CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Democratic County Convention.

The Virtue and intelligence representatives of the Democracy assembled in County Convention, at the Court House, yesterday morning, at eleven o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket.

Thomas Donnelly, Esq., chairman of the County Executive Committee, called the Convention to order, when Jacob Whitesell and Robert Morrow were appointed temporary Secretaries.

The credentials of delegates were then received, it appeared that some twenty-five districts were not represented. This shows a very "happy" lack of interest in a very large portion of this county.

On motion, Alex. M'Clelland, of the Sixth Ward, was chosen President. After thanking the Convention for the honor conferred, Mr. M'Clelland congratulated the Democracy on the conclusion of the war, on the struggle for the vindication of the Constitution and the Union.

The Democratic party, however, had to fight anew the same battle which anticipated the bloody struggle just ended—namely, "the battle of fealty to the Constitution." The great question now to be decided was, "Shall the Constitution remain inviolate?" Under the championship of Andrew Johnson, who by his official acts was beckoning the Democracy on to the conflict, they hoped to fight that battle of fealty to the Constitution, and triumph. The speech was considered good, and was heartily applauded—especially the reference to President Johnson.

On motion, Messrs. Robert Stevenson, John Dunlap, Jacob Miller, Wm. J. Montgomery, and Joseph Seibert, were chosen Vice Presidents.

The temporary Secretaries were continued, with the addition of the name of Mr. William Yarley.

Allgower, J. Brunner, and the appointment of a Committee of five to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Convention, (thus "stealing a march" on the redoubtable "Benton" Kerr, who has "done up" the resolutions for all the Democratic Conventions held for a month past.

Col. Gibson moved that Colonel J. K. Kerr, of the Fourth Cavalry, be Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, which was agreed to.

The motion was adopted, and the chair appointed Col. James K. Kerr, Chas. Bryson, Wm. Lynn, James McLaughlin, and James A. Gibson.

Mr. F. Bailey, from the committee appointed at the last convention, reported a series of resolutions for the government of all subsequent conventions, which were adopted.

The convention then proceeded to receive nominations, it being understood that all the nominees should be chosen from among the recent "veteran" arrivals.

State Senate—Col. George S. Hays, of the 5th Reserves.

Assembly—Captain Andrew Large, 1034 regiment; Major Thomas Gibson, 11th Cavalry; Henry McCurdy, 6th Reserves; Volt. Grange, 84th, 120th Pa. Vols; Francis U. M'Clure, 1031 Pa. Vol.; Major J. F. Ryan, 634 Pa. Vol.

Controller—Major John H. Cassell, of the 5th Pa. Cavalry.

Commissioner—John Connor, 631 Pa. Vol.

District Attorney—Major J. A. Lowrie, A. A. G. on the Provost Marshal's staff.

Treasurer—Dr. James Kerr, Surgeon 631 Pa. Volunteers.

Surveyor—E. D. G. Hastings, 1034 Pa. Vol.

Auditor—Alexander Morton, 1st Pa. Cavalry.

There was no contest whatever for any of the offices, and the ceremony of "nominating" was of the coldest and most formal character.

The Convention then took a recess until two o'clock, to hear the report of the Committee on Resolutions.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the opening of the Convention, Col. James A. Gibson, of Pine township, one of the Committee on Resolutions, made a statement to the Convention relative to a "rumpus" which had occurred in the committee. The committee had met at the office of the chairman, Col. Kerr, when two sets of resolutions were offered—one proved by the Chairman of the Convention, and offered by Mr. Linn, and the second prepared by Mr. Kerr, and offered by the speaker. These resolutions, although well written, (and Mr. Col. Kerr supposed, at the request of the Committee) had received very little attention. A resolution declaring in favor of Gov. Cass for Governor, had also been submitted by the speaker, but ignored. The Committee had adopted the first set, and the majority would so report. Col. Gibson then asked the Convention to postpone the consideration of the majority report until he could present the report of the minority, which was now being re-copied.

These remarks brought Mr. Linn to his feet, who stated that the Committee had carefully considered both sets of resolutions, and the three first sets had been adopted with but one dissenting voice, (Col. Gibson)—the Chairman of this Committee (Col. Kerr) declining to vote. He considered the statement of Col. Gibson most extraordinary, and altogether out of order. He had nothing whatever to say against Col. Kerr, but could not endorse the resolutions which he had offered in committee.

The Chairman of the Convention rose to his feet, and in the few caustic remarks overhauled Colonel Gibson for having indulged in personalities, and committed a gross breach of courtesy in detailing what had occurred in the committee room.

"Benton" Kerr called the chairman to order, and a general "rumpus" ensued, which we will not attempt to describe. A dozen delegates were on the floor at once, crying out at the tops of their voices, while the chairman peralated in smoking an explanation. Some were in favor of hearing the chairman, while others were railing him out of order.

Col. Gibson finally got the ear of the Convention, and asked the Chair what grounds he had for charging personality and discourtesy upon him.

The Chairman replied that it was grossly personal for him, as a member of the Committee, to indicate the author of any resolutions which might be before them; and it was discourteous for him to make public the private proceedings of the Committee.

The whole debate was now ruled out of order, and comparative quiet was restored.

Mr. Linn then submitted the majority report of the committee as follows:

The Democratic party of Allegheny county, in delegate convention assembled, do hereby resolve:

First, That the Platform of Resolutions adopted by the recent Democratic State Convention, receives our hearty approval; applying, as it does, to the present dangerous emergency of our Union (an emergency recognized by the Federal Executive, and regarded by him as created which make Republicans pause)—those great and sufficient truths and measures established by the founders of our government, and steadily maintained by the Democratic party, for the conservation of the Union and the constitution, which we hold to be now and forever sacred and inseparable.

Second, That the late Republican Convention of this county, having made the broad declaration of policy, to guarantee by Federal constitutional enactment the elective franchise to persons of color, we accept the issue with President Johnson here taken by the Republican party, and do emphatically declare that we believe the White to be the superior race of this continent; that we are hostile to inaugurating a new era based on Negro Suffrage and Political Equality with the White; that this government was founded by white men alone, in the sagacious language of the framers of the Constitution, ordained and established it "for ourselves and our posterity," and we appeal to the civilized race, over and above color, to of more temporary issue, to declare with us by their ballots that the White Race must govern America.

Third, That President Johnson, in his declared views of reconstruction, shall receive our cordial and enthusiastic co-operation.

Fourth, That our Army and Navy, in nobly fighting for the preservation and integrity of the Union, have secured its grand blessings for generations of the future, entitling them to our warmest gratitude; and, to all time, their heroic deeds will emblazon and beautify the pages of our country's history.

Fifth, That Gen. W. W. H. Davis, and Col. John P. Linton, our State nominees, are worthy standard bearers in a glorious cause; and as they have stood by their country's flag in many a well-fought field, so we will rally to their support in the great contest of October next.

During the reading, the resolutions were frequently applauded.

Colonel Gibson arose to offer the minority report of the committee. Another noisy debate ensued. The chair decided that the minority of the committee had the floor. Colonel Gibson requested that time be granted him in which to procure the copy of the minority report. Amid considerable confusion, the chairman decided that it was a question of privilege, and rested entirely with the convention. Colonel Gibson read the final resolution of the minority, as follows:

Resolved, That Western Pennsylvania, under a just assignment of political honors, and with a proper regard to her sectional advancement, is entitled to indicate the next Governor of our State, and that the interests of the people of this part of the Commonwealth would be promoted, and their pride and their affections alike gratified, in the nomination of General George W. Cass for that office. We are glad to record our confidence in his political purity, and our high sense of his private excellences, and to ask our fellow Democrats throughout the Commonwealth to confirm our choice.

A perfect tempest of confusion ensued, in which it was impossible to distinguish any word of any man. During a momentary lull it was moved and seconded that the majority report be accepted. This was a signal for increased uproar, to quiet which the efforts of the chairman to enforce order were fruitless. The chair decided that the resolution read by Col. Gibson constituted the minority report—a decision from which Col. Gibson appealed. As soon as some degree of quiet was restored, Col. Kerr, chairman of the Committee, offered some remarks in explanation of his resolutions. He supposed he was considered by the Convention as an intruder, but he had not forced himself into their meeting nor into his position as chairman of the committee. He wished only to say that he was a life-long Democrat, had never been anything else, and had never been where he was afraid to declare himself a Democrat. Harmony was essential, and his political action should be governed by the action of the Convention.

The Chairman put the motion that the majority report be accepted, explaining that this would not involve the adoption of the resolutions. An amendment was offered, proposing to adopt Col. Gibson's resolution to the majority report. The vote was taken at the greatest confusion. The first was cleared and a division of the delegates followed. The motion was carried almost unanimously, a result that was hailed by the victors with the most uproarious applause. The adoption of the consolidated report was then moved and carried. Col. Gibson offered the resolutions of Col. Kerr, but the chair ruled them out of order.

A motion was then offered by Col. Gibson, requesting Col. Kerr to address the Convention on his adjournment. The motion was carried. Col. Gibson then moved that a committee of correspondence for Allegheny county be appointed, of which the chairman of the convention should be chairman. The motion was carried.

Complete order was then restored in the room by the adjournment of the convention and the dispersion of the delegates.

Col. Kerr was called for but had disappeared.

The Wood Street Robbery.

Suspicion having been attested by Mr. Henry Schild against Fry, for the robbery of a watch set in the Diamond, Allegheny, for the robbery of his watch together with two watches, one gold and the other silver, of questionably mixed metal, he was arrested. It seems that about a week ago, Fry brought the two watches to Mr. Schild, and asked as a favor an advance of $50 upon them, paying in addition two five-franc gold pieces. The money was given, and the time having expired for a redemption of the pledges, Fry made his appearance on Tuesday night and stated that he would not be able to redeem the articles for several days. Mr. Schild showed him where he kept the watches, and said that any time he wished to redeem them he could do so. Upon the discovery of the robbery, he at once attached suspicion to Fry as the thief, he being the only person beside himself who knew where the watches were. Fry was arrested yesterday, and upon examination brought a number of witnesses who testified that he was at home at eleven o'clock, and as Mr. Schild did not close his restaurant until twelve o'clock on the night preceding the robbery, Fry could not have been the thief. He was therefore discharged.

Visiting Firemen.

The Good Intent Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, of Philadelphia, have completed their arrangements for their intended visit to our city, and will leave on Monday next arriving here at half past two on Tuesday morning. They bring with them their new hose carriage, and sixty men fully equipped, under the marshalship of Major William A. Delaney, assisted by Caleb Charman and F. A. Morrell, Esqs. They will be accompanied by the following gentlemen: Chief Engineer Lyle, H. B. Bobb, Chief Marshal for the coming parade; Colonel P. S. White, Colonel William F. Small; Alderman David Bell, F. W. C. Greene, and several members of the press. The company will be accompanied by the Jefferson Cornet Band, under the leadership of Professor Roth. During their stay in our city, the Good Intent boys will be the guests of the Duquesne Engine Company, who have made every arrangement for their reception and entertainment.

Business at the Mayor's Office.

Business at the Mayor's office has been quite brisk during the past three months. The number of cases returned to court, which constitute but a small proportion of the cases heard before the Mayor, will be about two hundred. One hundred of these have already been returned to John W. Riddell, Esq., Deputy District Attorney, whose duty it is to prepare the bills for the grand jury. The remaining cases, about one hundred in number, will be sent up before the opening of court. It will be seen, from the above, that the Mayor's office is a very important feeder to the Criminal Court. Several of the cases, especially those against Mrs. Grinder, will involve long and exciting trials. The next term of court will be one of the heaviest known since the organization of the county.

Knocked Down and Robbed.—Thos. Jackson, of Canonsburg, Washington county, appeared at the office of Alderman Donaldson, yesterday and represented that on the previous evening, on Water street, he was knocked down and robbed of nine dollars in money and a silver watch. A man named J. F. Myers, employed at Fred. Wise's restaurant, on Fifth street, was arrested as the robber, but upon being confronted by Jackson, he did not prove to be the right person, and was therefore discharged. The blow Jackson received must have been a severe one, as the side of his head was much bruised and swollen.

Hold Larceny.—On Tuesday night, some expert thief entered the boarding house of Mrs. Robinson, corner of Sandusky street and Gay alley, in the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, and stole $100 in money from the pocket of a dress belonging to the landlady. Mrs. Robinson slept on the first floor, and left the shutter open and the window sash up, and it is possible that the money may have been obtained by reaching in through the window. Mayor Morrison issued a search warrant, and the house was thoroughly examined, but the money could not be found.

The Athletic Base Ball Contest.—The Athletics, of Philadelphia, as has been previously announced, will visit our city on Monday, in time to open the contest with the club of our city. An amphitheatre is being erected on West Commons, Allegheny, capable of seating 2500 persons. The contest will be on Monday next, the hours not yet being fixed. On their return home from their visit to this city, the Athletic Club will stop at Altoona, to play their old friends of the Mountain Club.

Commendable Act.—August Ammon, Esq., Justice of the Peace in Birmingham, and likewise the well-known Court Interpreter, has resigned the last named office in favor of a one-legged soldier, Mr. John J. Hoer. This is a praiseworthy and patriotic act on the part of Justice Ammon. The petition of Mr. Hoer, which has been signed by the entire bar, has been forwarded to the Governor, and the appointment will without doubt be made.

An Irish Row.—John Loughran appeared before Mayor Lowry yesterday, and entered suit against Michael Dolan, Terrence Dolan and Mrs. Pebbe Brady, charging them with having committed an assault and battery upon his son, Michael Loughran, a young man almost of age. The difficulty occurred in Peebles township. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the defendants.

Bigamy.—Mary Ann Covals yesterday made information before Alderman Strain, charging John Hannen with bigamy. She alleges that she was married to Hannen about a year ago, in Manchester, and that since then she has ascertained that Hannen has another wife, having previously married one Mary Ann Finn. Hannen was arrested and committed to jail in default of bail.

Housebreaking and Larceny.—On Tuesday night some person entered the eating saloon of Henry Schild, in the First ward, by forcing open one of the doors, and stole therefrom a gold open face watch, valued at $60, a composition watch worth $15, two gold five franc pieces, and $25 in currency.

Larceny of a Pocket Book—The Thief Captured.

On Tuesday morning a young man named George Booth, residing on Webster street, Sixth ward, made information before Alderman Butler, charging one Robert Tipping, a boarder in the same house, with breaking open his trunk and stealing therefrom one hundred and two dollars in national currency. The whereabouts of the thief was not discovered until the same evening when a younger brother of Mr. Booth discovered him standing on the platform of the Pennsylvania railroad, and not being able to find an officer, seized him by the coat collar and attempted to take him to the watch house. Tipping resisted, and the two rolled around the platform for nearly ten minutes, young Booth holding on to his man with a death grip. Tipping finding that he could not escape produced a pocket book containing eighty-one dollars, which he offered to restore if Booth would release him. This Booth also captured, and again taking the thief by the neck started for the Mayor's office. Tipping, a second time resisted, and while the parties were scuffling officer Gumbert came up and took him in charge. Yesterday morning he had a hearing before Alderman Butler, when he acknowledged the theft. He was committed to jail in default of bail to answer.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—Mr. Barrett, in the splendid play of "Rosedale," to-night makes his last appearance but one. The play and actor seem to be delighting every one who witness them, and intelligent gatherings throng nightly to the theatre. To-morrow Mr. Barrett takes his farewell benefit, bidding us good-bye for a time at least. We trust, however, he may soon return.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Charlotte Thompson as the "Little Barefoot," acquitted herself in her usual admirable manner. She appears this evening in "Camille," a character in the previous rendition of which, a few days since, she was heartily applauded. Mlle. Ernestine is a fancy dancer.

Displaced Confidence.—Yesterday an elderly German woman bought a handful of peaches at a stand on Fifth Street. Finding it difficult to hustle her money and peaches at an easy time, she hitched to the request of a small boy to add his two dollar bill to her change, and guard it while she made the change, and consented with a confiding simplicity that was delightful to the boy. When the change was made she looked with a smile for the little boy, but he had gone the way of bad boys, and to this hour the old lady is uncumbered by those peaches. As she left the spot her mutterings would have convinced any observer, that she would be, not only too confiding, but too stimulating for that boy if she caught him.

Serious Accident.—Yesterday morning a gentleman while stopping to make a purchase at an itinerant variety store, on Fifth street, kept by an Italian, having a lighted cigar in his mouth, accidentally ignited a globular-shaped child's balloon filled with gas, a number of which were exposed for sale, and the fire communicating with the gas, the balloon exploded, frightening and burning his face and neck in a terrible manner. The gentleman went to George Bassett's drugstore, corner of Wood and Sixth streets, where Dr. Mitchell dressed his wounds, who he left on the Eastern train. His countenance will probably be disfigured for life.

Fined.—Two of the boys concerned in the indignity to Gen. Dr. Shaw, of the Ninth ward, by throwing rotten eggs at his residence on Friday, were arrested yesterday, and on a hearing before the Mayor were each fined $25 and costs. The fathers of the boys paid the fine and costs, and will probably take full measures for the summary application of the birch rod upon the backs of the graceless scamps.

Board of Education.—Rev. Wm. Paxton, D. D., of our city, has been elected Corresponding Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Education. From his long experience with, and acquaintance to collegiate and theological education, Dr. Paxton is ably qualified for the responsible position.

Personal.—Thomas H. Creed, of the firm of Gree Brothers, of this city, is lying transversely in a New York, whither he had gone on business connected with the firm.

The Young Man's Friend.—Warranted to cure Private Diseases. For sale by druggists. Ask for the Young Man's Friend. A pamphlet stating the symptoms, and treatment of private diseases accompanies each package. Sent to any address, free of charge, on receipt of one per cent on every species of negotiable money, addressed to Dr. Wm. Ward, No. 27 Fifth street, Cincinnati, with a three cent stamp enclosed.
