The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING MAY 8 1844.

THEATRE.—The performances having been postponed last evening, the play of The Hunchback will be performed to-night, the part of Master Walter by Mr Ayling. Mr Ayling, we understand, is an actor of high merit, and has been received with much applause in all the cities of the Union where he has performed. In effecting an engagement with such fine artists as Mr and Mrs Ayling, Miss Clarendon has given further evidence of her anxious desire to please the play-goers of Pittsburgh.

THE INDIANS.—None of our citizens should omit paying a visit to the genuine Native American party, now holding a levee at Concert Hall. An interview cannot but be interesting to every one.

GETTING BETTER.—We understand that the boy whose skull was so badly fractured in Birmingham last week, is in a fair way to recover. Through a skillful operation of Dr. Wernebergh, the fractured parts were removed, and by a judicious treatment of the wound he has been restored to full consciousness.

☞ We tender our thanks to Mr S. G. Isham, clerk of the Little Ben, for late Cincinnati papers.

CATHOLIC MAGAZINE.—We have received the May number of this interesting monthly. Its contents are, as usual, quite attractive, not only to the Catholic, but likewise to the general reader.

Shakspeare Gardens.

THE undersigned respectfully informs the citizens of Pittsburgh that she has opened the Shakspeare Gardens; in the village of East Liberty, for the accommodation of visiters during the summer season. The beauties of the situation, and the perfect manner in which every arrangement is made about this establishment, that will contribute to the pleasure of visiters, are well known to the public and the proprietor assures all who may visit her house that nothing shall be omitted on her part to make the Shakspeare Gardens at least equal to any similar establishment in the country.

Jacob Boston, Proprietor,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken this well known establishment, and has had it thoroughly repaired in all its departments; and it is now fitted up in a style inferior to none in the city. Epicures, and all fond of good eating, will find his larder bountifully supplied with all the necessaries and luxuries the market can afford. It will be the aim and pride of the proprietor to keep his eating department well stored, and in a manner suited to the taste of the most fastidious.
To the lovers of good liquors, too, he can without flattery to himself, offer as good and well furnished a BAR as is kept in the western country. The choicest wines and best of stronger liquors will always be kept in store, for the accommodation of those who may favor him with a call.
His facilities for accommodating the traveling public generally, will be found equal to any in the city. The Stable is airy and capacious, and the best attention will be given to the horses of those putting up at his house.

H DEVINE,
E G WHITESIDES, } Proprietors,
BUZBY & BROTHER,

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.
This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily, from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.
The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.
To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.
Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commission.
H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. Any communications or goods directed to the care of the undersigned Agents will be promptly attended to.

C. A. McANULTY'S
UNITED STATES
PORTABLE BOAT LINE
For the transportation of Merchandize to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.
The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (where canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.
Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandise, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.
All communications to the following Agents will be promptly attended to:
