The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1844.

☞ A number of articles of interest will be found on our first page, and some very affecting Poetry on our fourth.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—It is with great pain we state that while an old gentleman of Allegheny City named MOSES BRATT, was out riding in a buggy with his lady yesterday, on the Franklin Road, the horse ran off, dashed the buggy against a fence, threw Mr B. out, and his head striking a tree, he was instantly killed. The thigh of his wife is broken in two places. Mr Bratt was a respectable, honest man, and has for a long time been employed in Bissell's works, Allegheny.

ROBBERY—The Dry Goods store of Mr. Robinson was robbed on Sunday night last, of a quantity of silks valued at $300.

HYDROPHOBIA.—Yesterday morning a young German, living in East Liberty, whose name is Adam Weiss, died of this horrible disease. About 3 weeks ago, he was bitten on the nose by a small dog, but owing to the wound being but a scratch, he took no notice of it, further than applying to a quack who was in the habit of selling Pills for the cure of Hydrophobia. Sunday last, he was attacked by a violent head ache, and soon after the symptoms of the disease made their appearance. &c.

Drs. FAHNESTOCK & WERNEBURG attended him but without having any hope of his recovery. His sufferings were most horrible, and he prayed the bystanders to kill him. He was tied with ropes, and in his paroxysm the slaver was thrown up to the ceiling.—The parents of the deceased, who have been in the habit of washing in the same bowl, and wiping on the same towel with him, are in a dangerous condition, but the physicians hope they will recover.

THEATRE.—There is a very attractive bill presented at the Theatre this evening—three popular pieces with lots of dancing and singing, form a variety which cannot fail to please every body. The company as constituted at present, is a good one, and the management will omit no opportunity that may offer to add to its strength and talent.

Mrs DRAKE, who is now performing a short engagement, is an old favorite with Pittsburgh playgoers, and we can assure her former admirers that her acting has lost none of the spirit and energy that pleased them so much in former times. She appears in one of her favorite and most successful parts this evening.

AN AFFRAY —A fight took place yesterday between two men in the Fifth Ward, during which one of the combatants had his arm broken.

THE PRAIRIE BIRD.—This is the name of a new novel just received at Cook's It is written by the Hon C. A. MURRAY, author of travels in North America, and from a hasty glance over its pages we have no doubt but it is a production of much merit.

COLLISION.—The Steamers Wing and Wing and Hibernia, came in contact on their last trips, by which the wheel house and a portion of the cook house of the Wing and Wing were carried away.

The Steamer Monongahela broke her shaft on her recent trip to this city. She was yesterday lying at the Trap. The Michigan brought up her passengers.

Jacob Boston, Proprietor,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken this well known establishment, and has had it thoroughly repaired in all its departments; and it is now fitted up in a style inferior to none in the city. Epicures, and all fond of good eating will find his larder bounteously supplied with all the necessaries and luxuries the market can afford. It will be the aim and pride of the proprietor to keep his eating department well stored, and in a manner suited to the taste of the most fastidious.

To the lovers of good liquors, too, he can without flattery to himself, offer as good and well furnished a BAR as is kept in the western country. The choicest wines and best of stronger liquors will always be kept in store, for the accommodation of those who may favor him with a call.

His facilities for accommodating the traveling public generally, will be found equal to any in the city. The Stable is airy and capacious, and the best attention will be given to the horses of those putting up at his house.

H DEVINE.
E G WHITESIDES, } Proprietors,
BUZBY & BROTHER,

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily, from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, seperation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. Any communications or goods directed to the care of the undersigned Agents will be promptly attended to.

G. A. McANULTY'S

UNITED STATES

PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandize to and from

PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c
