COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported Expressly for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SATURDAY, May 21, 1864.

COTTON—Attest is in active demand but there is little "in the market." Corn is firm, with a fair demand for the supply; sales of 400 bush in store from store at $1,45. Oats—sale of 600 bush from depot at 92, also, small sales from store at 90c. Rye—last sale at $1,70.

PROVISIONS—The demand for Bacon continues full and the market is steady while prices have undergone no change. We quote at 12@13 for Shoulders; 13½@14½ for Ribbed Sides and 15@16 for Clear do; 17@17½ for Plain Hams; 18@19 for Plain Sugar-Cured and 20@21 for Canvassed do. Lard is steady with small sales at 13½ for Country and 14½ for City. Mess Pork is held pretty firmly at $27,50@28.

FLOUR—To quote that firm while the demand is limited and prices are nominally unchanged. Sales of 150 bbls Extra Family at $7,50@8,00, and 100 do do at $8,00. Some small sales of Fancy brands are passing at $8 25@8,50.

BUTTER & EGGS—There is a continued brisk demand for prime roll Butter and the market is firm, with sales at 20@22. Eggs have advanced to 23@25c per dozen, and the supply is light.

MILLE FEED—Sales from store at $1,40 per cwt for Bran and $2,50 for Middlings.

DRIED FRUIT—Sale of 10 bbls choice Apples at 12½c ℔ lb. Peaches may be quoted at 18c for cut stone and 20c for halves.

CHEESE—Regular sales of new Western Reserve at from 14@15, as to quality.

HAY—Sales from scales of 7 loads of loose at $23 ℔ ton. Baled Hay is firm with a regular demand at former rates.

POTATOES—Dull and neglected, with a supply largely in excess of the present demand, but prices are not quotably lower. We note small sales at from $1 to $1,20 ℔ bush and $3,25@3,00 per bbl.

GROCERIES—Continue dull and inactive, though prices are nominally unchanged.

Pittsburgh Petroleum Market.

MAY 21.—There is a continued good local and shipping demand for Crude, and with light receipts and a very reduced supply, the market rules firm with a tendency to higher rates. We note several small sales on the spot at 24 cts., bbls returned, and 29, bbls included, also a sale in one lot of 1000 bbls at 29½c free on board cars. There is also a good speculative demand for Refined to bord, principally for June and July delivery, but the extreme views of holders has kept the market entirely quiet for some days. A handful to retard operations. Sales of 200 bbls, on spot, at 50; 250 do do at 50½; and 500 do do at 51—all on the spot; 500 bbls "Archer," July delivery, buyer option, at 52½. Free Oil is not much inquired for but holders are very firm, never the less. Naphtha is quiet and rather dull though nominally unchanged. Buyers are offered 25@27 while holders are asking 28@30. Residuum is quiet but firm, and in the absence of sales may be quoted at $3,00@3,25.

Review of the New York Grocery Market.

[From the Shipping List, May 21.]

COFFEE—The market remains very quiet, but there is a little more firmness noticeable, as, under the late advance in Gold, current arrivals could not be sold here at present valuations, except at a loss; hence holders do not offer their stocks freely. Quotations, though still rather nominal, are better supported. Buyers, in the meantime, stand aloof, and there is a most nothing doing. We have only to notice 100 bags Maracaibo at 42 cents, 4 mos; and 50 Laguayra, on private terms.

Sugar—An export demand for raw has rather strengthened the views of holders, and the market, though fluctuating quite dull is a little steadier than before, especially as the late advance in Gold is yet by, will support; we have not, however, varied our quotations. Refined is in better request, and closes steadily for others than Strasbs'e, at 23@23½ cents for Hard, 22@22½ for Soft White, and 15a19½ cash, for Yellow. The sales of Raw are 412 hhds Cuba at 16½@17½ cents; Off do, in bond, 10½@11, (cash) Porto Rico, 17½; 19 bags Brown Sabia, 10½; and 1643 boxes Havana, 10½ & mos.

Molasses—The market remains quite dull, the demand being confined to the immediate wants of consumers, and prices have fallen off 2@3 cents ℔ gallon. The sales are 60 hhds and 15 bbls choice Porto Rico at 80 cents; 410 hhds and 40 tcs Cuba Muscovado, 74a85, 30 hhds sen. do, 70; 15 Muevitas, 92@97; and 117 bbls New Orleans, 65@68 cents.

New York Petroleum Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, May 21—The market for Crude is less active but prices are unchanged—38½, on the spot and 40@41 for July delivery. Refined, in bond, is firm with a fair demand at 64@65½ on the spot. Free Oil is firm, with sales to a fair extent at 56c on the spot; 65@67 for May delivery; and 69½ for June. Naphtha is dull and nominal at 37c for Refined.

Chicago Grain Market.

MAY 20—There was a good attendance on Change to-day, but owing to the decline in gold and less favorable news from New York, the leading markets were dull and closed materially lower.

The trade in wheat was not subject to the excitement characterized it yesterday. Early sales were made, it opened at the closing prices of yesterday, but at the opening of Change it broke badly and kept on to a lower range. The depreciation was more marked toward the session, and after the receipt of the New York dispatches, the market closed heavy at the outside prices. About 100,000 bu changed hands, at $1,29@1,29½ for No 2 spring, $1,25@1,27½ for No 3 do, $1,10@1,16 for rejected—losing with sellers at $1,28@1,27 for No 2, and $1,27 for No 3, and buyers at $1,29½ and $1,20½.

The market for corn was less active and prices favored buyers to the extent of 5@10c. Even at this decline there was not much activity on the parts of any raters to take hold, unless sellers would make a more or concession of 5@10c. The sales foot up a trifle over 200,000 bu, at $7,00@7,75 for red and white winters, and $5,50@7,00 for low grade to very choice spring extras.

Oats were in good demand, both speculative and shipping, and the market advanced 2@3c, with sales of 100,000 bu, $1,11@1,12 for No 1 spring in store, $1,10@1,09½ for No 2, and $1,08@1,07½ for rejected; $1,12½ for No 1 old in store; $1,18 for No 1 old f. o. b., and $1,12½ for unrejected canal afloat. At the close of Change, however, the advance was barely maintained and the market closes weak.

The market for corn ruled dull, and we note a depreciation of ½@1c, as compared with the closing prices on Change yesterday. About 61,000 bushels changed hands at 67½@68½c for No 1, 66½@66c for No 2, and 63½c for rejected.

There was no active demand for Rye and the market ruled firm at the advance noted yesterday. The sales ranged at $1,40 for No 1 in store at $1,41a1,45 for sample.

Barley was in good demand and firm, with sales at $1,50@1,62 for sample lots.

Louisville Market.

MAY 20.—PROVISIONS—Market firm and moderate. Sales of 50,000 lbs clear sides at 18½c packed; 25,000 lbs clear rib sides sold on private terms. Pattias from Terre Haute sold 120,000 lbs clear bulk rib sides to-day to Peter & Co. The price agreed to was 12c, the same to be packed in tierces and delivered in this city. Mess pork and lard are quiet and unchanged.

TOBACCO—Market more active though prices remain unchanged. Sales of 331 hhds as follows: 15 at $4a4,80, 50 at $4a5,35, 61 at $5a6,05, 26 at $7a7,95, 17 at $8a9,90, 17 at $9a9,95, 18 at $10a10,75, 16 at $11a11,75, 15 at $12a12,75, 13 at $13a13,75, 4 at $14a14,50, 13 at $15a15,75, 9 at $16a16,75, 11 at 17a17,75, 9 at $18a18,75, 4 at $19a19,50, 6 at 20a20,50, 3 at $21a21,75, 5 at $22a22,50, 2 at $23,50 at $24a24,75, 4 at $25a25,50, 8 at $26a26,75, 3 at $27a27,50, 1 at $28,50, 1 at $31, 1 at $32, 1 at $40, 1 at $52, and 5 trash at $3,30a2,80 ℔ 100 lbs.

GRAIN—Market quiet; there is very little offered, thoughthe demand is good, and all kinds of grain command a fair price. We quote wheat at $1,40a1,45 for red, and $1,60a1,65 for white. Corn $1,00a1,10 for ear and shelled. Oats 88a90c. Barley $1,35a1,40. Rye $1,20.

HAY—In demand. We quote at $29a31 per ton; retailing from store at $32a33.

DRIED FRUIT—Unchanged. We quote apples at $9 a10c, and peaches from 12½ to 15.

Toledo Market.

MAY 19—Flour—No transactions. The nominal quotations for the various grades are: Fine, $4,50a4,60; Superfine, $4,55@4,65; Extra, $5,35a5,00; Double Extra and Fancy, $6,00a7,25. Rye flour, $4,75a5.

Wheat—Sales yesterday reting, after our report: 4,000 bu Amber Mich at 153c. To-day, before report: 0,000 bu No 1 red, in two lots, at 140c; after report, 1,000 bu. No 1 red at 139c, and 2,000 bu No 2 red at 145c. We heard of one lot of No 1 on the market this P. M. at 140c, without finding a purchaser.

Corn—Sales last evening: 10,000 bu No 1 at 117c; 1,000 bu M & Corn at 112c. The only sale reported to-day was 233 bu rejected at 110½c.

FLOUR—Market firm and moderate local demand. Sales 100 bbls good X X red at $7,50; 50 bbls extra at $8,50.

WHEAT—Dull and 2c lower than at the close yesterday. The only sale reported to-day was 2000 bush red free on board at $1,33.

CORN—Irregular but held higher. Nominally $1,22@1,25 from store. Receipts are light and we hear of no sales.

OATS—Firm and nominally unchanged at 78c on track, and 80c from store.

RYE—Quiet and steady at $1,40 from store.

BARLEY—Nominal at $1,25@1,35 for good to prime on track.

Chicago Highwine Market.

MAY 20.—There was an active speculative demand for Highwines to-day, and the market advanced fully one cent, sales yesterday soon with sales of 4,700 bbls at a range of $1,21@1,22—the market closing quiet at $1,21. This advance is predicated on the report made by the Senate committee to increase the tax on Whisky after the first of January next to $1,60. Of course the Senate itself has not taken any action in the matter; but there is a general opinion prevailed that it will pass the Committee's bill. There seems to be no disposition on the part of the Senate to work on hand.

Philadelphia Fish Market.

SHAD—are inactive. There are not many offering. Sales of 200 bbls at $6 ℔ bbl.
