CORONER:

WILLIAM CLAWSON, City.

FOUR DIRECTOR:

M. H. DAVIS, Sewickley.

ROORBACKS.

The Copperhead leaders of the 23d Congressional District are spending the money furnished by the agent of the ROTHSCHILDS very freely. To-day we observed men engaged in circulating Commodore KOONTS' address to "his constituents." We also notice the street corners largely disfigured by placards, libeling Hon. THOMAS WILLIAMS, our eloquent and talented representative. It is charged by these Copperhead calumniators that the gentleman last named "never attended a Ward county meeting, nor subscribed a dollar toward the county tax." The first assertion may be true, as Mr. WILLIAMS was probably absent from his home and family at the time these meetings took place, attending to the public interests committed to his charge; the latter is a base libel, only worthy of the foul source from which it emanated.

Let all good Union voters compare the great speech of Mr. Williams, delivered in Congress, on the question of the reconstruction of the Union, with that uttered by Commodore Koonts at the Chicago Convention, and they will have a fair opportunity of judging of the two men, and which represents mostly fairly the loyal people of that part of Allegheny county.

It should be remembered that the Congressional ticket is the one from which the Union majority in the State will be computed. Of course, Mr. Williams will be elected by a very large majority; but let every vote be added to that majority which can be polled, so that the Union vote of the State may be fairly aggregated from the Congressional majorities. Let the poll committees see that every Union vote is cast for our Congressmen, no matter what the district majority may be.

ON WHICH SIDE?

"A man is known by the company he keeps," the old adage says, and truly; and every loyal man can tell for himself, whether he is on the right or wrong side, by ascertaining the political company he keeps.

Who are the men with whom you associate? Do you train with DIX and DICKINSON, BUCKEN and BROOKS, SHERIDAN and SHERMAN, GRANT and FARRAGUT, EVERETT and BRYANT? Or with VALLANDIGHAM and LONG, BEN WOOD and HARRIS, VOORHEES and DODD, or PENDLETON and JEFF DAVIS?

Look at your political companions; who are they? Are you with the men who spurt treason at the orators and in daggerotypes, who mock the patriotic dead and the relentless victims of war with cheers for McCLELLAN? Are you surreptitiously disloyal men of the country on your side? Do the skulkers, and deserters forgetting their oaths? Then rest assured you are on the wrong side. Loyal and disloyal men cannot honestly and bearably associate together, nor can they both vote the same ticket with the same conviction. One of the two is sure to be cheated, and the disloyal men are too sharp to be taken in. They know who and what they are voting for; and any loyal man who votes with them is but their dupe.

The decision of to-day will mark an event in the history of the nation; and he only can look back with pride at his share in it who can congratulate himself that he voted only with loyal men, and on the side of his country.

VOTE EARLY.

The polls open to-day at 9, a. m., and close at 7, p. m. Let those who can, vote as they go to dinner; others can vote as they go to their offices, and others still can vote at any time during the day. Let no one take advantage of the opportunity to vote early.

Many mechanics and working men will be compelled to vote between six and seven in the evening. Those who can vote earlier should not impede them by putting off the duty until that hour. Let those who cannot vote earlier have a clear track for themselves. There is always a rush at the last hour, and sometimes men lose their chance to vote by being too late.

We must be permitted to urge, therefore, upon business men, merchants, clerks, and all others who can get their votes in early, to do so. Do not put it off. You that have time on your hands, give yourselves no rest until you have voted. And you that have men under you, give them an early opportunity to vote. Every man is interested in this election. Therefore, let every man have a chance to record his verdict in the great issue before the public.

PULLING BOTH WAYS.

The Copperheads claim that McCLELLAN is in favor of the Union, and of suppressing the rebellion. But suppose this were true, what do they say about the other end of their ticket? If what they say be true, Mac is pulling one way, while it is notorious that PENDLETON pulls the other way, as does the platform. The horse is divided against itself; and it is very clear that the combined force of the platform, of PENDLETON, VALLANDIGHAM, SEYMOUR and WOOD will be quite too strong for poor little Mac. They know it, and he knows it; and he knew it when he threw out that letter as a tub to the whale. Mac talks war to tickle the loyal democracy, while the others cry peace to encourage the rebels, and enable them to hold on until after the fourth of March, when the great surrender is to be made.

DO YOU WANT PEACE?

Then vote the Union ticket. That is the surest way to bring about a permanent peace. The Union army will fight all the better for being backed up at home, and the Rebel army all the worse for being deprived of all hope. The rebels will submit when they see they have no chance; and if they see, by the election returns, that the people are on the side of the government and the army, they will succumb. The sole sustenance of their expectations is the sympathy shown for them in the Chicago platform. Show them, to-day, that they have nothing to hope from that, and Peace and is nigh.

McClellan's Answer.

The Country to McClellan—"Are you for war or for peace?"

McClellan to the Country—"I do not remember."

A NEGATIVE PLATFORM.

The Copperhead platform is more remarkable for what it omits than what it contains. Look at it!

1st. It says nothing in favor of the Monroe Doctrine—not a word.

2d. It says not a word in favor of suspending the operations of the draft for 500,000 men.

3d. It says not a word against the Emancipation Proclamation.

4th. Not a word against employing negro soldiers and sailors, to fight the rebels.

5th. Not a word against wiping out slavery by the military blows or by a change of the Constitution.

6th. Not a word against Gen. Butler's famous contraband doctrine.

7th. Not a word against the Amnesty Proclamation, nor against the Republican Congressional plan of Reconstruction.

8th. Not a word against the confiscation of the property of rebels—real or unreal.

9th. Not a word in favor of returning confiscated property to the rebels.

10th. Not a word against the repeal of the Fugitive Slave law.

11th. Not a word against the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia.

12th. Not a word against the Congressional prohibition of Slavery in the Territories.

13th. Not a word against the Tax law passed by a Republican Congress.

14th. Not a word in favor of repudiating the National debt.

15th. Not a word against Jeff. Davis or the rebellion.

16th. Not a word in favor of State sovereignty and the right of secession.

17th. Not a word against "coercing sovereign States," or against "holding the Union together by Federal bayonets."

18th. Not a word in favor of paying the rebel debt.

19th. Not a word in favor of encouraging white laboring emigration from Europe.

20th. Finally—not a word in favor of going on with the war in case the proposed armistice fails to bring the rebels back into the Union.

A platform so contemptible and cowardly was never presented to a party in this country or any other in this age, or any age of the world.

"UP GUARDS! AND AT THEM!"

The day of action has arrived. The momentous crisis of the conflict is upon us. The time for the last, grand, heroic charge has come, and the brave men who stand to day for the Union, must throw their whole soul into the onset and sweep the enemy resistlessly before them.

There is no time, now, for parley. The one great duty before us, to day, is to vote, and vote right—vote for the Union and the government—vote for sustaining and encouraging our brave armies in the field, and vote so as to show the Rebels that there is no hope for them in the result of this election.

To vote, and vote on the side of the government, is a sacred duty, incumbent on every one who loves his country. Every patriot will vote to-day. Every man who has a son, or brother, or friend in the army, will vote to-day. And they will vote so as to make every vote tell emphatically for the right.

NO SCRATCHING.

The issue involved to-day is one of principle, not of men. The candidates are put forward as the representatives of that principle, and in voting for them we are not voting our mere personal preferences, but for the great principle which the candidates are set to maintain. Let no personal pique or prejudice, therefore, be permitted to affect the vote of any one to-day. We cannot afford to satisfy personal feeling at the expense of the country. Vote the ticket, then—the whole ticket. All personal considerations sink into insignificance beside the considerations of the country's safety and the triumph of the country's cause. Do not stop to inquire who the candidates are. They are all worthy men, as we are able to ascertain. The only point to be certain about is—be sure and get the right ticket.

BE PREPARED!

We understand that the Copperheads have resolved to appear at all the polls this morning at eight o'clock, armed.

The object of this is to create a riot, if possible. Let our friends be prepared for it. Be on the ground early, in large numbers. They rely on their secret organizations to bring their men out and up to the work, and try to effect something by the exhibition of brute force.

They can, however, be overwhelmed. They are cowards at heart, and although they have a will, have not the courage to strike, unless the odds are largely in their favor.

A large police force will be on hand; but the friends of order must be there, too, to see justice and fair play done.

REMEMBER!

That the sole hope of the Rebels is in the success of the McClellan ticket. If that ticket succeeds they are sure of recognition and the establishment of an independent government; if it is beaten they know they have nothing for it but submission. The surest way to conquer the Rebels and bring about a lasting peace is to defeat the Rebel sympathizers at home, and knock from under their feet the only foundation upon which they can build a hope.

THE NEWS FROM THE ARMY.

The news published yesterday morning, of a reverse to our arms, proves to have been a jumble of errors. There was no repulse. A part of our advanced line was surprised and cut off, but the enemy was subsequently bravely met and driven back, and the advance line regained. All reports of disaster to our arms are got up, just now, for political effect.

RAIN OR SHINE, VOTE!

At the time of writing these lines, the weather is beautiful, an we hope it may be to throughout to-day. But, rain or shine, let everybody vote. Let no one show that he is merely a fair weather patriot. The brave soldiers fight for us, whether it is hot or cold, raining or clear, pleasant or unpleasant. Shall we not do as much for them?

LOOK AT YOUR TICKETS!

Let every voter look at his ticket, and beware of the fraudulent tickets circulated by the enemy. The notorious Koonts, over the river is circulating Union tickets with his name on, in the hope of getting respectable men to vote for him. Watch all such tricks of the enemy closely.

BEWARE OF FALSE REPORTS!

The Union men must determine to pay no attention to the canards that will be gotten up to day of disasters to our arms. The enemy hope to profit by this trick to-day, and there will be any amount of lying resorted to. Pay no heed to it. Believe nothing from the army that does not have Stanton's name signed to it.

THE SKIES ARE BRIGHT.

The prospect for a brilliant victory at the polls was never better than it is now. From all sides we have the most encouraging accounts. All that is wanting, now, is a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull all together. Let every loyal and patriotic man vote, and the victory will be overwhelming.

"HURRAH FOR McCLELLAN."

Remember, if you hear any man "Hurrah for McCLELLAN!" to-day, that that was the battle-cry of the Rebels at the battle of Winchester.

REMEMBER!

That every vote cast for the McCLELLAN ticket to-day is so much aid and comfort given to the enemy. The Rebels will measure their strength at the North by the vote cast for that ticket.

WORDS OF TRUTH.

From a pamphlet lately issued in New York by Prof. Taylor, we extract the following words of truth and soberness, and commend them to the attention of every thoughtful man:

There is no chance to be mistaken; a few simple questions settle the whole matter. Which candidate is sure to receive the vote of every warm sympathizer with rebellion in our land? On whose side will be found the men who rejoice—and their name is legion—at defeats received by our armies? For whose success will they feel deepest interest who have no tears for our gallant dead, and who stigmatize the war in which they fell as fanatical, false, and inglorious? Where is all that is heroic, thrilling, soul elevating in this giant contest, and on which side is there a total absence of even the semblance of any such qualities? Whose Christianity and statesmanship can most surely count upon the heaviest majorities in the vilest dens of vice to be found in our cities? Who will receive the most votes from the drinking cellar, the brothels, the gambling saloon? Whose conservatism will find most favor with such conservative characters as filibusters, and rioters, and negro burners? Which side confidently expects to get the most votes in those regions of our land where the densest ignorance most abounds? Which has most to say of "fanatical preists" intermeddling in politics? Where election will give joy in Richmond? Whose triumph will cause a strong to every liberty loving heart in all Europe, whilst it sends a thrill of joy—more subdued than that which Macedonia felt at the fall of Demosthenes,—to the soul of every liberty-hating despotism of Monarchy? Patriot, as you style yourself—Christian of every name,—if these questions can be answered in but one way—and you most surely know what that is,—how dare you vote on a side which will bring you in association with every one of the characters here described?

Never was issue more clearly joined. It is not so much the candidates as the influences that will be thrown into the scale, which will be decided by the election of the one or the other. Whatever be the integrity or intelligence of General McClellan himself; whatever be the intelligence or integrity of some who intend to vote for him, there can be no doubt of the predominant interests that are arrayed in his support, and which will demand recognition in case of his success. All that is most hostile to our true nationality is there. All the most extreme advocates of the mischievous doctrine of state sovereignty are there. Every one among us who is a member of a secret society in aid of southern treason is there. Every man who, whilst ringing the false charges of sectionalism against the North, is engaged in the vile work,—of exciting a new political hatred between the East and the West,—every such man is there. All who are distinguished for the most demoniac feeling toward a misled and outlawed race, are there. They are all there. Christian and patriot, we say again, can you vote with them? It would seem sacrilege there were but one fitting style of speech that could be used at the bare thought of such association. It is the language of the Psalmist:—"O my Soul come not thou into their secret; unto their conventions, O mine Honor, be not thou united."

Mr. SILAS S. DREW, a "down east" Peace Democrat, in good and regular standing, said at the Maine State Convention:

He believed General Lee to be the real advocate of true self government, and Abraham Lincoln a hellish tyrant." This sentiment was loudly cheered, and one enthusiastic delegate shouted "That's it; we are all rebels against Lincoln."

The La Crosse Democrat, "Democratic" in nature as well as name, "peace" fully observes:

"Lincoln is a traitor and a murderer, and if he is elected to misgovern for another four years, we trust that some bold hand will pierce his heart with a dagger point for the public good."

Such is what the Quaker Democracy say while suppressed and silenced by this "tyrannical" Administration. What would they say if they were allowed the inestimable boon of "free speech!" How long, O Lord, how long must these amiable fellow-citizens of ours be denied the right of "free speech?"

SPEAKING of the declaration in the Chicago platform that the war is a failure, the New York Herald keenly and truly remarks:

"The Convention must have been thinking of the war as conducted by McClellan. But the Convention ought to know that a man by the name of Grant has now taken hold, and the war is not a failure."

M'CLELLAN was nominated by the Chicago Convention simply because he was a failure. If he had succeeded as a soldier, he would no more have been nominated than Grant would have been, or Sherman, or Sheridan. The Convention did not want a fighting man—it wanted a peace man.—N. Y. Trib.

THE Copperheads say that McClellan has great self-control. Yes, we never heard of his losing his temper but once, and that was when Colonel Metcalf, of Kentucky, told him that his friend Jeff Davis was not a gentleman. That put him in a great rage.

Suspicious Mottoes.

When knights enter the lists to tilt, they display the mottoes upon their shields. Pendleton's motto is: "I obey!"—McClellan's: "I do not remember."

PROPOSALS FOR LOAN.

5-20 BONDS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Oct. 1, 1864.

Sealed offers will be received at this Department, under the act of Congress, approved June 30, 1864, until the noon of FRIDAY, the 14th inst., for bonds of the United States to the amount of forty millions of dollars. The bonds offered will bear an interest of six per centum payable semi annually, in coin, on the first day of May and November, and will be redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, after five years, and payable in twenty years from Nov. 1, 1864.

Each offer must be for fifty or some multiple of fifty dollars, and must state the sum including premium offered for each hundred dollars, or for fifty when the offer is for less than fifty. Two per cent. of the principal (including premium) of the whole amount bid for, by each bidder, must be deposited, as a guaranty for the payment of subscriptions if accepted, with the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, or with the Assistant Treasurer at New York, Boston, Philadelphia or St. Louis, or with the designated Depositary at Baltimore Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago, Detroit or Buffalo, or with any National Depositary Bank which may consent to transact the business without charge, for which deposits duplicate certificates will be issued to the depositors by the officer or bank receiving them—the original of which must be forwarded, with the offers, to this Department. All deposits should be made in time for the certificates with the others to reach Washington not later than the morning of October 14, as aforesaid. No offer, not accompanied by its proper certificate of deposit, will be considered.

The Coupon and Registered Bonds issued under this proposal will be of the denominations of $50, $100, $500, and $1,000. Registered Bonds of $5,000 and $10,000 will be issued if required.

All offers received will be opened on Friday, October 14th. The awards will be made by the Secretary to the highest offerers, and notice of acceptance or declination will be immediately given to the respective offerers. In cases of acceptance, bonds of the description and denomination preferred will be sent to the subscribers, at the cost of the Department, on final payment of instalments. The deposit of two per cent. will be reckoned to the last instalment paid by successful offerers, and will be immediately returned to those whose offers may be accepted.

The amount of accepted offers must be deposited with the Treasurer, officer or bank authorized to act under this notice, on advice of the acceptance of offers, as follows: One-third on the 20th October, and the balance, (including the premium and original two per cent. deposit,) on the 31st October.

The bonds will bear interest from November 1st, interest on deposits, from their date to Nov. 1, will be paid by the Government in

One-half of the first instalment, but, or twenty-five per cent of accepted offers, may be paid, with accrued interest to Oct. 15 in United States Certificates of indebtedness, but such certificates will be received in part payment of the first installment only.

Offers under this notice should be endorsed "Offer for Loan" and addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury. The right to decline all offers not considered advantageous to the Government is reserved by the Secretary.

W. P. FESSENDEN,

CARD—OIL AND MINERAL LANDS FOR SALE OR LEASE—KEITH, PAINTER & Co., dealers in Oil, Oil Territory and Mineral Lands are prepared to sell or lease any quantity of land situated in the celebrated oil regions of Burning Springs, Little Kanawha, Hughes River, Horse Neck, Bull Creek, and all other localities of importance.

We have also a large amount of valuable territory in the well known oil regions of Washington county, Ohio, and other places. Their West Virginia lands are also all teeming with abundance of valuable minerals, which will well repay the miner for his labor. These lands will be sold or leased in quantities to suit applicants, and on reasonable terms.

For particulars address or call on J. M. KEITH, Attorney at Law, Marietta, O., or C. H. PAINTER, corner Harrison street and Duquesne Way, Pittsburgh.
