

In last week's issue we gave notice to our readers of our assumption of the "chair editorial" and in order to make the paper first class in every respect, it requires the aid of the patrons of the paper to assist us in giving any local items of interest occurring in their neighborhood.

HOW THE LUMBER GOES.—An exchange says: "The present consumption of wood in the United States is enormous. One hundred and fifty thousand acres of the best timber is cut every year to supply the demand for railway sleepers alone. For railroad bridges, repairs and cars the annual expenditures in wood is thirty eight millions of dollars. In a single year the locomotives in the United States consume fifty-six millions of dollars' worth of wood."

Too Many Pops.

A gentleman who was taking a glass of wine at Louis', corner of Freeman and Hopkins street in Cincinnati, about three weeks ago, observed at another table, sitting with several others, a German who seemed uneasy and anxious.

THE SCIENCE OF ADVERTISING.—The New York Journal of Commerce, in speaking of one of the oldest and most successful banking institutions in the city as attributing its continued prosperity to this cause, says: "Any one would suppose that such a bank, so long established and so widely known, might sell its bills and drafts, and obtain collections enough to satisfy any reasonable ambition without a dollar of outlay for advertising."

THE STORM. Fearful Record of Disasters.

The Wreck on both Shores of the Lakes.

CLEVELAND, October 31.—Preparations were made early this morning to put a steam pump on board the propeller Neptune, sunk near the iron railroad bridge. Messrs. Pinnington & Warner, at noon had succeeded in getting their large pump in a fair way for operation. It is thought she will be easily pumped out when she will go on the dry dock for repairs. Her damages are not supposed to be very great. The Neptune is owned in Detroit and is insured. She has been engaged in the lumber trade, towing barges, two of which she had in tow when the storm struck her off Black River. She was obliged to let them go, but it is thought they came to anchor, and rode out the gale without accident.

Two vessels were at anchor in the offing, but it is not exactly known what they were. Some think one to be the schooner Negaunce and the other the scow Frankie Wilcox, while others think they are schooner Atanuto and scow Moses Gage. They seem to be riding easily.

The schooner A. Medbury, loaded with block stone, left this port Sunday evening, and some fears were entertained for her safety; but Messrs. Pinnington & Warner received a dispatch this morning that she was lying under the peninsula near Erie all right.

Last night the Water Works Crib sunk to such a degree that only a portion of the temporary house, erected for the light keeper, was visible. There was a man known to be stationed on the crib to keep the light in order, and there were great fears that he had been washed off during the night. This morning preparations were made to send a tug to take him off if he was still on the crib, and Captain Aaron Goodwin, with the tug W. D. Cushing, volunteered to go to his rescue, though the lake was boiling, and the expedition was a hazardous one. The tug returned about twelve o'clock, having been successful in rescuing the light-keeper.

The tug H. N. Martin went out Monday forenoon and towed in the scow Frankie Wilcox. She rode out the gale handsomely. KINGTON, ONT., October 31.—During the severe gale last night the Schooner William John, with 4,000 bushels of wheat from Cobourg to Edwardsburg, went ashore. The vessel and cargo will be a total loss; uninsured. The tug Sarah broke from her moorings and went ashore near point Frederick.

BUFFALO, October 31.—Terrific gales have prevailed here since last night, from the south and east. The water of the lake is higher than at any time this season. The tug Harrison foundered at two o'clock this morning, off Sturgeon Point. The crew were saved by the tug Compound. Captain Davenport, of the Harrison, was taken from the water after his tug boat sunk.

A schooner supposed to be the William Kelley is ashore off Windmill Point, and the crew can be seen hanging to the rigging. Life boats have gone to the rescue. The schooner Jame Platt, which left here yesterday for Chicago, has returned in distress, with all her sails split. It is feared great damage has been done to shipping on the lake.

BUFFALO, October 31.—The water in the creeks, canal and harbor has raised to high water mark, and at Black Rock the river is over eighteen inches higher than during the heavy blow about two weeks ago. The tugs J. C. Harrison and Compound started from the creek yesterday afternoon between one and two o'clock for the purpose of trying to work off the schooner Wells which is ashore at Sturgeon Point. A line was made fast to the schooner and the tugging commenced, and with some success, when the line parted and it became necessary to make fast with another. The sea was high at this time and both tugs shipped much water. The Harrison was laboring in the sea and became somewhat unmanageable, a portion of the cable becoming fastened in the wheel. Fearing that she would be swamped, the crew left the tug, being taken on board the Compound, but Captain Busenbury remained in the pilot house endeavoring to save the craft. Finally it became evident that the Harrison would soon sink and the Compound drew near her companion, and just in time to take Captain Busenbury on board before his tug went down. The schooner Wells, which had been dragged a short distance from her former position drifted back a stretch of over one hundred feet. The compound arrived in this port to-day in safety.

The scow William Kelly, bound down, ran ashore on the Canadian side early this morning, between Windmill Point and old Fort Erie. It is thought on the wharf that men are in the rigging. Efforts will be made to reach the vessel as soon as possible.

The schooner James Platt, which left this port a day or two ago for Chicago, returned this morning in a dismantled condition, her sails being split and otherwise damaged. The "Flats," in the southerly portion of the city, are pretty extensively submerged.

PORT COLBORNE, ONT., October 31.—The crew of the Rankin was rescued this afternoon by Captain Noble, of the schooner Hippogrip. A woman, named Cook, was the only person lost off the Rankin. She was washed overboard last night. The lifeboat sent by Captain Dorr from Buffalo arrived after the rescue. The Rankin is a total loss.

The names of three men lost out of the propeller Young Americas are E. D. Simpson, Alexander McGregor and John Mills. The barque Superior arrived this afternoon having lost some of her spars and sails. She reports that the schooner W. G. Keith is ashore at Long Point. Bark Faony Campbell has arrived with several of her sails lost. It has been blowing a gale here from the southwest since last night.

NEW YORK, October 31.—The gale last night and to-day occasioned no material damage to property but several lines were lost in the bay to-day by the swamping of boats.

BOSTON, October 31.—Snow fell in various parts of New Hampshire and Maine last night. POLITICAL. William S. Ladd, of Lancaster, N. H., the newly elected Supreme Court Judge of New Hampshire, is only 39 years old. In Iowa, the Republican majority was 12,487 in 1860, and this year is 41,234. The Democracy are beginning to give up all hopes of "reaction" in their favor in Iowa.

Such information has been received by the law officers of the government as to lead them to believe that there will be two vacancies to be filled this winter on the Supreme bench—one of the Chief Justice and the other Justice Nelson. The Revenue Bureau now saves $1,200 per day by a reduction of 284 in the number of Assistant Assessors. Over three hundred more are to be dismissed, making an aggregate saving of nearly $900,000 per annum.

The Nation says Mr. Fish will leave the Cabinet in December, and that when he goes not one of President Grant's original designations will remain in that body. Let the Nation tell us if Mr. Fish was an "original designation," and if Mr. Creswell was not, before we go any further in the discussion. The Lawrence Journal has this warning for legislators: "The Treasury rig managers from that of the State are on at Philadelphia and Harrisburg setting things up. We would warn Republican Senators and members elect that the eyes of the people will be upon them, and that if the old trick succeeds this winter, of buying a nomination, and then securing the election by applying the party lash to the backs of Republicans, the supporter of such a measure will have a fearful account to settle with his constituents."

Across the Continent. A Boy Travels from Cleveland to San Francisco on Two Dollars. The San Francisco Morning Call tells the following tale of a boy's adventures: To take a trip across the continent in the cars of the Central and Union Pacific Railway Companies is considered by many an expensive undertaking, but Wyatt William Ballard, of the "Young America" stamp of boy, only fourteen years of age, has shown that he could make the trip with only two dollars in his pocket at the time of leaving home. Wyatt is an orphan, who resided with a relative in Cleveland, Ohio, until a few months ago, when he was taken with a desire to see the world, and California in particular, having read and heard a great deal of the beauties of the Golden State. From Cleveland he made his way to Chicago. When he reached that city he had two dollars, which he had hid up when at home. This amount he intended to guard as carefully as he knew how. He wandered to the depot of the Chicago and Lake Shore Railway, and as the westward bound train was starting off he jumped on board.

When the conductor came around the boy told him that he had no money but wanted to go to Omaha to meet his parents there, who had started sometime before, and left him to the care of a maiden aunt who had ill-treated and caused him to run away. The boy told his story with such apparent truthfulness, that the conductor believed him, and allowed him to remain on the train. Several of the passengers to whom he told the same story, took pity on him and gave him small sums of money and food. After reaching the ferry, he managed to "dead head" his way on the Central Pacific to this city, where he arrived a couple of months since. Upon his arrival here he still had the two dollars with which he started. With this, his cash capital, he engaged in business, selling newspapers, and continued at this until last Monday, when he became tired of business—to use his own language—"at which he could not make his salt, too many being in the trade already." He went to Officer Hall and asked to be sent to the Industrial School, because he wished to learn to read, write and learn a trade. The matter was brought by the officer to the notice of the proper authorities and the boy being found to be a proper subject, he was committed.

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal disease badly cured, and sexual excesses are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of the generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpatation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in these organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to—and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one. DISEASE OF THESE ORGANS REQUIRE THE USE OF A DIURETIC. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU CURE FOR DISEASE OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, DROPSY, ORGANIC WEAKNESS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, GENERAL DEBILITY. ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS & DEBILITATED, WHOSE SUFFERING HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE PROMPT TREATMENT TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE. If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flecky, or is itropy on setting? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on the subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom of your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?
