FOR A BRIEF SEASON,

COMMENCING

Monday Evening, June 12, 1865

THE MARTYR PRESIDENT.

A glowing and faithful portraiture of all the startling scenes and picturesque pageant in the mournful from the Second Inauguration of ABRAHAM LINCOLN as sixteenth President of the United States to his final burial at Springfield, Illinois, including the Assassination at the Theatre; Booth's Flight; The Felon's Fate; and the Unparalleled Funeral March from the White House to the Patriot's Grave.

The proprietors, conscious of the public desire to obtain a thorough knowledge of all the scenes and facts connected with the late NATIONAL CALAMITY, which robed the land in mourning, promptly engaged, at a vast expense, no less than twelve competent artists to employ their whole time and genius in the production of this extraordinary series of Pictures, for the fidelity of which they confidently vouch.

Mr. RUFUS SOMERBY, the gifted Elocutionist, will deliver a lecture at each exhibition, descriptive of the various deeply exciting scenes.

Tickets 25 cents. A limited number of reserved seats may be obtained at 50 cents each.

Doors open at 7½. Entertainment to commence at 8 o'clock.

Grand Matinee Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, commencing at 3 o'clock, when children will be admitted for 15 cents. je10:tf

FREE EXHIBITION.

INTERESTING TO HORSE OWNERS.—The celebrated Horse Trainers, Messrs. MAGNER AND DUDLEY, will give the citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny cities an exhibition of horsemanship with their celebrated trained stallions TURCO and ROB ROY, driving one of these spirited animals in carriage without bridle, rein, britching or traces, with head and neck entirely free, on DIAMOND SQUARE, Allegheny City, on WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, June 14th, 15th and 16th, at 1 o'clock P. M., each day, promptly at the hour. Prof. Magner will also deliver a lecture on the general management of the horse. The two horses will be turned loose on the Square and shown as Trick Horses. Each day immediately after the public exhibition, they will form a class, teaching their system of horsemanship, commencing at 2:30 P. M., at Mr. Trimble's Variety Stables, Penn street, Pittsburgh, which is new, original and practical, under which better feats of horsemanship can be accomplished than under all other combined systems in the world. We do not throw your horses to break them; neither do we administer drugs—but we never fail to obtain complete submission in a very short space of time. We propose to instruct you by practical demonstrations. Gentlemen, bring in your horses of every and all habits, from the untrained colt to the old reprobate, who knows no master, and we promise to hand them to you entire satisfaction. We handle runaways, kickers, biters, bricle and halter pullers, plungers, shyers, bolters, side-runners, nervous, and those that will not stand for you to get into the carriage; timid and those afraid of umbrellas or any other objects; ally ones that run the tongue out over the bit. Also, the gentleman horse who simply lacks style; kickers and plungers to mangers, and those that are nervous and will not submit to the blacksmith and groomsman, &c. All horses belonging to members handled free of charge before our class. We also show you how to prevent cows from kicking while milking. Tuition, $5. These gentlemen are credited by the public wherever they have been. je12:3td

Thomas Jones, arraigned on a charge of receiving stolen goods, was declared not guilty.

Mary Cadamore was charged with stealing $50 from Mr. Reno, but the jury found a verdict of not guilty.

Becoming a Drug.—It is not long since that people who were compelled to keep nickel pennies for change paid as high as fifteen per cent. premium for them. For three years past, at least, pennies have been at a premium varying all the way from four to fifteen per cents. They are still quite scarce here, but we observe that they have become a drug in Philadelphia. The passenger railway conductors have their pockets full of them, and shop keepers complain of having more pennies than they want.

Counterfeit Postage Currency.—Counterfeit twenty-five and fifty cent notes are becoming so numerous in the mountain regions, that the people are beginning to talk of refusing all notes of these denominations. In Blair county they are said to be very numerous, and it is hinted that there is a large "manufactory" in or near Altoona. The government authorities should look to this, and if there is a counterfeiting establishment in that locality it should be broken up.

The Trot at Collins' Park.—Yesterday afternoon a trotting match came off at Collins Park, for a purse of one hundred dollars. The attendance was large, and the best of order was preserved. The track was in excellent condition, and much interest was evinced in the race. J. S. Butler's bay mare, Maggie Harris, won the first heat, and F. Lafferty's roan pony, Duncan Campbell, the three next. The time made was 2:50, 2:54, 2:54, 2:44.

Fort Delaware.—About six thousand rebel prisoners of war yet remain at Fort Delaware. They are discharged at the rate of about five hundred per day. The sick are the first liberated, and next those who have been longest incarcerated. Some of them go to their distant homes, but most of the unmarried ones remain in the north. Many of them find their way out here, and they are now seen in our streets every day.

Death of W. S. Campbell, Esq.—A dispatch announces the death, on Monday, of Wm. S. Campbell, Esq., of the St. Lawrence Hotel, Philadelphia. His remains will be brought to New Alexandria, Westmoreland county, to-day for interment. Mr. Campbell was at one time proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel in this city, and for several seasons was identified with the management of the Mountain House, Cresson.

To be Mustered Out.—The one year's men now in service at Nashville, will all be mustered in a few days, as we learn from a dispatch from that place. There are four or five companies from this vicinity, in the one year service at Nashville, and their friends may expect them home at an early day.

A Monster Coke Oven.—Evan Nokes, master coker at the Hollidaysburg Furnace, recently erected a mammoth coke pit at that place. The dimensions are: Length, 153 feet; breadth at base, 31 feet; breadth at top, 19 feet; height, 10 feet; number of bushels of coal, 30,000.

A Big Sale.—A. L. Holliday, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, sold one of his mountain tracts last week for the sum of $25,000 cash to a party in this city. This property is about eight miles from Altoona, on Clearfield Creek.

Child Drowned.—A little child, about three years old, of Capt. Alex. Dobbins, of Gaysport, Blair county, fell into the river, while playing with some of its companions, and before it could be taken from the water, life was extinct.

The Cheapest House in the twin cities for canned Fruits, extra Candles of fancy kinds, and Taffies pure and good, is at 112 Federal street, Allegheny City. GEO. BEAVEN.

Nevin's Battery.—This battery, numbering one hundred and fifty-five men, left Altoona at half past four this morning, and will reach here at three o'clock this afternoon.

Open Air Temperance Meetings are now being held in Philadelphia, on Sundays. Large crowds collect, and listen attentively to the speakers.

Resigned.—Rev. D. Schindler, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Hollidaysburg, has resigned, and accepted a call from a church in Lebanon, Pa.

Reduction.—Our friend, Mr. John Weier, No. 126 Federal street, Allegheny, was in the east when the glorious news of the capture of Richmond and the surrender of the rebel General Lee was received, and taking advantage of the panic produced, and knowing the re-action that would follow, made very heavy purchases of the finest spring and summer goods at about one-half of the old prices. Some of the finest cloths, casimeres and vestings are included in his stock, which he is prepared to make up to order, on short notice in the latest styles, and at correspondingly low rates.
