This has been the slowest day at the regular Brokers' Board we have known for some weeks. There was a general indisposition to deal in anything we have therefore a small list of bids and offerings to show, and no sales to report, save a few five-twenties at 105.

Gold opened a shade firmer in the eastern market, stiffening the rates here slightly. Morning quotations at New York Board 200¾; afternoon, 200⅞; an advance of two per cent. Board telegrams were as follows:

The transactions were again large at the Peoples' Exchange this evening, as was also the attendance, and while the general feeling was firmness, prices with but few exceptions, show but little change. Cherry Run & Pittsburgh brought a slight advance, as did also Oil Creek & Cherry Run, while Cherry Run & Pitt-Hole ruled a trifle lower—66. The transactions in Tack Petroleum were unusually large, footing up 220 shares, and that, too, at no advance. The closing sale being made at 2.50. Tarr, Story, & Cherry Run sold to the extent of 1100 shares, at about previous rates. First National Bank, Allegheny, was offered at 1,80-1,70 bid; 77 was offered for Exchange, without bringing out the stock, and 84 was offered for Citizen's with a like result. M. & M. National, was offered at 80, and Allegheny Gas at 27.50. Connellsville bonds were offered at 80—80 bid; and Pennsylvania Insurance at 35. The following item in reference to the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad is taken from the New York Times of Thursday:—An attachment was served upon a small portion of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Guaranteed Dividend Bonds in the hands of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company, at the instance of a party who claims damages for a refusal of the Company some months ago, when their Stock was at a premium to permit the conversion of certain Mortgage bonds to the amount of $50,000 or $60,000. The attaching party is a Stock Broker, but not necessarily a specular or against the market value of the Stock, the Dividends on which he thus attempts, under color of the Foreign attachment Laws of New York, to temporarily restrain. Our information from the plaintiff in the case, himself, is to the contrary of such a presumption. Other speculative Brokers however may have acted upon the knowledge of his proceeding. Part of the Extra Dividend fund due to-day was paid out before the attachment was served, the payment of the remainder will probably be arranged either here or at Cleveland in a few days. The parties to the threatened injunction against the Extra Dividend appear to have been shamed out of their purpose at the last moment. It is well they had so much self respect left.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE ——— FRIDAY, Feb. 3, 1865.

The change in the weather and the possibility of an early resumption of navigation, have caused many to anticipate hopes of a revival of the petroleum trade in a shorter period. As it is, there is no stock of Crude except some few small lots in the hands of refiners, but it is equally true that there is no demand whatever for it at present. The only transaction reported was a small lot, gravity, from the Creek, at 6½ Well," at the bids returned, but this cannot be taken as any criterion of the market, as ordinary Crude could not be sold at any such price. Refined, in bond, is utterly neglected, and in the absence of sales we omit quotations. Free Oil, also, is dull and inactive but prominent manufacturers—some small lots of prime city brands changing hands at 85@86c. There is no movement in Naphtha and Residuum remains substantially as last quoted.

We have received advices from Oil City up to Wednesday evening. The Crude market is reported as steady, and moderately active, and the ruling prices were $2,00 to $2,50 per bbl, at the wells and $6,00@9,00 at Oil City. It is said that the New Yorkers and Clevelanders have been operating pretty largely on the creek for some time past, taking pretty much all that offers at the quotations above made.

PHILADELPHIA STOCK MARKET.

Reported Expressly for the Pittsburgh Gazette.

———— Friday, Feb. 3, 1865.

The market for Oil Stocks continues dull and irregular, without much disposition to operate, and in some cases, prices ruled a little lower. No sales of Tack Petroleum; 2 bid, 2,50 asked. The closing quotations were as follows:

Corsplante	6 00	Caldwell	6 87
Eldorado	1 62	Oil Creek	4 12
Oil Basin	9 50	Dalzell	1 12
Maple Shade	1 37	Clarion	1 12
Perry	3 50	Noble & Delamater	2 00
Mechlinck	6 00	Erie Extension	4 50
Cherry Run	1 00	Newtown	4 81

DAILY REVIEW OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

FRIDAY, Feb. 3, 1865.

We have to record a continuance of the unsatisfactory state of affairs which has prevailed in our general markets for weeks past, and there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. There appears to be a general stagnation in all departments of trade, and at no time since the commencement of the war, has the demand for Pittsburgh manufacturers been so very limited as at present, and especially is the case in regard to glassware, iron, and nails.

GRAIN—There is a continued fair demand for Wheat, and we note regular sales from wagon at $2,10 for Red, and $2,18@2,20 for White. Barley is dull and nominal at $1,50 for Spring, and $1,60 for Fall. Oats steady with a fair local demand at 83@86 cents for small lots from store. Corn is in demand with sales at $1,30@1,35.

FLOUR—There is no demand for this commodity beside from the wants of consumers, and the market is dull and neglected, though nominally steady. Sales of 200 bs Buckwheat Flour from store at 24 per cwt.

PROVISIONS.—The demand for Bacon continues very light, and while the market is dull, prices have undergone no change. Lard is still quoted at 22½@23 for steamed, and 20½@22½ for kettle rendered. Nothing doing in Mess Pork or Bulk Meats.

SEEDS—Sales of 15 bush Cloverseed from store at $10,50 per bushel. Timothy is selling in the small way at $6,00. Flaxseed is quoted at $3,30@3,35, with some few small sales.

BUTTER—The demand continues rather light, and prime Roll is offered freely at 35c. No sales of packed.

EGGS—Steady but quiet at 25c.

HAY—Is steady but unchanged; sales of 15 loads at $26,50 per ton. Baled hay is selling on track at $26@26.

HONEY—Regular sales at 60 per pound, and $150@2,00 per bbl.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged at 22c for prime Western Reserve, and 23 for Hamburg.

DRIED FRUIT—Small sales of Apples in a retail way, from store at 10@14 cents—a round lot, however, would not command these prices. Peaches remain unchanged.

POTATOES—The demand is only moderate, but as the supply is very light, the market may be quoted steady at $3,50 per bbl, for prime Peach Blows.

New York Produce Market, Feb. 1.

Ashes—There are scarcely any changes in the matter market. When gold went up to 220 last week there was a little stir among a dipper, and a few lots were bought, but the decline came too soon for many operations, few persons choosing to purchase while gold is declining. Now ashes are dull, but the parority at 22c, in gold, which is not over 5c for good state ladder. One lot of 300 Lewis County tubs was sold at that figure lately, though they cost 25c some time since. Receipts are fair, and confidence in future high prices is weak, so much so that potash was have been holding stock for a long time are closing them out as best they can. A little fine butter is selected from the best dairies and retailed out at 55c, and even 60c, but very good dairies are sold right through for 45c.

Lard—Basket eggs brought in fresh from Long Island, or even New Jersey, and other places near the city, are selling at 60c per dozen, but large eggs of good branch, will not go over 55c at the market, and most purchasers insist on counting at that figure. Receipts are very light at present, but the laying season approaches the hens will give better returns.

Cheese—Transactions are nearly limited to the grocery trade. Several lots of fine factory and grocery trade. Several lots of fine factory and grocery trade. Some Dairy are selling at 22c. There is no outside figure for actual sales, in quantity of the former, and it is difficult to realize 22c for the latter. There is about a full supply of the latter. There is about a full supply of the latter. There is about a full supply.

Dried Fruits—Dried Apples are easy at quotations. Large lots of State have been sold at 11@11½. A few bbls prime brought 12c. Chestnuts are about all in.—Tribune.
