THE ANDREWS PATENT PIPE.
(PATENTED JANUARY 21, 1862.)

REQUIRES ONLY A TRIAL TO prove its incomparable superiority to any pipe now in use. It may be smoked without any deleterious or unpleasant effects, as the oil of tobacco is not drawn into the mouth, and the tongue does not become furred or coated from inhaling its poisonous properties. The bowl is made of the finest Devonshire clay, and gives to the tobacco a peculiarly pleasant fragrance. The tobacco cannot become moist, as in ordinary Pipes, because the drip beneath receives the saliva that insensibly escapes into the stem; hence the pipe never becomes offensively rank, and the breath of the smoker does not proclaim to every one he meets that he has been "indulging in a pipe."

When the bowl becomes clogged, or the drip beneath requires cleansing, the pipe may be taken apart by removing the rim. The clay bowl may at any time be restored to its original whiteness by burning in the fire, (first drying it thoroughly) or a new bowl may be procured of the dealer.

☞ Read the opinions of those who have tried this pipe:

"From personal experience, we know it to be all that it is represented."—Philada. Inquirer.

"A very decided improvement."—Public Ledger.

"All who have tried it bear testimony to its excellence."—Evening Bulletin.

"Decidedly the best pipe in use."—Manayunk Star.

"The pleasures of a smoke are enhanced a thousand fold by its use, and the deleterious effects of smoking are entirely obviated."—Sunday Dispatch.

"I heartily concur in the testimonials you have as to its superiority over all other pipes in use."—John S. Rohrer, M. D.

"It obviates, to a great extent, the deleterious effects of the poisonous constituents of tobacco, an essential oil and nicotine."—S. G. Brieselbach, M. D.

Numerous other extracts might be given, but the above are deemed sufficient.

JONES & EVANS, General Agents,
No. 631 Arch street, Philadelphia.

☞ Caution—As this pipe is protected by Letters Patent, any person who may infringe shall be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

DAILY POST.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Gen. Magruder Gone West.

Major General Magruder and staff arrived in this city yesterday, and took lodgings at the Congaree House. In response to the call of a large number of our citizens, and to the compliment of music by the Fort Sumter bands, Gen. Magruder expressed his gratification and thanks in a few soldierly words. He said that Gen. McClellan had been completely defeated and that the change of his base of operations from the Chickahominy to the James was the result of necessity and not strategy. Gen. Magruder looks the brave leader we know him to be. We are informed that he is on his way to East Tennessee, his presence being needed there at the present juncture of affairs.—Columbia (S. C.) Guardian.

Gen. Huger Gone South.

We understand that Major-Gen. Huger has been relieved of his command, and appointed General of Ordnance. His successor, it is reported, is Gen. S. S. Anderson.—Enquirer 19th.

Georgia Spirit Rappings.

The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer mentions that a "medium," not a thousand miles from that city, has been in communication with the spirit of the gallant Confederate officer slain in battle, and has had a revelation from him that the decisive battle of this war will be fought in Maryland within the next six weeks, and that before that time, Great Britain (not France) will have intervened. It is also said that a medium in another county of Georgia has had a revelation substantially the same.

Losses in the Late Battles.

The Richmond journals give long lists of killed and wounded in the late battles before Richmond. As showing how some of their regiment were depleted, we present the following statistics, made up from these papers:

The 2d Florida regiment went into action with 250 men, of which were killed, wounded, and missing, 149.

The 12th Mississippi went into the action 397 strong, of which number were killed, wounded, and missing, 214.

The 18th Virginia went into action with 325 men, of which were killed, wounded, and missing, 205.

Release of the French Lady Demanded.

The bold and dashing Col. Thomas, of St. Nicholas notoriety, should not be overlooked when the regular exchange of prisoners takes place. The enemy refuse to acknowledge him as a prisoner of war, notwithstanding the fact that he had his commission upon his person at the time of his arrest. Let some measures be adopted by which our enemies may be forced to recognize the gallant colonel as a prisoner of war, and be regularly exchanged for a Federal officer of like rank.—Enquirer.

A British Lord Detained.

We are informed that Lord S. Maurson of the Duke of Somerset, who left this city on the 15th, under a flag of truce, for M'Clellan's headquarters, was not allowed to proceed on his homeward journey, but was sent back to this city, and his baggage detained by the Yankees.—Enquirer.

Gen. Lovell wants a Court of Inquiry.

Gen. Lovell and staff have arrived in this city. We learn that Gen. Lovell has demanded a court of inquiry to investigate the facts of the surrender of New Orleans. It will be recollected that the withdrawal of Gen. Lovell's army from New Orleans was the subject of some misapprehension until the facts, which afterwards transpired, showed that he had left at the instance of the civil authorities of New Orleans, still, however, refusing to surrender his command, or to treat with the enemy for a surrender. The court of inquiry has been demanded by Gen. Lovell for the purpose of completing and publishing his vindication to the country.—Bremner, 19th.

The Texas Conscription—Hanging.

The conscript law is being fully enforced in Texas, and the Government had summoned every man between thirty five and forty-five to organize for the defence of the State. An order has been extended for every family to leave Galveston, it having been so determined, as in the case of Vicksburg, to defend it to the last.—This order has been complied, except by some seven families. The parties being suspected their homes were searched, when the stars and stripes were discovered, intended to be hung out should the Federals take the city. All those guilty of this treason were taken out immediately and hung.—Charleston Courier.

THE "UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER" has been in use in my family two months. TO HORSE OWNERS.—DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivalled by any, in all cases of Lameness arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is, magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also speedily cure Spavin and Ringbone may easily be prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every horse owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases mentioned, to which all horses are liable and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.
