INCIDENTS OF THE ARMY.—After Major Ringgold had received his mortal wound, his noble steed was lying a short distance from him, writhing in agony, Capt. Graham requested permission to have the animal shot in order to put an end to his sufferings. But the Major would not listen to the proposition, requesting that the kindest attention should be paid him and to suffer him to live as long as he could.

During the bombardment of Fort Brown there was a woman in the Fort, the wife of one of the privates, who regularly and attentively, the whole time, plied the men at the guns with coffee and other refreshments, while they plied the Mexicans with shot. She gave Uncle Sam's boys gunpowder (tea) while they helped the Mexicans to some grape. Where the shot flew thickest there was she; and she frequently fit a soldier's segar from an exploded shell. She is a large, athletic woman, having a frame well proportioned to her big, generous heart. She is now the favorite of the whole army, and being a native of Indiana the soubriquet every where attaches to her of the "GREAT WESTERN." At the dinner given to the delegation from the State Legislature, the Great Western was toasted with all the honors, although exposure to the sun has made her already brown.—Delta.

A HEROINE.—The Indiana Volunteers were all mustered into the service of the United States on Friday. On Saturday, one of Capt. Walker's Company, from Evansville, lost a handkerchief. On setting down to mess, he observed it sticking out of the bosom of one of his comrades. He immediately took hold of it, when, to his surprise he discovered that his messmate was a female. On inquiring in this strange proceeding, she stated, that being very poor, and wishing to go to her father, who resided in Texas, resolved to join one of the Volunteer Companies. She afterwards, came to this city, and her fellow soldiers raised a subscription to carry her to her father.

Louisville Journal, 22d.

The medical staff of Gen. Taylor's command is said to be as efficient as any in the world. Not only have they shown great skill in this campaign, but their gallantry on the Battle-field has excited the admiration of the army.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Office of the BALTIMORE AMERICAN, July 6.

GRAIN.—We hear of no sales of Maryland Wheat. A lot of prime Pennsylvania white Wheat was sold to-day at 93 cents, and another lot of prime Penna. red at 90 cents.

We quote white Corn at 54a56 cents, and yellow, which has been scarce, at 52 cts.

Oats have declined, and are now worth 24a26 cents.

WHISKEY.—Stocks continue very light, and the demand fair at 21 cents for hhds. and 23 cts. for bbls.

HEALTH! O BLESSED HEALTH! Thou art above all gold and treasures; 'tis thou who enlargest the soul—and openest all its powers to receive instruction, and to relish virtue. He that has thee, has little more to wish for, and he that is so wretched as to have thee not, wants every thing beside. Let us be thankful Brandreth's Pills will give us health—get then the celebrated Pills, which a century's use has fully established to be the best medicine ever bestowed on man. For the prevailing colds and coughs, they will be found everything that medicine is capable of imparting.

DR SMITH'S (SUGAR COATED) "IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS."

ARE daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known, in consequence of which they have now become a shining mark against which all the arrows of disappointed hope, envy, and uncharitableness are levelled without distinction. The town and country are alike filled with their praise. The palace and the poor house alike echo with their virtues. In all climates, under all temperatures, they still retain their wonderful powers, and exert them unaltered by age or situation. They are simple in their preparations, mild in their actions, thorough in all their operations, and unrivalled in their results. They are anti-bilious, anti-dyspeptic and anti-mercurial: and they are peculiarly beneficial in the following complaints: fever and ague, yellow and bilious fevers, dyspepsia, croup, liver complaint, sick headache, jaundice, asthma, dropsy, spleen, piles, colic, obstructions, heartburn, furred tongue and foul stomach, nausea, diarrhea, costiveness, loss of appetite, sallow complexions, chills, and in all cases of torpor of the bowels where a cathartic or an aperient is needed.

N. B. No Sugar Coated Pills can be genuine, unless every box has on it the signature of G. BENJ'N SMITH, M. D.

☞ CAUTION.—As a miserable imitation has been made, by the name of "Sugar Coated Pills," it is necessary to be sure that DR. G. BENJ. SMITH'S signature is on every box. Price 25 cents.

IS now prepared to offer, Wholesale and Retail, a large assortment of FANCY and STAPLE
