The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA:

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 21, 1844.

☞ For last day's proceedings in Congress, see first page.

Mr. Henry Russell, Vocalist.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Mr. Russell has postponed his departure for a few days, and will, by request of many families, give another Concert on Saturday evening, which will be his farewell and last appearance in this city. Mr. Russell, will sing, this evening, the "Tent Scene" from Richard the Third.

Mr. Russell.—We understand that this gentleman will give a Concert in Washington borough this evening. It will be a fine, and perhaps the only opportunity for the citizens of that place to hear one of the most popular vocalists of the day.

Harrington's Dioramas.—It is with pleasure we announce the arrival of this very talented and moral exhibition; the excitement it created in 1839 is no doubt still fresh on the memories of many of our readers. The proprietor is busily engaged in fitting up the Theatre for its reception, our advertising columns give all the particulars. Among the arrangements the Pit is to be converted into a parquette at a uniform price of 25 cts throughout the house.

Decisions.—We learn by a note from R. B. Butler, Esq., that on account of his position as a U. S. Officer, he declines being a member of the Committee of Correspondence. Mr. B's. note will be found in another column.

Dead.—Charles M'Ginnis, Engineer of the Cleveland, who was so badly scalded by the explosion on that boat last Friday evening, died on Wednesday evening.

MUTUAL PROTECTION AGAINST FIRE.

THE Allegheny Mutual Insurance Company, commenced issuing policies the 18th May last.

The Policies and applications for Insurance four times exceed the amount its charter required to commence with, creating a fund already sufficient to meet any probable loss that may occur; as is tested by all the reports of well conducted institutions of the kind, and daily augmenting its capital by the accession of new members.

The terms of Insurance are as favorable as those of any other institution in the city, and its principles need only be known to vastly increase its business and extend its usefulness.

CHARLES SHALER. EDWARD SIMPSON.

THE TRIUMPH OF PRINCIPLE;
OR, TRUTH VERSUS FICTION.

As illustrated in the rise and brilliant progress of the famous "Three Big Doors," 151 Liberty street, Pittsburgh.

Courteous reader, believe me, these lines are not wrote,
As a pitiful puff, to sell pants or a coat;
I would not by any be thought to suppose,
That lengthy professions o'er brought cheaper cloths!
Suffice it to say, there is none to compete
With the far famed M'Closkey, in Liberty street;
He carries the sway and his name's so well known,
That they crowd his 'Big Doors' from all parts of town,
They may talk of their cheapest, their finest and strongest,
It's not true—and all know that Mac's Clothing wears longest;
They may talk of 'first cost,' of 'half price' or a third,
But to cope with M'Closkey, tis plainly absurd;
His stock's so immense and his custom so great,
That by forty per cent he can all others beat;
M'Closkey well knows how far jealousy goes,
But he challenges all to produce such cheap clothes,
Men of country and town, learn this wondrous result,
His rivals would dare all your judgments insult,
They fain would induce you to believe other stores,
Sold as good and as cheap as the great "Three Big Doors."
But M'Closkey will praise you for judgment and skill,
For from him you have purchased and will do so still,
And well for yourselves were your real bargains made,
For they stand far the cheapest of all in the trade,
From the Judge of our Courts to the Lumberman's hut,
You may see in a moment M'Closkey's fine cut;
There are three great essentials on which M'Closkey prides,
Durability, symmetry, and best clothes besides.
Before he concludes, Mac ne'er can forget,
The brilliant success which his "Big Doors" have met;
He thanks each sincerely in this "cutting" age,
For their kindness, their favor, and warm patronage;
Then visit his stock—it's examined by scores—
And you surely will buy at the famous Big Doors;
To his depot then hie—he will proudly you greet,—
Remember, M'Closkey, in Liberty street.

Jacob Boston, Proprietor,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken this well known establishment, and has had it thoroughly repaired in all its departments; and it is now fitted up in a style inferior to none in the city. Epicures, and all fond of good eating, will find his larder bounteously supplied with all the necessaries and luxuries the market can afford. It will be the aim and pride of the proprietor to keep his eating department well stored, and in a manner suited to the taste of the most fastidious.

To the lovers of good liquors, too, he can without flattery to himself, offer as good and well furnished a BAR as is kept in the western country. The choicest wines and best of stronger liquors will always be kept in store, for the accommodation of those who may favor him with a call.

His facilities for accommodating the traveling public generally, will be found equal to any in the city. The Stable is airy and capacious, and the best attention will be given to the horses of those putting up at his house. a18-tf

THE undersigned Commissioners named in the Act of Assembly passed the 30th day of April, 1844, entitled "An Act to authorize the Governor to incorporate the Delaware Canal Company," hereby give notice, that in pursuance of the provisions of the said act, they will attend at the Merchants' Exchange, in the city of Philadelphia, on MONDAY, the 5th day of August next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and there commence the sale of the stock of the Delaware Canal Company, on the following terms and conditions, to wit:

1st. The Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canal shall be divided into twenty-five thousand shares, of one hundred dollars each.

The shares shall be set up for sale singly, giving the purchaser the right of taking at his bid any number of shares from one to one thousand; Provided, That no share shall be sold for a less sum than one hundred dollars; and provided further, that none of the said Commissioners, either in their own names, or in the names of any other persons, shall become purchasers of any of the stock at the sale authorized by the said Act of Assembly.

3d. Each purchaser, at the time of his purchase, shall deposit with the Commissioners the premiums or advance above the par value of the shares by him purchased, or if the bid or bids do not amount to five dollars per share, above the par value of the share or shares by him purchased, then and in such case the said purchasers shall pay five dollars on account and in part of each share thus purchased, the said sums to be paid in money, (or in the certificates of loan of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at the option of the purchaser.)

4th. Payment for the remainder of the purchase money will be required to be made within thirty days from the purchase, under the forfeiture for delinquency of the amount paid to the Commissioners at the time of sale.

6th. PITTSBURGH AND PHILADELPHIA, PITTSBURGH AND BALTIMORE,
AND
NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE PROPRIETORS

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line is any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. Any communications or goods directed to the care of the undersigned Agents will be promptly attended to.

G. A. McANULTY'S
UNITED STATES
PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandise to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.

All communications to the following Agents will be promptly attended to:
