VARIOUS ITEMS.

FENIANISM.—The Fenian movement seems to be on the decline at present, both in Ireland and America. There is no excitement about the matter, and there are no signs of any action of any kind in any direction. Even Canada is being quieted, and the fear of insurrection or invasion is passing away. In the mass of English newspapers which we receive by the last mail, the subject is hardly mentioned. The London Times has ceased indulging in either threats or indicuie about it, and the Irish papers treat it already as a thing of the past.

COTTON SHIPMENTS FROM FLORIDA.—The steamship Western Metropolis, from Apalachicola, 15th instant, has arrived at New York with 5,000 bales of cotton, weighing 450,000 pounds, being the largest cargo ever taken from that port in a steam vessel. There has already been shipped some 30,000 bales, with 10,000 on hand, on the 15th instant, with some 40,000 bales still up the river, which will come down when water will permit, making in all some 80,000 bales that will be shipped this season.

GOOD EX MONOMGAHELA COUNTY, WEST VA.—W. B. Duncan, general superintendent of the Dolly Run and Dunkard Creek Petroleum Company, of Baltimore, informed us on Saturday last that they had made a strike of gold quartz at the 40-foot well on the Johnstown farm, near New Brownsville, this county. The new vein was struck at the depth of 510 feet; they had passed five feet into the rock when he left, and were continuing to obtain quartz.—Morgantown Post.

THE New Orleans Picayune says: "As evidence of the great business transacted in this city, we only state two facts. One house on Canal street, engaged in the wholesale and ready-made clothing business, sold for the month of October last goods to the amount of $450,000. During last month one banking house paid over its counter an average of $1,400,000 per day. Last Saturday, at this bank, twelve hundred checks were paid between bank hours, the total amount of which was $1,700,000. We doubt if as large a business as this was ever done before in this city by one bank."

FREE LABOR COTTON.—The Nashville Union says: The German farmers of Texas have again raised a cotton crop of superior quality to any grown by slave labor. It is of a clearer, fairer fabric, and will bring the highest market price. When the farmer works his own cotton, it is tended and handled at every stage with the utmost care, and this care brings out the greatest skill. The delusion that cotton cannot be cultivated by free labor is getting rapidly disproved by actual experiment. It is probable that free labor will produce more and better cotton than has ever been raised before. Of course it will.

RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION IN SWITZERLAND.—In the canton Uri, Switzerland, a printer, named Rynicker, was recently sentenced to receive twenty lashes for publishing a pamphlet, of which he was the author, and in which he attacked the Catholic religion, its ministers and the Holy Scriptures. All Switzerland seems to have been aroused; and on the 23th ultimo a large meeting was held at Berne, to protest against the sentence of the tribunal of Uri, which they declare was a disgrace to the country. Another meeting was to be held, to which all the cantons were to send deputies.

IN a recent number of the Paris Charavari which is occupied for the most part with melancholy attempts at jokes about the cholera, there is one picture representing the Queen of England's arms, with only one supporter, the unicorn having been attacked with the rinderpest. Instead of being at his post by the lion, he is depicted sitting down in an arm chair, with a cotton night-cap drawn over his drooping head down to his horn, while Britannia, with melancholy look, brings him a cup of candle.

THE NEW COUNTERPARTS.—The Portsmouth (N. H.) Gazette says: "A grocer doing business in this city had occasion to visit Boston one day last week to purchase goods, and prior to his departure went to one of our banks and drew $400 in United States fifties, but, arriving in the city and purchasing a bill of goods it was found that they wouldn't stand the refining fire of detective skill, seven notes out of the eight proving to be worthless."

THE friends of Jeff. Davis are complaining about his "annoyances." It seems that he has had his hair cut twice since his imprisonment, and they report through Northern organs that General Miles took charge of the first "shearing," but that Jeff. the last time destroyed his "capillary growth" before the officers could seize it. Query: How did he make away with it? As it could not be found, are we to presume he swallowed it?

THE orders of the Blue and White Arrow held meetings at Chicago last week. They are composed of the officers and soldiers of the Army of the Tennessee. It was announced by Gen. Fairchild, on behalf of the "White Arrow," and by General Belknap, on behalf of the "Blue Arrow," that the next annual meeting of the two orders would be held at Cincinnati, on the 15th of November, 1866.

THE London Spectator, in the course of a caustic and denunciatory criticism of a new poet, remarked, "And this extraordinary production Mr. ——— modestly considers to be equal to Goethe." The audacious publisher managed to make a favorable notice out of this for his advertisement, thus: "Extraordinary production ..... equal to Goethe.—Spectator."

A CHEMIST was called up at two o'clock the other morning, by the ringing of the night-bell. On opening the door he found a damsel, who told him that she was going to a picnic that morning and was out of rouge. The impudent druggist turned her off with an assurance that he hadn't in stock as much as would cover a check like her's.

THE City Recorder of Memphis recently shot and killed a policeman on the street, but held his court next day as usual. It was odd, says a Memphis paper, to see a man against whom an indictment for murder was pending, trying and passing sentence upon his fellow-prisoners of the previous night.

THE new one cent pieces are legal tender for any debt to the amount of ten cents, the two-cent pieces to the amount of twenty cents, and the three-cent pieces to the amount of sixty cents, so that a debt of ninety cents may be legally liquidated in copper coins.

An American colored man named Duncanson, an artist, has been very successful in England, and having painted a fine picture from Tennyson's "Lotus Eaters" has been invited to visit the Laureate at his house.

Over $20,000,000 worth of railroad property, belonging to the Government, has been sold to southern railroads on credit, and their notes taken, some of them to run two years.

THE United States Treasury was enriched by conscience money during the year ending June 30, to the amount of $20,870. The most of this sum came from Catholic confessionals.

THE New Orleans Picayune says that city is full of people, and that there is a cataract or rather water-fall of beauty on Canal street every day.

ALL the confiscated property in Northern Mississippi, including Hinds, Rankin, Simpson and Clark counties, has been restored to the owners.

An ex-rebel soldier was caught in the act of committing a burglary in Middletown, N. Y., a night or two ago.

THE New Bedford Standard estimates the damage to whaling interests by the Shenandoah at $1,050,000.

TEXAS is about the size of New England, and has two and a half millions of inhabitants.

It doesn't take a bald widower long before it is brought up to the scratch.

One of the Rothschilds has joined the bar of Paris as a lawyer.

LOUIS NAPOLEON and his cousin are becoming reconciled.

The Revenue Frauds.

The Secretary of the United States Petroleum Company, in exonerating that company from complicity in the late frauds in the Revenue at Pithole, says:

"The returns to the Revenue Collector are made by the sub-lessees of the company, who were the sole custodians of the wells in question, they making the same return to the company as they made to the government. So if a fraud has been perpetrated, the company has been defrauded to a greater extent than the Internal Revenue. This company for some time past, not being satisfied with the returns made by some of the sub-lessees, and being satisfied that they were being defrauded of their just rights, have been carefully investigating the subject, and have asked for the assistance of the government in placing an inspector at every line of exit from Pithole, requiring every teamster to tell what well he got his load from.

"By the requirements of the leases given by this company, and also by the direction of the Collector of the Internal Revenue, the sub-lessees are bound to return to the Collector a full and accurate statement of all the oil sold and delivered, and to pay the whole of the taxes, recovering from the company their proportion of said taxes. It will be seen from the above that any attempt to defraud the government is followed and connected with an attempt to defraud the company to a greater extent.

"The report in reference to the arrest of the superintendent is false, and the despatch received from Meadville, dated November 23d, states that 'the tax matter will be settled without detriment to our company.'"

An English Sherman's Raid.

A British force is about to invade Boston, and has been put in light marching order for this expedition, which, after all, is but a short one compared with Sherman's great march. Sherman's veterans will read with interest of the preparations:

"The force is to consist of two wings of British infantry, six regiments of native infantry, one thousand drilled coolies, two batteries of artillery and two companies of sappers and miners, or about nine thousand men in all. A great effort is being made to limit the number of camp followers, only one servant being allowed to each officer, but the number of bullocks, mules and yaboos required to carry ambulances, water, forage, ammunition and provisions for fifteen days will be enormous, and every pair of animals will require one man. Tents are forbidden, and the whole force is to enter Boston, as far as an Indian force can, stripped for action. Extra blankets will be supplied to the men, but that seems to be all the precaution taken against the cold, which by December will be bitter on the hills."

A FRIGHTFUL STORY comes from Banizen, in Saxony, concerning the execution of a man named Bctune, who had been sentenced to death for murder. It appears that at the time of execution many thousands of persons were present, and watched while the condemned man mounted the scaffold. Arrived at the top of the steps to the guillotine, Botune, instead of submitting to the attentions of the executioner, engaged in a frightful struggle with him and his assistants. He bit all who came near him, and fought furiously, crying out from time to time to the public to save him, and asserting his innocence. A fresh batch of men came to the assistance of the executioner, but even then it was impossible to get the condemned man under the fatal knife. At last after a quarter of an hour passed in vehement struggles, an exceptionally strong bailoon de justice seized him by his belt and threw him down. He was tied with the leather thongs usually employed for the purpose, but more than once broke them to pieces. At last he was secured, after a terrible struggle, and having been fastened to the plank, was thrust under the blade of the guillotine, which fell immediately and ended the strife. His last words were, "Human justice is butchery!"

LORD PALMERSTON.—The Nation tells a good story of Lord Palmerston. At the time that the Schleswig-Holstein embroglio was in full swing to bore the world, in the autumn of 1863, an eminent English diplomatist went to call upon the Premier to ask for information on the subject. After hearing his request, Lord Palmerston thought a while, and then answered in his short, jerky manner, "Yes, quite right to come to me. Very difficult question that of Schleswig-Holstein, and those never were but two people who really understood it—myself and ——. But then you see the misfortune is, that ——— is dead, and that I have forgotten it."

THE King and Queen of Portugal are much blamed for deserting their capital during the cholera, and Charivari puts this epigram into their mouths: "As the reigning epidemic prevails in our dominions, let it reign in our stead."

Use that delightful preparation, the extract of many flowers and herbs—that great restorer of hair, color and beauty. It makes the hair grow if the roots are not entirely lost. It will restore the color. It will make the hair curl. It will keep the hair in place. It will add luxuriance of hair and beauty to all. It is the greatest dressing ever offered to the public. Its popularity on this continent exceeds any other since the introduction of it here. We are daily receiving unsolicited testimonials of its virtues. It only needs a trial to insure its permanent reception in every family. Being entirely free from sulphur or metallic poisons, renders it peculiarly adapted for the nursery. In fact, no toilet is complete without it.

☞ YATE'S CATHARTIC PILLS ARE the most perfect purgative which we have been able to produce or which, we believe, has ever yet been made by anybody. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to taste, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow disturbed, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure in a day many complaints of everybody, but also form liable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief. Cases have been submitted by men of such exalted position and character, as to exhibit the secretion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that, our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body, or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best and those of us who are departing for England, where arrangements are already being perfected for the early appearance at Egyptian Hall, London.

FARM FOR SALE,

CONTAINING 300 ACRES,

All of which is good Farming Land, and 225 acres cleared and under good fences; the remaining 75 acres that-rate timber. The land is at present mostly in grass, and is in good condition for either a SHEEP FARM or for AGRICULTURAL PURPOSES. The neighborhood is good, and easy of access—within a few miles of the C. & P. R. R., at McCoy's Station, and two steamboat landings on the Ohio river. It is near Manchester, the county town of Hancock county, West Va., six miles from Wellsville, and thirteen from Steubenville, O. The improvements are, a large Frame House, Barn, Wagon Shed, Corn Crib, Sheep Houses, and all necessary out-buildings, and a Steam Mill close by. There are two good veins of COAL, one of which is CANNEL, on the farm. The property is well worth the attention of parties desiring such property, being equally well adapted for wool growing, grazing or farming as the Washington county land, which county joins Hancock.
