CHEESE—Small sales of new Western Reserve at 14a15.

Pittsburgh Petroleum Market.

May 18—The Petroleum market was quite active to-day; the transactions, in the aggregate, being unusually large, and prices, on the whole, may be regarded as a shade better. There was a good speculative and shipping demand, for both Crude and Refined, on the spot, as well as for future delivery, and the number of eastern orders was large. The reported sales of Crude comprise 2040 bbls, as follows: 100 and 213 bbls, on the spot, at 32¾; 300 and 220 at 32¾; 500 and 110 bbls, in bulk, at 33¼, and 1500 bbls, in bulk, to arrive, at 32¾c. At the close, an offer of 32¾ was made for 1000 bbls, for b, and refused. There was, also, an active demand for Refined in bond, principally for next month delivery, and, as compared with the past ten days, an advance has been established. We note sales of 500 bbls "Lily," to be delivered during the first part of June, at 50, 500 bbls, same brand, to be delivered during the latter part of same month, at 52; 500 bbls "Endifer," all of June, buyers option, at 52, 500 bbls "Hope," to be delivered between the first and tenth of June, at 50, and 1500 bbls "Brilliant," same delivery, at 52. Free Oil is firm, but the transactions are light; and of no important character. Residuum is in brisk demand and a material advance has been established. We note a sale of 500 bbls—on Tuesday—at 25c ⅌ bbl, f o b, and 460 do, to day, at $3.35. Naphtha is dull and nominal at former quotations.

The receipts by the Allegheny river during the twenty-four hours ending this evening, comprise 1065 bbls, as follows: H Rosenbach, 220, Davis & Stewart, 190; Way & Benny; 222; Jas Wilkins, 348; Jacob Hicks, 202; Brower, Burke & co, 40; J P Fowler 500.

New York Petroleum Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, May 18—There is a large speculative demand for Crude, and prices have advanced, closing to-day at 33½ on the spot, and 33½ for June delivery. Refined is dull for active demand and prices have advanced 2c per gallon; sales on the spot 60a60, and 60a60½ for June delivery. There is a fair demand for Free Oil and the market is firmer, with sales at 64a65 on the spot and 67 for June. Naphtha is dull and nominal at previous quotations.

Liverpool Petroleum Market—A. S. Macrea's Circular.

LIVERPOOL, May 4—Remarks—It will not surprise us in Europe if the next week or two's American mails bring us intelligence that prices at Pittsburgh and in the Oil localities are dearer than during any time this year; neither shall we be much astonished if famine and panic quotations reign throughout the whole of 1864. The business going on on this side of the water, it must be observed, is not the trading of wild theorists, civil struggling speculators or empty dreamers; but the business of prudent, plodding, modest calculators; and experienced operators, who are acting on a comparison between past and present development; and who, looking ahead, cannot see, in any shape; that the prospective supply of Petroleum is one tithe of what our demand is to be!

The zone of our market could not possibly be better tested than by the circumstances which now surround us. Summer is before us—the Bank rate is 9 per cent—the "Alabama" news by latter is more depressing than those by wire—namely, receipts are larger—roads are passable—rivers are deeper, &c, &c—but all of no use, Petroleum, as will be read below, stands, and will stand, its ground.

The transactions here are those of steady investment; money paid down for a patient return sooner or later; a mighty different thing altogether, to the work of those "bears" referred to in my earlier circulars, who have had to pay the piper for a tune they little anticipated.

America must supply us this year; no interference worth a button can possibly come from Wallachia or the Crimea; neither can the latter scheme, the rectification of the Sargoon Oil in Burmah to be sent here refined instead of crude, add a gallon to our stock for 1864. The well owners and refiners of America, as stated in mine of the 30th ult., per "Africa," have the game in their own hands for this year, and that if must be a very successful and highly remunerative one, requires even less than optimism to foretell.

I take the opportunity of denouncing with a reprobation that I possess not words strong enough to express my horror and utter detestation at the suppressed and deceptive state of our market, which some people have sent out by some of the last mails, hiding depletion of stock, quoting under the market rates, and forcing future sales, until their own orders could be executed, and their own ends attained. Say aside by side the advices that I have printed within these last few weeks, and those that others have written and printed, and one or other is replete with misrepresentation—which—it is not for me; to say. I pointedly, therefore, the warning to the well owner and oil refiner in the first of the circulars, 9th March last—"suspend your judgement and hold your hand until these circulars' sure arrival; for they will tell you the essence of matters exactly, so far as Europe, and Liverpool in particular, is concerned.

Crude—As stated in my last, our stock is only 1400 bbls, held for £20, although possibly a shade less might be accepted. I wrote to repeat the sale of the "Mendian" 1420 bbls at £19, for Havre.

Refined—Stock 5500 bbls, and firmly held for 2s 6d to 2s 6d. There is 14 to 20 days sea voyage and sellers, but if 1000 bbls were wanted, they could not be under 2s 6d.

I would announce again the sale of the "Tubal Cain" with 2'00 bbls, to go to Antwerp, at 2s 3½d; the "Rose Marie," with 1400 bbls, to go to Havre, at 2s 3½d, and the remainder of the cargo, 9 "Mendian," 750 barrels, at same price for same destination.

These are good stiff summer sales, and not retail ones either; and testify of the future much more accurately than anything that can be said in the present.

Spirits—Inhald for 2s, up to 1s 9d having been paid for 500 bbls. Stock 750 bbls.

Chicago Market—Mail Report.

MAY 17—The leading markets were again firm and active, with higher prices consequent upon the advance in Gold, and upward movement in values at the East.

Wheat was in active request by speculators, and advanced late per bushel. The inquiry was principally for No 2 Spring, which sold at prices ranging from $1.22a1.23. No 3 Spring was firm but quiet at $1.12a1.17, at the close the market was very firm at $1.20a$1.20½ for No 2 and at $1.12½a1.17 for No 3.

There was more activity in the floor market, and holders were firmer in their views, but there is no quotable advance to notice in prices. About 2,000 bbls sold, at $5.00a5.00 for good to choice Spring Extras.

The market for corn continues firm and buoyant and we note a further advance of 2c per bu. Sales were made at $1.07½a1.08 for No 1, and c at $1.04c. 97½c for No 3 in store—closing firm.

There was a fair inquiry for oats, and the market was tolerably active at 62a62½c for No 1, and at 56½a57c for No 2.

Rye was in limited supply, but very firmly held. Barley was inactive and nominal.

The market for highwines was quiet and steady at $1.12a1.17c.

Seeds are inactive and nominal at unchanged prices. Provisions are dull and neglected.

Monthly Receipts of Cotton in New Orleans from the 1st of September, 1863, to the 30th of April, 1864.

	Bales.	Bags and Sacks.
September	4,155	1,221
October	15,284	6,247
November	14,832	9,051
December	8,276	10,146
January	7,078	9,183
February	11,885	9,625
March	11,985	2,840
April	11,149	1,784
	83,833	49,849

Bringing the sacks and bags into bales of 450 lbs, each makes the total receipts for the eight months of the present commercial year amount to 100,105 bales. The amount in pounds cannot be ascertained until the public or United States weighers make their returns. It is idle to attempt opinions from estimates on the receipts for the balance of the season, or to bring forward at this moment any predictions or computations as regards the course and extent of the cotton trade for the NEXT SEASON.

New Orleans Markets on the 6th.

Sugar—The receipts having been rather more liberal, buyers have withdrawn, in hopes of obtaining some concessions from holders, which the latter have been compelled to make, although generally asking previous rates, the week's sales being confined to 300 hhds, including seventy yesterday, at 14a20½c for good common to low fair, 20c for fair, and 22c for light yellow clarified. Week's receipts, 1,381 hhds; exports, 638 hhds to N. York.

Molasses—The sales this week comprise 1,600 bbls, at 80a35c per gallon for dark and fermenting; 90a95c for strictly prime, and 90a1.00 for prime to choice. The market has been slightly depressed by the arrival of 2,100 bbls from Cuba. Week's receipts, 1,767 bbls; exports, 574 to New York and 219 to St Louis.

Rice—The market was depressed during the early part of the week by excessive supplies, but has since rallied, the week's sales comprising 3,700 bbls, including 1,000 yesterday, at $6 for ordinary, $7.50 for low extra and $10.50 for choice. Superfine has sold low as $8.50. Week's receipts 4,586 bbls; exports 1,158 to Matanzas.

New York Cattle Market—May 17.

BEEF CATTLE.

The beef cattle market this week has reached the highest point ever known even by the "oldest inhabitant." At the opening on Monday it was found that only about 2,000 head were in the yard; and holders having paid high prices at Albany, were determined to obtain high prices here, and that they were successful in doing so there can be no doubt when we state that sales were made at 17¾a18c ⅌ lb, net, and some butchers loudly claim to have paid even higher, which is not altogether improbable, when the heaviest estimate of weight made are taken into consideration.

The knowledge that the government agents were on hand and buying quite freely had a tendency to straighten affairs, and for a while business was quite brisk. During the afternoon and towards night about 600 head fresh cattle arrived, increasing the supply to 2,600 head, and with more expected in before the close, some weakness was manifested, and many holders of cattle, in order to close out, accepted a decline of 2a¼c ⅌ head.

The closing day found the stock increased by about 800 head, and prices gave way about ¾c per pound, particularly on good grades, buyers of these having supplied themselves on Monday. Owners of cattle were very reluctant to make concessions, but they found it impossible to resist the influence of the large supply on hand and the majority gradually submitted to the demands of butchers, though some, determined not to accept lower rates, held out to the very last, and cattle were driven out to feed until next market day.

The market closed dull and a little irregular. Our quotations represent prices at the close. In making up this column last week's portion of the remarks intended for beef cattle were accidently placed under the head of cows and calves, which will explain the seeming contradictions in that report.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

During the past week the supply has been very light and with a good demand prices rapidly advanced on Friday last, fine woolled selling readily at 12½c per lb live, the highest price even known in this city by the oldest broker in the yards.

On Saturday considerable decline in the price of meat took place in Washington Market, and thus had the effect to weaken rates a little; but at the close, with literally nothing in the yards and a zip-top demand, brokers are confident that they could obtain nearly if not quite the best prices of last week. Sheared sheep of good qualities are worth fully 8a8½c per lb, and woolled do 11½a12½c, live.

SWINE.

There has been a very fair number of hogs received during the past week, but with a good demand, the stock is pretty well cleared out at the close, prices doing firm at an improvement. We note corn-fed lives at $8a8.31 per cwt; do dressed, $10.02½a11.12½; do still fed lives, $8a8.50; do dressed, $10.50a11 per cwt.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

May 16—The arrivals and sales of Beef Cattle, at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard, reach 1,530 head this week. The market is dull, but holders continue very firm in their views. First quality Pennsylvania and Western Steers are selling at 12a12c ⅌ lb, as to quality. The market closed very dull, the butchers only buying to supply their immediate wants.

The following are the particulars of the sales:

Martin & Shriver, 75 Western and Lancaster county steers, selling at from 15a16c, as to quality.

M. Ulman 53 Western and Lancaster co steers selling at from 12a12c ⅌ lb.

P Hathaway 100 Lancaster co steers, selling at from 12a12c for common to extra.

Jones McClees 50 Lancaster co steers, selling at from 12a12½c for common to good.

A Kennedy 25 Lancaster co steers, selling at from 12a12c for common quality.

John Kirkwin 17 Western steers, selling at from 10 a11c ⅌ lb for Extra.

Moore & Smith 96 Western steers, selling at from 14 to 10½c ⅌ lb for common to extra.

H Chain, 54 Chester county steers, selling at from 14a15½c for common to extra.

Blo & Smith, 50 Illinois steers, selling at from 15 a16c for fair to extra.

Shamburg & co 42 Western steers, selling at from 10a12c for common to fair.

D Branson, 20 Chester co steers, selling at from 15a16c for fair to extra.

P Funk 31 Western steers, selling at from 10a13c; the former rate for very poor.

THE SHEEP MARKET.

The arrivals and sales of sheep at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard are small this week, only reaching 2,000 head; the market, in consequence, is very firm, and prices have advanced. Clipped sheep are selling at from 6a7½c, and Wooled do 7½a8½ ⅌ lb, gross, as to quality. Lambs are selling at from $3 to $6 ⅌ head, as to quality.

THE HOG MARKET.

The arrivals and sales of Hogs at the Union and Avenue Drove Yards reach about 2,850 head this week, selling at from $10 to $12.50 the 100 pounds, net.

2,236 head sold at Henry Glass' Union Drove Yard at from $10.50 up to $12.50 the 100 lbs net.

500 head sold at Phillips' Avenue Drove Yard at from $10a12.50 the 100 lbs net, according to quality.

Cincinnati Lumber Market.

May 16—The receipts of lumber during the past week were larger than the preceding week, but still not as large as was expected. There is still a large amount in the small streams which flow into the Allegheny river, and the present rise in the Ohio river, which is principally from that section of country, will probably float a great deal more of it out. It is probable that during the coming week the arrivals will be very large. There are a number of large rafts lying in the river, which have not been taken out of the water, owing to the miserable condition of the landings. It is almost impossible for teams to draw loaded wagons up the levee, owing the deepness of mud.

We quote prices at the river as follows:

Pine	$20a22
Hemlock	22
Shingles	5

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-eighth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 39.]

AN ACT to provide for the better organization of Indian Affairs in California.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, from and after the first day of April, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-four, the State of California shall, for Indian purposes, constitute one superintendency, for which there shall be appointed by the President of the United States by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a superintendent, at a salary of three thousand six hundred dollars per annum, who shall reside at a point within said State, to be selected by the Secretary of the Interior, and who, upon executing a bond, upon such terms and such sum as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and taking the usual oath of office, shall have under his control and management, in like manner and subject to like rules and regulations as are prescribed for superintendents of other superintendencies, the Indians and Indian reservations that are or may hereafter be established in said State; Provided, That the superintendent shall be authorized to appoint a clerk, at compensation not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be set apart by the President, and at his discretion, not exceeding four tracts of land, within the limits of said State, to be retained by the United States, for the purpose of Indian reservations, which shall be of suitable extent for the accommodations of the Indians of said State, and shall be located as remote from white settlements as may be found practicable, having due regard to their adaptation to the purposes for which they are intended: Provided, That at least one of said tracts shall be located in what has heretofore been known as the northern district: And provided further, That if it shall be found impracticable to establish the reservations herein contemplated without embracing improvements made within their limits by white persons, in which case the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and empowered to contract for the purchase of such improvements, at a price not exceeding a fair valuation thereof to be ascertained under his direction. But no such contract shall be made, nor any money paid thereon, until upon a report of such contract and of said valuation to Congress, the same shall be approved and the money appropriated by law for that purpose: And provided, further, That said tracts to be set apart as aforesaid may, or may not, as in the discretion of the President may be deemed for the best interests of the Indians to be provided for, include any of the Indian reservation heretofore set apart in said State, and that in case any such reservation is so included, the same may be enlarged to such an extent as in the opinion of the president may be necessary, in order to its complete adaption to the purposes for which it was intended.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the several Indian reservations in California which shall not be retained for the purposes of Indian reservations under the provisions of the preceding section of this act, shall by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, be surveyed into lots or parcels of suitable size, and as far as practicable in conformity to the surveys of the public lands which said lots shall, under his direction, be appraised by disinterested persons at their cash value, and shall thereupon, after due advertisement as no provided by law in case of other public lands, be offered for sale at public outcry, and thence afterward shall be held subject to sale at public outcry, according to such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided, That no lot shall be disposed of at less than the appraised value, nor at less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre: And provided, further, That said sale shall be conducted by the register and receiver of the land office in the district in which said lands or reservations may be situated, in accordance with the instructions of the department regulating the sale of public lands.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be and he is hereby authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint an Indian agent for each of the reservations which shall be established under the provisions of this act, which said agent shall reside upon the reservation for which he shall be appointed, and shall discharge all the duties now or hereafter to be required of Indian agents by law, or by rules and regulations adopted, or to be adopted, for the regulation of the Indian service, so far as the same may be applicable. Each of the agents appointed under this act shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond in such penalties and with such conditions and such security as the President or Secretary of the Interior may require, and shall hold his office for the term of four years, unless sooner removed by the President, and shall receive as his annual salary at the rate of eighteen hundred dollars.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That there may be appointed, in the manner prescribed by law, for each of said reservations, if in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior the welfare of said Indians shall require it, one physician, one blacksmith, one assistant blacksmith, one farmer, and one carpenter, who shall each receive compensation similar to be determined by the Secretary of the Interior, not exceeding fifty dollars per month.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That hereafter, when it shall become necessary to survey any Indian or other reservations, or any lands, the same shall be surveyed under the direction and control of the General Land Office, and as nearly as may be in conformity to the rules and regulations under which other public lands are surveyed.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That all Indian agents shall reside at their respective agencies, and shall in no case be permitted to visit the city of Washington except when ordered to do so by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. And it is hereby made the duty of the said Commissioner to report all cases of the violation of this section to the President, with the request that the agents disregarding the provisions herein contained be at once removed from office.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That all acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed; and all offices and employments connected with Indian affairs in California not provided for in this act be and the same are hereby abolished.

Approved, April 8, 1864.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"LUBIN."

Having secured the sole and exclusive right to sell in the United States of America and the Canadas,

"LUBIN'S HAIR DRESSING FLORILINE,"

We take great pleasure in announcing to the Druggists and the public generally, that the above article will be ready for distribution and sale in America, soon after the arrival of the European Steamer of the 20th instant.

NOTE.

The reputation long continued and enjoyed by "LUBIN'S HAIR DRESSING FLORILINE" in Paris, and most of the cities throughout Europe, would seem to be a sufficient guarantee of its worth, but when the fact is known that it was, for many years of his life, his especial care, thought, labor and ambition to bring the "FLORILINE" to its present unequalled standard, its real merit cannot fail to be appreciated by the public, and most especially by the "WOMEN OF AMERICA."

REMARKS.

We claim for it the most perfect Hair Preparation in the World, for restoring gray hair to its original color, preventing its turning gray and falling out, and generally to stimulate and strengthen its growth, more especially when the hair, by various causes, may have become deteriorated or diseased.

But a single application will establish the fact that "LUBIN'S HAIR DRESSING FLORILINE," like all of his celebrated Perfumes, is
