The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 4.

On our outside form will be found a letter to the Hon. Hamar Denny, &c., &c.

First Ward.—The democrats of the First Ward, will hold a meeting this evening, at the house of Henry Cassiday, to make preparatory arrangements for the Convention of the 19th.

Glee Club.—The young democrats of our city have organized a Glee Club, and already they discourse most elegant music. They meet in Polk Hall to practice, and their concerts are attended by crowded and delighted audiences. They have some excellent songs, and they sing them with much taste and spirit.

Prize Banner.—We understand that a number of democratic Ladies are preparing a Splendid Banner, to be presented to the young mechanics at the Democratic Convention of the 19th. They do not make as much noise about it as their fair neighbors of the adverse party, but we have no doubt but the banner will be as splendid as the one that the four whig journals have been engaged in puffing for the last two weeks.

☞ The Democrats of Warren and Erie counties had an immense meeting at Columbus, on Tuesday last; upwards of two thousand persons. They adopted strong and enthusiastic resolutions in favor of Polk, Dallas & Shunk.

Dreadful Affray.—A tragical occurrance took place, a few days since, at Marion, Mass. It is stated that "a Mr Fisher had put up a brick-yard near the town of Marion, on what he supposed public land; and, after he had made a considerable quantity of bricks ready for burning, it was discovered that the land belonged to some person in Georgia, who appointed a Mrs. Shumaker his agent. Mrs. S. ordered Fisher from the land, and refused to let him move the brick. She notified Fisher in writing, that he must quit the premises, to which Fisher replied that he would die first, and proceeded to settle up his little matters.—Mrs. Shumacher made her will. On the 6th ult., Fisher and his two sons, on one side; Mrs. Shumacher and her husband on the other, all heavily armed with guns and pistols, repaired to the brick-yard. It seems that the Fishers arrived first, and on the arrival of the other party, the battle took place. It is said that Mr Shumacher fired the first gun, which was succeded by a general firing from both parties, in which Mrs Shumacher was mortally and Southey Fisher dangerously wounded. Eight guns were fired, and two shot by Mrs. Shumacher herself; she lived about 12 or 13 hours after she received the wound, and expired. It is thought that Fisher will recover. Mr Shumacher has been committed."

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAM SHIP

GREAT WESTERN.

13 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

STATE OF THE COTTON MARKET.—ACCOUCHMENT OF THE QUEEN.—IRISH STATE TRIALS.—AFFAIRS IN MOROCCO.—BOMBARDMENT OF TANGIER.—ABDICATION OF MEHEMET ALI, &c.

The Great Western, Capt Matthews, arrived at N. York, at half past 6 o'clock on Saturday evening from Liverpool with advices from that place to the 17th inclusive.

She made the passage in exactly two weeks. One hundred thirty-three passengers came in her.

There has been no change in cotton; tendency, however, in favor of buyers. There was a good trade demand.

Affairs in Morocco have assumed a more quiet aspect. France has intimidated the Emperor. The bombardment of Tangier will probably settle the trouble.

Mehemit Ali has abdicated in favor of his son Ibrahim.

The Prince Royal of Prussia is now on a visit to England.

The intelligence of the English crops is very favorable to England, and unfavorable to America.

Mr Washington Irwin has arrived in Paris on leave of absence for two months from his diplomatic duties in Spain. After a short stay he will pay a visit to London.

Ireland.—Repeal Association—At the weekly meeting of this association on Monday, the 5th inst. the chair was taken by Mr Arabin, the Dublin Lord Mayor Elect. A letter was read from Lord Wicklow, in continuation of a controversy with the association, in which his Lordship gives the Repealers very hopes of his ever joining their ranks. Rent for the week, £13 16.

The usual weekly meeting was held on the 12th inst. The chair was taken by Richard O'Gorman, Esq Mr D O'Connell, jr., announced the receipt of various subscriptions, and proceeded to give his usual weekly return from the prison. He was happy to be able to inform the association that the imdrisoned martyrs were in good health and most excellent spirits, enjoying the glorious fact of the tranquility of Ireland throughout its entire extent.

Mr C Powell, M P, moved the adoption of an address to the Queen, praying that she would liberate Mr O'Connell, who is stated in the address to be "her Majesty's most illustrious subject," and "the greatest man of the age." The adoption of the address was seconded by Henry Grattan, Esq., who stated that it had received 1,084,088 signatures. Mr Smith O'Brien announced the amount of subscription to be £946 17s for the week, and the meeting adjourned.

Irish State Trials in Parliament.—Parliament stands adjourned until September 5th, to enable the House of Lords to give judgement in the case of Mr O'Connell, and also to afford the minister an opportunity, should he think proper to embrace it, of bringing the foreign relations of the country before the national inquest.

Judgment in the case of the traversers will be given on the 2d proximo, and although it is generally understood that it will confirm the proceedings in the Irish court, much will depend upon the opinions which the judges may entertain with regard to the proceedings connected with the monster trials, whether any portion of Mr O'Connell's term of incarceration will be curtailed. The Governmentis much more anxious to come to terms with O'Connell than he is with them.

Before the session closed, they bid high for popularity in Ireland by repealing, at the risk of offending the prejudices of many of their English supporters, the absurd penal laws, which disgraced the statutes, respecting Catholics. A bill, conceived in a similar spirit, enabling property to be legally transferred to the use of the church of Rome in Ireland, was introduced and passed.

As regards the parliamentary position of the ministry, the session which has now closed has exhibited their weakness, their divisions and their defeats.—Their moral strength has been seriously limpaired.—Another such session of reverses and blunders will go far to open the mortals of Downing street to their rivals, the whigs.

Death of Joseph Bonaparte.—Letters from Florence, of the 30th ult, mention the death of Joseph Bonaparte, once King of Naples, and afterwards of Spain. He died on the 28th ult., after a long illness. His brothers, Louis and Jerome, were with him in his last moments.

Louis is now the head of the family, but his health is also very bad, and his successor is Prince Louis Napoleon, the prisoner at Ham. The Romagna is stated to be still in a very disorderly state. It is stated, too, that the Pope is dangerously ill.

Accouchement of the Queen—Birth of a Prince.—The birth of a Prince—the Duke of York we presume to call him by anticipation—has relieved every solicitude as to the personal welfare of Queen Victoria, and has given a new security for the direct succession to the crown. The Queen was "taken ill" soon after five o'clock on Tuesday morning, the 6th instant.

The actual birth took place, without any adverse occurrence, at 10 minutes before 8½ o'clock, in the course of the morning guns were fired at Windsor, at St James's Park, and at the Tower; and bells were rung and flags hoisted in every quarter as the news spread. The Queen and the infant have continued to do well; such being the tenor of the bulletins down to the last issued.

THE PROPRIETORS

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment; suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three, can by the Portable Boats most effectually be removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers of all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

UNITED STATES
PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandize to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines; without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.
