REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

A. W. GRAY, of Jay township.

For County Auditor,

The object of those who advocate protection to native industry is to wipe off entirely and absolutely every remaining tax on food, on raw materials of any and every description, and to substitute for it a tax on foreign manufactured goods.

Congress at its last session reduced the taxes more than $75,000,000. By this reduction the industries of the people and the necessities of life were relieved of burdens amounting to millions. And yet these measures received but little support from the Democrats in Congress, who sought to throw the odium of high taxation upon the Republicans.

Death of Commodore Farragut.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—The following announcement was promulgated this evening:

The Secretary of the Navy has the painful duty of announcing to the navy and to the country the death of the highest officer of the service. David Glasgow Farragut, Admiral of the navy of the United States, died at Portsmouth, N. H., at noon on the 4th instant, in the 70th year of his age. The life of this officer has been spent in the service of his country. The record of his deeds is written on the noblest pages of her history, and his death will be mourned by the whole people, who loved while they honored him.

President Judge.

We copy the following from the Cosmopolitan, Dan Rice's paper, published in Girard, where Mr. Woodruff lives:

The Judicial Conference Convention re-assembled at Irwineton, on the 11th inst., and after balloting all day to no purpose, Mr. Wilbur offered a resolution allowing each delegate on the next ballot to vote for a first and second choice, and the candidate having the lowest number of votes to be dropped. This was adopted, the Erie delegation voting in the negative. The result was: Wetmore, 14; Woodruff, 10; Southern, 14. The Erie delegation, which had voted for Mr. Woodruff under this resolution, left the Convention, which after several ballots regularly and properly nominated L. D. Wetmore Esq. of Warren, as the Republican candidate for President Judge of this District. Mr. Woodruff's conferees immediately bolted the regular nomination and requested Mr. Woodruff to do the same and run as a bolter's candidate, which he kindly consented to do. This is a brief but complete and truthful statement of the facts in the case, and made from an entirely independent and unbiased stand point.

Of course Mr. Woodruff and the ten individuals—they were no longer conferees in any sense of the term—who assumed the responsibility of thrusting him forward to disintegrate and possibly destroy the Republican party in Erie county, found some excuse for their extraordinary conduct necessary, and the excuse is embodied in a pamphlet, which we have the most satisfactory reasons for believing was prepared in advance and with prudent anticipation of an intended and foreseen result.—The document is signed by the ex-conferees, and has already been so generally and widely circulated that its publication in our columns is unnecessary. Its main object is to mislead public opinion as to the responsibility of Mr. Woodruff's conferees for their deliberate action and votes in the Convention, and to establish the impression that they were ousted through fraud on the part of the Warren and Elk conferees. The attempt is so lame as to be almost ridiculous when they are confronted with their record. No argument is required to substantiate the position that when members of any convention vote upon any proposition presented, each one's vote is, in itself, a fact which he will abide by the result.—This Mr. Woodruff's conferees were bound in honor and by every precedent to do, and in refusing to do so they stultified themselves and placed themselves outside of their party lines, and in willful and wrongful antagonism with the Republicans of this County, as well as those of Warren and Elk. This is precisely the view taken by the leading Republican organ in this county, and it is the only fair conclusion Mr. Woodruff's own conferees permit to be reached. The cry about the rights of Erie county by reason of her larger vote is irrelevant and impertinent, and mere bosh in the connection, for the simple reason that she exercised her full rights in the Convention, and having, through Mr. Woodruff's conferees, elected so to do, has now no right to deny to the balance of the district the advantage gained.

The course pursued by Mr. Woodruff and his conferees being so clearly irregular and unjust it was deemed imperative to secure for it official indorsement at home, and for this purpose, on Saturday last, with secret and undue haste, a meeting of the Republican County Committee was concocted, not called, at which but twenty one out of the forty members were present. With a bare working majority of the Committee organized and then proceeded to accomplish the special purpose for which it was convened, by passing the following resolution: Resolved, That the course pursued by the Erie County Republican Judiciary Conferees, meets with the unqualified approbation of the committee, and this Committee pledge themselves and the Republicans of Erie county, to support such action, and use all honorable means to secure the election of Hon. S. E. Woodruff as President Judge of the 6th Judicial District.

Now this amounts to just an unauthorized indorsement of an unauthorized act, and nothing more; and the wrong of the twenty one members of the committee cannot rectify or legalize the wrong of the ten ex-conferees. Neither will it answer thus insultingly declaring that the Republicans of the rest of the district have no rights which Erie County is bound to respect, and we do not believe that fair minded Republicans will consent to have their party allegiance circumscribed within the narrow limits of a single county, or betrayed into an act of great injustice as of gross political folly, through appeals to local selfishness. They should not lose sight of the fact that Mr. Wetmore is now as much their nominee as could Mr. Woodruff have been, under any circumstances, and that they as well as he are under an obligation which no County Committee can absolve them from, to stand by the regular party nomination.

The instigators of this threatening split in the Republican party were the loudest denouncers of bolters last fall, and even went the length of vehemently asserting that it was the duty of every Republican to stand by the regular nominations under all circumstances. If they were honest then they are dishonest now, and dangerous counselors, who point the way to irreconcilable dissension and the downfall of their party.

It is with extreme regret that we find ourselves unavoidable hostile to Mr. Woodruff in his present position, and with the greatest reluctance that we perform the unavoidable duty of opposing him. Our columns bear witness that, when he was a candidate at the primary election, we cordially sustained him, and, as a neighbor and a friend would that we could do so now. But his mistaken course leaves us without an alternative, and we must follow straight on in the path in which earnest reflection and investigation point out as leading to the goal of right.

The Democratic convention had decided to make no nomination their is but one regular candidate for President Judge in the District, and that is Mr. L. D. Wetmore.— We are personally unacquainted with him, but the testimony to his ability and integrity and fitness for the bench is unanimous. He is a fine lawyer, an impartial man, and, moreover, possessed of such large means as to be protected from those temptations to which a Judge is necessarily exposed when his office is made an elective one. His reputation precludes the possibility of even a suspicion that he would consent to resort to any dishonorable means to advance himself or defend an opponent. We believe him in every way deserving of our cordial support, and we are independent and honest enough to give it and to counsel others to do likewise.

The following is a list of the fall elections and the dates on which they occur: September 6—California and Vermont. September 12—Maine. October 1—Indiana. October 3—Florida and Mississippi. October 11—Iowa, Ohio and Pennsylvania. October 27—West Virginia. November 1—Delaware, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota and Missouri. November 7—South Carolina. November 8—Maryland, Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York and Wisconsin.

REPUBLICAN ECONOMY.—President Grant's Administration, in the sixteen months of Andrew Johnson's service (from November 1, 1867, to March 4, 1869,) and yet no taxes had been increased, and the collections had been made under the same law. This is Republican economy compared with Democratic extravagance.

A Change of Front.

We take the following from Forney's Press of last week:

The attitude of the American press and people upon the present war in Europe has been significant in the extreme. The sympathies of a great majority of our people are undoubtedly on the side of Prussia. The immense influx of Germans into this country and their unification with the American people has not alone been the cause of this. We still cherish as fondly as ever the recollections of the assistance which France, through Lafayette and his brave compereers, rendered us in the war for independence. To France the American people bear not hostility; to Napoleon III. they do.

He represents political ideas opposite to our own. He strangled a republic which gave signs of proving a successful experiment, to found an "empire" and perpetuate his dynasty. He attempted to plant an empire in Mexico when he deemed us powerless to prevent him. He represses in France liberty of speech, liberty of the press, and nearly every other right dear to the American heart. For these causes we welcome the defeat of Napoleon as the downfall of his empire and the end of Caesarism in Europe. The Republican portion of the American press has been unanimous in its enunciation of this idea. The Democratic newspapers, on the other hand, with a few noteworthy exceptions, at the outset of the struggle arrayed themselves upon the other side. The four leading journals of the party, its representative organs in the sections of the country, espoused the cause of France, and labored in the vain endeavor to prove that Prussia was the aggressor and had forced the war. The four journals of which we speak were the Boston Post, the Cincinnati Enquirer, the New Orleans Bulletin and the New York World. Of these, all, with the exception of the World, retain their original positions. The latter journal, when it became probable that Prussia would be victor, fearful of alienating the Germans in the Democratic party, changed its front. But the fact remains the same. The intelligent American, as well as the German who has made his home here, can draw his own inference.

ADDRESS TO THE
NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,
WHOSE SUFFERING HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE PROMPT TREATMENT TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or floccy, or is it roopy on setting? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on the subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom of your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal disease badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of the generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering businessmen are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other weakness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in these organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to—and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.
