All the above-mentioned articles must conform in every respect to the sealed standard patterns in this office, where they may be examined and additional information received concerning them.

The manufacturers' establishment or dealers' place of business must be distinctly stated in the proposal, together with the names, address and responsibility of two persons proposed as sureties. The sureties will guaranty that a contract shall be entered within ten days after the acceptance of said bid or proposal.

Proposals will be received for the whole or any part of each kind of the articles advertised for.

The privilege is reserved by and for the United States of rejecting any proposals that may be deemed extravagant.

Deliveries to commence within twenty days after the acceptance of the proposals, and one-third of the quantity contracted for must be delivered within one month of said date of acceptance, and the remainder within two months of said day of acceptance, or sooner if practicable. Bidders will nevertheless state in their proposals the shortest possible time in which the quantities bid for can be delivered by them.

All articles will be subject to inspection by sworn inspectors, appointed by authority of the United States.

Payment shall be made on each delivery, provided Congress shall have made an appropriation to meet it, or as soon thereafter as an appropriation shall be made for that purpose. Ten per cent. of the amount of each delivery will be retained until the contract shall be completed, which will be forfeited to the United States in case of failure on the part of the contractor in fulfilling the contract.

Forms of proposal and guaranty will be furnished upon application at this office, and none will be considered that do not conform thereto.

Proposals will be enclosed "Proposals for furnishing army supplies." A. MONTGOMERY, Maj. and Q. M. U. S. A. oc11-4oc20

TO FARMERS AND OTHERS—FOR SALE.

GEOWEY'S SUPERIOR PATENT

Grain Fan and Seperator,

PATENTED JANUARY 10, 1860.

THE superiority of this Fan over all others in use, consists in its cheapness, simplicity and durability.

Second. In cleaning grain faster, better and more thoroughly with less labor than any other mill ever offered.

The patentee of the above Fan has been long engaged in manufacturing and selling Agricultural implements, convinced of the great want of good Fan for cleaning the different kinds of grain and seeds, presents this to the public with full confidence that it will meet their wants.

The undersigned having purchased the sole right to manufacture and sell the above Grain Fan and Seperator, in Western Pennsylvania, Western Virginia and all Ohio, and the right to sell in Indiana and Illinois, is now prepared to fill all orders Wholesale or Retail at 319 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa. SOAP. SOAP. SOAP. SOAP. SOAP

THE CHEMICAL OLIVE ERASIVE SOAP manufactured by B. O. & J. B. SAWYER, is acknowledged to be the most serviceable of any kind yet offered to the public. Its superior advantages are found in its cheapness, saving of labor, and its efficacy in removing grease, paint, tar and dirt without injuring the skin, or in the least wise damaging the finest quality of goods. It can be used with all kinds of water.

Reference is made with pleasure to the subjoined certificates, eminating from gentlemen well known in this community, and who had every facility afforded of seeing it fully and fairly tested.

Quartermaster's Department of the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Regiments, Pa. Vols.

"Sawyer's Chemical Olive Erasive Soap" having been used very extensively in our Regiments, we have no hesitation in certifying that it was found admirably adapted to the use of the soldiers, and decidedly the most superior Soap which could be procured for the service.

The Battle at Ball's Bluff—Statement of a Refugee.

BALTIMORE, October 28.—The following statement has been derived from a highly respectable refugee from Leesburg: When the intention of throwing the Federal troops across the Potomac first became apparent, the rebel forces in the neighborhood of Leesburg were so small that it was almost decided not to offer any resistence. Some reinforcements were, however, brought up from back of Leesburg, and with the force thus made, not altogether exceeding 3000, it was resolved to make a stand. Both parties, it was admitted at Leesburg, fought desperately.—The rebels, feared that they would be surrounded by a large force which it was anticipated General Banks would throw across at the ferry above where the battle was fought, and the most desperate efforts were made to defeat Gen. Baker before the expected reinforcements could come to his relief.

The federal troops, though overmatched in numbers, stood out against the attack manfully and bravely. Both parties suffered severely in killed and wounded. Our informant saw over 100 dead bodies of the rebels, whilst their wounded was so numerous that all the farmhouses in
