WEDNESDAY, Nov. 2, 1864.

Gold opened at 245 in New York, closing at 230. Pittsburgh rates, (varying with eastern quotations) about 230. Stock and Share list rallied somewhat under the high price of gold, but failed to maintain the advance. Governments without material change.

More bidding than usual for bank shares. The old banks have all declared handsome dividends, 6 ⅌c each, with the exception of the Exchange which leads off with 8 per cent. The Second National announces a dividend of 8 per cent. This, we understand, is for the nine months that have elapsed since its organization.

Nothing done in R R, Insurance or Bridge shares. Ex interest shares from the "up country" started anew in a speculative form for all stocks. As is reported, and the re-purchase from good judges, that a new well has been struck on the Egbert farm, Cowood in part by the Maple Shade Oil Company of Philadelphia. It is said to be flowing fifteen hundred barrels per day. Maple Shade stock rose in the Philadelphia market from $21 per share to $125 last week—some 1000% rise from 8¾ to 9¾. The new well is about the Revere farm, said to be but a short distance one door or more seller, nearer yellow on the Falsely property. Sales of Federal at 1.45, and of Elder also at 1¾.

The stockholders to the Oil City stock of the Par on Pittsburgh, locked their first meeting last evening, and elected the following board of officers: John D Mc Grew, President; John F Robinson, Secretary and Treasurer. Directors, J Wilson Parton, W W Young, Samuel McClean, jr., Charles Hays of Pittsburgh, and John Randall, B A Enribet, and E B Abbott of New York. Mr Parton was subsequently elected superintendent at the wells, and proceeds at once to test and develope the half dozen of oils nearly ready for operation on the different lands of this promising company.

The five hundred and sixty-one Table ballbasks now organized have an aggregate capital of $16,746,070. The amount of currency issued during the week was $1,876,150, which makes the volume of national bank bills now in circulation $59,701,105.

The Oil Creek Petroleum Company will pay Nov-ber 15th, a monthly dividend of 1 per cent and an extra dividend of 1 per cent.

The Colorado gold companies are now attracting more attention. The Indian frontier on the plains having subsided, the gold shipments from Colorado are coming forward regularly. The principal gold mining companies have received at their offices in this city during October a large amount of bullion.

The Cairo City and Fulton Company will pay Nov-ber 15th, a monthly dividend of 1 per cent and an extra dividend of 1 per cent.

The Colorado gold companies are now attracting more attention. The Indian frontier on the plains having subsided, the gold shipments from Colorado are coming forward regularly. The principal gold mining companies have received at their offices in this city during October a large amount of bullion.

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville R. R. Company will pay November 15th, a monthly dividend of 1 per cent and an extra dividend of 1 per cent.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

WEDNESDAY, November 2, 1864.

The general markets show more firmness in consequence of the marked advance in gold, but, as yet, there is no material improvement in business, and what is worse still the indications at present are not very promising for the future. There has been a marked change in value, but, on the whole, there is less restraint than was generally expected under the existing circumstances.

GRAIN—There is more inquiry for Wheat, but there is very little coming in as farmers are not satisfied with the prices now offered by dealers—$1,85 for Red and $2 for White. Rye is in demand with sales of 5 0 bush in lots from wagon, at 1,00 for spring, and 1,05 for fall. Oats—Sale of 2 cars, delivered on the Allegheny wharf with the organs, at 65c, and small sales from store at 85@90c. Corn—Sale of 600 bu No 2 at $1 42½.

FLOUR—The market is decidedly firmer, and notwithstanding there is no improvement in the demand, prices may be quoted at from 20 to 25c per bbl higher, than on Friday. Extra Family may be quoted at from 10.75 to $11 per bbl, with sales at 9 50 bbls, for a fine not, at the above range.

GROCERIES—The market is decidedly firmer and higher rates are demanded but as yet, the demand is very limited and unimportant. Coffee is quoted at 45c for prime Rio; white sugars, all grades have advanced from one to two cents per pound.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Quiet but firm with small sales from store at $4,00 per cwt.

BUTTER—No demand appears to have subsided somewhat but prime roll is still held firmly at 40 cents. Small kegs are packed for shipped east on consignment.

HAY—There is more inquiry for Baled Hay, and the supply is certainly very large. Sale of 3 cars at $27@28 per ton, 50 bales do, to arrive at $34, and 40 loads from store at $25@30.

CHESTNUTS—Scarce and higher, sales having been made during the week at $5,50 per bush.

COAL—For light supply and firm, with regular sales at 22—same holders asking 30.

CHEESE—Sales of 30 boxes Western Reserve at 21c; 40 boxes Hamburg at 23 cents. Goshen is still quoted at 24c.

SALT—Sale of 50 bbls at $2,12 per bbl, delivered, and sales on the spot at $2.

PIG LEAD—Sale of 100 pigs Galena at 15c.

POTATOES—Dull but nominally unchanged; sales of "Rockahannocks" and "Peach Blows" at 85@90 cts, and "Jersey" Sweets at $1a1 per bbl, as to quality.

APPLES—Good quality are in good demand and ar selling at from $5 to 5,25 per barrel—mostly at $5.

LARD—Sales of prime city at 22c.

Pittsburgh Petroleum Market.

Nov 2—The demand for Crude continues fair and the market is firm at prices ranging from 30 to 31c, carries returned, and 34c, barrels included, according to gravity. Sales of 100 barrels at 30; 100 and 500 at 31; 225 at 32 and 100 at 35, and 200 at 35¾. The receipts continue fair but the demand, as yet, is fully equal to the supply. Refined is in a very firm, and holders are again asking higher rates. We note sales of 500 barrels, deliverable in Philadelphia, at 66c. Free Oil, too, is firm and higher a sale of 100 barrels being reported at 78. Naptha is a shade firm, but there is not much inquiry in the absence of sales, quotations may be fairly given at 70c in bond, and 60c, free. Residuum is a shade higher, being quoted at from 6,50 to 57 per bbl, according to quality and packages.

The receipts of Crude by the Allegheny river since our last report are as follows:

Auction Sales of Dry Goods in New York.

NOV 1—The week opens very quiet in the dry goods market. Buyers are extremely cautious, only purchasing now as really to supply immediate wants. They are all looking forward to the result of the election to determine future prices, and the value of by issues until then will, undoubtedly, be small, and prices fluctuate. Notwithstanding the upward turn in gold prices there is little of the speculative in any description of goods, and in consequence of the great advance in gold, the Merchant Tailors, Clothiers and Shirt Manufacturers are all asking a cutting off of the usual discounts. Black—is in fair demand, but prices are at the top; silk cassimeres, 2d do 1,37 6d do, Cheviots, 1,25 6d do, 1,75 6d do, Satins, 2,00@2,25 6d do, Black French Satin, 6,00 6d do, Satins, 5,00@5,75.

Messrs Van Wyck, Townsend & Co had a sale of trimmings the importation of Messrs Oates, Pratt & Co. The attendance was not large; prices were a little off from previous sales.

Messrs Wingering, H. Gold & Co had a very attractive sale of ribbons, velvet and millinery goods. The prices were anything but satisfactory, to many instances from fifty per cent off from previous sales.

Messrs Kolbe & Cortlin, had a large and desirable sale of hosiery goods, &c. The prices were for most description fifty up to former sales, and altogether the sale was quite satisfactory.

Grain—Wheat, to-day supply larger than reported for many days past, amounting to 12a13,000 bush, decided good demand for prime or better, with sales of 2500 bu white at $2, 2200 do fair to good at 2 8a2 95; 600 bush red at 2 50a2,70, as to quality; lots of sales at 1 05 per bush. The market closing with holders firm, but as buyers were not willing to follow the advance demanded there was no activity.

Corn—Firm but not active, and to better; sales 1 car No 1 from store at 1,40.

Oats—Without improvement. Sales 3 cars on track at 76c.

Rye—More inquiry and better receipts. Sales 4 cars on track at 1,35; 3 cars from store at 1,40.

Barley—No sales reported.

Chicago Market—Mail Report.

NOV 1—The advance in gold to $11 created considerable excitement among speculators on Change this morning, and prices for nearly all kinds of Grain rapidly advanced on yesterday's figures, but as the "great regulator" showed signs of weakness, prices for Grain sympathized, and all the advanced figures were not maintained.

Wheat was in active request, but mainly on speculators' account. Prices rapidly advanced till late per bush on our extreme quotations of yesterday, with sales of No 2 Spring at $1,05@1,06, but as gold receded, the market became weaker, and at the close there were sellers but no buyers at 1,05. Winter Wheat was moderately active, and 10a15c higher, with sales of No 2 Red at 2,00 a2,03, and No 3 do at 1,85@1,88.

The Flour market was more active and firmer, but prices were not quickly higher. Good to choice brands of spring Extras sold at from $9@9,50.

There was a good inquiry for Corn for shipment principally for Canadian account, and the market advanced 1a2c per bush. Sales were principally of No 2 in store, at prices ranging from $1,35@1,36—closing steady at 1,35@1,36. Canal Corn, all out was inactive.

Oats were in active demand, but sellers were not as large as on yesterday. Prices advanced ¾@1c, and the advance was not fully maintained, and the market closed quiet at 65c for No 2 in store.

Rye opened firm, with a good demand at an advance of 2a3c for the advance was lost towards the close and sales of 2c1 on old not be effected at anything over $1,18.

The market for Barley was quiet, but a shade firmer for all sales of No 2 in store were made at $1,50@1,54.

Highwines were neglected and entirely nominal at $1 63.

There was a firmer feeling and more activity in the Provisions market. New Mess Pork, at 34,50@35 50; Lard Prime at $1,07; Sweet Pickled Hams at 18c; and Prime Mess Pork, delivered at Milwaukee at 28,25.
