THE PITTSBURGH DAILY MORNING POST.

PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1846.

☞ Capt. O'Brian, of the Irish Greens and Capt. Hays, of the Jackson Blues, have received letters from the proper Department at Harrisburg, acknowledging the receipt of the tender of the services of their companies in the Mexican war, and returning the thanks of the Governor for their patriotism. The letters do not say whether their services will be accepted or rejected.

Theft.—A lady had her purse, containing eleven dollars, stolen from her in the market yesterday morning.

☞ The number of deaths in St. Louis during the week ending, July 6th, was 54, of which 26 were children under 5 years of age.

☞ A boy nine years old named John Reed, was accidentally killed at New York on the 8th, by being run over by a truck.

☞ The government troops now in garrison at Detroit have received marching orders, and on Monday will start for Point Isabel, in Texas.

Fort Duquesne Division.—The following are the officers of Fort Duquesne Division, No. 177, Sons of Temperance, which has lately instituted:

W. D. Wood, W. P.; Xavier Piard, W. A.; J. Herron Foster, R. S.; H. Michell; A. K. S.; A. W. Foster, F. S.; Samuel Ewing, T.; G. S. Oliver, C.; W. Ellis, A. C.; Jos. Lindsey, J. S.; J. A. Smith; O. S., G. S. Oliver, J. H. Foster, and Wm. Evans, Trustees.

☞ Costiveness, cholic, indigestion, have long baffled Physician's skill. A medicine, however, has been discovered, and is now offered to the world, which is a quick and perfect cure for them, to which nearly every respectable practitioner in New York will bear willing testimony, as they have abandoned all other remedies for its use. The remedy spoken of is Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills. A medicine which is as palatable as sugar plums; never gripes or nauseates in the slighest degree, and yet is the most searching and positive purgative preparation ever discovered.—Such is the excellence of Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills that the proprietor warrants a cure if they are taken according to directions, and binds himself to return the money if the purchaser is not fully pleased with them. The great excitement which their appearance has produced is not a false one, but is erected on the strong foundation of truth, and will never pass away; for so long as costiveness, cholic, and indigestion remain attendant upon the human race, so long will their only positive remedy continue to be popular.

Sold by Wm. Jackson, corner of Wood and Liberty streets, who is general Agent for Dr. Clickener's Pills in Pittsburgh and vicinity.

SONG FOR THE PEOPLE.

Air—"I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls."

I dreamt that I dwelt in marble halls,
With pimples and tan on my face;
And I thought that at parties, at soirees and balls,
I was termed a repulsive disgrace.
I had riches enough, but, alas! could not count
On possessing a healthy skin;
Yet I thought that a whisper said, you may surmount
Disfigurements, be they hateful as sin.

dream't that suitors now sought my hand,
But they all did repudiate my face;
For they cried, Though her features are formed mild and bland,
The yellow neck and pimpled skin are disgrace.
Then I thought that I cried in a voice void of hope,
"Cure my pimples—make my skin white and fair;"
A voice answer'd, "Use a cake of the Jones's famed Soap,
And your mind will be free from despair."

Then I dreamt that I used it; O, that moment of bliss!
My skin changed from its yellowish hue;
My neck was made clear, and my face made to kiss,
Though an angel might claim it his due;
The pimples, the freckles, the blotches, the tan,
Had decamped, and a voice by my side
Said, indeed you will now be the glory of man,
Ay, the virtue, the hope, and the pride.

Air—"The fine old English Gentleman."

I'll sing you a prime new Yankee song, made in a Yankee State,
Of a fine old Yankee gentleman, who'd got a bald old pate,
And who would not try to stop the same before it got too late,
But used all sorts of useless stuff at a very expensive rate,
Like a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

This fine old man was loved by all, was reverenced by the fair,
But alas! he could not boast of wearing, his own natural hair,
But was forced to wear a nasty wig, at which all men did stare,
For his features all were noble, and his mind was good, not rare.
In a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

At length this good old man was told to go straight off and give,
Three shillings for a bottle of Jones' Hair Restorative,
Which, though the hair had long been dead, 'twould force again to live,
And grow dark, soft, and beautiful, like a plant or an olive,
On this fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

He used but two small bottles, and his hair grew dark and long,
No dandruff filled the scalp, for the roots grew healthy, ay, and strong,
And he says at last he's found the right, though he's often tried the wrong,
And that Jones's Hair Restorative is all that's stated in this song,
Of a fine old Yankee gentleman, &c.

Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy.

USE Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy for colds, coughs, consumption, bronchitis, &c., if you are suffering with any of the numerous complaints which it is intended to cure. You cannot, in the entire list of Syrups, Balsams Expectorants, &c., find a remedy that is more worthy of trial—that has proved itself more valuable, or even its equal. There is probably no medical preparation of the present age that has so rapidly advanced in public favor—that has so speedily won an enviable popularity, and that solely by the reputation of its wonderful merits. Since its introduction into the Western country, it has built up for itself a name which has thrown completely into the shade all the old standard preparations for the cure of this large and exceedingly distressing class of diseases. If you are affected with any of the complaints which have their origin in a cold, do not neglect it a single day, but make immediate use of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, and if it is in the power of medicine to give relief, you will be speedily and effectually cured.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

Concentration of the Mexican Forces—Rumored Capture of American Gun-boats—Loss of Steamer Frontier,

The steamship Alabama, Capt. Windle, arrived at New Orleans on the 6th instant, from Brazos Santiago, having sailed thence on the 3d inst. We have received by this arrival several interesting letters from our correspondent at Matamoras, which we must defer to our next. We have also full files of the "Republic of the Rio Grande," and of the "Matamoras Reville," from which we select a number of interesting items. We have also an extract from the Picayune, dated July 6th.

The Mexican forces are supposed to be concentrated in the vicinity of Monterey, under the immediate command of Paredes. The American army appear to be on the point of taking up their march to penetrate as far as Montercy.

LATER FROM THE ARMY.

A letter to the Picayune, dated Matamoras July 3, says:—

"I left Matamoras last evening, and started from Gen. Smith's camp, on this side of the Rio Grande, at 9 o'clock, with a volunteer officer, to ride across the prairie. I saw 'Old Rough and Ready" just before leaving. He was riding out hunting for newspapers. The old gentleman hardly ever is seen attended by any of his officers or men in his rides, and goes 'poking about,' as I heard a volunteer remark the other day, just like other folks." Gen Smith was to begin to remove his camp today some 12 or 15 miles up the river on the Mexican side. The General looks remarkably well and is in fine spirits.

That a large portion of the army will soon move towards Monterey can no longer be doubted, as boats enough of light draught have arrived to warrant Gen. Taylor in taking possession of the country between the mouth of the river and that place.

"The road we came over last night—I mean the wagon road between Point Isabel and Matamoras—is still impassible for loaded wagons, and it is a wonder to me how a light wagon can be dragged over it. From the river to the Palo Alto, some nine miles, there is not, altogether, half a mile of head road. The mud is generally a foot deep—and in some places two or three feet deep, and there is at least four miles of water, in many places hardly fordable for horses. The gentleman who accompanied me down captured a gar fish on "six miles prairie," between the battle fields the other day, nearly three feet long. I passed over the same place four or five times when it was perfectly dry, with no appearance of having ever been overflowed. At the Resaca de la Pahma where, a road passed between the pond, there is now but one pond, and that is deep enough anywhere for a respectable sized steamboat to pass through it. The Palo Alto battle field is two-thirds covered with water.

"A Mexican prisoner of war, Lt. Ruix, whose arrest I mentioned some time ago, will go out to New Orleans in the Alabama. You will recollect that he was caught in Matamoras in the act of trying to gather recruits from among the citizens and the convalescent of the wounded soldiary. A Mexican also goes that in chains, accused of being one of the murderers of the Rogers family. I am not lawyer enough to know exactly how he will be tried, or before what tribunal, but he has an ugly phiz to bring before a jury. Mrs. Page, wife of the Captain Page who behaved so gallantly in the recent battles, and was so dreadfully wounded, will go out in the Alabama."

The "Republic de Rio Grande" contains the following items of iterests—

"Carrabajah, with about two hundred men, we have it from undoubted authority, was in San Fernando four days ago, seizing upon all the horses he could find, and keeping a strict watch over movements in Matamoras, overhauling all on their way to or coming from this place—San Fernando is distant about ninety miles from here, and the population are hourly looking for the march of the Americans upon the town. The archives and all the public property have been carried off or concealed.

"Letters received here by citizens convey to them the positive assurance that the Mexican army will return within two months. Guess they'll think better of it. General Taylor is beginning to like the place exceeding well, and we calculate the only way to prevail upon him to leave it, will be to buy him off with a good round sum of Mexican gold.

By later advices we have learned that Carrabajal had succeeded in collecting about 500 horses, and had passed within fifty miles of this place, on his way towards Camargo. That Canales is between Camargo and Monterey, upon the west side of the San Juan river. That furthermore, it is generally understood that he has had interviews with the Alcades of the jurisdictions about Rayoso and Camargo, and that they have agreed upon a declaration of independence. Generals Terrejon and Juarigye are in Monterey, Gen. Ampudia is in San Luis Potosi. Gen. Mejia is still with the remnant of the army, in which much sickness prevails, owing no doubt to their precipitate retreat. Gen. Arista is now at his hacienda, although ordered to Mexico he declines going, alleging that his accusers are present, and that where they are, he expects to answer all their calumniations.

A report is in circulation among the Mexicans in town, that several launches, with their crews, belonging to the fleet blockading Tampico, have been captured there. There are evident signs of rejoicing at this.

The New Orleans papers gives us no news from the camp. We have received two numbers of the "Matamoras Reveille" of the 27th and 30th ult., also three numbers of the "Republic of Rio Grande" of the 23d, 27th, and 30th June.

The "Republic" of the 27th contains the following article:

"Gen. Taylor.—When the news reached here on Wednesday that Gen Scott would not supersede old Rough and Ready' in the command of the forces operating against Mexico, every face was elated with joy, and loud and numerous were the expressions of delight Almut followed the announcement. Every body seemed and is of opinion that he should be left to consummate that work so gloriously begun; and now that the reins are in his hand, and the wheels of his vehicle unlocked, we have no doubt that he will be A 1, at the winning post. Loved by his own soldiers, respected by the enemy, (for his generous and humane conduct to them here,) idolized by the people of the United States, and complimented by all their corporate bodies, what else was needed to fill full the measures of his glory, but that which he has just received—the absolute command of the army of occupation; a position which in the hearts of Americans find a pre-eminent and a lasting place, and falsifies the common saying, that 'republics are ungrateful.'

"We understand that when this news was given publicly in the brigade of volunteers, so great was the joy of the men, and so apparent, that their colonels immediately called them out, and marched them to the bank of the river opposite the old heads quarters, and gave him a military salute, after which the soldiers gave him three cheers, the heartiness of which plainly indicated that they were from the heart."

The paper of the 30th gives the following paragraph:

"Canales almost taken.—We learn that Canales came very near falling into the hands of the Philistines a few nights since. Capt. M'Cullough's company, who were at Reynosa, received information that a fandango was to come off about fifteen miles from that place, and that Canales was to honor the party with his presence. They repaired to the vicinity of the ranche, and waited in the darkness for the lion of the night to make his appearance. When every thing was under way, the Rangers walked in and politely requested an introduction to Monsier Canales. The gentleman had not arrived; but two of his officers were there, and received an invitation to ride out to Reponsa and pay a visit to Col. Wilson. The col., we are informed, received them very graciously, and insisted on their becoming his guests until Gen. Taylor should have time to attend to them."

From the Matamoras Reville, June 27.

"The steamer Neva, Capt. Stone, arrived here yesterday, having left Reynosa on Wednesday last. We are informed by the Captain that the river had fallen full three feet since his upward trip, still there is water enough for his boat, which draws three and a half feet. The health of the troops stationed in Reynosa was good, no cause of sickness having occurred except such as are necessarily incident to camp life.

"The distance from Matamoras to Reynosa by the river is one hundred and eighty miles, and about eighty by land."

From the same, June 30.

"The Mexican government have issued a decree, dated June 6th, declaring all goods shipped into Mexico by the way of Matamoras, previous and since its occupation by the American army, confiscated and liable to seizure. There is a provision for the restoration of those on which the duties have been paid: This is decidedly rich. If we are not entitled to the free navigation of the Rio Grande Bravo Del Norte we don't know who are.

"The three companies of the 7th infantry, which were to have gone to Reynosa, were disembarked. The steamboat, the Neva, is in want of repairs, and has been ordered to St. Josephs to be overhauled. The great quantity of rain which has fallen must necessarily delay the movements of the troops; any attempt to transport provisions, munitions of war, &c. on wheels, would be attended with a great deal of difficulty. We understand that the means of transportation have been sent for, and that some five or six steamboats suitable for the navigation of the Rio Grande are expected very shortly."

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate, to-day, after the morning business, the warehouse bill was taken up, and some progress made in amending it. About 1 o'clock the tariff bill was taken up, and Mr. Lewis addressed the Senate in its favor in a very able and eminently lucid and practical speech. Mr. Evans signified his intention of replying to-morrow.

The consideration of the warehouse bill was then resumed; and after a brief discussion of an amendment offered by Mr. R. Johnson, which was rejected, the bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill providing for the improvement of the Ohio, Mississippi, and Arkansas rivers, was next taken up, discussed, and read a third time and passed. And then the Senate adjourned, after a protracted and laborious session.

In the House, a resolution was offered by Mr. Ivongoulete reminding the Senate of certain bills which had long since passed the House, and of the dates on which they were passed. The reception of the resolution was opposed by Mr. Wentworth, on the ground that the river and harbor bill was not one amongst the measures enumerated. A suspension of the rules by a two-third's vote being requisite, and nothing like a majority vote, even, having been procured, the resolution was not entertained.

The special order of the day, which was the consideration of certain pending propositions in relation to the public printing, was postponed until Monday next, in order to clear the track for the treasury note bill.—Union July 13.

JULES HAUEL'S PATENT EAU LUSTRAL HAIR RESTORATIVE.—This universally approved and admired article, free from ardent spirits, pungent essential oil, and other destructive materials, cleans the hair expeditiously, renders it beautifully bright, and imparts to it the delicate fragrance of the flowers. Hair washed with this Extract soon becomes pleasantly soft and luxuriant in its growth, and it will positively bring on new hair on bald heads by its use; and hair that has been made harsh, and is turning gray and falling out, by the use of spirits or other improper preparations, will soon be restored to its natural color and brilliancy by a few applications of the Eau Lustral.

Pittsburgh June 15, 1846.

PAINE & BURGESS,

60 JOHN STREET, NEW YORK.
PUBLISH THE FOLLOWING NEW SCHOOL BOOKS.

Tower's Series.

I. The Gradual Prime.—This book is designed as the "child's first step, taken in the right place."—By commencing with this work for children, a world of labor will be saved both to the teacher and the pupil. It contains many new features never before introduced into an elementary work, one of which is, in coupling letters by the resemblances, which fixes itself imperceptibly in the memory of new beginners. Retail price 10 cents.

II. The Gradual Speller—is the first attempt to arrange words in separate classes, by the consonant combination, thus aiding the memory on the principle of association. It is free from the unmeaning cuts which disfigure books of the kind and furnish a supply of play-things to distract the attention. Retail price 17 cents.

III. Introduction to the Gradual Reader.—This takes the pupil gradually through the easier consonant combinations by a regular progressive exercise on each combination. Retail price 20 cents.

IV. Gradual Reader—contains a selection of reading matter which will interest, as well as instruct the learner progressively suited to his capacity. Retail price 25 cents.

V. Tower's Intellectual Algebra—is the only work that so simplifies and illustrates this science, that it can be taught orally. As a discipline of the mind, in teaching the pupil to think and reason, Algebra is pre-eminent; and this work places it in the power of younger classes to be benefitted by such exercises. It has received the highest encomiums of celebrated teachers and of the press generally, accompanying which is a key for teachers only. Retail price 38 cents.

The foregoing works are by David H. Tower, A. M., late principal of the Penn Institute, for the instruction of the blind.

For sale by the publishers, Theodore Bliss & Co., 188 Market street, Philadelphia, and by booksellers generally, on whom Superintendents and Teachers will please call for copies for examination.

P. & B. will publish in all the month of June Smith's first Book in Geography, for children. The maps are delicate, plain and elegant, the illustrations bold and attractive.

Also, Smith's Quarto Geography, on an entirely new plan. Its superiority over other quartos consists in its beautiful steel maps, large and elegant type, bold and effective illustrations, concise but comprehensive text, and new and practical arrangement of matter.

By subscription only. M'Kenney's valuable work on the Indians. Price $3.

Small Pox, Jaundice, Coughs, Quinsy,
Pains in the Back, Whooping Cough,
Inward Weakness, Consumption, Fits,

And all other diseases originating from impurities of the blood.

☞ They have cured, since their introduction, over 2,000 persons, who have been given up as hopeless cases, by the most eminent Physicians.

☞ They are patronized and recommended by men of the highest distinction, among whom are—

Hon. David R. Porter, Hon. Henry Clay,
Hon. John Q. Adams, Hon. Daniel Webster,
Hon. Martin Van Buren, Hon. J. C. Calhoun,
Gen. Winfield Scott, Col. R. M. Johnson,
Hon. James K. Polk, Gen. Lewis Cass.

☞ Their virtues are so infallible that the money will be returned in all cases they do not give universal satisfaction. Although but two and a half years have elapsed since these celebrated Pills were first introduced to the public, the sale of them in the Eastern and middle States has far exceeded Dr. Clickener's most sanguine expectations. During the past year, alone, no less than 10,000 gross of boxes have been sold in the State of New York, 6,000 in Pennsylvania, 4,000 in Maryland, 3,000 in New Jersey, 2,000 in Delaware, and 9,000 in the New England States, requiring the constant employment of 27 hands, exclusive of printers and engravers. In the same period, upwards of 200,000 copies of the "Family Doctor" have been ordered by agents in every section of the country. These facts must show, conclusively, that Dr. Clickener's Sugar Coated Pills, besides being the very best medicine in the world, are held in the highest estimation by the public.

We might extend this publication to an indefinite length, if we deemed it expedient to publish all testimonials we have received, not only from agents but individuals and families, who have experienced
