John Dickey, do West Deer do for 1842,	118 73½
Saml Hare, do Birmingham do for

* Of the amount of forfeited recognizances, as above stated, it is difficult to say what of them are available from the imperfect and loose manner in which they have been generally taken and returned, and in many instances persons who are irresponsible on the score of property have been taken as security upon them, thereby enabling criminals to escape from punishment and increasing the charges upon the county—there is certainly a defect here, which should be corrected wherever it may be, otherwise they are nothing more than nominal.
