SPECIAL NOTICES.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.—With corrupt, disordered and vitiated blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases. Try AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders. During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alternative we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass. and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & SON, and by all Druggists.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

An Old Gazette—Reminiscences of the Past.

A gentleman, who did not take the trouble to give his name, (fearing, perhaps, that we might publish it,) has left at our office a copy of The Pittsburgh Gazette and Manufacturing and Mercantile Advertiser, dated Friday, June 11, 1824—forty-one years ago. The paper was "published every Friday morning, by David Maclean, Fourth, between Market and Wood streets, at two dollars per annum, payable in advance." Let us glance over this stray leaf from the book of the past, and see what it contains of interest in the way of advertisements:

W. Anderson, auctioneer, informs the public that he will sell a valuable assortment of books, at "early candle light," at the auction room in Wood street....Wm. H. Hart, who dates his advertisement "Monongahela bridge," offers a lot of stationery, school books, planes, saws, a horse, a Jersey wagon, etc.....John Scull, of Allegheny Town, offers for sale a ground rent of a lot of ground on the corner of Market and Front streets, with a two story brick and a two story frame fronting on Market street. The ground rent was "six hundred and forty dollars a year forever."....John M'Donald and Edward Simpson "have entered into partnership in the practice of law." Office in Front, near Market street.

The lottery business seems to have flourished in those days, as we find advertisements of the "Grand State Lottery of Maryland," and the "Union Canal Lottery"—the tickets for the latter being "for sale at the bookstore of Eichbaum & Johnston, in Market, between Second and Third streets."

There are two city ordinances published in this number—one in reference to the markets, and the other respecting wharves and foot pavements on the Monongahela river, and authorizing the Mayor and street commissioner to "lease out such parts of the beach of the Monongahela river as they may deem proper." Alexander Johnston, Jr., was President, and E. J. Roberts clerk of the Common Council, and James Ross, President and Neville B. Craig, clerk of the Select Council.

George Hogg, of Brownsville, advertises a runaway negro, and offers a reward of ten dollars for securing him in Pittsburgh jail, or twenty dollars if lodged in the jail of Uniontown. The negro was named Elsery Hazard, was twenty-five years of age, and "a servant until the age of twenty-eight." This advertisement is published in regular Southern style, with a cut representing Samboes making tracks for other quarters.

S. A. Daberry "has just arrived" and offers a general assortment of goods, among which we notice dry goods, bonnets, Masonic aprons, false curls, verdigris, etc.....Harvey & Clayland advertise "valuable medicines" for sale at their store, corner of Market and Third streets. "Hamilton's Elixir, Lee's Persian Lotion, Hahn's Genuine Eye Water, Tooth Ache and Ague and Fever Drops, and many other articles, could only be had here, as they were "the only venders for the city of Pittsburgh."

H. Bonnett has "just arrived from Philadelphia," and offers European and domestic dry goods, anti billious pills, nerve cordial, itch ointment, etc.....John S. Sheldon wants apprentice to the book-binding business, and S. Wood gives the prices which he charges for plastering and paper hanging.....John Anderson and M. Belknap, under the firm of J. Anderson & Co., have opened "a general agency and commission business," at the corner of Market and Water streets, in Mr. C. Cowan's brick warehouse, lately occupied by Messrs. Steele & Co.....Lowrie & Curtis advertise a stock of groceries at their store on Wood street, between Second and Third, and M. B. Lowrie keeps his office in the north corner of the Diamond, in the room lately occupied by R. Christy, Esq.".....Henry Holdship offers for sale Brewery No. 4, in the eastern suburbs of the city.....Robinson and Willock "are now opening" a fresh stock of goods at their store in Market street, "lately occupied by Mr. Wm. McKnight."....Adams, Alley & Co. give notice "that they are prepared to manufacture all kinds of machinery for spinning and weaving cotton.".....J. Towne has removed "his lottery and exchange office to the north-east corner of Market and Third streets, where he will continue to buy and sell most kinds of bank notes and specie, and transact all kinds of lottery and exchange business." He also advertises a "handsome lot of satin paper hangings with velvet borders."....Henry Holdship, C. Anshutz and Martin Rahm give notice that "the notes, books, accounts and all other property of Robert Patterson and J. H. Lambdin, stationers and paper manufacturers, have been assigned to them for the benefit of creditors.".....R. J. Walker, attorney and counsellor at law, having resigned the clerkship of the United States Court, for the Western District of Pennsylvania, will henceforth practice in that court, as well as the other courts of the county—office on Fourth, between Market and Wood streets....John Robinson runs the "New Stourbridge Flint Glass Works, Pittsburgh," where every description of flint glass ware can be had, "equal if not superior to anything of the kind manufactured in the United States."....John Thaw, Treasurer of the Monongahela Bridge Company, announces a dividend of three per cent....George W. Hubley, dentist, states that he can be found at Mr. Darlington's Hotel for a short time, where he will take out bad teeth and put in good ones:.... Messrs. Eichbaum and Johnston desire to rent "the dwelling house at the corner of Front street and Chancery alley, formerly occupied as the Post Office.".....The Bank Note Exchange is "corrected semi-monthly, at N. Holmes' Exchange Office, Market street, between Second and Third."

Travelers are informed that Robert Stewart "has removed from his old stand on the Pittsburgh and Greensburg turnpike, about twenty miles east of Pittsburgh, to the sign of the Stage and Horses, at the corner of Wood and Fifth streets." The stages leave every morning at four o'clock for Philadelphia, Baltimore, etc. John Blair & Co. advertise to carry passengers by stage from Pittsburgh to Harrisburg, within four and a half days—fare $18. This line started from the house of Colonel Ramsay. Arthur McGill advertises that the Pittsburgh and Erie stage leaves John Davis' Hotel, Pittsburgh, every Sunday, Wednesday and Friday.

There were sheriffs in those days—and "J. L. Stewart, Sh'ff," advertises three lots for sale, at the corner of Liberty street and Diamond alley—"seized and taken in execution as the property of George Cochran, at the suit of Samuel Caldwell & Sons." [Our present worthy sheriff is not the first of the name who held that office.]

The above embraces nearly all the advertisements in the paper, and we will conclude with giving the marriage notices: At Mercer, on the 20th ult., by Joseph Smith, Esq., Mr. John Mowry, of Pittsburgh, to Miss Margaret Jane Graham, of Mercer. At Washington, Pa., on the 4th inst., by the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, Mr. John Ritchie, merchant, to Miss Ellen Campbell, daughter of Parker Campbell, Esq., all of that place. On Tuesday evening, 3d inst., by the Rev. John H. Hopkins, Mr. Lewis H. Reno, to Miss Anna Eliza, daughter of Mr. Ephraim Frisbee, all of this city. On the same evening, by the Rev. M. Wheeler, Mr. Samuel R. Johnston, of the house of Eichbaum & Johnston, booksellers, to Miss Mary Nelson, both of this city. On the same evening, by the same, Mr. James A. Bartram, to Miss Eliza Stackhouse, both of this city.

Recommitted.—Heintzelman and Johnston, rested on a charge of stealing a watch from an unknown soldier, and a carpet sack from Rev. Thomas Pugh, had a hearing before Mayor Lowry to-day, and were recommitted for a further hearing. The soldier has not yet turned up, but Mr. Pugh has secured his property and will be present at the next term of Court to prosecute the thieves.

Accident to a Locomotive—Fall of Trestle Work.

Messrs. Zug & Co., of the Fifth Ward, recently obtained permission to construct a switch from the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, on Pike street, through private property, and over Etna street, to their rolling mill, for the purpose of obtaining their supplies of coal. The trestle work or bridge over Etna street was about twelve feet high, built of pine timbers, and supported by trusses also of pine. The switch having been completed, Engine No. 11 was ordered to pass over it, to see how it would stand weight. Some empty coal cars were attached to the engine, and a number of persons, including Mr. Zug, got upon the cars to ride over. The main portion of the trestle work supported the weight without any signs of giving way, but when the engine was about midway of the bridge it fell through with a tremendous crash. The engine was backing at the time, and the tender had partly got upon the solid trestle work, on the other side of Etna street, when the crash came, so that it did not go down with the engine, but is rather piled on top of it, with one end resting on the track, and the other jammed into the engine. The engineer was on the tender, and escaped with a slight cut on the end of one of his fingers. The fireman, John Hardy, of Lawrenceville, was on the engine, and either fell or jumped off, he was unable to tell which, and was considerably bruised, but not dangerously hurt. All those on the coal cars jumped off when they heard the timbers crashing, but so far as they were concerned the danger was then over. The engine weighs about 25 tons, and the bottom timbers were snapped off like so many lath. The bridge is a complete wreck, and the locomotive and tender are considerably damaged. There has been a dangerous miscalculation on the part of somebody in reference to the strength of this bridge, and it is very fortunate that loss of life did not result therefrom. There is another bridge over the same street, a few hundred feet above, which is said to be little if any safer than the one just destroyed. These works should be examined by some person competent to pass upon their safety, before being used, or loss of life will be the result.

Mrs. Grinder, the Poisoner—Still Further Developments.

Each succeeding day seems to develop some new case of poisoning on the part of the notorious Mrs. Grinder, the recital of whose crimes has created such an intense excitement throughout the community. A lady called upon Mayor Lowry to-day, and gave the details of attempts made by Mrs. Grinder to take the lives of two of her neighbors, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Morningstar. These attempts were made some time after Mrs. Grinder had removed from the room which she occupied near the corner of Wood and Fourth streets. Mrs. Reynolds resided near the same place, and a supper was gotten up at Mrs. R.'s, which Mrs. G. helped to cook. Mrs. M. was invited, and after supper these women were both taken violently ill—Mrs. M. being seized with such an intense burning sensation in the stomach that she was afraid she would die before she could be got home. The poison had been placed in the tea, of which Mrs. M. had drunk heartily. Mrs. R. did not like the taste of the tea, and drank but moderately, but still she became quite ill. They both got better, however, and in a few days after Mrs. G. invited Mrs. R. to her house, and gave her a second dose of poison, from the effects of which she recovered. Mrs. M. was to have been present at the same time, but had not recovered sufficiently. It was remarked that Mrs. G. did not drink any of the tea served at Mrs. Reynolds', and there were suspicions that poison had been used, but Mrs. G. blamed another woman, and succeeded in warding off suspicion by bestowing unusual attention and care upon the sick.

The facts in connection with the above murderous attempts, as well as the several others previously reported, will probably be more fully developed on the hearing, which is to take place next Wednesday week. In the meantime the bodies of Mrs. Caruthers and Miss Buchanan will be exhumed, and the stomachs subjected to a chemical analysis.

The Boyd's Hill Murder.—There are no new developments to-day in connection with the Body's Hill murder. The Coroner's jury will meet again this evening, but there being no testimony of imporance to offer, they will probably adjourn for a few days. The body has been interred in Hilldale Cemetery, and there seems at present to be but little prospect of its being identified.

In Town.—Captain J. H. Gillis, U. S. N., arrived in this city yesterday on a short visit to his family, looking remarkably well. The services rendered by Commander Gillis during the war are well known to the country. His bravery and courage at the siege of Mobile, when the gunboat he commanded was sunk by a torpedo, will long be remembered.
