PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1844.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR JULY.

Josiah King. J. Carothers, W. J. Howard.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee of Correspondence appointed by the late County convention, will meet at the Court House, in the City of Pittsburgh, on Saturday, the 20th day of July inst., at 10 o'clock A M.

☞ Punctual attendance of the members is requested as business of importance will be laid before the Committee.

July 2nd, 1844.

THE DIORAMAS.

HAMINGTON, at the solicitation of many of our citizens who have found it impossible from the crowds which have attended his performances, to get a comfortable sight of them, has consented to remain in the city a few days longer. His exhibition is the most popular one that has visited our city for years. He announces that he will play this and the two following evenings. His bills are varied and interesting.

AN IRISH PIPER.—Our citizens flocked to hear the music of an eccentric Scotchman who wandered thro' our country some years ago playing upon bagpipes. Those who delight in that kind of music, can now have the pleasure of listening to an Irish piper of decided skill, who "handles the drone" like a master. Of all the music which made glad the recent festive and joyous anniversary, none was thought equal to that of the Irish piper.

PITTSBURGH MESSENGER.—Mr J. B. SHURTLEFF, formerly of the Beaver Patriot, has commenced a literary and religious weekly paper in this city. It will, we understand, be the organ of the Baptists in this region, and will no doubt have a large circulation amongst that denomination of christians. It is neatly printed, and edited with spirit and ability.

THE RIOTS IN PHILADELPHIA.—Contrary to the anticipations of many the Fourth passed off happily and quietly enough in Philadelphia. A slight outbreak occurred in Chesnut street, but it was speedily suppressed.

A Rumored Duel.—The Norfolk Herald says that a duel has been arranged to "come off" between John Tyler, jr., and H Pleasants, (brother of the editor of the Richmond Whig,) growing out of an article which the latter published in the Whig, reflecting on the course of President Tyler. The Herald further states on good authority, that the parties went up on Wednesday morning, on the railroad to Margaretsville, in Northampton, N. C; in the neighborhood of which place the duel was to come off at 2 o'clock on Thursday.—Balt Sun.

DELAWARE CANAL COMPANY.

THE undersigned Commissioners named in the Act of Assembly passed the 30th day of April, 1844, entitled "An Act to authorize the Governor to incorporate the Delaware Canal Company," hereby give notice, that in pursuance of the provisions of the said act, they will attend at the Merchants' Exchange, in the city of Philadelphia, on MONDAY, the 5th day of August next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and there commence the sale of the stock of the Delaware Canal Company, on the following terms and conditions, to wit:

1st. The Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Canal shall be divided into twenty-five thousand shares, of one hundred dollars each.

2d. The shares shall be set up for sale singly, giving the purchaser the right of taking at his bid any number of shares from one to one thousand: Provided, That no share shall be sold for a less sum than one hundred dollars; and provided further, that none of the said Commissioners, either in their own names, or in the names of any other persons, shall become purchasers of any of the stock at the sale authorized by the said Act of Assembly.

3d. Each purchaser, at the time of his purchase, shall deposit with the Commissioners the premiums or advance above the par value of the shares by him purchased, or if the bid or bids do not amount to five dollars per share, above the par value of the share or shares by him purchased, then and in such case the said purchasers shall pay five dollars on account and in part of each share thus purchased, the said sums to be paid in money, (or in the certificates of loan of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at the option of the purchaser.)

6th Should the whole of the shares not be sold on the first day, the sales will be adjourned to the next and succeeding days, if necessary, for nineteen days in succession, and if, on the twentieth day, it shall appear that less than twenty-five thousand shares shall have been sold, in that case the sales shall be declared void, and the deposits made with the commissioners shall be returned to the purchasers respectively.

7th. Every purchaser shall, at the time of his purchase, subscribe in a book which will be presented to him by the commissioners, the following agreement. "We whose names are hereunto subscribed do promise to transfer or cause to be transferred to the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, one hundred dollars, in the loans of said commonwealth, for every share of stock set opposite to our respective names, in case twenty five thousand shares shall be sold, pursuant to an act of the General Assembly of this commonwealth, entitled an act to authorize the Governor to incorporate the Delaware canal company. AMERICAN PORTABLE BOAT LINE,

For the transportation of

MERCHANDIZE AND PRODUCE

BETWEEN

PITTSBURGH AND PHILADELPHIA, PITTSBURGH AND BALTIMORE,

AND

NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE PROPRIETORS

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. Any communications or goods directed to the care of the undersigned Agents will be promptly attended to.

G. A. McANULTY'S

UNITED STATES

PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandize to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.

All communications to the following Agents will be promptly attended to:
