" and not otherwise; and the words used shall be "Constitutional Convention" or "against a Convention," and in counties or districts in which slip ticket voting shall not be authorized by law, each elector voting upon said question shall cast a separate ballot, endorsed on the outside "Constitutional Convention," and containing on the inside the words "for a Convention" or "againsta Convention;" and all votes cast as aforesaid shall be received, counted and returned by the proper election officers and return judges as votes for Governor are received, counted and returned under existing laws.

Sec. 2. That the election aforesaid shall be held and be subject to all the provisions of law which apply to general elections; Sheriffs of the several counties shall give notice of this act in their election proclamation the present year, and the Governor shall cause all the returns of the said elections, as received by the secretary of the commonwealth, to be laid before the legislature at its annual election.

Legality of Sunday Marriages.

In New York the question of the legality of Sunday marriages is exciting considerable attention in legal as well clerical minds. There seems to be about an equal division of both parties in this important matter. It is held that as marriage is a legal civil contract, and that legal civil contracts are illegal if made on the Sabbath, it is void if performed on this day. An interesting test case is now pending on Rochester, N. Y. A millionaire died there recently, and willed all his property to the children of his second wife, disinheriting two of his own children. The marriage was performed on Sunday. It is not clear how this will invalidate the will should the decitson be against Sunday marriages, but some lawyers believe that in such a case the will could and would be broken. If the court decides that marriages are invalid if performed on that day, no doubt many more interesting and pointed cases will arise. Lawyers will grow fat on contested rights of property, while in ordinary divorce they would not pay their rent. But no decent court will decide against the legality of pure marriage.

The Rothschild Centennial.

This is an age of centenary celebrations. Many men that have distinguished themselves in art and science were born one hundred years ago, and a grateful posterity deem it but right to commemorate their hundredth birthday. The Scott festivities have ended; Robert Burns was remembered in 1859, Beethoven last year; Shakespeare had his tercentenary seven years ago; in five years hence the one hundredth birthday of our "free and independent" nation will be brilliantly observed, and there is now looming up before us a celebration which will interest the whole world, and, if not commemorated by statues, processions, and banquets, will yet form and important event in commercial and financial history.

Late in 1771, Meyer Anselm Rothschild opened his little banking house in Frankfort. Shrewdness, industry, economy and integrity made his ventures lucrative—his business gradually increased. The story of the Landgrave of Hesse, who entrusted to his keeping £250,000 during the war, and which Rothschild invested so luckily that he made his own fortune, while he was so enabled to return the sum in full to his patron, is well known. From that event the house grew famous. The Emperor of Austria gave titles of distinction to all the male members of the family—branch establishments were opened in London, Paris, Naples, and Vienna, and the Rothschilds became recognized as a power in the world. Their word was law. Kingo and emperorr were at their call. If a government was at the verge of financial dissolution, the Rotyschilds alone could save it. If an investment was to be assured as a grand success, the Rothschilds must place in the market. Connected with every city in the globe, having steam, telegraph, mercurial messengers at command, the confidence of the world; the trusted bankers of millions—the Rothschilds are supreme in finance.

We are not informed what will be the ceremonials, whether simultaneous rejoicings are to take place in the various cities where they have their establishments whether the occasion will be signalized by a grand venture that will eclipse all their former doings, or whether a simple family reunion will mark an interesting event. Whatever takes place, the world will regard it as befitting so memorable a day, and will pray for the continued welfare of the now venerable firm.

The third generation of the Rothschilds are on the wane. Men and women pas their prime, they are teaching their children the simple lessons of their lives—unity and integrity, intelligence and family concord. A hundred years of success have demonstrated "how good it is for brethern to dwell together in unity."

Blessed with more than princly fortunes, the Rothschids all lead in benevolence. In some instances, establishing hospitals, asylums, and colleges at their sole expense, their purse is always lavish at every call of genuine distress. The world admires them for their shrewdness and success; Israel is proud of them as religious, God fearing Jews, whose hearts are keenly alive to the cries of suffering humanity.

COACH MANUFACTORY.
HARDMAN PHILLIPS,

AT HIS manufacturing establishment at Yeagertown, on the Lewistown and Bellefonte Turnpike, has now on hand a fine stock of Carriages, Buggies, Sulkies and Spring Wagons, which he now offers for sale as superior in quality and styles to any manufactured in the country. They are made of the very best seasoned stock by first class practical workmen, and finished in a style that challenges comparison with any work out of or in the Eastern cities and can be sold at lower prices than those manufactured in large towns and cities, amidst high rents and ruinous prices of living. Being master of his own situation anxious to excel in his artistical profession and free from any annoyances in his business, he has time and ability to devote his entire attention to his profession and his customers, rendering satisfaction alike to all patrons, operatives, his country, and himself.

Call and examine his stock and learn his prices, and you cannot fail to be satisfied.
