 Second Monday in January.
 Last Monday in April.
 First Monday in August.
 First Monday in November.

The first snow deep enough to track a deer fell on Wednesday morning, giving our hunters a chance to furnish for Thanksgiving Dinner.

The P. & E. R. R. Time Table will be found corrected in another column.
 The winter schedule went into effect on Monday last.

The roads are very bad in this section at present, there being too much mud for sleighing and too much snow for wheeling.

Our old friend Mosby, of Erie, verbally informed us last week, that he had left "the Human Herd" and joined "the Brute Creation." Mosby was a bush-whacker when we knew him; we are sorry to see him take, this, his last step—and just so with the brutes too.

CALL and see the "Yankee Washing Machine" at the Hyde House. This machine we have seen and examined, and also have the report of those who have thoroughly tested them, and believe all the objections are overcome in this machine and that it meets all the requirements. Don't fail to examine it; be thoroughly convinced and leave your order. See advertisement in another column.

As a remedy for Bronchial Affections and Chronic Diseases of the Lungs, nothing ever before discovered equals Dr. Pierce's Alterative Extract, or golden Medal Discovery. It is also a great blood purifier and restorative tonic.— Sold by druggists, or send three and a quarter dollars to R. V. Pierce, M. D.
 Buffalo N. Y., and get three bottles free of Express charges.

PITTSBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.
 The institution whose name heads this item is so widely and favorably known that it is almost superfluous to call attention to it. As many are preparing, however, to send their daughters to school during the winter, and as the selections of a suitable school is one of the most difficult and important questions challenging the attention of parents, we take this opportunity to direct their attention to the Pittsburgh Female College. It has almost everything to recommend it. While it has the many advantages offered by cities only, its admirable location gives it the quiet and retirement of a country village. The buildings are models of good taste, and are fitted up in good style, and with special reference to the comfort of the pupils. Better even than its excellent accommodations, are the ample arrangements for the education of the pupils.

 No one department is sacrificed to another. The large number of teachers employed—twenty-three—enables the trustees not only to have full departments in the literary course, but special departments for all the ornamental branches. As an illustration we may state the fact that there are four teachers who devote their entire time to music.
 Added to all this the charges are not intended to dazzle dunces, and make them believe that the school is good because they pay terrible rates, but such as command themselves to right thinking men. All who have daughters to educate are most earnestly urged to call and make themselves acquainted with the facilities and advantages afforded. The winter term will open December 12th. Send to Rev. I. C.
 Perching, D. D., Pittsburgh, Pa., for a catalogue.—Pittsburgh Evening Chronicle.

General Cameron.
 Just now, says the Telegraph, when a few disappointed, malignant and dis-organizing spirits are trying their best to injure Simon Cameron in the estimation of the people, and lessen the political influence which he so worthily exercises in the Republican party, it is but justice to that distinguished gentleman to give occasionally an antidote to the poison of his enemies. There is no lack of Republican papers willing to take up the gauntlet in his defence, if defense were necessary. But so far his enemies have overshot the mark, and their attacks, false, coarse and virulent, have recoiled upon themselves. We commend to their attention, for the present, a brief article which we find in the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.
 That paper says with great truth and justice, "It has often been a subject of remark why it is that General Simon Cameron has so many warm friends throughout the state. We doubt if there is a man in Pennsylvania to-day who has one half the friends he has.
 The secret of his great strength in that respect lies simply in the fact that he never forgets an act of friendship, and always seeks an opportunity to reward who does him a favor. He has aided hundreds of young men to success in life by kind advice, if not by ready means. He makes it a point to so conduct himself that friends never desert him, and he is constantly making more as years crowd upon him. It was the reverse with Buchanan. He was always neglecting friends to capture enemies.
 The result was that he died with fewer friends, after a long career, than any man in the State. Simon Cameron will have more. Politicians possessed of any sagacity at all cannot find a more illustrious example to copy after, if they would become strong, than that set by the venerable e-Senator."

STRANGE INCIDENT.—On Wednesday night Mr Joseph M. Force, a student at the high school, went to the southern part of the city to visit some friends.
 He returned to his home at about half past one o'clock, with his forehead cut, three bruises on the back of his head and wrist and right knee badly bruised.
 The strangest part of the affair was that although he had come home alone, he had no idea how he had been hurt nor even any recollection of where he had been, but talked in an irrational sort of way about a railroad accident. His clothing did not indicate that he had fallen.
 On inquiry yesterday, it was found that he had left the residence of his friends at a little after ten o'clock at night. It looks as though some one had attacked him with a slung shot, the only circumstance that renders such a theory improbable being that he had money in his vest pocket when he returned.—

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR DECEMBER.
 We have heard enthusiastic readers declare that this holiday number was the best that has ever been issued, and when we look at the varied and superb embellishments and the captivating stories, we are inclined to think it so. The steel-plate, "Olive plants," is a pretty domestic scene; the beautiful frontispiece, "Sorrow Under the Sun," is romance in itself—such a world of expression is in the face of the girl leaning from the window-sill; the colored "pattern for a Slipper" furnishes just the design for a holiday present; and the colored Fashion Plate, as usual, is unsurpassed. Nothing of the kind can compare with this in all a fashion plate should be. We like the woodcut—"An Idyl on the Ice," and patterns for dresses, winter wraps, &c., are uncommonly elegant. The music is "Alone and from Home." The literary matter, in prose and poetry, places this magazine at the head of its class and the editorial department, with many readers, is the special attraction. Great inducements are offered to new subscribers. All new subscribers for 1871, who subscribe by the first of January, shall receive the December number free—making Thirteen Months in all!

 Price $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). Four copies, $6. Five copies (and one gratis), $8.
 "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post" (and one engraving), $4.00. Published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia. Sample copies sent gratis.

The third annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Pennsylvania was held in Scranton, Nov.
 8-10. A generous and hospitable welcome from the citizens of that growing city, now the fourth city in population in the Commonwealth, was given to the members. Their sessions from Tuesday afternoon to Thursday evening were marked with harmony, spirited discussion, and deep devotion. It left pleasant impressions upon the minds of the people of Scranton, and arranged, before adjourning sine die, to hold its next annual meeting at Erie. There are now 69 local associations in the State; and 61 of these report a membership of 8,562.

W. S. SERVICE

ADDRESS
 TO THE
NERVOUS & DEBILITATED, WHOSE SUFFERING HAVE BEEN PRO-TRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE
PROMPT TREATMENT
 TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or floccy, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile?
 Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on the subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be alone, to get away from everybody?
 Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eyes as brilliant? The bloom of your cheek as bright? Do you yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself?
 Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia.
 Have you restless nights? Your back weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal disease badly cured, and sexual excesses are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of the generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, or nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess.
 These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiotcy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to—and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.
