Brilliant Victory in Kentucky ---Four Hundred Rebels Killed and One Thousand Prisoners.

PARIS, Ky., November 12.—General Nelson met the rebels under General Williams, at Pikeville, Pike county, Kentucky, on Friday, and gained a glorious victory.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

CINCINNATI, November 12.—Col. Tabe Moore attacked the rebels in the rear with thirty-eight hundred men, and Colonel Harris, of the Ohio Second, in front, with six hundred. Harris is falling back and Moore pressing forward till the enemy were brought into the midst of Nelson's brigade, when our forces pressed them upon all sides, killing four hundred, taking one thousand prisoners. The balance were scattered in all directions. The Federal loss is small.

Capture of the Pirate Sumter in Her Own Trap.

WASHINGTON, November 12.—A family letter received here, dated on the 25th of October, on board the U. S. frigate Santee, off Galvaston, confirms the report of the capture of the pirate Sumter. The writer says she was caught in her own trap. It seems that she mistook one of the U. S. gunboats for a merchant vessel, and started in pursuit. When the gunboat had drawn her out far enough, she turned and chased her ashore. Her officers and crew are prisoners on board the United States steam frigate Niagara.

Further Particulars of the Wreck.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—It appears that the accounts of the wreck of the French vessel of war were not correctly stated yesterday. Her name is now said to be the Proney. She was a steamer, mounting six guns. Her crew, about one hundred in number, were not permitted to hold any communication with the people whatever, but the officers were allowed to mingle with the residents to some extent.

Our correspondent at Fortress Monroe is of course mistaken in saying that they came via Charlestown. The officers had heard of the taking of the forts at Port Royal, but appear to have very little other information. All the crew came passengers by the boat from Old Point, and will go North this morning.

BALTIMORE, November 12.—Passengers by the Old Point Boat report that the flag of truce arrived yesterday from Norfolk brought a number of reports. One was that after the capture of the batteries by the United States troops the rebels fell back to Beaufort, where a terrible struggle took place. They also represent that the people of Norfolk were in a terrible state of excitement.

Fighting at Pikeville, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 12.—A courier from Nelson's brigade, with dispatches for Gen. Thomas, reports fighting at Pikeville for two days, where the rebels lost four hundred killed and one thousand prisoners.
