The Pittsburgh Gazette.

SATURDAY MORNING NOV. 19, 1864.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Late Homicide at New Creek.

The Wheeling Intelligencer of yesterday gives the following additional particulars of the recent homicide in Captain Holmes' battery at New Creek:

On Sunday last, after roll-call, a dispute arose between a man named Greene, who is a resident of Ohio and a member of the battery, and John Hazlett of this city, about who should wash the dishes of the mess to which they belonged. Some hard words passed and they came to blows. Greene got Hazlett down and was pounding him in a very vigorous manner when Filan, a member of the same mess, interfered and separated the combatants. After doing so Filan walked away and was followed by Greene with apparently hostile intentions. As he approached Filan knocked him down, and as Greene fell he pulled Filan down also. While lying upon the ground Greene drew a knife and made several cuts at Filan's breast. Finding that he could not force an entrance, owing to the heavy clothing about the breast, Greene run his knife into Filan's abdomen, severing his entrails and producing a horrible wound. Filan died the same evening."

Discharged and Re-Arrested.

Palmer Coates, who was arrested on Thursday by officer Montgomery, of Allegheny, on a charge of stealing a horse from Mr. David Quall, of Reas township, had a hearing before Mayor Alexander yesterday, which resulted in his discharge from custody, Mr. Quall refusing to prosecute. He was, however, immediately re-arrested on a charge of desertion from the U. S. service. Coates joined Colonel Clark's regiment of nine months men, but shortly after the regiment was organized, deserted from it, and afterwards joined another regiment. He states that he has been frequently arrested, but has always succeeded in proving that he was not a deserter. He was delivered to the Provost Marshal, and placed in the guard room at the Girard House. He will probably be tried by the Military Commission, at present in session in this city.

Professor and Madame Millar's Entertainment.

On Monday and Tuesday evenings next, entertainments combining "Music, Mirth and Magic," will be given at Masonic Hall by Professor and Madame Millar. Madame Millar, (late Miss Cochran,) is a native of this city, and will make her first appearance on Monday night, after an absence of four years in Europe. The following complimentary notice of this lady is from the Liverpool Daily Post: "Madame Millar is an American lady, and this may be considered her first appearance in England. She is possessed of a full rich organ, especially mellow in the lower notes, and the effect of her singing is added to by the clearness of her articulation. She will be a most valuable acquisition to the English concert room, especially in ballad music, for which her style and expression are admirably suited."

Library Lectures.

The Lecture Committee of the Young Men's Library Association announce that they have succeeded in affecting engagements with Miss Anna E. Dickenson and John B. Gough to deliver lectures in this city during the coming season. They are also in correspondence with a number of other celebrated persons, and it is expected that at least ten lectures will be given. The price of season tickets has been fixed at three dollars; single tickets, fifty cents. The Library Lectures have become very popular, as the Committee engage the best lecturers in the country. Season tickets can be obtained from the members of the Committee and at the Library Rooms.

Pocket Picking on Fifth Street.

Yesterday afternoon, a lady, while passing along Fifth street, had her pocket picked of a portmonnaie, containing about five dollars. She shortly afterwards missed her money, and accused a boy who was standing near her, of committing the robbery. The lad denied the charge, and attempted to run up the street, closely followed by the lady. After a short but exciting chase, the fugitive was caught and taken to the Mayor's office, but upon being searched, the money could not be found, when he was discharged. The race between the boy and the loser of the money created quite an excitement on the streets.

Railroad Accident.

Frank Coll, an engineer on the Pennsylvania R. R., was seriously injured on the 7th inst., by jumping from his engine, in the neighborhood of New Florence. It appears that he was following a train, and, on rounding a short curve in the road, the engineer of the forward train gave him the signal to stop. He saw that the train was but a short distance ahead, and fearing that he would run into it, he reversed his engine and jumped off, but unfortunately rolled back on the track, where he was run over by a car, and one of his legs cut off. He was taken to his home in Altoona, where he received medical attention and is now doing well.

Returned Volunteer.—On Tuesday night two boys, named Fisher, aged respectively ten and twelve years, visited the Allegheny Mayor's office and requested permission to stay over night. They stated that they came from Indiana on a freight train, and were in search of employment. They were permitted to remain, and were provided with supper by Captain M'Vicker. In the morning they started to procure employment, but being unsuccessful, returned to their old quarters, where they yet remain. They represent themselves to be orphans, and are lively and intelligent. We would recommend their case to the attention of our charitable citizens.

Sentenced for Illegal Voting.—On Thursday in the Court of Common Pleas in Cleveland, Judge Coffinberry sentenced George Foster to three months' imprisonment in the county jail, for illegal voting at the Presidential election. Foster was a minor and voted for McClellan. The fact of his having voted illegally was discovered; he was indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced in short order, the Judge that sentenced him being also a supporter of McClellan.

Odd Fellows.—The Grand Lodge I. O. of O. F. of Pa., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: R. W. G. M.—John M. Crosland, No. 50; R. W. D. G. H.—Sec. Fitzig, No. 19; R. W. G. W.—Richard Watson, No. 193; Samuel N. Foster, No. 199; Samuel Y. Guimner No. 558; R. W. G. S.—William Curtis, No. 23; R. W. G. T.—M. R. Muckle, No. 47; G. K. to G. L. of U. S.—J. Alexander Simpson, George Bertram.

New York Weekly.—Mr. John F. Hunt Masonic Hall, has received Harper's Illustrated Weekly for November 26; Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, same date, the Independent, Weekly Herald, Weekly Tribune, Police Gazette and New York Weekly for the current week; the Phrenological Journal for December, the Phrenological Almanac for 1865, and Madame Demorest's Mirror of Fashions for December.

The Octoroon.—This celebrated drama, illustrative of Life in the South, will be revived at the Theatre on Monday night, and will be performed every evening during the week. New scenery, new costumes, etc., are being prepared, and neither expense nor pains will be spared in placing it upon the stage. It will undoubtedly have a good run.

The clandestine journal of the Roman National Committee intimates in its last number, that the moment of the evacuation of Rome, will probably be the occasion for a plebiscite to pronounce between the Pontifical government and Victor Emanuel, constitutional King of Italy; and it exhorts all citizens to be prepared, if necessary, to support their votes by their arms.

Furloughed Soldiers.—A large number of soldiers, who have been at home on furloughs, pass through the city daily on their way back to their regiments. The wounded soldiers, who receive furloughs from Eastern hospitals to visit their homes for the purpose of voting, have been ordered back.

"TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN."—Be it distinctly understood that at Pittock's you can find the finest and in best assortment of Albums in the city. John's prices are still as low as ever, and those wanting a suitable album can do no better than to call on Pittock.

Drains of Pennsylvania Soldiers.—On Thursday, Wm. C. Harvey of the 116th Pa. regiment, Martin Cummings and Alfred Hall, of the 13th Cavalry and Philip L. Wohlfart, of the 110th regiment, died in the Military Hospitals in Washington.

Overture.—The Synod of Ohio, at its late meeting, unanimously adopted an overture to the next General Assembly, asking for the removal of the Board of Education to this city and the Board of Domestic Missions to Cincinnati or Indianapolis.

The Confirmation Convention of the Allegheny Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church was in session in the German Lutheran church of Johnstown, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Dr. Spencer having recovered from his recent severe spell of sickness, will be able personally to attend to his professional duties on Monday

Great Sale of Dry Goods, Shawls, Balmoral Skirts, Grey and White Blankets, Roots and Shoes, during the entire day, at private sale, at McClelland's Auction House, 55 Fifth street.

Gave Way.—Last evening, a large meeting of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was held at the Hall in the third story of their building, on Fifth street. During the evening the floor of the hall gave way about six inches, and caused those in attendance to make a precipitate retreat to the street. Fortunately no one was injured.

The 102d Regiment.—This regiment, which suffered severely during the late battles, is now commanded by Captain James Patchell, of Co. D, who is acting as Lieut. Colonel. Capt. J. D. Kirk, of Co. L, will be commissioned as Major. Louis Brown, formerly Hospital Steward, has been appointed Adjutant.

NOTICE TO LESSEES ON BUCHANAN FARM, OIL CREEK.

PITTSBURGH, Nov 14th, 1864.

At a meeting of the proprietors of the Buchanan Farm, held on the 11th day of November, 1864, it was determined that all leases on said farm should become null and void, if the terms and conditions of said leases are not fully complied with by the 25th day of November, 1864. Therefore this notice, (which is not required by law, but is given as an act of courtesy,) is given to all persons holding leases on said farm that unless the terms and conditions of said leases are fully complied with, the same will be forfeited and the premises will at once be repossessed, the same as if no contract had been made. On the first day of December, 1864, the proprietors of said farm will be at the office of Mitchell, Brown & Co., and then will be prepared to make from forty to fifty new leases on said farm. Parties wishing to obtain leases will find, in the meantime, a plot of the farm at M. B. & Co.'s office, including the lots which will be to let.

THE RUMORED PEACE PROPOSITION

Gen. Fremont's Commission to be Restored to Him

FROM GEN SHERIDAN.

The Enemy in Force Between Fisher's Hill and Strasburg.

&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Herald's Washington special says: Rumors are in circulation of a peace movement. There is a determined effort about to be made by the Administration to bring about some understanding with the Confederacy.

Judge Pierpont's speech at the Cooper Institute, at a Democratic war meeting, foreshadowed what the Administration will soon try to accomplish.

The speech of Gen. Butler, at the 5th Avenue Hotel, and the outgoings of the Administration since that time, are all to the same purpose.

There is a rumor which obtains some currency that commissioners will be appointed composed partly of Republicans and partly of Democrats, to meet similar commissioners appointed by Jeff. Davis, in which such men as Alexander Stephens would be most prominent.

It is surmised in intelligent circles that General Fremont's commission as Major General will be restored to him, and he will be ordered to a command in the army of the James in place of General Butler, when the latter shall be made Secretary of War.

It is possible that Fremont may be sent to Paris.

The Herald's special with Sheridan says the enemy is still in considerable force, between Fisher's Hill and Strasburg, his cavalry hovering along our front to flank us. Our new position has been greatly strengthened by the erection of earth works and rifle pits. Should Early attempt an offensive movement in force, he will find himself in a trap.

In the cavalry brush of Saturday, the rebel General Lomax lost several staff officers killed and wounded. The body of his Adjutant General, Lieutenant Colonel Harvey, fell into our hands. Prisoners say that General Wickham was commanding a brigade in Lomax's division, and was severely wounded.

General Dinsen has issued an address to his brigade, in which he says: You have captured during this short campaign, 24 guns, 9 battle flags in action and over 1,000 prisoners.

THE SOUTHERN BLOCKADE TO BE INCREASED.

The Recent Bank Forgeries.

NO NEWS FROM OUR ARMIES.

GRANT'S CAMPAIGN.

Gen. Butler Still in Washington.

FESSENDEN AND THE SECRETARYSHIP.

&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—It is said that the blockading fleets on our southern coast will soon be largely increased and rendered so strong that it will be almost impossible for vessels to run through them.

The developments in the forgery case, mentioned yesterday, show that the plans were very full and complete for defrauding the banks throughout the whole country. It is supposed large sums of money not yet reported have been obtained by these forgeries.

No military intelligence of importance from any quarter has been received to-day.

A Times Washington special says: Gen. Grant has not written his official report of the campaign from the Rapidan to the James, and has determined not to do so until the capture of Petersburg and Richmond.

Major General Banks remains still in Washington.

It may be considered certain that Mr. Fessenden will resign his secretaryship to return to the Senate.

The Tribune's special says: Admiral Farragut is talked of as Secretary of the Navy.

General Egan, who was wounded a few days ago while on picket duty in front of Petersburg, arrived to-day on his way home.

The trial of Hamilton Easter, one of the Baltimore blockade traders, was up to-day, two witnesses were examined and the case continued till to-morrow.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL MATTERS,

Excitement in the Gold Market.

TAR BEARS IN THE ASCENDANCY.

NEW YORK, Nov 18.—The stock market opened weak at the Board; stocks lost more their partial recovery of yesterday afternoon. Sellers predominate, and a considerable amount of short sales were made; large amounts of Erie, under which the price declined. The transactions in Ohio and Mississippi certificates were unusually light; the price dec ined 13¾. Governments are active and firm. Miscellaneous stocks weak and lower. The excitement in the gold market is intense, and a large amount of business has been transacted; there was a further advance of 10 per cent, on the closing price of last evening; towards the close there was a rapid rise, owing to the heavy shipments for to-morrow. To day commenced the prepayment of the January interest on coupons; the aggregate payments due January 1st, are $9,358,881 in gold. Of this sum, a considerable proportion is for registered bonds, the interest on which will not be prepaid.

The loan market easy, without activity. Exchange active. The shipments of exchange and gold, by to-morrow's steamer, will be large; a million and a half of gold will be sent.

Gold Gallagher's exchange, to-night, stocks were dull; Gold 216¼; New York Central, 119; Erie, 93¾; Hudson, 119; Reading, 134¼; Illinois Central, 124¾; Pittsburg, 102; Rock Island, 102; Northwestern, 81½; Fort Wayne, 101; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 15¾; Cumberland, 45¾; Quicksilver, 83¾; Mariposa, 32¾ Gold, after the call, 215¾; market weak.

DISPATCHES FROM PENSACOLA.

Gen. Bailey Preparing for Active Operations.

ATCHALAFALA EVACUATED.

The Rumored Changes in the Cabinet

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Pensacola Dispatch says: General Bailey is preparing for active operations. He designs making a careful reconnoissance to feel and damage the enemy.

The New Orleans Dispatch says Colonel Davis, in command of the forces at the Atchafalya, has evacuated the portion recently held, there being no further need of occupation, and the weather being uncomfortable.

An extensive cotton trade is being carried on from places on the Texas coast.

The Herald's Washington special says: The impending changes in the cabinet are the principal topics of conversation among politicians. The chances likely to compose a new cabinet are extensively discussed.

General Butler is regarded unquestionably fit for the war office, and Robert G. Walker for the treasury. It is reported that Mr. Bates is to return immediately, but his successor is not yet mentioned. Other changes will undoubtedly take place after the setting of Congress, if not before.

STUPENDOUS FRAUDS IN NEW YORK

Three Large Breweries Seized.

THE PROPRIETORS ARRESTED.

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Advertiser contains the following special from Washington, Nov 17:

"The revenue officers in the Ninth Congressional District of the city of New York, have just discovered a fraud of the most stupendous kind, involving three of the large breweries of the country. The proprietors have been arrested and the breweries, with all their appurtenances, malting, fixtures and tights, as well as stock in hand, have been seized. The aggregate value of the property is not less than a million of dollars, all of which will be confiscated if a case is made out against the offenders, and half the proceeds of the property will go to the persons discovering the fraud. The parties have been distilling for a long time without a license, without making returns and without paying a tax.

OUR PRISONERS AT PULASKI.

Supplies Forwarded to Them.

NEWS FROM REBEL SOURCES.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE REBEL CONGRESS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Port Royal New South says: The recent flag of truce steamer proceeded up the Savannah river to a given point and delivered to the rebels 350 boxes for Union prisoners, sent by Adams' Express. In addition, the Sanitary Commission sent clothing and blankets to the value of $2,600, which will be safely delivered to our men and receipted for in detail, when the receipts will be passed over to Lieut. Colonel Bennett. About 150 packages were then transferred to our account, for the rebel prisoners at Pulaski. Two surgeons accompanied the flag and met rebel surgeons, who assured them that no danger need be anticipated from yellow fever.

The rebels in London recently asked the British Postmaster General to forward letters addressed to persons in the rebel States to Halifax and Nassau, and deliver them to the rebel agents. The British official refused to do so request ed.

The Richmond Examiner of the 15th contains the following dispatches:

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 14.—A fight occurred at Rough and Ready between the State troops and the Yankees, in which the latter were driven back.

The latest news from Atlanta is that the city was evacuated on Saturday, 12th.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 14.—The Montgomery Mail has news up to the 10th inst. Hood was at Tuscumbia with two divisions. Two of his divisions had crossed the Tennessee river, and the impression was that the rest would soon follow.

The Richmond Examiner has an article on the capture of the Florida, which says: Brazil will of course, remonstrate unless she can interest the the great maritime nations. Her remonstrances will be wholly in vain, as there has lately been no choice between the Emperor and English Government. Diplomatic relations were suspended for that and other reasons. The protest from England, if any, will probably be cold and easily answered by Mr. Seward. France and Russia are on very friendly terms, but these relations which may cause France also to be very cautious in stirring matters too roughly. We need not expect any serious trouble to grow out it. The good ship Florida is lost. Our commissioners will have learned that they had better avoid all ports except those of England and France and their colonies.

The same paper in an article on Sherman's movement says: He will find trouble if he attempts a movement into Georgia, but we think he is not going in that direction.

In the rebel Senate, on Monday, Oct. of S. Carolina, a resolution which was agreed to, that the President be directed to communicate to the Senate the official report of General Jos. E. Johnston touching operations at Dalton, to the date of his recent removal from command. Barwell of South Carolina, introduced a bill, providing for the repeal of an act, wh ch authorizes the payment of debts due to alien enemies, in bonds of Confederate States to be repealed. Barnwell said that persons indebted to alien enemies, whose estates had been confiscated, took advantage of the act to pay the Confederate receiver in four per cent bonds. He also introduced a bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to exchange Confederate bonds for seven-thirty treasury notes.

In the House the Speaker made the following assignments to standing committees of the House: Kenner, of La., to Committee of Ways and Means; Clark, of Mo., to Committee on Military Affairs and Committee on Elections; Bat, of Va., to Committee on Judiciary; Sneed, of Mo., to Committee on Foreign Affairs; Conrow, of Mo., to Committee on Quartermasters and Commissaries; Chrisky, of Tenn., to Committee on Naval Affairs; Hatcher, of Mo., to Committee on Ordnance and Ordnance Stores; Wilkes, of Mo., to Committee on Indian Affairs and to Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads; Boland, of Ark., to Committee on Ways and Means.

Garland, of Arkansas, offered a bill providing for payment for all property illegally impressed in the Trans-Mississippi Department.

A resolution was offered to inquire into the expediency of raising the salaries of commissioned officers, another to abolish the distribution of post offices, another to examine into what relief should be given to bonded agriculturists now in the military service, another to inquire into the condition of the military prisons in Richmond, another to recommend a stricter observance of the Sabbath in the army and navy, and another to ask that officers be furnished with arms, clothing, &c., at the government expense.

In connection with this resolution, a letter was read, which concluded as follows: "According to present rates, a Brigadier General's monthly pay will only carry him from Richmond to Augusta. A Colonel could not go further than Charlotte; Lieut. Colonel, to Raleigh; a Major would not get further than Danville, and a Captain or Lieutenant, after paying for a bed in Richmond, would have about enough left to buy a ticket to the first water station." The letter, with the resolutions, were referred to the military committee. The thanks were given to General Forrest for gallantry displayed in the West.

Mr. Foster, of Tenn., offered a resolution that officers' families be supplied at the expense of the Confederate Government. He also offered a resolution calling upon the Committee of Ways and Means to furnish their report on the financial bill as early as possible.

At one o'clock the House went into secret session on the bill to repeal the habeas corpus, and adjourned after a long discussion.

The Danville (Va.) Register says: An opportunity was afforded the Yankees in the military prisons on Tuesday, of seeing some of their preference between northern candidates. For President, the vote of officers was: Lincoln, 376; for McClellan, 91. Among the non-commissioned and privates the majority for McClellan was 178.

Secretary Chase and the Chief Justiceship.

EXTRACTS FROM REBEL PAPERS.

Speculations as to General Sherman's Movements.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Commercial's Washington special says: The friends of Mr. Chase are working earnestly to induce the President to make him Chief Justice. They also urge the retention of Mr. Stanton in the War Department.

Richmond papers of Wednesday are filled with speculations as to Sherman's movements, expressing the conviction that he is threatening Mobile.

Proposals for a new loan will proceed Secretary Fessenden's report.

The Post's Washington special says: The Richmond Whig of Wednesday states that Sherman has sent a large part of his army towards Selma, Alabama, indicating a movement on Mobile. The Whig also demands of the rebel authorities to call out a special force of 75,000 men to annihilate Sherman and Sheridan. It thinks this can be done, and assails the rebel Congress for incompetency.

FROM THE POTOMAC ARMY.

INACTIVITY STILL PREVAILING.

Gen. Burnside Commanding his Old Corps.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—A letter from the army of the Potomac says: Inactivity still prevails in this army, with the exception of the ordinary amount of exchanges between the pickets and batteries.

The enemy a day or two ago commenced the evacuation of a new work a short distance south of Crater. Its progress is very slow owing to the accuracy with which our gunners throw their mortar shells in their midst whenever they show themselves at work.

Casualties continue to occur daily along the picket line, and stray shots frequently reach those far in the rear of the breastworks, sometimes fatally wounding.

General Burnside reached City Point on Wednesday afternoon, on a visit to his old corps. He called on Gen. Grant, and afterwards proceeded to the front by special car.

All was reported quiet yesterday morning.

Windsor, the Defaulting Teller.

NOTHING OFFICIAL FROM GEN. SHERMAN.

MACON THE FIRST OBJECTIVE POINT.

GOLD QUOTATIONS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—It is reported that Chas. Windsor, the absconding teller of the Mercantile Bank, took his departure on the Teutonia, which sailed Oct. 26, for Hamburg.

The Commercial Advertiser's Washington special says: No official intelligence is received from Sherman, and none is expected for some time.

Richmond papers are anxiously scanned for information of his movements. They know just how far Sherman has advanced. It is, that the Union army is at or very near Macon, which is evidently Sherman's first objective point. It is 164 miles from Atlanta, and its capture would be a great triumph.

Gold to-night is 215¾, the market weak.

Ice Detaching his Troops for Service Elsewhere.

GREAT ANXIETY IN RICHMOND AS TO SHERMAN'S MOVEMENTS.

Longstreet and Early Moving South

THEIR DESIGN TO INTERCEPT SHERMAN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The Tribune's Army of the James special says: Information from Richmond renders pretty certain that Lee is detaching part of his troops for service elsewhere.

Rebel papers betray evident trepidation at a reported movement of Sherman's army, and speaks anxiety concerning Augusta and Macon, where, as well as at Columbus, they have their most extensive powder mills, shops and arsenals, and for the safety of which, they evidently entertain the gravest apprehensions.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—It is rumored here to-day that Longstreet and Early, with 35,000 men, moved south from Fisher's Hill, on Tuesday night, evidently to intercept Sherman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Gold is still weak and declining, and nearly all of the operators are bears. Their object is to put down the price to 200 preparatory to a grand advance. The price opened at 218 and declined to 210, and subsequently went up to 211½.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The river was still swelling steadily at the point last evening, with about twelve feet in the channel by the pier marks. The weather continues unsettled with every appearance of more rain.

Trade was a little more of business transacted at the wharf yesterday, although there is still room for improvement. There are a number of heavy loads here for all the freight that is offering, and we hope to see by all appearance great difficulty in getting a full trip.

The arrivals include the Minerva from White Ingalls from Zanesville, and the Starlo from Cincinnati—all with good trips. The Cincinnati and Pittsburgh from Cincinnati, are both due, and will probably be found at the wharf this morning.

The Minerva leaves for Wheeling at time, and the Kate S. Foster, for Cincinnati, with a few trip, and are making preparations to leave last evening.

Business candidates quite active at the Allegheny wharf, and the slight rise gives prospects of a flourishing trade. The Parties interested in from Oil City tonnery, and the Uniola left for the same point last evening. The Parties who passed up over the Freeport aqueduct, on her trip down, came in contact with it, and as the aqueduct was found stronger than her pilot house, the result was that the top of the latter was taken completely off. Fortunately neither the pilot nor the wheelsman was injured.

Captain Ambrose Rector, an old and very popular steamboatman, died at St. Louis on Tuesday night last.

The steamer Mist left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Wednesday last.

A few days ago the steamer M'Combs, from Paducah for Louisville, was fired into at Hawesville. She had to discharge her freight for the purpose of obtaining a supply of coal and while unloading there was large crowd of rebel guerrillas made their appearance on the bank and fired at and cut down the crew with muskets. Some fifty shots were fired at the boat, three of which passed through the pilot house, but fortunately no one was hurt. The officers of the boat being satisfied that it would be foolhardy to attempt to capture the boat, she was cleared out, and crossed over to Cannelton, where they unlashed coaling.

The neat and popular steamer Bertha, in command of Capt. Clark Verhook, is fitting up rapidly and will positively leave for St. Louis this evening. The Mate of the Bertha, Capt. Maxwell, will commence loading for the same point next week.

The new and pretty steamer Alick Speer, Captain Wilchmad, is announced for Cincinnati, Louisville and Nashville, for the 18th.

The iron steamer Tamaulipas, Capt. Brown, will positively leave for New Orleans this evening, or early tomorrow morning. Capt. Charles Wilkins goes out as clerk of this boat.

The Jura, Capt. Conlon, is the regular packet for Zanesville to day, leaving promptly at 4 p. m.

The staunch and reliable Lion, Capt. Neer, is filling up steadily, and will be ready to leave for Cincinnati and Louisville on Wednesday next.

The steamers Navigators, Wm. Butler, J. B. Gibson, and Columbia, will be advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday.

The Louisville Press of Wednesday says:

As we stated yesterday, nearly all the coal fleet had descended to the falls for a more favorable market, which has greatly reduced the stock on hand for this market. The shipments included most of the coal that had been la
