CITY AND SUBURBAN.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

The Railways of Pennsylvania.

The annual reports of the railway companies of Pennsylvania have been issued. The volume contains a vast amount of information and facts local and general, and from it we condense the following:

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have 314 engines, 168 passenger cars, 64 baggage, mail and express cars, 4,845 freight cars, and 709 coal cars. They carried last year 3,238,929 passengers and 3,559,884 tons of freight, 1,077,485 tons of the latter being coal. The expenses in the aggregate amounted to nearly $10,000,000, while their receipts were a little over $14,000,000. The total number of persons killed on their road during the year was 119, and injured 218.

The Oil Creek road, destined to run from Corry to Franklin, has nineteen miles to add to its track before being completed. During 1864, 143,417 passengers and 146,434 tons of freight were transported over it, 850,720 tons of the latter, or 504,320 barrels boiling petroleum. The receipts from passengers were $21,829 30, and for freight $407,376 53.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company has a capital subscribed of $3,066,350, and paid in of $1,947,000. Its funded debt is $571,000. The road has been, thus far, nearly $3,000,000, and of the entire distance to Kittanning, the first forty-four miles have been constructed. Preparing for the Draft.

The enrolled men of the Sixth Ward, having abandoned the effort to fill their quota by volunteers, are now quietly awaiting the revolutions of the wheel at Capt. Foster's office. A number of thermore active citizens, who are liable to the draft, have formed a "Mutual Protection Club," which is now open for the reception of members. Any enrolled man can become a member by paying in the sum of $100, with the privilege to increase his subscription to $500—and each member who may be drafted will draw his pro rata from the funds of the club. It is agreed that one-fourth of the money shall be reserved for supplemental drafts, so as to make the members secure against "aftercloses." We would much rather see the citizens of this ward engaged in the work of putting in volunteers, but, since all efforts to that end have failed through the indifference of a majority of these liable to draft, this is perhaps the best thing that can be done. The money can be used for procuring substitutes, or for providing for the families of those who may prefer to take the service. The club will meet on Saturday evening, at the School House.

Child Burnt to Death.

An accident of a shocking character occurred in Moreis township, Washington county, Sunday last. A house occupied by Philip Minton, and situated upon the farm of Lewis Dille, caught fire and was destroyed with all its contents. A little girl of Mr. Minton was burned to death in the house. The mother had left the house but a few minutes, and upon returning saw the flames bursting forth. She was unable to enter and rescue her child, and stood a horrified spectator of the work of death and destruction. The remains of the child were subsequently taken from the ruins of the building.

ENS. GAZETTE: Your correspondent signing himself "A Methodist" was in error yesterday in confining the word "diocese" "almost exclusively to the Protestant Episcopal Church." He certainly forgets that another and very extensive religious organization makes use of that word, and derives its authority from the same general source. I mean the Roman Catholic. Though not a member of Christ Methodist E. Church, I feel like congratulating them on the commendable spirit shown in the liberality of their contributions, which I doubt if any of our churches can excel.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Rev. Dr. Muhlenberg, of the Episcopal Church, New York, has founded an Order of Sisters of Mercy in connection with St. Luke's Hospital in that city. Its leading idea is, that a number of unmarried women from twenty one to forty years of age shall be formed into a community of sisterhood, to live three years or more in a hospital or asylum, and devote their time and labor to works of mercy in the care of the sick or suffering, under the direction of a Lady Superior, whose word is to be the law of the Sisterhood in all matters pertaining to the ordering of the community. The members of the Community are two classes, United Sisters and Probationers. The United Sisters are elected full members, after a satisfactory probation. The Probationary Sisters are those under training for full membership. It appears the limited period of service is allowed simply because the Church is not now prepared to fur
