The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 29, 1844.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR JULY.

Josiah King, J. Carothers, W. J. Howard.

☞ On our outside form will be found a right clever story, entitled "A Roland for an Oliver"—and a short poem, by J. G. Whittier.

FEARFUL LOSS OF LIFE AT SEA.—All hopes appear to be given up for the safety of the Bremen ship Johannes, bound to Baltimore. She left Bremen on the 22d of March, under the command of Capt. Dierkes, with one hundred and fifty six passengers, and a crew of fourteen, and has never since been heard from. The crew belonged to Bremen and its vicinity.

"I'd give all my money,
To hear my old crony
Joe Hoxey, sing bonny John Tyler once more!"

HOXIE, a musical coon who became celebrated in New York in 1840, by singing whig doggerels in hard cider doggeries, is again exercising his vocal powers for the benefit of the whig cause. He opens the meetings with a song, which is considered a very good substitute for a prayer.

☞ Mr Clay's meandering course on the tariff, is thus beautifully and poetically defined:

"He wires in and wires out,
And leaves the people still in doubt,
Whether the snake that made the track
Was going South, or coming back."

Boston Liberality to Philadelphia Courage.—Gen. Cadwalader has received a letter from Boston, enclosing $50 for the relief fund—from whom cannot be told, as it is simply subscribed "Law and Order." The letter contained praise, not less strong than deserved, of the volunteer corps, not only as the defenders of law and order in Philadelphia, but its champions for every city and State, which is a broad and just view of the case. The committee of relief will doubtless receive this extraordinary contribution with proper courtesy and gratitude. It is a characteristic act of a Bostonian, to render such a contribution.—Balt. Sun.

COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

Splendid Paintings for Sale.

A PORTRAIT of the Hon. JAMES ROSS, and one of the Hon. WILLIAM WILKINS, painted by that favorite and distinguished artist, the late JAMES BOWMAN, Esq., are offered for sale.

These pictures are not only valuable as being perfect likenesses of the gentlemen for whom they were taken, but possess surpassing merit, as specimens of art—they have been pronounced by connoiseurs to be splendid paintings, and among the most successful works of the eminent painter from whose hand they come.

They may be seen at the Looking Glass Store of W. C. WALL, in Fourth street, between Wood and Market.

Attention is especially invited to these portraits, as no other opportunity will, perhaps, ever occur to obtain portraits from the pencil of the gifted BOWMAN, at a price so cheap as these are offered.

WOULD be consulting their own, and the interest of their customers, to a very great extent, by purchasing Spices, Drugs and Dye Woods in the Eastern markets, whole and in sticks, and getting them ground and chipped at the Franklin Manufactory, Second street.

It is not generally known, but nevertheless true, that Drugs and spices sold in the East, are lower in price than whole, of course the profit and cost of grinding must be made up by adulteration; dye woods have at least 15 per cent, and in some cases 25 per cent. of water added to them. Now water, dust, cornmeal and flaxseed meal are plenty here, and we can eat them in their purity, if so it pleases us, without paying a pepper price with freight and premium added.

AMERICAN PORTABLE BOAT LINE,

For the transportation of
MERCHANDIZE AND PRODUCE
BETWEEN
PITTSBURGH AND PHILADELPHIA, PITTSBURGH AND BALTIMORE,
AND
NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE PROPRIETORS

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three transhipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers, all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. Any communications or goods directed to the care of the undersigned Agents will be promptly attended to.

C. A. McANULTY'S
UNITED STATES
PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandize to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.

All communications to the following Agents will be promptly attended to:

ROSE & MERRILL,
