CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Soldiers' Mass Meeting at Masonic Hall.

Pursuant to notice a mass meeting of returned soldiers was held at Masonic Hall, on Friday evening, the object being to take some action towards securing preferment of soldiers in offices, &c. The meeting was quite large and a brass band in attendance.

At about half past seven o'clock Capt. Robt. Pollock called the meeting to order, and moved that Gen. J. Bowman Sweitzer take the chair. The motion prevailed unanimously, and the General ascended the platform. Hon. W. C. M'Carthy, Mayor elect, Hon. John Morrison, Mayor of Allegheny, James M'Auley, Thomas Steel, Captain J. Heron Foster, Captain J. H. Stewart, Hon. H. A. Weaver, Hon. Robert M'Knight, and General George S. Gallupe were chosen Vice Presidents. C. F. M'Kenna, Capt. Ben. W. Morgan, Captain Louis Hagr and Col. Joseph Brown were selected as Secretaries.

Gen. Sweitzer said he felt highly honored at being called upon to preside over the meeting, composed as it was of men who had fought for the preservation of the Union and the country. He explained the object of the meeting in brief terms. The soldiers were forming a League, or Union, believing that in so doing, by associating themselves together, more could be done in the furtherance of their interests, than in any other way. In the organization of the League politics were discarded—all who were honorably discharged from the service, and were loyal, true to their country, and ready and willing at all times to defend it, could become members.

Capt. Pollock offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, In the organization of the "Western Pennsylvania Soldiers' League," the members thereof have solely in view, 1st, to obtain for honorably discharged soldiers who possess sufficient qualifications the preference of employment in all situations in the gift of National, State or Municipal Governments. 2d, to obtain employment in the general pursuits of life for comrades who may need or desire such a service. 3d, to provide for those who may by sickness or misfortune be prevented from attending to their avocations; to properly care for the widows and orphans of soldiers who have lost their lives in the service of their country.

AND WHEREAS, We believe those who fought for the Union, and prevented its dissolution, should now, since peace has been won, after four years of disastrous war, obtain preferment in civil pursuits, therefore be it

Resolved, That this meeting heartily approve of and endorse the objects of the Western Pennsylvania Soldiers' League.

Resolved, That we ignore the doctrine that "Republics are ungrateful," and therefore recommend to the authorities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and surrounding boroughs, in the appointments to offices in their gift, to prefer honorably discharged soldiers.

Gen. Frederick H. Collier, in the audience, was called upon for a speech, and as he appeared on the platform was received with great applause. The resolutions were truly loyal and sufficiently emphatic, but he thought it was scarcely necessary they should be passed. He could not think that in this loyal, patriotic community there could be any objection to giving preference in all things to the returned defenders of the country—first to those who have been disabled and maimed, and next them who had been honorably discharged. He did not know but a dishonorably discharged soldier should be preferred instead of a copperhead. The soldiers did not ask charity, did not plead as paupers, but asked for work, such as they could perform. The boys who go about the streets with one arm and one leg, should not go as beggars, and must not be so looked upon. They had earned consideration at the hands of the people, and should receive it without stint. He believed our citizens all right on the question which the meeting had been called to consider. The community only needed to have the matter placed before them in proper shape. In the great loyal city of Pittsburgh, with a record higher than any other in the Union, could it be that the soldier's claims for place and employment are disregarded. No, he did not think so. He approved of the purpose of the meeting, and said it would result in good. In the League there was no politics, no religion, and the "old flag" was the motto. The members of it had but to stick together to accomplish their ends. Gen. S. made a very suitable speech, and spoke in his usual forcible style. He was loudly and repeatedly applauded.

John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., was the next speaker. He said he was present by force, but yet by inclination; his most fast friend, Captain Morgan, had insisted upon him coming to the meeting. He was not a soldier, but had done all that he could for the "boys in blue," and would do more. Like Gen. Collier, he did not believe there was any real necessity for the movement. The resolutions were sound to the core. He believed that the man who had fought for his country, battled to prevent the sullying of the "starry flag," had formed a character for all time. A mass meeting to ask employment for the soldier who had been honorably discharged! God forbid that there should be such necessity. He thought he knew the community better—the people were loyal, and he believed had not been advised of this thing. If it was brought into a practical, tangible shape there would be a right response. Mr. Kirkpatrick made an exceedingly happy effort.

He was followed by E. P. Jones, Esq., who made an eloquent speech. He handled the politicians and professional office-seekers without gloves, and most heartily approved of the organization of the Soldiers' League. He hoped the soldiers would, as a mass, demand what was their due, and turn out of place and power all politicians.

Gen. J. B. Kiddoo was called upon, but declined making any remarks.

Gen. James S. Negley, introduced by Mr. Kirkpatrick as the soldier of two wars, was most warmly greeted, and made a brief address. He approved of the objects of the League, and said it must, under proper management, result in great good to soldiers generally.

Gen. A. L. Pearson responded to loud calls. Speaking of the League, he urged the soldiers to join it at once. They had as yet only a skirmish line, and they wanted to form a line of battle to fight the politicians. The meeting was not as large as he expected; perhaps had it been called before the late election it would have been much larger. He spoke of the employment of Copperheads at the Allegheny Arsenal, and suggested that the Secretary of War be petitioned to have them removed.

Capt. Ben. W. Morgan made a few felicitous remarks. He said the committee who had made arrangements for the meeting, addressed notes of invitation to the Mayors of the two cities and also all of the councilmen. He saw but a few of them present. He had, however, conversed with some twenty or more of the councilmen, and all had assured him they were right on the soldier question.

Several members of the city Councils who were observed in the audience, were invited on the stand. Mr. Ford, from the Ninth Ward, made a few eloquent remarks. His sympathies were with the soldier. As a member of Council he would vote for any soldier competent for the place he sought. As long as he had a dollar, and a soldier in need came to him, he should have half of it.

Gen. Kiddoo said he had an occurrence to detail. When Joe. Hooker's army crossed the Rappahannock, the Fifth corps covered the retreat, and the last division, the last brigade, the last man was J. Bowman Sweitzer (cheers.) Gen. K. then moved that Gen. S. address the audience.

Gen. S. said that he was present representing the Soldiers League, and his duty was simply to explain the object of the meeting. This he had done. In the course of his remarks he spoke feelingly of the lamented Col. Samuel W. Black, than whom a braver and more gallant soldier never lived. (Applause.) He (Gen. S.) had been with the army for three long years, with the Fifth corps, third division, third brigade and gallant 62nd regiment. (Cheers.) The history of the corps, division, brigade and regiment had been written. He could add nothing and certainly would not detract anything. Alluding again to the League, he said his heart was in it, and as far as in his power he would assist brother-soldiers in the furtherance of the objects aimed at.

Several members of the press were called upon for remarks, (at all declined save Thomas T. Everett, Esq., of the Commercial, who made a really elegant speech, enchaining the attention of the audience, and eliciting rounds of applause. He covered the ground involved in the question at issue, and expressed his entire approbation of the movement. He referred to Coroner Clawson as an instance of the propriety of selecting soldiers for offices. He was a careful, prudent man, and faithfully attended to his duties, more faithfully than any of the coroners of New York, who realized from $7,000 to $10,000 annually. We regret that the lateness of the hour at which we write prevents us giving an outline of Mr. E.'s remarks.

On motion of Gen. Charles Barnes a vote of thanks was tendered the speakers.

On motion of Capt. Morgan a vote of thanks was tendered the members of Council present, for their response to the Committee's invitation.

The meeting then adjourned. The League will meet on Friday evening of next week, in the room of the Firemen's Association, in the Market house building.

Amusements.

THEATRE—The announcement that a "young lady" would appear in the character of "Francesca" in the play of "Bertha" at Madame Celeste's benefit last evening placed our theatre goers upon the tip toe of expectation, and notwithstanding the fact that the weather was bitterly cold, the house was well filled. We are unable to satisfy the curiosity of the public as to who the lady is, but that she did her part remarkably well for a debutante we can say. There were several faults in her acting, which however will wear off with time. At first her voice was low and indistinct, but as she gathered courage from the applause of the audience, she became more natural, and uttered every word distinctly. We do not remember ever having seen a debutante more self possessed than she was during the trying ordeal of a first appearance.

To-night is the last appearance of Madame Celeste, upon which occasion the great military drama of the French Spy will be presented, to be followed by Cinderella, or the Glass Slipper, the performance to conclude with the Irish drama of Norah Creina.

OPERA HOUSE.—This evening is positively the last appearance of Mr. Geo. C. Davenport, the favorite Irish Comedian. The performance will commence with Shakespeare's five act tragedy of Macbeth, King of Scotland, and conclude with the beautiful Irish drama of Ireland as it Was.

On Monday Mr. Frank Drew will appear.

MATILDA HERRON.—On Monday night Matilda Herron commences an engagement at the Pittsburgh Theatre, opening with Camille. Although a play of doubtful morality, it has fascinations connected with it that makes it draw. Matilda Herron stands acknowledged as the best living representation of the character of Camille on the American stage.

GRAND SKATING MATCH.—This afternoon at half past three o'clock some exciting sport will come off at the Central Park. Two prizes will be given to the best two skaters on the Park, the prizes being two beautiful pairs of skates. The entrance fee to the Park up to this occasion will be fifty cents each for gentlemen, and ladies admitted free. To-night there will be a grand carnival, at which time the Great Western Band will be in attendance.

Court Poetry.

After the verdict in the Hughes homicide case, and the refusal of the motion for a new trial in the case of Patrick Williams, convicted of perjury, yesterday, a disconsolate counsel thus wrote:

> The King can do no wrong,
> The King no wrong can do,
> Was the burden of the song
> When this old hat was new;
> But now that it is old,
> And we in all its fur,
> The Judge says he cannot err,
> Is the law of the land
> Says Chief Justice Stowe.
> Chorus—Woe! Woe! Woe!

Which having been handed to the Court, His Honor after reading, replied—

> Let woe the chorus be
> When trials new are granted,
> My friend has lost his fee,
> And that's what he wanted.

Thus overruling the practical point put by the "learned counsel" as practically as his legal points had been set aside by the Jury and the Court.

Third U. P. Church, Allegheny.

This church, located on Ridge street, and under the pastoral care of Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, will re-open for Divine worship on Sabbath next, the 7th inst. The building has been enlarged and otherwise improved during the past few months, and the re-opening will be made an occasion of interest not only to the members of the congregation, but the public in general. Services will be conducted in the morning by the pastor, Mr. Kerr, in the afternoon, by Rev. C. A. Dickey, and in the evening by Rev. W. J. Reed.

Malicious Mischief.—Three Germans named George Peters, James Queen and Henry Hemphill, were arrested yesterday morning, by chief Elkin and officer Campbell of the Allegheny Police, for malicious mischief and disorderly conduct, on oath of Henry Barterick. On Saturday last the defendants came to Barterick's Tannery in McClure Township, and while there cut four hides to pieces and also acted in an indecent and very disorderly manner. Barterick states that he has frequently been annoyed by them; but he did not wish to prosecute them. At a hearing yesterday afternoon, Mayor Morrison fined them each five dollars and costs, and held them in two hundred bail each to keep the peace.

Monthly Sermon to Young Men.—To-morrow evening, being the first Sabbath evening in the month, Rev. Mr. Snively, Pastor of St. Andrews Church, Hand street, will deliver his regular monthly sermon to young men. These sermons are looked forward to with a good deal of interest by the youth, and we are pleased to state, are well attended. The young men are not the only ones who take interest in them, for we notice old and young have been equally punctual in their attendance, and desirous of hearing Mr. Snively upon these occasions.

Fined. A man by the name of George, hailing from the rural districts, was arrested yesterday afternoon, by officer Scott of the Allegheny police, for driving his wagon over the pavement on Craig street, thereby smashing the curb stone. Upon a hearing before the Mayor, George was fined five dollars and costs for his recklessness.

Hutchinson Family.—The last concerts of the Hutchinson Family will be given in our city this afternoon and evening, at Lafayette Hall. During their stay, their old fashioned concerts have been very largely attended by both old and new fashioned audiences, and, no matter where they go, they will always do the same thing.

Catholic Church in Sharpsburg Destroyed.—On Thursday night, about eight o'clock, the Catholic Church at Sharpsburg caught fire and was totally destroyed. The fire originated in the priest's house, in the rear of the building, and is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue.

No Contest.—Hon. John Morrison, Mayor of Allegheny, having no competitor, is the only candidate for Mayor.

The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company was held at Cleveland on Thursday. From the report of the Directors we obtain the following information in reference to the business of the Road during the past year:

Receipts from passengers	$1,029,063 60
Receipts from freight	1,569,584 06
Receipts from Pittsburgh Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway Co., our share surplus earnings	143,123 43
Receipts for rents and miscellaneous sources	7,727 88
	$2,844,49? 05

CONTRA.

Paid for expense of motive power and cars	724,713 52
Paid for maintenance of ways and structures	575,023 25
Paid for expense of transportation and general expense	649,793 27
Balance	884,907 29
	$2,844,490 05

Out of this balance has been paid: Interest on mortgage bond, and other indebtedness	283,266 78
Dividend of February 1, 1865	214,729 45

The remainder, excepting the balance on hand, has been expended in the purchase of new equipment and the payment of rent of the lease from the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, as follows:

The balance of the net earnings as appeared by the report of last year was	$348,461,91
Add to this the balance from this year's business	884,907 29
	$1,232,?72,50
Deduct Interest Paid $283,266,78
Deduct Rent to Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company 85,000 00
Deduct Dividend paid 214,939,25
Deduct new equipments .... 341,?44 44
	$ 7 117 46
	$308,353 64

Which is the balance of net earnings account. The receipts for the year, omitting the amount received from the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway Company, are greater by $184,?82 09 than the receipts of the year ending Nov. 30, 1864, a result very gratifying to the directors. The increase is entirely from the transportation of passengers, for while the amount of freight carried is greater by nearly two millions of tons than was carried in the previous year, the amount of money received for carrying this increased amount of freight is less than was received in the previous year.

We quote as follows from the report:

"It is, perhaps, too soon to determine positively what the effect of opening the Pan-handle Road will be upon our business. It has always been considered by us a matter of doubt whether the business derived from the Steubenville and Indiana Road has paid for the additional expense connected with it. Since the opening of that line across the Pan-handle to Pittsburgh, and the consequent withdrawal of their trains from our road, the business of our river division has been larger than ever, in consequence of the increased local business, which seems likely to continue.

"The increase in the expenses of operating the road is large, amounting to $451,249,07. This increase, so far as relates to motive power and cars, the maintenance of way and structures, is owing in part to the increased cost of materials and labor, and in part to the more extensive repairs which have been made upon the track."

The following is a full statement of the income and expenditures of the Company, from all sources and for all purposes, including what has already been exhibited in the previous statement.

It will be seen that the company received from the sale of stock authorized at the last meeting the sum of $809,000, and that there has been expended in construction, equipment and new structures, the sum of $376,317,64. This expenditure has been for objects of vital interest to this Company, and the advantage will be found in the future increased earnings, and reduced expenses of the company.

The finances of the company are in a highly satisfactory condition, and the Board, after making their exhibit, say: "It will be seen by comparing this financial statement with the statement of last year, that the mortgage indebtedness has been reduced $188,610 29, and the unsecured indebtedness $59,141 65. The mortgage indebtedness is now only $3,860,628,55, and the unsecured indebtedness is so small that it could be paid at any time. No debts are unpaid which are due, and all the engagements of the Company continue to be promptly met."

In conclusion the Directors speak of the fidelity and industry of the general officers and subordinate employees of the Company. Upon the manner in which their duties are performed the successful management of the road is in a great measure dependent.

After the reading of the Report an election for Directors was held, which resulted as follows:

J. N. M'Cullough, Wellsville; F. F. Geisse, Wellsville; James F. Clark, Cleveland; T. P. Handy, Cleveland; D. C. List, Wheeling; S. Harbaugh, Pittsburgh; B. B. Jones, Pittsburgh; H. C. Kingsley, New Haven; Smith Cliff, New York; J. F. D. Lanier, New York; F. F. Randolph, New York; W. W. Holloway, Bridgeport.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following officers were chosen for the current year:

President—J. N. McCullough.
Vice President—W. W. Holloway.
Superintendent—J. H. Devereaux.
General Ticket Agent—F. R. Myers.
Auditor—R F Smith.
Secretary—Geo. A. Ingersoll.

End of the Guffy Riot Case.

The famous Guffy riot case, which was tried in the Greensburg Sessions, in the fall of 1863, has just been finally disposed of by the way of two civil actions for malicious prosecution, tried during Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the present week, before Judge Sterrett, in the Court of Common Pleas. The cases alluded to were those of Isaac N. Coursin vs. John Guffy, and Capt. B. W. Morgan vs. same defendant.

The circumstances out of which these suits arose, our readers will remember, as follows: Some time in October, 1863, a Union mass meeting was held at Uniontown, to which a delegation of some two thousand Unionists from Pittsburgh started on a special train. When the train stopped at Guffy's Station, at the residence of Mr. John Guffy, a few soldiers upon the train got into some difficulty with Wesley, the brother of John Guffy, which resulted in an indictment for riot, preferred on information of John Guffy. None of the participants in the disturbance were indicted or arrested, the parties upon whom Mr. Guffy would have wreaked his malice being Sheriff Stewart, Messrs. Coursin and Morgan, and a few others, whom Mr. G. classically designated as "d—d Abolition bell-bounces." Upon the trial at Greensburg, there seeming to be a necessity for a victim to appease the party just beaten—the election meanwhile having transpired—Sheriff Stewart was found guilty, the court measuring the extent of his criminality by a fine of five dollars! Messrs. Coursin and Morgan were acquitted, and hence brought the present suits for malicious prosecution. Owing to the absence of material witnesses for plaintiffs, who were engaged in the service of the country, (we believe none of the defendant's witnesses were so engaged) the cases could not be tried before the present time. Nearly three days were consumed by the trial which resulted in a verdict for $150 for each case.

The case on the part of the plaintiffs was conducted by Billings G. Childs, Esq., who won golden opinions by the able and careful manner in which he discharged his duties. Messrs. S. A. Purviance and John H Baily appeared for the defendants. Sic transit gloria Guffie.

From Yesterday's Evening Gazette.

McClintock of the Fifth ward, were absent.

The Clerk then read the returns of Tuesday's election, by which it appeared that the following were the members of the Select Council elect:

On motion of Mr. Samuel Barckly, Mr. M'Auley was elected by acclamation.

The clerk designated Mr. W. R. Brown, as the oldest member of Council, to administer the oath of office to the President, which he accordingly did in due form.

Mr. McAuley briefly returned thanks for the honor conferred, and said he would strive to discharge the duties of President, in accordance with the oath he had taken.

The newly elected members (all being present,) were next sworn in by the President.

Mr. Wm. Phillips nominated E S Morrow, Esq., for Clerk, and on motion of Mr. John Shipton he was elected by acclamation. He was sworn in by the President.

Col. E. F. Pratt was unanimously re-elected Messenger.

On motion of J. S. Normine, the rules of the last Council were adopted.

The Clerk was then directed to notify the Common Council of the organization, after which the members of Select went into joint session with that branch.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The Council was called to order by the Clerk, Hugh McMaster, Esq., who, in accordance with the regulations, proceeded to open the returns and announce the result of the election for members of the Common Council.

The following are the names of the gentlemen elected from the several wards:

First Ward.—W. R. Boggs, A. B. McQuowan.
Second Ward.—Thos. Steel, D. O'Neil, Wm. N. Ogden.
Third Ward.—J. J. Torley, J. G. Weldon.
Fourth Ward.—James Verner, W. A. Tomlinson, John H. Hare.
Fifth Ward.—F. Ardary, C. Peck, F. C. Dickson, R. J. McGowan, Paul Seibert.
Sixth Ward.—Robert Robb, W. C. Moreland, J. M. Brush, John Robman, W. F. Lang.
Seventh Ward.—James Patchel, J. M. McEwen.
Eighth Ward.—J. Mawhinney, John M. Killen, Edward B. Wright.
Ninth Ward.—David McClelland, W. R. Ford, T. W. Welsh.
Tenth Ward.—William Simpson, Jacob Diehl.

All the above named gentlemen were present.

The Clerk announced that the next business in order would be the election of President.

Several gentlemen nominated the late presiding officer, Thomas Steel, Esq.

There being no other candidate, Mr. Steel was unanimously chosen President.

The clerk designated Mr. John M. Killen as the person who should administer the oath, which he did in due form.

Mr. Steel, on taking the chair, declined to make any address, and announced that he would now proceed to administer the oath of office to the members. This the members were all sworn in by the President.

On motion of Mr. O'Neill, H. McMaster, Esq., was unanimously re-elected Clerk, and Col. E. F. Pratt was unanimously chosen Messenger.

The Common Council being thus organized, the Clerk was requested to notify Select Council that they were now ready to meet them in Joint session, for the purpose of receiving and enumerating the vote for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer.

JOINT SESSION.

The Select Council was now conducted to the Common Council chamber, and the Joint Session declared ready for business.

Mr. McAuley, President of Select, announced the returns of the election for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, from which it appeared that Wm. C. McCarthy, for Mayor, had 5,059 votes, and his opponent, Mr. Blackmore, had 2,583 votes, giving Mr. McCarthy a majority of 85 votes. Mr. McCargo, for Controller, had 2,420 votes, and Mr. Eichbaum, for Treasurer, had 2,536 votes—there being no opposition for the latter offices.

The President announced that Messrs. McCarthy, McCargo and Eichbaum had been duly elected to fill the respective offices to which they had aspired.

Mr. McGowan moved the appointment of a Committee of five to wait upon the Mayor elect, and conduct him to the Council Chamber. The motion was adopted, and the following named gentlemen were appointed on the Committee: Messrs. McGowan, Hare and Killen, of Common Council, and Messrs. Brown and McMillen, of Select Council.

The Committee, after a short absence, returned in company with Mr. McCarthy, who was introduced by the Chairman to the Presidents of Councils.

Mr. McAuley announced to the Mayor elect that it was his duty to administer to him the oath of office, and for that purpose the committee had waited upon him. The oath was then administered in due form, after which Mr. McAuley, in congratulating Mr. McCarthy, expressed the hope that he would, to the best of his ability, carry out the obligations of the oath which he had just taken. In doing so, he might make enemies of those who were now his best friends, but this should not deter him from a full and faithful discharge of all his duties. Let equal justice be done to all alike—rich and poor, high and low—and he would retire from the office with the esteem of his fellow citizens and with a consciousness of having discharged his duties without fear, favor or partiality.

Mr. McCarthy replied in a few brief words, declining to make any promises as to what he would or would not do, as had been customary on such occasions. He was only ambitious to discharge his duties in strict conformity to the obligations which he had just taken, and to govern the city with a view to the promotion of its best interests.

The response was heartily applauded by the spectators, and after Mr. McCarthy had retired he received the warmest congratulations of a large number of his personal friends.

The Joint Session then adjourned until Tuesday evening next, at 7½ o'clock, when they will meet for the purpose of electing city officers.

Select Council then retired to their Chamber and adjourned. In Common Council, Mr. O'Neill gave notice of his intention to introduce an ordinance, at the next meeting, requiring the Mayor to give bond in the sum of $10,000 for the proper disposition of the funds coming into his hands as a collecting officer.

After electing seats, the Common Council adjourned.

Motion for a New Trial Refused.—The motion in the case of Patrick Williams, convicted of perjury at the recent term of the Criminal Court, was argued to-day. The Court refused the motion, and Williams was remanded for sentence.

Allegheny Lock-Up.—There were but two common cases before Mayor Morrison this morning. They were each discharged upon the payment of the usual fines.

The Leader Out.—The Pittsburgh Leader for this week has been laid upon our table. It is a really handsome number.

Allegheny County Agricultural Society.—Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of the Allegheny county Agricultural Society was held on Thursday, Vice President G. G. Negley in the chair, and Jas. S. Negley, Secretary.

Messrs Young, Chess and Park were appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year. The committee reported the following nominations, who were elected by acclamation, suspending the rule requiring the election to be held by ballot:

President—John E. Park.
Vice President—John Murdock, Jr.
Secretary and Librarian—George M. Reed.
Corresponding Secretary—Jas. S. Negley.
Treasurer—James Reed.
Managers—William Espy, W. S Haven, Wm. Oliver, John F. Jennings, James McKelvy, Jared M. Brush, John Hodgson, J. B. Hill, John Young, Jr. James Verner, George Burns, Wm. Grey, Moses Chess, George G. Negley, Albert Bennett, Randall Morton.

General Negley proposed the following resolution, which was passed unanimously:

WHEREAS, Benjamin Kelly, Esq., late President of the society, has been afflicted by a severe and enfeebling illness, the society deems it an act of justice to Mr. Kelly, as well as a proper appreciation of his long and faithful service, to relieve him from further duty, at the same time declaring him a "life member" of the society. The members of the society here with extend to Mr. Kelly their personal regards and sympathy.

The chairman in a brief address alluded to the encouraging prospects of the society. It only requires an active co-operation of the members to insure prosperity and a creditable exhibition of the coming autumn.

On motion adjourned.

MEETING OF THE NEW BOARD.

The newly elected Board of Managers convened, and elected, by a unanimous vote, Moses Chess Chairman of the Board, and Albert Bennett, Secretary.

On motion of Capt. Young, a vote of thanks was tendered to Judge Park, for his efficient services at the last Fair.

By order of the Committee.

Sudden Death.

An old lady named Elizabeth Sharp, occupying a room in a court off Washington street, in the Sixth Ward, fell dead this morning, between five and six o'clock, soon after rising from her bed. Coroner Clawson held an inquest, when the following facts were ascertained. The old lady lived with a little grand-daughter, aged eleven years, and earned a livelihood by washing clothes. She arose before six o'clock, and the little girl was awakened by hearing her fall heavily upon the floor. She called to her but received no answer, when she asked the woman living in the same house to bring a light. A light was obtained, but on examining the old lady it was found that she was dead. Dr. McCook, Sr., made a postmortem examination, and discovered that she had an apoplexy of the lungs. The little girl has no friends here, but states that she has an aunt in Louisville, named Wray, who will take care of her, and whom she is anxious to live with. The deceased was about fifty years of age, and was in her usual health on retiring to bed the previous evening. She had plenty of clothing for herself and the little girl, and had some twenty dollars in money. She will be decently interred, and the balance of her effects, after paying her funeral expenses, will be appropriated for the benefit of the child, who is thus rendered homeless.

Oratorio of the Messiah.

Lafayette Hall was filled to overflowing last evening on the occasion of the rendering of Handel's celebrated sacred Oratorio of the Messiah. The performance through was intensely interesting and highly creditable to all concerned in reproducing this master piece. Prof Wamelink, conductor, and Mr. C. C. Mellor, Pianist, executed their difficult parts of the performance with great ability, and also, with a delicacy that exhibited their good taste in musical matters. It must have impressed every one present, as it did us, that so much native talent as was displayed last night, ought to be encouraged and cultivated, and used to grace many an occasion that is rendered inattractive for the want of just such music as we had last night. We hope the good work begun by those who inaugurated this movement will be carried forward by them until we have in our midst an organization similar to, and equal in ability, to the Philharmonic Societies in the Eastern cities. Without making any invidious distinctions on the individual performance, suffice it to say each one executed their part well and to general satisfaction.

Destructive Fire at Titusville.

At 3 o'clock Tuesday morning a most destructive fire broke out in Smith's Hotel, Titusville, Crawford county, which resulted in the destruction of the Hotel, and other property, to the value of over $30,000. The loss and insurance are summed up as follows:

	Loss.	Insurance.
Smith's Hotel	$3,000	$4,000
Hartzell's stables	1,800	1,500
Brewsen's Brick Building	5,000	4,000
Stow & Frowsoe's Bakery	3,000	2,000
Chas. Herman, on furniture	500
M. L. Hessberg's Building	4,000	4,000
Dr. Raste's Tobacco and Cigar store same building	1,800	—
Simmons' grocery	2,000	—
Private losses not ascertained, about	5,000	—
Total	$20,350	$17,500

Mr. C. C. Dodge, of the firm of Dodge & Hale, Terrapin Lunch, was robbed of a gold chronometer watch, and a heavy gold chain valued at $525, while forcing the scuttle on the roof of Hershberg's building. It is supposed to have been a concerted plan of a gang of thieves. They, however, failed to rob him of $750 which he had on his person.

The Hughes Homicide Case—Verdict of the Jury.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer assembled at nine o'clock this morning, when Judge Mellon began his charge to the jury. It was fair and impartial, and was listened to with the greatest attention. About ten o'clock the jury retired, and after deliberating three-quarters of an hour, returned to the Court room, and rendered a verdict of guilty of manslaughter. Sentence was deferred.

The Clerks of Councils.—We are pleased to record the action of Councils in retaining the services of Messrs. McMaster and Morrow as Clerks of their respective branches. They are both careful, competent and worthy officers, and their unanimous re-election is a compliment which they highly merited. We may properly, in this connection, express our thanks to them for many favors and courtesies extended to us in times past, in making up our reports of the proceedings of the bodies to which they belong. It would be difficult to find more affable or accommodating gentlemen than they.

New York Weeklies.—Messrs. John P. Hunt & Co., Masonic Hall, Fifth street, have received their usual abundant supply of New York weeklies, viz: The Round Table, Frank Leslie's Illustrated Paper, The Independent, The Weekly Tribune, The Weekly World, and The Chimney Corner. Every one who purchases this number (No. 33) of the Chimney Corner, receives gratuitously a copy of a splendid print, entitled "his only pan," which is very handsomely got up.

No Set Speech.—Col. E. F. Pratt, the time-honored Messenger to Councils, contrary to his usual custom, declined to make a set speech on the occasion of his re-election, alleging as a reason that "the vocabulary of language had exhausted." It and the Colonel so shortly, but then it is not necessary for him to give any speeches. He is not only the oldest, but the most faithful "public functionary" in the city, and a model for those in higher positions.

The decline in gold was checked to-day, and the market closes with a small advance. New York rates 144½. Pittsburgh 140. Governments with out market change. Five-Twenties are firm at 105, with ready market. Ten Forties selling at 93@91. Seven Thirties scarcely so firm, and selling one-fourth lower—1st series, 98@99¼; 2nd series 98¾; 3d series, 99@98¾.

The accrued interest on Connellsville bonds begins to put up quotations slightly, though by no means where they should be—80¼ bid, when they ought to bring 85. Bank shares remain fairly brisk. Sales of Allegheny National to-day at 85, (ex-dividend.) Exchange National is held at 85½. Merchants, at about 55, (ex-dividend) Citizens National 63 bid, 63¼ asked. Sales Peoples National at 105. This stock is in request at 104@101¾. Nothing doing in oil shares—21¼ bid for Columbia—held at 25.

The quarterly statements of our National Banks, published on Friday, are regarded as highly satisfactory, and indicate that they are all in excellent condition. No Banks, probably, in the country are conducted with more ability or integrity than our Pittsburgh Banks, and, we are sure, none are in better trim financially.

Intelligence was received in the city to-day of a very handsome "strike" having been made on Cherry Run, in which two or three of our citizens are interested. One telegram puts it down as a three hundred barrel well, but this is doubtless an exaggeration. We will probably have something more definite in relation to the matter to-morrow.

—It is again announced by telegraph that the Secretary of the Treasury will shortly advertise for proposals for a loan, for which five-twenty bonds will be issued, the proceeds to be appropriated to the payment of outstanding certificates of indebtedness, and perhaps compound interest notes. We do not know, of course, what foundation there may be for this report, but we shall hail with pleasure anything that looks to a settlement of outstanding obligations of any kind.

—The increase in legal tenders to the amount of $13,242,476, as stated in the New York bank statement, is owing to the inclusion under this head of clearing house certificates. The real increase however, in legal-tenders, is estimated at only four millions. The action of the banks in this matter is in accordance with a resolution passed by the clearing house on the 27th December requesting the banks to include United States clearing house certificates with legal tender notes in their weekly statements, in order to secure uniformity. The Tribune, however, advises that borrowers cannot be too careful in making new engagements on this statement. It shows that the banks are strong, but it does not follow that they will be running about the streets for borrowers at low interest. On the other hand, it is well known that this legal tender money means compound notes with large accumulated interest, and one year certificates bought at rates which tempt shrewd bankers to use their money in that direction in preference to ordinary loans. The government will soon be in the market to change its short loans into long bonds, and reduce the currency by the process. The deposits show an increase of $6,021,221, in preparation for the payment of dividends and interest.

—The Louisville Journal of Wednesday says: "The receipts of coal by the river from Pittsburgh were over one million and a half bushels with reshipments to ports below of one million seven hundred thousand bushels. In addition to the sale a few days ago of 308,000 bushels, we notice the sale of 175,000, do at .26 afloat, or .26 including boats."

Review of the New York Grocery Market.

[From the Commercial List of Jan 3.]

Coffee—The market for Brazil is weak and somewhat unsettled, but we have not varied previous quotations. The only sale is 1000 bags Rio, per Emily Agnes, on terms not made public. In other kinds we notice 1250 bags St. Domingo, for export, meat, if not all, at 12¾ cents, cash, gold, in bond. The stock of Rio in the Country is 138,192 bags here 9000 in Baltimore, and 5000 in New Orleans—total, 101,092 bags.

Sugar—There has been a steady, but rather moderate inquiry for Raw since our last, the market showing no change in the valuations of grades. Fair Refining Cuba 11¼ cents, fair to good grocery, 12@12¾; it may be noted, however, that with the turn of the year there is less pressure to sell, and the market presents a more cheerful and firmer tone than for sometime past. Refined is firmer, with some increase of business—Hard 16½@16¾ cents, Soft, White 16@17¼, and Yellow 13@16, cash.

Molasses—The demand continues very moderate and the market for all kinds is dull. The sales are 25 hhds Porto Rico at 40 cents in bond; 100 bbls New Orleans, $1.10@1.23, cash; and 125 hhds English Island, on terms not made public.

Rice—There is nothing of moment doing; 100 bags Rangoon sold, from second hands, at $4.12¼, gold, in bond.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, January 5, 1866.

There is no new feature to notice in the tone of the produce markets; the demand for most of the leading commodities of trade continues light, and prices are without material change. The money market is becoming easier, and while there is less difficulty in effecting loans, there is an entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, and consequently, we have some small lot operations to record. It is not probable that there will be any improvement in trade for some time, as our business men generally are busily engaged in settling up their accounts, and besides, commercial matters are dull and unsettled in all of the leading markets, both east and west.

GRAIN—Wheat is in fair demand and there is little or none offering. Oats may be quoted steady at 44@45 on track, and 46@48 from store; sale of 3?0 bush at 47. Corn is selling on track at 65@70; and 70@71 for small lots from store. Barley is as dull as ever, and there are no established quotations. Rye is quiet and nominally unchanged. Receipts of Grain of all kinds light.

FLOUR—The demand for Flour continues light, and the market is quiet and dull, but prices are nominally unchanged. We note small sales from store at $9.25@9.50 for Spring Wheat, and $10@10.25 for Winter Wheat brands. Rye Flour is dull and nominal at $5@5.50 per bbl, and Buckwheat Flour at $3@3.25 per cwt.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Jan. 5, 1866.

CRUDE—The market for Crude continues exceedingly dull and depressed, notwithstanding the arrivals are light and navigation may be fairly considered suspended. There seems to be no demand at the figures now asked by holders, and we doubt very much whether sales could be effected at a decline of one cent per gallon below the rates realized on Thursday. The depression may be attributed to the fact that there is no demand whatever for the Refined article, either here or in the East, and, as a matter of course, the one sympathises with the other. As there was but one sale, and it being on private terms, it is impossible to give accurate quotations; we quote nominally at 25½@26½ bbls returned, and 30½@31½ bbls included.

REFINED—There is no demand for bonded oil whatever, either here or in Philadelphia. There is no disguising the fact, however, that a very large reduction would have to be made to induce buyers to take hold, but the truth of the matter is there are no buyers at any price. Free Oil is dull and entirely nominal at 70@78. The transactions in Free Oil have been remarkably light all through the present season, falling far short of previous years. It is said that Cleveland is supplying the entire Western trade, and we are inclined to believe there is some truth in it.

NAPTHA AND RESIDUUM—We can report some small sales of Residuum at $5 per bbl, but as a general thing the demand is light. Naptha is dull and unchanged.

RECEIPTS—Our worthy wharf-master, Mr. Patterson, reports the entire arrivals of Petroleum at the Allegheny wharf during the eleven months ending on December 31st, 1865, at 199,278 bbls, on which he has collected wharfage to the amount of $7,287 50. The receipts by river since our last report, were as follows:

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

Finance and Trade in New York.

NEW YORK, January 5.—Railway speculation was heavy and lower this morning; although there was large business done at a decline. The lowest prices were made on the street, after regular board, when Pittsburgh sold down to eighty five and old Southern to seventy-four. The falling off in other shares was not so marked as on the two stocks. Market was heavy both at second regular and last open boards, and bear interest was decidedly in the ascendant. There was a general decline in prices, and the fall was quite marked on Ft. Wayne. Cleveland and Pittsburgh was thrown upon the market in large amounts, and closed one and a quarter lower. The sales of the afternoon boards aggregating twelve thousand nine hundred shares. The fall in Pittsburgh is due to the fact that the earnings for the last year have decreased nearly two hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

The following were the closing prices at 4:30 o'clock p. m.

New York Central, 91½; Erie, 95¾; Hudson River, 107¾; Reading, 105¾; Michigan Southern, 71¾; Illinois Central, 130.

State Bonds were quiet and firm. Coal and miscellaneous shares were without any decided change. Gold shows a tendency to react from the decline of yesterday; shorts are beginning to buy for covering their contracts, and cash gold is scarce. Steamship Europe, from Havana, took out one hundred and twenty-eight thousand four hundred dollars in specie.

The Government List has been lower on old 5-20 bonds. Sales were made at 150, and 5-20 Coupons of 1862 were steady, selling at 102¾@103¾. Seven-Thirty Notes rather dull and lower. The first series sold at 98¾@99; second series 98½@98¾, and the third series at 98¾@98¾. There is rather more demand for money on call, but loans are readily made at six per cent.

RIVER NEWS

ARRIVALS.

Golden Era	Kerr	Cincinnati.
Leni Leoti	Campbell	Cincinnati.
Forest City	Gordon	Parkersburg.

DEPARTURES.

Pine Grove	Maratta	Louisville.

BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

Forest City	Gordon	Parkersburg.
Julia No. 2	Cougson	Zanesville.

RIVER, WEATHER, ETC.

The river still continues to fall with five feet water in the channel by the Monongahela pier marks. The weather was very cold all day yesterday, and ice formed rapidly. In the Allegheny river heavy ice is running, and at the railroad bridge the river is gorged nearly all the way across. We should not be at all surprised if it was closed clear across this morning. Business at the wharf is dull.

The Ida Rees No. 2, is laid up with her hog chains broke, at the Aladdin Oil Works, thirty-five miles above this city.

The Pine Grove, Capt. Maratta, left last night for Louisville, loaded to all the water there is in the river.

The Golden Era, Capt. Wash. Kerr, came in yesterday with a good trip on board. She met very heavy ice. Capt. Kerr says that as soon as practicable, he will resume his trips in the Portsmouth and Pittsburgh trade.

The Leni Leoti, Capt. Coulson, came up to the wharf yesterday, and is now unloading. The prospects for her to lie up for the present are excellent.

The America, Capt. Golding, is still receiving freight for Nashville, and will leave just as soon as shippers send down enough of freight to load her.

The Armenia, Capt. McCallam, is still receiving freight for St. Louis, and will be ready to start out as soon as the gorge breaks at St. Louis.

We are under obligations to the clerk of the Leni Leoti for a copy of his manifest already made out. We would be happy to see more of our steamboat clerks following suit. We would however prefer having the manifest sent ahead by mail, so that we could publish them ahead of the arrival of the boat.

COLLISION AT CAIRO—MINNIE SUNK.—The steamer Minnie had just returned out yesterday, at Cairo, to come to Sulphur Springs, to load for the Arkansas, when she collided with a monitor, receiving such injuries that she began to fill. Observing her in distress, the Gen. Anderson ran alongside and took off her passengers, and both floated together a short distance down the bend, and the Minnie sank to her pilot house. The wrecking or bell boat Underwriter raised steam at the Cairo wharf, and was soon at the wreck, and the private dispatches containing the above information, stated that the Minnie would be raised. Her cargo, received up the Arkansas, was still on board, and consisted of cotton, &c. Capt. Connell was in charge, Capt. Shaw having come to Saint Louis some days since. The Minnie was a new boat, and in nearly everything was perhaps the best stern-wheeler afloat. She was valued at $45,000 and owned by Capt. A. H. Shaw, one-half, and Mepham & Bro., one half. She was insured for $30,000 in all—$5,000 in George D. Capen's agencies; $15,000 in the Columbian, of New York, and $5,000 in the National, of Boston.—[Saint Louis Democrat.
