CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

Resisting the Military.

Assistant Provost Marshal Buffington, of Armstrong county, yesterday went to Kittanning township, in that county, accompanied by a detachment of the Provost Guard, for the purpose of arresting several deserters and non-reporting drafted men, who he was informed were skulking in that neighborhood. He found some of these men secreted in a barn, covered with hay, where they had prepared a sort of cave. In order to discover the hiding place, one of the guard was directed to plunge his bayonet into the hay; on reaching the hiding place of the deserters, the latter seized the musket of the guard, and attempted to wrest it from him. Others of his comrades went to his assistance, when a struggle ensued between the guard upon the hay, and the deserters beneath, in which the former were in danger of being dragged into the cave.

At this point, one of the guard drew his revolver and fired one shot at the man, the ball passing through the hand of one of his comrades and struck a non-reporting drafted man named Hoffelinger, on the jaw, breaking it, and glancing off entered his shoulder, inflicting a severe and perhaps dangerous wound. After a long parley, the remaining two surrendered. They had three loaded revolvers on their persons, when arrested, all loaded, but which were not made use of, owing to the nature of the conflict, although they had previously made a threat to shoot.

Assistant Provost Marshal Buffington delivered these two, with three other deserters arrested in the same vicinity, to Captain Kirker, this morning.

Attempted Bank Robbery.

On Friday night last, an unsuccessful attempt was made to rob the First National Bank of Hollidaysburg, (formerly the Banking House of Johnson, Jack & Co.) About 11 o'clock, the young man then sleeping in the bank was aroused by a noise, apparently in the next room, but he afterwards found it to be caused by some of the walls falling, as the robbers were at work from the outside. The young man being somewhat alarmed, this being but his second or third night at watch, gave an alarm, causing the thieves to decamp.

The old watchman had just that day been buried, and no doubt the thieves thought the bank was without a watchman. They were nearly ready to enter the first room, a hole being cut through the thick brick wall. Once inside of this room they could have had all night to enter the vault, where they would have been amply paid for their trouble. However, the young man thwarted all their designs, just when they thought they were ready to enter on the fruition of their toils. In their flight they left chisels, bags, a bed-quilt, letters with name, and also a key marked "No. 11"—this was the key to unlock the whole mystery. Officers were sent to Altoona. They found the room for the key, certain occupants had been there, had occupied "No. 11" room in a hotel; were not in Friday night, but came next morning to breakfast. With a little effort they were found playing cards, were taken into custody and lodged in the jail at Hollidaysburg on Saturday afternoon.

Railroad Collision—Cars Burned.

On Wednesday an accident of a serious nature occurred to a freight train on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, near Wood's run. The train was running east, in two sections, and while turning a curve in the vicinity of the Fork House, two cars belonging to the first section (a caboose and freight car,) became detached by the breaking of a link, and before the engineer of the second section could be flagged he rounded the curve and came in collision with the stationary cars before he could check up. The locomotive ran into the caboose car and demolished it; soon after which the wreck caught fire. Both cars were burned up, or nearly so. The freight car was loaded with corn belonging to Rea & Kiel, of this city, which was so badly damaged as to be useless. No person on the train was injured.

City Mortality.

Dr. George L. McCook, Physician to the Board of Health, reports the following deaths in the city, from Feb. 1, to Feb. 11, 1865:

Males.....8 | White.....13 | Total.....13
Females.....5 | Colored.....0 |

Of the above diseases there were: Disease of kidneys, 1; metritis, 1; diphtheria, 1; consumption, 1; congestion of brain, 1; unknown, 1; pneumonia, 1; gastro enteritis, 1; hydrocephalus, 1; encephalitis, 1; still-born, 1; marasmus, 1; jaundice, 1.

Col. J. B. Kinnoo, of the 22d U. S. C. T., arrived in the city yesterday, and will remain here for twenty-five or thirty days. He has been under medical treatment in Philadelphia for some time past, and will return to that city in about a month, for the purpose of submitting to a surgical operation. His wound has healed sufficiently to enable him to walk about quite comfortably with the aid of crutches, and he hopes to dispense with these ere long. A piece of fractured bone, in the thigh, prevents the wound from healing, and after this is removed it will not be until he is sound and well again.

COMMITTED.—Philip Singlebach, of Derry tp., Westmoreland county, had a hearing on Thursday afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Sproul on a charge of perjury. Singlebach, in order to escape the draft, made affidavit that he was an alien, which has proved to be untrue. He was committed, and will have a final hearing on Friday morning.

Patrick Dunn, of Hempfield township, same county, was also committed for a similar offense, and his case will be disposed of on Saturday morning.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.—In the Supreme Court, on Wednesday, a number of decisions were rendered, among which were the following: Lycoming Mutual Insurance Company vs. Mitchell & Boyle. Error to Common Pleas of Indiana county. The judgment is reversed and a venire de novo awarded. Cumberland Valley Mutual Insurance Company vs. James Mitchell. Error to Common Pleas of Indiana county. The judgment affirmed.

RECOVERING.—Peter Kaltenborn, who was shot on Monday night by Adam Oxenhart, is somewhat better to-day. He was in a precarious condition yesterday, as Mayor Lowry was called upon to take his deposition, the substance of which was that Oxenhart had made an unprovoked assault upon him, and shot him willfully. He denies that the shooting was accidental, as alleged by Oxenhart.

SEVERELY INJURED.—An old lady named Kelly was yesterday severely injured at the head of Seventh street by being knocked down by a sled. She fell on the pavement with such violence as to render her insensible for some time.

"SPIRIT EYE, THE INDIAN CAPTIVE," by Lieut. Hardinge—a stirring Indian romance, gotten up in Dayley's style of ten cent novels, and for sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, agent for the publishers, 45 Fifth street.

The Greatest Humorist of the Age, Alf. Burnett.

Will give his world-wide entertainment to-night, at Lafayette Hall, under the auspices of the Tenthson Club; his programme embraces delineations of every phase of character, from the sublime to the ludicrous, and recitations both comic and pathetic. He has several laugh provoking parodies, such as "The charge of the Mule Brigade," "Richmond on the Jeems," "Preacher from Hopsidam," which, when delivered in connection with the original, are beyond description. Mr. Burnett's run of wit and humor, and the power of portraying the ridiculous, is not equalled by any living man.

The New York Herald says:

"Mr. Burnett's entertainment is a sure cure for the 'blues.' He drives away dull care with a whirlwind of fun. His poetic selections are rare and beautiful."

RAISED POSTAL CURRENCY.—Five and ten cent bills,—new issue—postal currency, raised to the denomination of fifty cents, are in circulation. The tens are well executed, but they may be easily detected by the backs, which are green, while those of the genuine notes are red. On the fives the cypher is pasted on the face, and does not come within the space intended for the figure, while the figures "50" on the back are made with a pen.

ARRIVED.—Officer Herron has arrived from Chicago, having in custody Mr. Phillips, late spectacle dealer on Fifth street, who was arrested on a charge of fraud preferred by George E. Shaw. Phillips alleges that he was entitled to all the goods which he took with him, and acted under advice of counsel at the time, being unable to get any settlement with Shaw. He will have a hearing this afternoon.

SMOKING ACCIDENT.—It is stated in the Johnstown Tribune that four boys from Minersville went into one of Wood, Morrill & Co.'s mines near Johnstown, a few days ago, and amused themselves by setting fire to a keg of powder. One was instantly killed, another died soon after, and the other may possibly recover.

HELD AS A DESERTER.—The man Huss, alias Cash, who was recently arrested in Cincinnati on a charge of fraud, preferred by Mr. Herwig, of the Fifth Ward, has been identified as William Bernair, a deserter from the Fourth Regular Artillery, and has been turned over to the military authorities for trial.

THE ELECTION IN THE FIRST WARD, ALLEGHENY.—The special election held in the First Ward, Allegheny, on Wednesday, to decide "in favor of" or "against" the issue of bonds for bounty purposes, resulted in a vote of 126 for the levy, and 16 against it.

WILL BE SOLD AT A BARGAIN.—A jewelry store, including a large stock of watches, clocks, jewelry and silver ware, and all the fixtures pertaining to a store, including tools and materials. Call on, or address S. Levins, No. 191 Smithfield street.

PERSONAL.—Alf. Burnett, the humorist, and "Brick" Pomeroy, editor of the La Crosse Democrat, dropped into our sanctum to-day. They are a jolly pair, and drive away the "blues" wherever they go.

THE GREAT PURIFIER.

since the introduction of medicine, the origin of disease has not yet been the subject of more serious and scientific consideration by the most learned of the profession than any other connected with the laws of the Great Creator; not a few have contended that all diseases have their origin in the stomach; others, the solids of the body; others the blood; and by far the greatest number, contend and reason that the blood itself is the very fountain of life—that if it becomes impure, then disease in its worst forms—Scrofula, Cancer, Ulcers, &c., appear; and indeed, experience in treating this class of diseases by purifying the blood and thereby effecting their eradication or cure, prove this to be the correct theory: acting upon which theory, the medicine now known as HEMAPANAKA, was composed and brought into practice, producing the most gratifying results.

Its use soon exercises such a mastery over SCROFULA, ULCERATIONS, PIMPLES on the FACE, TETTER, SALT RHEUM, LIVER COMPLAINT, LOSS OF APPETITE, DYSPEPSIA, RHEUMATISM, GENERAL DEBILITY, &c., &c., &c.

As to give, from the time it is first taken, encouragement to the patient, by making both seen and felt, the point at which a cure is effected. It was thought best to put it up in bottles at 50c. and $1.00 each,—as many persons are disposed to try an article but are often deterred at the expense,—so that trial here can be made at a moderate outlay, and satisfy the purchaser that the article is what is claimed for it to be, viz: the greatest BLOOD RIVER ever brought before the people. Delicate Females will find in it the medicine they seek.

That the public may form some idea of its peculiar curative merits, we subjoin a list of the principal articles of which it is composed, with a short description of the uses and adaptation of each, as taken from the highest authority known to medical science.

HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA

Is used with a beneficial effect in cases of Rheumatism, Scrofulous Affections, Cutaneous Diseases and other depraved conditions of health.

DANDELION

Is tonic, diuretic, and aperient. It has a specific action upon the liver, exciting it when languid, to secretion. It has been much used in Germany in diseases of the digestive organs.

IODIDE POTASSIUM.

There are few diseases in which it has not proved beneficial; it is used in Scrofulous Affections with great benefit; it has also been used with much success in treatment for Inflammation of the Eye. It generally increases the appetite and flesh.

LAVENDER FLOWERS

Are aromatic, tonic, and highly invigorating in cases of Nervous Debility.

WINTER GREEN

Is especially valuable in cases of Scrofula and Rheumatism.

CHAMOMILE FLOWERS

Are advantageously used in cases of Enfeebled Digestion, but are especially applicable to cases of General Debility with weak appetite.

MEZEREON BARK.

It acts favorably as an alterative in Chronic Affections, Chronic Rheumatism and obstinate Diseases of the Skin.

The balance of the formula is withheld as a protection against fraud.
