MEDICAL.

A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Vegetable Extract. A PURE TONIC, Dr. Hoofland's GERMAN BITTERS PREPARED by DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Pa. Will effectually cure Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, Darrangement of the Liver and Stomach, Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases Arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great depression of Spirits. And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY. They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only scarcely aggravate diseases and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS! Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians, and Citizens,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU?
DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?
DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?
DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?
DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NERVOUSNESS?
DO YOU WANT ENERGY?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

The use of Bitters thus caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulant, of the worst kind, the craving for Liquor is created and kept up, and the results are the miseries attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitter, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and to it add Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS, AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact, that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, of the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, which alone fully ✓ use his own long usage" has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my military duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to reunite my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, sentleman, I am a royal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

President Lincoln Answered.

Reply of the Albany Democracy to the President's Letter of June 12th, in Regard to the Arrest and Banishment of Vallandigham.

The following is the conclusion of the reply of the Albany Committee to the letter of President Lincoln, in reply to the Albany meeting's condemnation of the banishment of Vallandigham:

"In our deliberate judgment the Constitution is not open to the new interpretation suggested by your communication now before us. We think every part of that instrument is harmonious and consistent. The possible suspension of the writ of habeas corpus is consistent with freedom of speech and of the press. The suspension of that remedial process may prevent the enlargement of the accused traitor or conspirator until he shall be legally tried and convicted or acquited; but in this we find no justification for arrest and imprisonment without warrant, without cause, without the accusation or suspicion of crime. It seems to us, moreover, too plain for argument that the sacred right of trial by jury, and in courts where the law of the land is the rule of decision, is a right which is never dormant, never suspended in peaceful and loyal communities and States. Will you, Mr. President, maintain, that because the writ of habeas corpus may be in suspense, you can substitute soldiers and bayonets for the peaceful operation of the laws, military commissions and inquisitorial modes of trial for the courts and juries prescribed by the Constitution itself?—And if you cannot maintain this, then let us ask where is the justification for the monstrous proceeding in the case of a citizen of the State of Ohio to which we have called attention! We know that a recreant judge, whose name already descended to merited contempt, found the apology on the outside of the supreme and fundamental law of the Union. But this is not the foundation on which your superstructure of power is built.—We have mentioned the act of the last Congress professing to authorize a suspension of the writ of habeas corpus. This act now demands your special attention, because, if we are not greatly in error, its terms and plain intention are directly opposed to all the arguments and conclusions of your communication. That act, besides providing that the habeas corpus may be suspended, expressly commands that the names of all persons, theretofore or thereafter arrested by authority of the President, or his cabinet being citizens of States in which the administration of the laws has continued unimpaired, shall be returned to the courts of the United States for the districts in which such persons reside, or which their supposed offences were committed; and such return being made, if the next grand jury attending the courts does not indict the alleged offenders, then the judges are commanded to issue an order for their immediate discharge from imprisonment. Now, we cannot help asking whether you have overlooked this law, which most assuredly you are bound to observe, or whether it be your intention to disregard it? Its meaning certainly cannot be mistaken.—By it the national legislature has said that the President may suspend the accustomed writ of habeas corpus, but at the same time it has commanded that all arrests under his authority shall be promptly made known to the courts of justice, and that the accused parties shall be liberated, unless presented by a grand jury according to the Constitution and tried by a jury in the ancient and accustomed mode. The President may possibly, so far as Congress can give the right, arrest without legal cause or warrant. We certainly deny that Congress can confer this right, because it is forbidden by the higher law of the Constitution. But, waiving that consideration, this statute, by its very terms, promptly removes the proceeding in every case into the courts, where the safeguards of liberty are observed, and where the persons detained are to be discharged, unless indicted for criminal offences against the established and ascertained laws of the country.

This power which you have exercised is of vast and illimitable proportions. If we may trust you to exercise it mercifully and leniently, your successor, whether immediate or more remote, may wield it with the energy of a Cæsar or Napoleon, and with the will of a despot and tyrant. It is a power without boundary or limit, because it proceeds upon a total suspension of all the constitutional and legal safeguards which protect the rights of the citizen. It is a power without boundary or limit, because it proceeds upon a total suspension of all the constitutional and legal safeguards which protect the rights of the citizen. It is a power not inaptly described in the language of one of your Secretaries. Said Mr. Seward to the British minister in Washington: "I can touch a bell on my right hand and order the arrest of a citizen of Ohio; I can touch the bell again and order the imprisonment of a citizen of New York, and no power on earth except that of the President can release him. Can the Queen of England, in her dominions, do as much?" This is the very language of a perfect despotism, and we learn from you with profound emotion that this is no idle boast.—It is a despotism unlimited in principle, because the same arbitrary and despotic will or discretion which can place men under illegal restraint or banish them can apply the rack or the thumb screw, can put to torture or death. Quick as the lightnings flash, the intuitive sense of freemen perceive the sophistry and reject the conclusion.

Some other matters which your excellency has presented demand our notice.

In justification of your course as to Mr. Vallandigham, you have referred to the arrest of Judge Hall at New Orleans, by order of General Jackson; but that case differs widely from the case of Mr. Vallandigham. New Orleans was then, as you truly state, under "martial or military law." This was not so in Ohio, where Mr. Vallandigham was arrested. The administration of the civil law had not been disturbed in that commonwealth. The courts were open, and justice was dispensed with its accustomed promptitude. In the case of Judge Hall, General Jackson in a few days sent him outside the line of his encampments and set him at liberty; but you have undertaken to banish Mr. Vallandigham from his home. You seem also to have forgotten that General Jackson submitted implicitly to the judgment of the court which imposed the fine upon him; that he promptly paid it; that he enjoined his friends to assent, "as he most freely did, to the decision which had just been pronounced against him."

More than this, you overlook the fact that the then administration (in the language of a well-known author) "mildly but decidedly rebuked the proceedings of Gen. Jackson," and that the President viewed the subject with "surprise and solicitude." Unlike President Madison, you in a dade church more unwarranted, approved the proceedings of your subordinate officer, and in addition justify your course by a carefully considered argument in its support.

It is true that after some thirty years, Congress, in consideration of the devoted and patriotic services of Gen. Jackson, refunded the amount of the fine he had paid! But the long delay in doing this proved how reluctant the American people were to do anything which could be considered as in any way approving the disregard shown to the majesty of the law, even by one who so eminently enjoyed their confidence and regard.

One subject more, and we shall conclude. You express your regret that our meeting spoke "as Democrats;" and you say that "in this time of national peril you would have preferred to meet us upon a level, one step higher than any party platform." You thus compel us to allude to matters which we should have preferred to pass by. But we cannot omit to notice your criticism, as it casts, at least, an implied reproach upon our motives and our proceedings. We beg to remind you that when the hour of our country's peril had come, when it was evident that a most gigantic effort was to be made to subvert our institutions and to overthrow the government when it was vitally important that party feelings should be laid aside, and that all should be called upon to unite cordially and vigorously to maintain the Union; at the time you were sworn into office as President of the United States, when you should have urged your fellow-citizens in the most emphatic manner to overlook all past differences and to rally in defense of their country, and its institutions, when you should have enjoined respect for the Laws and the Constitution, so clearly disregarded by the South, you chose, for the first time under like circumstances in the history of our country, to set up a party platform, composed of "the Chicago platform," as your creed; to denounce it beyond the Constitution, and to speak disparagingly of that great conservative tribunal of our country, so highly respected by all thinking men who have inquired into our institutions—The Supreme Court of the United States.

Your administration has been true to the principles you then laid down. Notwithstanding the fact that several hundred thousand Democrats in the loyal states cheerfully responded to the call of their country, filled the ranks of its armies, and by their strong hands and willing arms aided to maintain your excellency and the officers of government in the possession of our national capital, notwithstanding the fact that the great body of the Democrats of the country have in the most patriotic spirit given their best efforts, their treasure, their brothers and their sons, to sustain the government and to put down the rebellion, you, choosing to overlook all this, have made your appointments to civil office, from your cabinet officers and foreign ministers down to the persons of lowest office grade among the tens of thousands engaged in collecting the revenues of the country, exclusively from your political associates.

Under such circumstances, virtually prescribed by your administration, and while most of the leading journals which supported it approved the sentence pronounced against Mr. Vallandigham, it was our true course—our honest course to meet as "Democrats," that neither your excellency nor the country might mistake our antecedents or our position.

In closing this communication we desire to reaffirm our determination, and we doubt not that of every one who attended the meeting which adopted the resolutions we have discussed, expressed in one of those resolutions, to devote "all our energies to sustain the cause of the Union."

Permit us, then, in this spirit, to ask your excellency to re-examine the grave subjects we have considered, to think and that on your retirement from the high position you occupy you may leave behind you no doctrines and no further precedents of despotic power to prevent you and your posterity from enjoying that constitutional liberty which is the inheritance of us all, and to the end, also, that history may speak of your administration with indulgence, if it cannot with approval.

We are sir, with great respect, yours very truly.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

TUESDAY, July 7th, 1863.

We have nothing new to note. The market continues firm, caused principally by the small amount in the market at this time. In the East our latest advices note a decline. There were no shipments to that point during the past two weeks. In our market the holders are firm in their views and decline selling unless they obtain outside rates.

A dispatch received at the Oil Exchange reads as follows:

OIL CITY, July 6th.

Prices have further advanced, with sales up the creek at $4@4 50; at the mouth, $5; market closing buoyant and firm.

Imports per Alleghany river—1,298 bbls Crude.

Crude—Holders demand 17c without pkgs and 22c with. Nothing doing.

Refined is held at London, 43c; free, 53c.

WOOL.

The Detroit Free Press says:

We learn of about 30,000 lbs of Canadian wool having been purchased by a firm of this city, which has been laid down in the store here at an average cost of 55@57c, which includes duties, exchange and all other charges. Ten thousand pounds of this was purchased on Saturday at 56c.

CHICAGO, June 27—The receipts are small and there appears to be a general disposition to hold for higher prices. Buyers are offering 50@53c for common to fair blood washed, but sellers ask 55@60c. Sales to-day of 3,000 lbs fair-washed at 59½c; 1,000 lbs fine at 56c.

COLDWATER, June 23—Our correspondent writes: Receipts of wool date this season at 33,000 lbs. On Saturday the 27th about 4,000 lbs were sold at 55@56c, but mostly at 61@64c in 8. The amount offered for sale last week was about 12½ per cent of the sales made in this place during the corresponding week of last year.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

The receipts of beeves at the scales to-day footed up 600 head. Of the offerings 50 head were held over, 150 taken by Washington butchers 100 sold to Government agents and the balance (300 head) to Baltimore butchers at prices ranging from $3 50 to $6 75 per 100 lbs for thin to prime cattle, an improvement in the better grades.

Hogs—There were no hogs at market to-day; prices nominal.

CRESSON SPRINGS.
THIS DELIGHTFUL SUMMER RESORT, immediately on the line of the Central P. R. R., located on the Summit of the Allegheny Mountains, 2,300 feet above the level of the sea, will be open for the reception of visitors on the 16th of June, 1863, and will be kept open until the first of October.
The water and air at this point possess superior attractions. The analyses made in the laboratory of Professors Booth, Garrett, and Cammac, of Philadelphia, show the existence of valuable mineral elements, the waters of some of the springs being of the iron or chalybeate class, and others containing alkaline and aperient salts. Pure mountain water abounds; and the guests will also be supplied with mineral waters from other springs, such as Blue Lick, Bedford and Saratoga Waters.
Ample facilities for bathing have been provided, as ✓ plunge and douch baths erected, and Hot and Cold Baths can at all times be obtained.
The grounds, walks, &c., have been highly improved, and are of a varied and picturesque character.
There is at Cresson Springs, a Telegraph Office and two daily mails from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and intermediate points.
Excursion Tickets can be obtained at the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.
