The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 7.

☞On our outside form will be found a lotlar descriptive of the Hermitage,—and Poetry.

THEATRE.—This evening the performances will be of the first order. The interesting drama of the Carpenter of Rouen, and the comedy of Ways & Means.

POLE RAISING.—The democrats of Lawrenceville will raise a magnificent Hickory Pole to-day, at 2 o'clock. Several popular speakers will be present and address the meeting.

SPLENDID PRIZE BANNER.

We announced in yesterday's paper that the patriotic democratic Ladies were determined not to be outdone by their fair whig competitors, and had made arrangements to present a Splendid Banner to the delegation of any ward or township having the largest number of Workingmen in the procession of the 19th. They will also present a magnificent Flag to that county which shall send the largest delegation to the Convention Both the Flag and Banner will be of the most magnificent kind, superior to any that has ever been seen in this county. Here, democrats, is a prize worth contending for—and we trust that no delegation will resign it without a struggle. It is the best way that you can attest your gratitude to the Ladies who have so generously and patriotically prepared them for you.

☞We learn from a notice published in our paper this morning, that it is in contemplation to raise a Hickory Pole in front of the Monongahela House. It is to be a splendid stick, upwards of 300 feet high, and to have a magnificent flag proportionably long.

THE INGOLDSBY LEGENDS, a new work by Thomas Ingoldsby, Esq., has been received at Cook's. It contains several excellent stories in prose and in verse. The latter are said by critics to "surpass every thing of the kind that has appeared since the days of Hudibras and Peter Pindar."

☞We understand that the spirited Democrats of the 2d ward are about to raise a magnificent Hickory on the Monongahela wharf, in front of the Monongahela House, and in juxta-position to the mammoth coon pole about to be raised opposite Blackburn's store. (Sept 7th-1*)

DORR MEETING.

The Democratic citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, are respectfully invited to attend a public meeting to be held this evening, (Saturday) at the Washington Hotel, for the purpose of expressing our indignation at the conduct of the Federal Algerines of Rhode Island in imprisoning the patriot Dorr.

MANY DEMOCRATS.

Splendid Paintings for Sale.

A PORTRAIT of the Hon. JAMES ROSS, and one of the Hon. WILLIAM WILKINS, painted by that favorite and distinguished artist, the late JAMES BOWMAN, Esq., are offered for sale.

These pictures are not only valuable as being perfect likenesses of the gentlemen for whom they were taken, but possess surpassing merit, as specimens of art—they have been pronounced by connoiseurs to be splendid paintings, and among the most successful works of the eminent painter from whose hand they come.

They may be seen at the Looking Glass Store of W. C. WALL, in Fourth street, between Wood and Market.

Attention is especially invited to these portraits, as no other opportunity will, perhaps, ever occur to obtain portraits from the pencil of the gifted BOWMAN, at a price so cheap as these are offered.

NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE PROPRIETORS

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and shippers generally, that they have changed the name of their Transportation Line, from the United States Portable Boat Line, to the American Portable Boat Line.

This line is composed of twenty-five new Four Section Portable Boats, one of which will depart daily from Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat over every other mode of transportation are too well known to shippers generally to require comment: suffice it to say, that the detention, loss, separation and damage to Goods, invariably attending three or four shipments between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, are by the Portable Boats most effectually removed.

To give undoubted security to owners and shippers all goods and produce shipped by this line will be insured in a responsible office in Philadelphia, without any additional charge to the owners.

Merchandise shipped by this line in any of the eastern cities, and consigned to H Devine & Co, will be forwarded immediately on arrival at Pittsburgh to any part of the west, free of commissions.

H. Devine will receive produce consigned to him, pay steamboat freight and charges, and forward the same to any of the eastern cities, and charge no commissions for storage, advancing or forwarding. UNITED STATES
PORTABLE BOAT LINE

For the transportation of Merchandize to and from PITTSBURGH, BALTIMORE, PHILADELPHIA, NEW YORK AND BOSTON.

THE success this line has met with, since it was first established on the "Individual Enterprise" system, has induced the proprietors to increase the number of Boats during the winter to twenty-five, one of which will leave Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Baltimore every day (except Sundays) during the season, and make the trip through in six days.

The superiority and advantages of the Portable Boat System over every other mode of transportation (when canals intersect with rail roads) are too well known to shippers by this route generally to require any comment.

Shippers can rely on having their produce, merchandize, or goods of any kind that may be consigned to the Agents of this Line, forwarded with dispatch and at the very lowest rate of freight charged by other Lines, without any additional charge made for receiving or advancing charges, &c.
