CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Sad Accident in the Penitentiary.—Watchman Killed.

This morning Coroner Clawson was called upon to hold an inquest upon the body of William Barrows, an old resident of Allegheny, who had been employed as night watchman in the Western Penitentiary, and who had accidentally shot himself during the night. A jury being empanneled, the following facts were elicited:

James O'Neill, watchman, testified that he heard the discharge of a pistol and found the deceased lying on the floor of the cook-house, bleeding at the head, and his clothes on fire. He extinguished the fire, and called the Superintendent. On examining the pistol, he found that one of the barrels had been discharged, and the ball had entered the face of the deceased, near the lower end of the nose.

Mr. McKean, one of the overseers, testified that he was waked by the watchman, about one o'clock, and found the deceased lying in the room, in the condition mentioned by the preceding witness. There was no other person in the room at the time the deceased was shot.

Capt. Birmingham, Warden of the Penitentiary, testified that he was called by the alarm bell in his room, went to the door of the cook house and found the deceased bleeding, and his pistol lying on the floor. He was satisfied from an examination of the condition of things, that the deceased had been accidentally shot by the pistol falling from his pocket. There had evidently been some grease spilled in the cook house, and the supposition is, that, in stopping to clean it up, he had dropped his pistol, which, falling upon the stone floor, had been discharged. The doors of the room are so arranged that no person could have inflicted the wound from without. Capt. Birmingham spoke very highly of the deceased, and stated that he was one of the best watchmen he ever had.

Dr. J. B. Herron testified that he was called, about two o'clock in the morning, to attend the deceased, and found a bullet wound in the face. The ball entered the face at the side of the nose, passed upwardly, and penetrated the brain between the eyes. The deceased lived till about half past two o'clock, but was unable to converse.

The deceased was about sixty years of age, and resided at No. 152 Beaver street. He had been employed but a short time in the penitentiary, but sufficiently long to be highly esteemed for his fidelity and punctuality. His death will be sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends and relatives. The jury found a verdict of accidental death.

Proceedings of the Dedication of Mt. Union College—Mr. Chase's Oration.

A large and appreciative audience having assembled on the 1st inst., in the new and magnificent edifice of Mt. Union College, near Alliance, Ohio, the audience was called to order by the Rev. O. N. Hartshorn, L. L. D., President of the College, and the organization was perfected by electing Colonel Harris, editor of the Ohio Farmer, President; Col. S. O. Porter, Col. W. Stedman, Col. E. Ball, and Hon. J. A. Ambler, Vice Presidents; and J. T. Brooks, Esq., and Hon. J. K. Ruckenford, Secretaries.

After music by the Mt. Union choir, and prayer by the Rev. Dr. Reid, of Cincinnati, Hon. S. P. Chase was introduced, and proceeded to deliver a very appropriate and truly masterly oration, in a manner eloquently impressive. His theme involved the nature, means and value of Education, and its importance to the preservation and prosperity of our country. He traced the remote causes of the insane and fanatical rebellion in our country to radical defects in Southern education. He demonstrated that our free and republican institutions could not subsist nor long exist without fondly cherishing and liberally supporting our common schools and colleges. He argued the paramount claims of science and of higher education, and that every boy and girl in the land is equally and justly entitled to thorough primary and collegiate instruction in the same schools, at the expense of the State; and that under the fostering patronage of the Christian Church, more than one-third of the endowment funds of the colleges of Ohio have been obtained during the past year. The speaker then compared the relative objects, growth and methods of American and European colleges, and closed by referring to the history, character and success of Mount Union College, and by invoking upon its brightening future the continued munificence of an appreciating public, and of an all-wise Providence.

The meeting took a recess until evening, when the people reassembled to hear addresses from Rev. S. McReid, D. D., editor Western Christian Advocate, and late President of Tennessee College, N. Y., and from Hon. E. E. White, State School Commissioner of Ohio. At the close of these addresses, which were of a very high order, and delivered with a marked and happy effect, the religious dedicatory services appropriate to this rejuvenating occasion were conducted by Rev. Dr. Reid, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Dr. T. N. Baird, D. D., of the Pittsburgh Conference.

During the interim of the afternoon and evening addresses, the Rev. John McCarty, the College Agent, sold scholarships amounting to between three and four thousand dollars, besides the reception of some very acceptable donations.

The College is located in a very moral, healthy and enterprising community near Alliance, O., and is now engaged in securing a permanent endowment of three hundred thousand dollars, and has already received an amount indicating entire success.

FIRST WARD, ALLEGHENY.—At a meeting on Saturday last, Messrs. John Dyer, sr., John A. Scott and George W. Lyons were selected as the Committee on Volunteer Relief for the ensuing year; measures were taken for a complete correction of the enrollment, and the committee adjourned to meet at Washington Hall, (Siddon's,) on Tuesday evening, at half past seven o'clock, when every citizen of the ward, or who has any taxes to pay, should attend, without further notice.

EDITORS GAZETTE: The Pittsburgh Post should give up all claims to respectability, after the publication of the scurrilous article on the clergy and religious part of the community, which appeared in its columns, a few days since.

Does it not, indirectly, betray the fact that it has no subscribers or advertisers in that class upon which it casts ridicule? The worst of men have wisdom enough not to speak in a manner that will offend their patrons.

SCRIBERIER.

GRAND CONCERT.—On Tuesday night, a grand concert will be given in this city under the direction of Signor Muzio. Gottschalk, the world-renowned pianist, and Miss Lucy Simons, the eminent cantatrice, will be the principal attractions. The beauty and fashion of the city will grace the occasion with their presence.

THE GREAT WIZARD SNOW.—This excellent exhibition will remain in the city during the present week, and will be open every evening and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. On Saturday evening the attendance was so great that it was necessary to close the doors. So early if you wish to obtain admission.

IT will be seen by an advertisement in another column that the Misses Haskell have been obliged to obtain a larger room for their Gymnastic class. They can now be found at the New Chapel of the Female College. Parents and teachers should give these young ladies their patronage.

THEATRE.—Miss Matilda Heron one of the best actresses on the American stage, will commence her engagement at the Theatre this evening. She will appear as "Camille," a character in which she has no rival. We look for a crowded house.

SETTLE LIQUOR SELLING.—There were no less than four persons for selling liquor on Sunday last. The names of the parties are James Sherlin, James O'Rourke, William Bechtold and George Canning. Arrests were made in each case, and the parties held for a hearing on Saturday next.

CAPTURED.—We learn from a private communication that Dr. Martin, of this city, son of James Martin, Esq., of the Mechanics' Bank, and a member of the Second Virginia Infantry, was captured at New Creek, the other day, by the rebel raiders.

GAVE BAIL.—Mary Fitzgerald, alias McCarty, the woman arrested for picking pockets in the market, gave bail in $1,000, and was discharged.

SPECIAL LOCAL NOTICES.

TO OIL MEN.—FOR SALE.

One-Eighth of all the Oil Produced on 400 acres of land, situate on the Allegheny River, at Tidioute, Warren county, Pa. This is one of the best oil tracts on the River, and is the one on which the Tidioute and Warren Oil Company have operated with great success for four years. There are several wells on the tract producing oil daily, and several new wells are being put down. Though but a small part of the tract is developed, yet it is paying a large interest on the price asked for it, and there is good reason to believe that as the tract is further developed dividends will be largely increased. The interest we offer is a clear land interest or Royalty, free of all drawbacks or assessments for boring or operating the wells. It also embraces the undivided one-half of the soil and timber on the tract, and there is lumber enough to make some million of feet of boards and many thousand cords of wood. For further information address the subscriber at Tidioute, Warren county, Pa.

DR. LIGHTHILL will revisit Pittsburgh at regular intervals, according to the requirements of the patients under his charge. The business in New York does not suffer by the interruption from this visit, as one of the firm is there in constant attendance.

TESTIMONIALS.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 5, 1864.

This will certify that I have been under the care of Dr. Lighthill for the cure of Catarrh, and that, although he has attended me for a little over one year, I am now in a condition to be cured, and am so much better in all respects as to warrant me in giving publicity to these facts, and recommending Dr. Lighthill to any one affected with Catarrh. [From the Home Journal, June 4th.]

In every business or profession, indeed in every department of science or skill, there is always some acknowledged head—some one who stands out in bold relief among his fellows, as a sort of leader. In the study and treatment of deafness and the ear, as special diseases, Dr. E. H. LIGHTHILL, of this city, occupies just the position above described. He has twelve years of labor to this specialty, and is now reaping the reward of his industry. The editorial columns of the Tribune, of a recent date, bear witness to the Doctor's success in this department of medicine. We quote the paragraph:
