"I got some boot in that bargain," as the loafer said when kicked out of doors.

A paragraph commences thus:—"Women in arms!" Well, where should they be?

The Williamsport and ElmiraRailroad is to be sold at auction at the Philadelphia Exchange, on the 18th of April.

The treasurer of Milwaukie, Wisconsin, Mr. Sewarting, has decamped, being a defaulter to the amount of over $80,000.

An exchaage advises husbands to love their wives. The suggestion is good, but we amend by adding an admonition not to love eath other's wives.

Sir Peter Lely made it a rule never to look at a bad picture, having found,by experience, that whenever he did so, his pencil took a tint from it. Apply the same to bad company.

A lady in Montreal, on the 1st, recovered $2,000 of a Major Breckford for kissing and hugging her [illegible]ter roughly. She ought to set a high val[illegible]n the money, as she got it by a tight squeeze.

On the 1st inst., Missouri, in a full State Convention, resolved to support Hon. Edward Bates for the Presidency. Delegates were appointed to the Chicago Convention, and an electoral ticket formed.

It is doing some service to humanity to amuse innocently, and they know very little of society who think we can bear to be always employed either in duties or meditations without any relaxation.

A pretty girl was lately complaining to a Quaker friend that she had a cold, and was sadly plagued in her lips by chaps. "Friend," said he, "thee should never suffer the chaps to come near thy lips!"

Lord Bacon says: "A man would do well to carry a pencil in his pocket, and write down the thoughts of the moment. Those that come unsought are commonly the most profitable, and should be secured because they seldom return.

HAD HIM THERE.—A "peart" young lawyer once boasted to an old member of the bar that he had received two hundred dollars for speaking in a certain lawsuit. "Pooh!" replied the other, "I received double that sum for keeping silent in that very self-same case!"

HEART IN THE WRONG PLACE.—An actor, eulogizing his mistress one day, indicated by his manner a somewhat different position of the heart. He went on thus: "The angel! I have her picture here—I always wear it next my heart!" And here he produced the precious daguerreotype, not from his bosom, but from a pocket in—the tail of this coat?

J. Crans, Esq., Clearfield, Pa., or
WILLIAM F. JOHNSTON,
February 8, 1860. Executor.

KEEP UP THE EXCITEMENT.—Removals always cause excitement, and since the great excitement about the removal of the Court House has subsided, the community generally have become somewhat excited upon hearing that Charly Watson has determined to pull up stakes and remove to Virginia. But the latest cause of excitement is the fact that I have removed my Saddler Shop from my old stand opposite the Court House to my new shop on Market street, nearly opposite the jail, where all who may favor me with a call can be supplied with Saddles, Single Harness, Double Harness, Tug Harness, Bridles, Collars, Whips, Halters, Housings, Breechbands, Side Straps, and in fact every article in the line of Saddling and Harness making. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed I solicit a continuance of the same and a call from as many new customers as can make it suit.
Aug. 29, '59. GEORGE W. RHEEM.
P. S. My being connected with the Drug business will not interfere with my shop, for I have the Drug Store attended to by careful hands and intend devoting my time exclusively to my regularg business. G. W. R.

A HOMESTEAD FOR $10.—A Homestead for $100.—Also, Homesteads for $1000 and over, situated on and near Rappahannock River, above and below Fredericksburg, in Virginia.

A new town, called Rappahannock, has recently been laid out, in Culpeper County, in the midst of the Gold Region of Virginia, surrounded by Mines and Mining Companies; and Farms and Town Lots in alternate divisions or shares, can now be had for a "Mere Song," simply to induce settlement in this desirable region. $154,900 worth of land is to be divided amongst purchasers or given away as an inducement to come on and make improvements, and the land is of the most improvable qualities. Many have already settled and scores of others are coming. Good farming land, in tracts of any size to suit purchasers, can also be had at from $10 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments. Unquestionable titles will in all cases be given. ☞Agents are wanted every where to sell these lands; liberal inducements will be given. Bring on your hoes, your spades, and picks,
Your log chains and your pulling sticks,
Your sleds, your sleighs, your horse and mare,
No three-year old, shall then go bare.
Your spears we'll work up then just right,
To pruning hooks for every hight,
Your swords too, shall then be wrought
To plough-shares such as Cain ne'er bought.

J. SHUNKWEILER,
Dec. 6, 1858. GEORGE W. ORR.

FOR SALE OR RENT—A VALUABLE TAVERN STAND AND FARM of 85 acres of Land, 65 of which are cleared and under cultivation, situate on Clearfield Creek, on the main road leading from Clearfield town to Clearfield Bridge, in Clearfield county, Pa., and three miles from the former place. The house is large, new, well calculated for a Tavern, and will command nearly all the custom of the watermen during the freshets, which usually last from four to six weeks. There are also a good Barn, Wood Shed, Wash and Bake House, and various other buildings necessary for convenience and comfort. The terms of sale will be made easy—say four annual payments. For further information inquire of L. J. Crans, Esq., Dr. A. T. Schryver, James H. Larimer, Esq., Clearfield, or L. W. Weld, Glen Hope, Clearfield county, Pa. Possession can be given so that the buyer or rentor can have the benefit of the spring business, which alone will amount to more than double the rent A. T. SCHRYVER.
