RELIANCE PORTABLE BOAT LINE.

1846

FOR TRANSPORTING GOODS
Between Pittsburgh and the Eastern Cities,
WITHOUT TRANSHIPPING.

THIS old established Line (being the oldest Portable Boat Line on the Canal) is now prepared to receive Produce and Merchandize for shipping either East or West. The Boats of this Line are commanded by skilful, experienced and sober Captains, and provided with good crews. Boats and cargoes are transferred from and to Canal and Railroad, saving all removal and separation of goods. Trips made in as short time, and goods carried on as fair terms as any other line.

Thankful for, and respectfully soliciting a continuance of the very liberal and growing patronage heretofore bestowed upon this line, we with confidence assure those merchants disposed to favor us, that their business shall be done to their entire satisfaction — Goods carried by us consigned to either of our houses, will be shipped to their destination, free of charge for shipping, storage or advance of charges. As we hold no interest in Steamboat Stock, Merchants may depend upon their goods always being forward without delay upon good boats and at the lowest rates of freight.

Produce consigned to our house at Philadelphia for sale, will be sold on liberal terms, and advances made either at Pittsburgh or Philadelphia.

We therefore ask for the Independent Portable Boat Line a liberal share of patronage.

Pittsburgh Portable Boat Line, 1846.

FOR the transportation of freight between Pittsburgh and the Atlantic Cities, via Pennsylvania Improvements and Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad.

The Proprietors of this old established Line, having completed their arrangements, are prepared to forward goods to and from the East (on the opening of the canal navigation,) on as liberal terms as those of any other responsible Line, and are determined that no care or attention on their part shall be wanting to secure a continuance of that patronage so liberally bestowed upon them for several years past.

The decided success of the Portable Boat system, so manifest in the regularity and dispatch experienced in the delivery of goods, the absence of all risk of delay, breakage or other damage incident to the old system, where goods have to be hurriedly transhipped three times on the way, and the merchantable order, in which produce has been avowedly delivered by them, has induced the proprietors to increase their stock considerably this season. Their extensive warehouses at each point (unequalled by any other Line), affords them facilities to conduct their business with dispatch; and to shippers the convenience of free storage, if required, until their arrangements are complete—while their long experience in the carrying trade, it is presumed, will be sufficient guarantee to their patrons and the public, that they will successfully exert themselves to give general satisfaction.

Produce received and forwarded. Steamboat charges paid, and Bills Lading transmitted free of charge for commission, advancing or storage, and all communications to the following agents promptly attended to.

All of the choicest selections.

The subscriber is now opening his stock of Spring Goods, which, for variety, taste, style and quality, has never before been offered in this city. The very flattering patronage bestowed upon this establishment the past year, has induced the subscriber to make an unusual large purchase. Many of these Goods are of a superior quality and texture, and of a kind never brought to this market by any other establishment.—He would respectfully solicit the attention of his friends and the citizens generally, who are accustomed to having their garments made to order, having for some time past paid particular attention to this branch of his business, and having secured the services of the most competent and fassionable Cutters, some of whom are established and well known as such in this community.

It would be difficult, in a common advertisement, to enumerate the various articles comprising this assort, but it consists of every description of goods suitable for gentlemen's wear, such as Superfine, Plain and Fancy Colored FRENCH AND ENGLISH BROADCLOTHS.
CASSIMERES, of entire new style; various qualities;
VESTINGS, of every description, a few expressly for "Dress or Party Vests;"

Olive, Brown, Black and Gold Mixed CASHMERETS.
FINE SACK SHIRTS, with linen bosoms and collars;
SILK UNDER SHIRTS, DRAWERS, splendid Satin Scarfs, Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, &c., &c.

He will be pleased at all times to show these Goods to any wishing to purchase, feeling confident that he can furnish any garment in his line on as good terms, and in better style, than at any other establishment West of the Mountains. An examination of the stock and style of workmanship will convince any person of the advantages to be derived by purchasing at this establishment.

DIRECT FROM PHILADELPHIA.
EACH PAPER BEARS THE LABEL AND WARRANTY OF DAVID LANDRETH.

FOR sale by F L SNOWDEN, No 29 Water st., at the stand formerly occupied by Geo A Berry.

Extract from the "Report" of the "Visiting Committee of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society," unanimously adopted, and ordered to be printed.

Landreth's Nurseries and Gardens.

"These extensive grounds are on Federal street near the Arsenal. * * * The earliest collection of Camellias was made here. Some of those now in possession of those distinguished nurserymen, are in perfect health. * * * The selection of choice HOUSE PLANTS is valuable and extensive.

"The Nurseries are all very correctly managed, supplying every part of the Union, a detail of which would occupy too much of our space: we therefore content ourselves with stating that the stock is very large, and in every stage of growth, consisting of FOREST AND ORNAMENTAL TREES, EVERGREENS, SHRUBS, VINES AND CREEPERS, with a collection of herbaceous plants: FRUIT TREES of the best kind and most healthy condition; large beds of seeding apples, pears, plums, &c., as stocks for budding and grafting; a plan very superior to that of working upon suckers, which carry with them into the graft all the diseases of the parent stock. * * *

"GARDEN SEEDS of the finest quality have been scattered over the country from these grounds, and may always be depended upon. The Seed Establishment of these Horticulturists is one of the most extensive in the Union, and its reputation is well sustained from year to year.

"To obviate the chance of mixture of the farina of the plants of the same family, they have established another nursery, at a suitable distance, so that depredation cannot take place, and which secures to the purchaser a "genuine article." Knowing this the age, quality and process of culture of every plant, the supply from their grounds is recommended with great confidence."

* * * Since the date of the "Report" from which the above is extracted, the entire establishment has been greatly enlarged. The collection of Camellias embraces all the finer kinds, and consists of some thousands of various sizes; so likewise of Roses, and other desirable plants, both tender and hardy; Fruit Trees, &c.

The Seed Gardens alone cover fifty acres, and the whole is, as it has been for more than half a century, under the successive management of father and son, the most prominent in America.

WILL make insurance against Loss or Damage by Fire, in Pittsburgh and vicinity, on Houses, Stores and other buildings, and on Furniture, Goods, Wares and Merchandize, limited or perpetual, in town or country, on the most favorable terms.

The Mutual Principle, combined with a Stock Capital, and the other provisions of the Charter of this Company, hold out unusual inducements, both of profit and safety, to those desirous of effecting insurance, to which the Company ask the attention and examination of those interested.

The Capital Stock of the Company is invested in good and sufficient securities. After providing for the losses accruing to the Company, in the course of its business, the stockholders are entitled to receive out of its income and profits an interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum on the Capital Stock actually paid in—the amount of which interest, it is expected, will be supplied by funds invested—and therefore, all the remaining profits are to accumulate and be held, in like manner with the Capital Stock, for the better security of the assured. But certificates bearing interest, payable annually, transferable on the books of the Company, and convertible at any time into Capital Stock, will be issued therefor to the Stockholders and assured members, in proportion to the amount of Stock held, or premium paid by them respectively, agreeably to the provisions of the Charter.

Those effecting insurance with this company have, besides the usual protection against loss, by the ordinary method of insurance, the additional advantage of a direct participation in the profits of the Company, without any liability.

B. M. HISCHMAN, Secretary.

"UNBLUSHING FRAUDS!"
OFFICE OF THE CANTON TEA COMPANY,
New York, March 16, 1846.
To the Inhabitants of Pittsburgh, Allegheny, and the surrounding country.

OUR attention has this day been directed to an article that appeared in the "Pittsburgh Daily American," under date of 5th March instant, headed as above—and which has also appeared subsequently, in several of the Pittsburgh newspapers. We hasten to reply thereto.

We find that through these media we are successively charged with flagrant violations of the principles of truth and justice; but we are prepared to give you a triumphant vindication of our character. We, however, exceedingly regret that in so doing, we shall have to allude to our respected contemporaries the "Pekin Tea Company of New York"—their position—their history, and their manner of doing business will necessarily, in some degree, have to come under examination. All that we can do is to endeavor to keep the following developments within the limits of your neighborhood; out of which locality, we trust, for the credit's sake of whom it may concern, the questions at issue may remain undiscussed. Far from having a malicious intention in what we are about to divulge, we do so merely from the very justifiable motive of self protection—we would fain render good for evil; this we solemnly declare. Taking this laudable stand we reply, first, to the charge as follows:

"They (The Canton Tea Company) have published a handbill, in which they have appropirated, word for word, the favorable notices of the Pekin Company's teas in all the leading journals of New York, and other cities, simply altering the name of the Company from the Pekin to the Canton Tea Company."

And farther down in the column this charge is repeated, though modified as follows:

"This handbill bears the impress of the Company, and appears to have been issued, if not by it, at least upon its authority."

Now we deny ever issuing—we deny ever authorizing—we deny ever persuing such a handbill.—Truly we cannot always control the actions of our agents, at a remote distance, in relation to the methods they employ to facilitate the sale of our Teas; but as soon as we discover any thing improper in this respect, we invariably discountenance it, and urge that a strict regard to honor and uprightness might characterise all the means they use for their disposition.—By one of our remote Agents, probably, the handbill in question may have been issued, but we deny that it ever had our sanction or authority.

We cannot, however, dismiss this subject without touching upon the morality of these notices. They are represented as emanating spontaneously, from the Editors of New York and other Newspapers, and to arise from an impression of the great commercial arrangements, and general appreciation of the teas of the Pekin Tea Company. We beg leave to set you right on that subject. We are prepared to prove, on oath if required, that every favorable notice in the New York papers, referred to, were WRITTEN by the Pekin Tea Company THEMSELVES, and that almost in every case the said New York papers were PAID, for their insertion. When this was not literary the case, the said "favorable notices" were inserted in consideration of an expensive advertisement being bestowed upon the papers wherein such editorials appeared. All this we are prepared to prove—first by the admission of one of their own Agents (Hamilton)—secondly, by the advertising Agent they formerly employed—thirdly, by the testimony of most of the New York Editors themselves. So much for their "favorable notices in the public prints."

The method we adopted in prosecuting our business being essentially at variance with any modification of deception, we never resort to the publication of such notices. Every business man in New York is well acquainted with the origin, as well as the merits, of such editorialism, owing to which its utility here has long since ceased, and it rather diminishes than adds to the respectability of any New York establishment.

We next review the paragraph wherein we are charged as fraudulent imitators of the Pekin Company. It will be found nearly at the head of the said article. It reads as follows:—

"It is well known to most of our readers that the Pekin Tea Company of New York, an association of heavy capitalists of that city, have established agencies in Pekin and Canton for the purpose of selecting Teas, and putting them up there, from whence they are shipped direct to the Company at New York.—These teas have obtained a high reputation, and have become the subject of frequent notices in the public prints. The success of this Company has induced the organization of another called the 'Canton Tea Company,' who admit that they are not importers, but purchase their Teas from the promiscuous arrivals in New York, where they are put up in a manner to imitate those of the Pekin Tea Company."

Now, in the latter part of this paragraph is stated a falsehood so glaring, that an attempt to support it in any Atlantic city would subject any editor to universal ridicule, and in New York he would be regarded as a consummate knave, if not an absolute madman. We are astonished to find that any Pittsburgh editor, having access (as most necessarily be the case) to New York journals for years past, can be so deplorably ignorant of the fact that the Canton Tea Company have been established in New York FIVE YEARS!—and also, that the Pekin Company have only existed TWELVE MONTHS!—and that the latter house was established wholly in consequence of the success and reputation of the former. Here then is a fraud truly unblushing—nay, verily abominable.

We are also reflected on as being an inferior concern, because "we select our Teas from the promiscuous cargoes which arrive." How much more commendable to come out with the plain truth than to resort to such vile falsehoods as appear in the beginning of the paragraph now under review. The words are "The Pekin Tea Company of New York, an association of heavy capitalists in that city." &c.—(Let the reader refer.) Is it possible that the inhabitants of Pittsburgh can swallow all this! In this city (New York) every counting-house lad, of fourteen years old, knows better. Let any individual who would satisfy himself on the subject, refer to the files of the Courier and Enquirer, Journal of Commerce, or Commercial Advertiser, which he may find at any large Hotel in Pittsburgh, and see, if in the l
