The Alleghanian.
THURSDAY.....JANUARY 24.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

OUR PAPER.—The Alleghanian is the only paper published in Ebensburg at the present time. The Dem. & Sent. collapsed about a month ago, though it is possible it will be resuscitated in course of time.

We direct attention to our subscription and advertising rates, published on fourth page. The terms of subscription we have fixed on will be found very liberal to-wards advance-paying subscribers. Those paying in advance or inside three months from date of subscription, will receive the paper for $2.00 per year. Those delaying payment after three months will be charged $3.00. These terms will be strictly adhered to.

Our advertising rates have been somewhat reduced from the former prevailing rates. They will speak for themselves. We call upon those interested in the success of the paper to advertise liberally.—By advertising, the prosperity of a paper is not only enhanced, but those who avail themselves of this method of getting before the public assure their own success in business. Stephen Girard knew and appreciated the potent power possessed by printers' ink. He advertised liberally, and died a millionaire.

We are prepared to do all kinds of job printing on reasonable terms.

We have effected an arrangement with the former editor of The Alleghanian, by the terms of which all those whose subscriptions were overpaid at the late suspension of the paper will receive the paper for the length of time due them respectively.

This number of the paper is sent to a majority of its old subscribers, and to many who never ranked as such. Both classes are requested to afford us their aid and support. Those not wishing to take the paper will please return it through the P. O. forthwith, marked "refused."—Those who do not return it will be looked upon as subscribers.

We respectfully solicit local correspondence from every section of the county. A plain recital of facts will do where the case has not time to elaborate.

Marriage and death notices are published free, though it is usually the custom to accompany the former with a dollar, either gold or greenback, or with a pound-cake, or at least to allow the printer-man to kiss the bride.

In this connection, we will say that as soon as the measure of patronage bestowed upon us is large enough to justify the step, we will enlarge the paper, dress it in new type, and otherwise beautify and improve it.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—On Sunday morning, 13th instant, a most destructive fire visited Johnstown. The flames broke out in the hat store of George Turner, three doors from the northeast corner of Main and Franklin streets. Thence they spread to the grocery store and dwelling house of Frederick Border, the drug store of C. T. Frazer, the book store of Alex. Montgomery, the law office of John F. Barnes, the saddle and harness establishment of H. M. Lewis, the ladies' dress store of Miss Mary J. Parke, the clothing store of I. E. Chandler, the residence of James Williams, and the grocery store and residence of David Creed—all the buildings, with the exception of those last named, were totally consumed.—The parties above named all lost heavily. Some are insured to the full value of property destroyed, some are insured partially, and some are not insured at all. Mr. Thomas Gore owned all the burned buildings except the one occupied by Mr. Creed. His loss is $6,000; insured for $3,200. Creed's loss is $1,800; insured. The buildings were situated on Main and Franklin streets, in the center of the business part of Johnstown. They were of brick, and, taken collectively, formed a fine-looking architectural pile. It is understood their sites will soon be occupied by first-class brick business stands.

PERSONAL.—Col. Robert A. M'Coy, Private Secretary to Governor Curtin, has been appointed to a clerkship in the Land Office at Harrisburg.....The County Commissioners are now and have been for a couple of weeks past engaged in effecting a settlement of the books of the county for the past year. The board is composed of the following named gentlemen—Jno. Kennedy, D. A. Luther, and J. C. Rodgers, Esquires, (the latter appointed in place of Emanuel Brallier, resigned.).....We have received a copy of a paper entitled Curdington, O., Republican, edited by Messrs. Smith & James. The former member of this firm is none other than Ed. James, who graduated as a printer with all the honors from The Alleghanian office. We wish him success in his venture.

STORMY WEATHER.—We remember to have heard it prognosticated, last fall, that the then pending winter would be an excessively severe one. This prognostication was based upon an assumed relationship existing between animate and inanimate nature and the atmosphere, by a due observance of which the changes or peculiarities of the latter may be foreshown with barometrical accuracy. Thus, the fact that wild animals in considerable numbers forsook their usual haunts in the fastnesses of the forest toward winter and congregated near the habitations of men, was explained on the hypothesis that they were fleeing from the wrath to come of King Boreas; and thus, the fact that the growing corn was clothed with an additional husk or two, was held to mean a provision of nature for protection against bitter-biting blasts. Well, for once, a weather-wise prophecy has come true.—The present is a severe winter. The winter of '64-5 was written down in the record a hard one, but it couldn't hold a tin whistle to this. In fact, the present is the coldest, and roughest, and blowiest, and bitingest old winter we have had since '55-6. Then the snow was four feet deep on the level and ten feet deep on the drift, with the mercury in the thermometer a fixity in the neighborhood of zero; now the snow is as deep and the drifts as unfathomable, while the thermometer is only of practical use when pickled in whisky to keep it from freezing. We may add that snow is still falling, so that it is among the possibilities that we may yet be obliged to enter our houses thro' the second story windows. Of course, with all this, our Branch Railroad is snowed up. Snowed up—for the third time this winter—and we, in common with many other excellent fellows and fellow-citizens, are out of coal. The turnpikes leading in every direction, except to Cresson, are also hermetically sealed. On Thursday, we had no mail. Since then, however, communication has been opened up, and two lines of sleighhacks (Moore & Thompson's "Blockade Runner," and Lem. and Sam. Davis' "Snow Plough") now run twice a day each to Cresson, carrying the mails and passengers. Oh, it's awful—this weather! No coal—nobody in town—no business—no going round o' nights—no enjoyment—no nothing that's right and good. Besides, the pumps are nearly all froze up. But, then, what's the use of water when there is no coal to make the kettle boil! We wonder whether other towns are afflicted like unto this! And—just think of it!—to cap the climax of our miseries, we overheard one of those long-faced individuals who deal in weather prognostications say that the storm and cold weather are going to last till March. Ugh! Put him out!

THE N. Y. TRIBUNE.—We divert attention to the prospectus of this sterling sheet, published on our fourth page. The man who does not know that the Tribune is the best paper published in America is to be pitied. A club for the Weekly is now being formed by C. T. Roberts, Ebensburg. If you do not feel able to subscribe for the Daily or Semi-Weekly, you can at least take the Weekly. The small amount of money required cannot be more profitably invested.

That excellent compendium of general and political information, the Tribune Almanac, is for sale by C. T. Roberts.—Price 20 cents.

TWO MEN KILLED.—We learn from the Johnstown Tribune that a terrible accident occurred in one of the ore mines of the Cambria Iron Company, on the 12th, by which two Englishmen, named Dunn and Hotchkins, were instantly killed.—The accident was the result of a premature explosion of a blast. Dunn leaves a wife and five children in England. The other was a young man and unmarried.

"SATURDAY NIGHT."—Anybody desiring a first-class literary hebdomadal should subscribe for Saturday Night.—Published by Davis & Elverson, P. O. box 729, Phila. Terms, $3 per annum, in advance. We speak by the card when we say that it is among the foremost publications of its class.

HANG OUT THE BANNERS!—The old stand of A. A. Barker yet remains in the field. See advertisement. He keeps a full assortment of everything usually kept in a country store, at prices to suit the times. Those who have gone there already will go again—those who never went, ought to go, and go now!

THE LARGEST AND BEST.—J. M. Thompson takes this method of saying to his old customers that he has now on hand, at his store, High street, Ebensburg, the largest and best general assortment of winter goods ever brought to town. The public are invited to call and sample goods. *

DO YOU HEAR THAT!—E. J. Mills would respectfully inform the people of Ebensburg and vicinity that he has just received, at his store, in the P. O. building, a large and well selected stock of ready-made clothing, hats and caps, boots and shoes, notions, cigars and tobacco, &c., &c., all which he will dispose of cheaper for cash than any or all competitors. Give him a call. *

WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c.—See the long advertisement of C. T. Roberts, watchmaker and jeweler, in this paper.—Chum is himself an accomplished artisan in the watchmaking line, and allows naught but good work to go out of his establishment. His stock of goods on hand and for sale is extensive and well selected, and marked at low figures.—Patronize him!

V. S. BARKER'S CHEAP CASH STORE.—We direct particular attention to the column advertisement of our young friend V. S. Barker. Vallie is a good fellow, and keeps a good store. Our word for it, those who favor him with their patronage will never regret it.

DUFF'S COLLEGE CIRCULAR FOR 1867 has just been issued by the Principals of this widely known and favorite Pittsburgh establishment. The publication is in the quarto form, and contains some new and interesting matter relative to the course of business education, so long and so successfully taught in the institution. Among other things we notice a beautiful electrotype engraving of Wm. H. Duff's handwriting, in an elegant set of capitals, and an original and animated design of Pen Flourishing, which every one desirous of becoming a master penman, will prize as a gem of the chirographic art.

Mailed free by P. Duff & Son, Pittsburg, Penna.

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!—SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH!—Wheaton's Ointment will cure the Itch in 48 Hours. Also cures Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Chilblains, and all Eruptions of the Skin. Price 50 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

By sending 60 cents to WEEKS & POTTER, Sole Agents, 170 Washington street, Boston, Mass., it will be forwarded by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States.

January 24, 1867—6m*

CAUTION!—

All persons are hereby cautioned not to purchase or receive in any manner whatsoever a certain Due Bill for $500, payable one day after date; and two Notes, one for $300, payable six months after date, the other for $500, payable one year after date, executed by the undersigned in favor of A. W. Green on Monday, the 14th January, instant, as they were unfairly obtained, and without consideration, and will not be paid unless I am compelled thereto by law.

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND!

No medicine for the cure of Rheumatism has ever attained to such a high degree of favor and universality as

JOHNSON'S RHEUMATIC COMPOUND.

Although but one year before the public, this medicine has justly gained an unbounded popularity. When the originator first introduced it, he was convinced of its efficacy, but he little supposed it was destined to prove such an inestimable blessing to the afflicted. But "true merit" cannot be suppressed.—The attestation of hundreds who have been cured by its use, must prove the truth of the assertion,

"THAT IT IS A RADICAL CURATIVE"

FOR

INFLAMMATORY AND ACUTE RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, AND KINDRED DISEASES.

We recommend it with confidence as

THE GREAT INTERNAL REMEDY,

For the Speedy and Positive Cure of the above Complaints.

Messrs. R. E. SELLERS & Co: This is to certify that for the last sixteen years I have been severely afflicted with rheumatism, often confined to my house, and even unable to walk. Being in the Postoffice, about two months ago, Mr. Clark observed my crippled condition, and urged me to try a bottle of "Johnson's Rheumatic Compound." I followed his advice and now, by the blessing of God, and the use of half a bottle of your "Compound," I am free from all symptoms of rheumatism, and can walk without the aid of my staff, as well as ever.

SELLERS' VERMIFUGE.

This Worm Medicine

HAS NO SUPERIOR, IF AN EQUAL,

In this or any other Country.

Every year thousands of children die from this horrible evil. This alarming mortality loudly calls for increased watchfulness, and greater care in the selection of the remedy.

LET PHYSICIANS SPEAK!

SELLERS' VERMIFUGE THE BEST IN USE—HERE IS THE PROOF.

Licking Station, Ky., Dec. 14, 1865.

MR. R. E. SELLERS:—Your Vermifuge possesses more virtue than any I ever used. I will state a case where I gave one vial. My brother's child was ailing and wasting to a mere skeleton. In thirty-six hours after I gave the Vermifuge, the enormous quantity of upward of six hundred worms were passed. The child that was given up for lost, is now as well as any in the neighborhood.
