THE CRY IS STILL FOR TEXAS.
BOOT AND SHOE EMPORIUM.
No 112 Market Street,

THE subscriber again appeals to his friends and the public generally, asking them to sustain him in his patriotic efforts to serve them and himself. Having just returned from the East, he is prepared to supply them with an article superior to any thing they can get in the city. This is no fiction, as those who have dealt with me can testify. Humbug is the order of the day with some of our houses, but the public may rely on it that they will get a better Boot or Shoe for the same money of me, than in any other house in the city. Being a practical shoemaker myself, I have advantages which is a guarantee to my friends that the goods purchased by me is superior to those brought on by men having no knowledge of the business. Customers, work made to measure.
