RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

While, it is generally known that the various ecclesiastical bodies usually met in May, we give the times and places of the General Assemblies, Synods, &c., of the leading denominations, which will be useful to many of our readers: The Presbyterian General Assembly, Old School, will meet at Newark, N. J., May 19th; New School Presbyterian, at Dayton, Ohio, May 19th; United Presbyterian, at Philadelphia, May 25th; Cumberland Presbyterian, Lebanon, Ohio May 19th; General Conference M. E. Church, at Philadelphia, May 24; General Synod of Reformed Dutch, at Schenectady, N. Y. June 1st; Reformed Presbyterian, at Philadelphia, May 19th, and Lutheran, at York Pa., May 6th. The Fifteenth Anniversary of the American Baptist Union will be held at Philadelphia in the third week of May.

——The following extract is taken from a communication published in the Episcopal Recorder, which is significant:

"The only Church universal, which the Scriptures tell of and our standards know, is holy and invisible: the only Communion of Saints. There is no other. The doctrine of a visible Catholicity is the fruitful parent of a progeny of errors. Whatever it may do for others, it certainly works sad havoc with the Episcopal mind. The Episcopalian, who adopts it can only be saved from Romanism (as many have been) by a happy obviousness of logic. Do you ask me how? The argument is in a nutshell. As an Episcopalian, he believes that every Church has, or ought to have, a Bishop at its head. An universal Church, then, must at him imply the Bishop of an universal Church. In other words, an universal Bishop—that is to say, a Pope."

——It is represented that the Archbishop of Canterbury, on giving his assent to the revisal of the judgment of Dr. Lushington on the subject of "eternal punishment, in the case of Mr. Wilson, said he did so "solely on technical grounds," adding: "The eternity of punishment rests, according to my mind, exactly on the same ground as the eternity of blessedness; they must stand or fall together, and the Church of England, as I maintain, hold both doctrines together clearly and decidedly."

——The following sharp question was submitted by a lady, perverted from Protestantism, to a Protestant minister in London, which she is unable to solve, viz: Since it was by an act of her private judgment that she became a Roman Catholic, and this judgment is fallible and not to be relied on in matters of religion, how can she be certain that she was right in changing?

——Grants were made at the meeting of the Board of Managers of the American Bible Society on the 7th, of 73,685 volumes, of which 52,000 went to the Christian Commission and 1,250 for Japan. James Lenox, Esq., of New York, was unanimously elected President of the Society in place of the late Hon. Luther Bradish.

——One of the contributors to the Wesleyan Mission Jubilee Fund, at a meeting held at Waterford, gave one thousand pounds, under the signature of "O! thine own I give unto Thee, O Lord." The N. Y. Observer well remarks, if we should all of us give to the Lord his own, what an increase His treasury would receive.

——Intelligence from India states that between sixty and seventy converts have taken place at Kundiapoottoor, near Vellore, (Presidency of Madras) at the Mission of the Church of Scotland, forty-one of whom were baptized, the others being away engaged in railway work.

——A convention of Laymen favorable to lay representation in the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is to meet in Philadelphia, May 17th.
