EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, Apl. 8, 1867, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE EBENSBURG—
At 6 00 A. M., connecting with Day Exp. East and Phil. Exp. West.
At 7.10 P. M., connecting with Phila. Exp. East and Mail Train West.

ITEMS.—A census of Tyrone was lately taken, and the population is announced as 1,529....On Friday last, Mr. Jacob Sorman undertook to drive a four-horse team across the railroad track at Tyrone, in advance of an approaching freight train. The train struck the team, killing two horses, demolishing a wagon and harness, and seriously injuring the driver....Mr. Linton, the Representative of this county in the State Legislature, has been honored with a place on the committee on Ways and Means in the House. He is also a member of the committees on Judiciary General and Judiciary....The first and only newspaper paper enough to favor the nomination of Reverdy Johnson for the next Presidency is the Lewistown Democrat. The appointment of the editor of the Democrat, lately, to a lucrative position in Washington may account for the milk in that cocoa-nut.....Among the late arrivals in Paris were L. Q. C. Hall and wife, who are on their way home....The Huntingdon county Republican Convention met a few days ago, and besides selecting delegates, passed a resolution recommending the renomination of Gen. Hartranft for Auditor General and Gen. Campbell for Surveyor General....Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Ottinger Reed, the proprietor of the Ebensburg Marble Works. Mr. R. has the reputation of being a first-class worker in marble, and may no doubt be able to give satisfaction to all who may seek his services....Mr. Dickinson, Repub., from the Blair district, is contesting the seat in the State House of Mr. Shugert, Dem., with a fair chance for success. Illegal voting is the complaint. Mr. Shugert had only 28 majority, illegal votes and all....The other day a young man in Johnstown slipped his leg against a hook, and impaled himself so firmly thereon that he was with difficulty released from his unpleasant situation....Snow to the depth of one foot fell on Monday night and Tuesday.....Lt. Col. M. I. Bell, of Altoona, has been promoted to a Majority in the regular service.... The Huntingdon county Court was brought to an abrupt termination last week by the quashing of the jury by Judge Taylor, owing to an informality in the drawing by the Jury Commissioners.... A man named William Lafray, accompanied by two women, was walking on the railroad track near Tyrone on Saturday when a train came upon the party suddenly and before he could get off the track the locomotive struck Mr. Lafray, killing him instantly. The women escaped unhurt....A child of Mr. Robert D. Jones', of Ebensburg, died on Saturday of measles. This disease has prevailed here of late to a considerable extent....Mr. Andy Maguire keeps on hand for sale, at his store on High street, the latest styles of ready-made clothing. Give him a call.

GOOD LEGISLATION.—It will be remembered that last winter a bill passed the Legislature changing the venue of suits arising out of the Johnstown disaster from Cambria to Center county. The bill passed only a day or two before the adjournment of that body. Consequently, Col. Linton, member from Cambria county in the House of Representatives, published a letter averring that the bill, in the shape in which it was approved by the Governor, did not pass the House at all, but, on the contrary, that that body a motion prevailed to change the venue to Somerset county. In order to unravel the mystery surrounding the entire matter, on Friday last Mr. Linton introduced into the House the following resolution:

"Whereas, It appears in the Legislative Record that Senate bill 160?, of session 1867, authorizing the removal of certain suits at law from the Court of Cambria to the Court of Center county was amended in the House by substituting Somerset for Center; and

"Whereas, It appears from the Senate journal notwithstanding the amendment of the House the bill was returned to the Senate as having passed the House without amendment, whereby said bill was signed as a law without the concurrence of both houses;

"Resolved, That a committee of three members be appointed to investigate and report to the House the circumstances attending the passage of said bill."

The resolution was agreed to, and the following committee of investigation was appointed—Messrs. Linton, of Cambria, Strang, of Potter, and Watt, of Phila.

AN OLD BOOK.—Our fellow-townsman Mr. D. J. Evans has shown us a rare and valuable curiosity in the shape of a pamphlet printed by "B. Franklin and D. Hall" in Philadelphia in 1761. The pamphlet is entitled a "Continuation of the Account of the Pennsylvania Hospital, from the first of May, 1754, to the fifth of May, 1761, with an alphabetical list of the contributors, and of the legacies which have been bequeathed, for promotion and support thereof, from its first rise to that time." Benjamin Franklin was one of the founders of the Pennsylvania Hospital, and acted as a manager of the institution for a term of years.—The pamphlet was printed while Pennsylvania was yet a province of Great Britain—fifteen years before the Declaration of Independence. Its old age, and the relation it sustains to the immortal Franklin, combine to render this musty old book of peculiar value to the bibliomaniac. The corner-stone of the Pennsylvania Hospital was laid the 28th May, 1755, and bore the following inscription:

In the year of CHRIST
MDCCLV
GEORGE the Second happily reigning
(For he sought the Happiness of his People.)
PHILADELPHIA flourishing
(For its Inhabitants were public-spirited.)
This Building,
By the Bounty of the Government,
And of many private Persons,
Was piously founded.
For the Relief of the Sick and Miserable;
May the God of Mercies
Bless the Undertaking.

AN EVENTFUL LIFE.—Our old friend and subscriber, Emerious Bender, Esq., of Carroll township, has sent us the following brief history of his life:

"I came to this country with my parents, from Germany, in the year 1798. We took passage at Hamburg, and arrived in Philadelphia in November. I was bound out to Col. Caleb Davis, No. 4 South Third Street, who sent me to school. The following year, 1799, just before Christmas, the school master said there would be no school next day, for General George Washington would be buried that day. I was at George Washington's funeral—and I suppose there is no other man in this county who can say as much. I was bound out when I was 14 years old, to serve six years. After my term of service had expired, I came to Loretto, Cambria co., —on the 24th day of April, 1815. My father had gone there three years before. In 1807, Rev. Demetrius A. Gallitzin got authority from Henry Deimler and Jacob Downing, who owned eight tracts of land near Carrolltown, for three settlers to make choice of one hundred acres each of that land, at one dollar per acre. Thomas Byrne got the first choice; I got the second; and Conrad Lother got the third. My two neighbors have been dead from forty to fifty years, and I am the only living one who settled here when the country was a wilderness. I am 83 years old. I was a juryman at the first Court held in this county. I have been County Auditor, and in 1827 was elected County Commissioner. In that year, Paul Benshoof, David Todd, and myself, Commissioners, contracted with Arnold Downing to build the present Court House."

CAMBRIA COUNTY INSURANCE CO.—The new board of Directors of the Protection Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Cambria county met last week and elected the following organization:

President, John Williams.
Secretary and Treasurer, R. J. Lloyd.
Executive Committee, E. Roberts, Isaac Crawford, John Lloyd.
General Agent, John E. Roberts.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

LETTER FROM JOHNSTOWN—RIGHTS OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS—ACCIDENTS—COLD WEATHER AND DEPRESSION OF BUSINESS, &c.

JOHNSTOWN, Jan. 20, 1868.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

A large and enthusiastic meeting in favor of securing the rights of our naturalized citizens abroad was held at Frohneiser's Hall on Saturday evening. The meeting was ably addressed by Col. Jacob M. Campbell, the President of the meeting, and by Capt. Woodruff, Daniel McLaughlin, John F. Barnes, and Gen. Jas. Potts. Resolutions were passed in favor of memorializing Congress on the subject.

Nimroe McAlear, an employee of the Cambria Iron Company, met with a serious accident one day last week. He is employed in running down the iron from the blast furnaces to the rolling mill.—On the day of the accident he was taking a few cars down, when the brake snapped off and the train became unmanageable. On attempting to jump to the ground, he fell, and his head struck a rail, thereby fracturing his skull. His injuries, though severe, are not necessarily fatal.

The weather during the past month has been so cold and unfavorable that a number of the employees of the Johnstown Mechanical Works have been dropped from the rolls for the time being.

John Crofton, an employee of the C. I. Co., had one of his feet badly crushed by a piece of soapstone falling on it, the other day.

Real estate operations are becoming quite lively here, and a considerable amount of property has already changed hands.

Married, at Terre Haute, Indiana, Mr. Nicholas F. Carroll, of this place, to Mrs. E. J. Ryan, of the former place.

Sergeant Leonhardt, U. S. A., familiarly known hereabouts as "Dad" Leonhardt, is in town on a short furlough.

Yours, &c., DYO.

A GOOD IDEA.—It is currently reported that a ticket will be placed in nomination for the approaching boro. election composed of those favorable to the purchase of a new fire engine, to the procuring and placing in an eligible location of a new weighscales, and pledged to several other important matters of reform. The ticket will be non-partizan in character, and, if nominated, will doubtless be easily elected.

REPUDIATED.—The Freeman's characteristic attack on Governor Geary's military career in Mexico is indignantly repudiated by every Mexican soldier in our midst. What is the use of reviving this old lie and slander at the present time? Some men, it appears, can never talk politics without at the same time indulging in coarse personalities.

TWO BIG THINGS.—Johnstown contains the largest rolling-mill in the United States. It also contains the largest, best, and cheapest clothing store in Western Pennsylvania. The latter is owned by Messrs. E. Leopold & Brother, and is located on Main street. Strangers visiting Johnstown should not fail to visit the latter. It will pay.

THE DIFFERENCE.—The late base ball concert pleased the postical; A. A. Barker's mercantile establishment pleases the practical. The former ministered to the soul; the latter ministers to the body.—The former was for a night; the latter is for three hundred and more nights in the year. The admission to the former was 25 cents; to the latter, it is nothing.

THOMPSON.—One hundred dollars reward is offered for a respectable rhyme to the word Thompson. A further reward of one hundred dollars is offered for the discovery of a man, woman, or child who does not know that J. M. Thompson keeps for sale the best and cheapest goods in Ebensburg.

SKATES.—The best stock of skates in town is for sale at T. W. Williams' hardware store. A new and improved style of petroleum lamp for sale at T. W. Williams' hardware store. The best stoves, tinware, sheet-iron ware, &c., for sale at T. W. Williams' hardware store.

AN IDEA.—We overheard a man say that the late fall of snow was a blessing to farmers, in that it afforded them facilities, first, to bring their marketing to town, and second, to take back home with them a load of cheap goods from V. S. Barker's store. True.

THE MAGAZINES.—Godey's Lady's Book for February—
Peterson's Magazine for February—
Demorest's Magazine for February—
Have been received. They are all superior numbers.
Ladies, subscribe for them!

CIGARS AND TOBACCO.—C. T. Roberts asserts most positively that he has for sale the very best cigars and tobacco in town. He is a good judge of such articles, and we are therefore inclined to place full reliance in his statement.

CLEARANCE SALE.—Preparatory to taking an account of stock, Mills & Davis, High street, Ebensburg, will sell dress goods, dry goods, hats and caps, boots and shoes, groceries, &c., &c., at the very lowest possible figures. Bargains to be had.

FOR SALE.—Will be offered at private sale, the house and lot now occupied by Mrs. Hutchinson. The property is situated on High street, Ebensburg, in the most desirable location, either for a place of business or a place of residence, in town.

Also, a full lot on Center street, one square north of the "diamond"—a splendid location for a private residence.

For particulars, inquire at THIS OFFICE.

GOOD NEWS TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—Having secured the aid of a good Shoer, and being well supplied with Nails and Shoes, I am determined to offer to cash customers the greatest inducement held out in this place since things were low. You can have your Horses shod all round for One Dollar and Fifty Cents. I will also iron Sleighs and Sleds, make Wagon Tire and all kinds of Chains, and do everything in the Blacksmithing line at greatly reduced prices for the cash.
