TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

MAXIMILIAN'S remains have arrived at Trieste. TUSCANY has joined France and Austria in censuring Servia for her hostile attitude.

THE Lower Chamber of the Cortes of Portugal has been dissolved, and a new election ordered for April next.

THE Fenians arrested in South Wales, in December last, have been committed for trial on the charge of treason.

THE Virginia Convention yesterday tabled a resolution of thanks to the United States Senate for reinstating Secretary Stanton.

THE South Carolina Convention perfected its permanent organization yesterday by electing Dr. A. C. Mackey, President.

THE Maryland Legislature yesterday took another unsuccessful ballot for United States Senator.

CAPTAIN Lewis, of the steamship Pennsylvania, from Liverpool for New York, was lost overboard on the 14th instant.

ON the Roman question, France and Prussia have agreed to act together in the hope of settling the relations between the Kingdom of Italy and the States of the Church.

GOV. FRECHEVIL, of Missouri, yesterday took possession of the Iron Mountain Railroad, for non-compliance with the terms of sale to Thomas Allen and others.

THE North Carolina Convention was organized yesterday by the selection of C. L. Cowles as President. A negro, Hedgepeth Jeff. Davis's body-servant, was chosen doorkeeper.

The Catholics of Italy who have refused to recognize Victor Emmanuel's government have received a mandate from their pontiff, not to take an active part in the next Parliamentary election.

GENERAL SCOTT, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, by direction of the President, is about to distribute provisions among the destitute people of South Carolina.

THE Virginia Convention has adopted the second article of the new Constitution, amending it so as to prohibit Justices of the Peace from being at the same time members of the Legislature.

GENERAL MEAGHER issued an order yesterday refirming the order of General Pope forbidding any interference, under color of the Reconstruction Acts, with any person in the military service or the Bureau, for acts done under orders.

The funeral of Bishop Hopkins took place at Burlington, Vermont, yesterday. It was attended by the Bishops of Rhode Island, Connecticut and Colorado, the Lord Bishop of Quebec, and fifty other Episcopal dioceses.

THE Georgia Convention yesterday adopted the preamble of the new State Constitution and the preamble of the new State Bill of Rights, and two sections of the bill of rights, under the State General Mode, was came in, and laid on the table. Treasurer to pay the expenses of the Convention. The three nominees are members of the Convention.

The Reverdy Committee in Louisiana, which is composed entirely of members of the Reconstruction Convention, reported this evening, Mr. Conway in the chair, and nominated S. H. Sypher for Congress, First District; Peter Joseph, Second District; J. P. Newham, Third District; Fourth and Fifth Districts, blank. The three nominees are members of the present Convention.

CITY BULLETIN.

THE CONTESTED ELECTION.—The hearing of the evidence in the case before Examiner Gilbert was resumed yesterday.

Michael Moran, sworn.—I know Patrick Moran; I do not know what number he lives in; he has left town; he was subpœnaed Saturday in this case; he said he did not want to be called on; we saw him the first thing I heard he had left; I have not seen him since; he was subpœnaed from him to serve on me; he is out in the coal mines; as near as I can judge he has been in Schuylkill County two years and four years; he is between twenty and twenty-five years of age; he lived at my brother's on election day; 633 South street; I knew that he was not a citizen.

Mr. Mann—On the list of voters of the Seventh division of the Fourth Ward, is Patrick Moran, and on the assessment list he is assessed at 633 South street.

Mr. Mann—On the list of voters of the Seventh division of the Fourth Ward, is Patrick Moran, and on the assessment list he is assessed at 633 South street.

Witness resumed.—I was an officer of the election; I took the votes; I did not see him vote that day; I was out twice; he may have voted during my absence; I was at the election about 8 or 9 o'clock; I was in the afternoon that I left; I was there when the election closed; I was there up to between 12 and 1 o'clock, during which time I took all the votes; I was in the third division; but I do not know of any other Patrick Moran; I do not know he took it.

Examined by Mr. Sellers—I do not remember the name of the man who kept the tickets; I do not believe he was the minority inspector.

John Valiant, sworn—My business is home, which is my home when I am there, in South street, above Second; I live in the Fifth Ward; I live at 835 Shippen street; some seven or eight years ago, and have lived there since; I was not at home anywhere; when I have no work I do not go home; I did not vote, to my knowledge, in last election; I have not paid any taxes for about two years; I am sure that I have paid none for three elections; I do not take much interest in politics.

Mr. Mann—On the list of voters of the Eighth division of the Fourth Ward is the name of John Valliant, and he is assessed at 835 Shippen street.

Charles Albright, sworn—I live at 768 South Eighth street; am a carpenter; I did not vote on the last election in the Seventh division of the Third Ward.

Mr. Mann—On the list of the voters of the Seventh division of the Third Ward, I find appears the name of Charles Albright, and on the list of taxes is Joseph Wallower, 768 Eighth street, marked as voting.

Frederick Rickens, sworn—I did not vote at the last election; I have lived for about five months in Noble street; before that I lived at 768 Eighth street.

Mr. Mann—On the list of voters is the name of Fred. Rickens; on the list of taxables there is Fred. Rickens, piano-maker, 768 Eighth street.

James Jackson, sworn—I have been living at 814 Montcalm street; I did not vote on last election, and never voted.

Mr. Mann—On the list of voters is the name of James Jackson, and on the list of taxables appears the name of James Jackson, waterman, 814 Montcalm street, and he is marked as having voted.

Witness—No one, for the last five years, has lived at that place, by the name of Jackson, besides myself; I am called Jackson by the neighbors and those around me.

Mrs. Rosanna Clark sworn—I used to live at 814 Montcalm street; we moved on last Saturday; Mr. Jackson moved, too; he is my brother-in-law; his proper name is Jack, but he is generally called Jackson.

Mrs. Alice O'Connor, sworn—I live at 720 Hubbell street; John O'Neill boarded with me; I cannot say where he is now; he is a single man, and about 21 years of age; he is an American; I have not seen him for nearly a year ago, but I know Roberts; he resides in Maine; I was a voter of the Executive Committee from the Second Division of First Ward, at the election; Roberts was in the First Ward.

Mr. Brooks, counsel, proposed to show by the legal voters of the Second Ward, that Roberts had been a resident of First Ward, did vote in that ward.

Mr. Stevens, counsel, for the Sitting Member, told witnesses (Hardy) that he had a right to refuse to answer if he thought proper.

Committee retired, and, returning, decided that the question was sustained.

William H. Canaan, sworn—Reside 1529 Tudor street; reside there on election day; I was a member of the Executive Committee of the Second division of First Ward; I knew a man named John L. Roberts voting in that house; he voted the Republican tickets; I saw him so voted; do not know what residence he gave at the time he voted; I was sitting in the room; the election was 4th November, 1866.

William Schaffer, sworn—Reside 108 Dunmark street; resided there on and prior to election day; saw John L. Roberts vote; I was in the room; I was there; he gave the name of Roberts; he voted in my district, the First Ward, under the name of John Roberts.

Henry Starr, recalled—Was present at the Second Division of the First Ward when a man named William Eberhardt voted; at the Alderman's office he gave his name as John L. Roberts.

James Erickson, sworn—Reside in the Second Division, First Ward, No. 1026 South Second street; I saw the man said to be William Eberhardt vote; at the Alderman's office saw the Warrant for his arrest for fraudulent voting, calling his name John L. Roberts.

Zachariah Brown, sworn—Reside in Tudor, between Seventh and Eighth streets; live in Second Division of the First Ward; I was Judge of Election for Ward Committee, for Thomas Berlew, and voted also at Hatch and Dickerson's the same week; voted there also for Thomas Berlew; in the first place I voted as Zachariah Brown, and in the latter as Henry Brown; I will not be twenty-one years of age until this fall; I swore I was twenty-one years of age when I voted.

Mr. Brooks cross-questioned him as to where he was employed, and what had been his past history, and to his manner of procuring the Republican votes.

William H. Canaan, recalled—Saw the young man just examined vote in the name of Henry Brown; his vote was accepted.

Edward Dowling, recalled—Said he also knew of a person giving the name of Henry Brown who voted at that place.

Witness presented himself at the Second Division of First Ward, under the name of Ivin Fielde the gentleman who voted, I knew not as to Ivin Fielde; he voted the Republican ticket.

Thomas Pole, sworn—Said that his residence is 1832 South Fifth street; Ivin Fielde is my brother-in-law, and an election day he was absent, in the State of Delaware; he went on business.

Frederick Hoop, sworn—Reside in Otsego street, No. 1914; resided there last election day, and have resided there ever since; I was two lives in Front, between Poplar and Master; I was in the Second division; but I saw him put a ticket for Barlow and the whole Republican ticket; I was an election officer; I knew Isaiah Tomlin; he voted there too, and the same night his brother did.

Charles Towne, sworn—Was an officer of election in the First Division, First Ward; the voting was at the Yellow house; knew Isaiah Tomlin, and knew that he is his brother Thomas do not live in the First Division of the First Ward; they voted there however.

Thomas Tomlin, sworn—Reside in Otsego street, between Sixth and Seventh; I live in the house.

Henry Bogle—Reside in Morris street, Second Division, First Ward; I have lived there 4 or 5 years; I am an officer of election; I was in the room; I saw John L. Roberts, I knew him; I was sitting under the name of William Eberhardt.

Henry Starr, recalled—Know James P. Thomas; he lived in the Ninth Division of the First Ward; I heard I challenged his vote; he gave his residence as the Second Ward; I was an election officer; I knew Isaiah Tomlin; he voted there too, and the same night his brother did.

Charles Towne, sworn—Was an officer of election in the First Division, First Ward; the voting was at the Yellow house; knew Isaiah Tomlin, and knew that he is his brother Thomas do not live in the First Division of the First Ward; they voted there however.

Thomas Tomlin, sworn—Reside in Otsego street, between Sixth and Seventh; I live in the house.

Henry Bogle—Reside in Morris street, Second Division, First Ward; I have lived there 4 or 5 years; I am an officer of election; I was in the room; I saw John L. Roberts, I knew him; I was sitting under the name of William Eberhardt.

Henry Starr, recalled—Know James P. Thomas; he lived in the Ninth Division of the First Ward; I heard I challenged his vote; he gave his residence as the Second Ward; I was an election officer; I knew Isaiah Tomlin; he voted there too, and the same night his brother did.

Charles Towne, sworn—Was an officer of election in the First Division, First Ward; the voting was at the Yellow house; knew Isaiah Tomlin, and knew that he is his brother Thomas do not live in the First Division of the First Ward; they voted there however.

Thomas Tomlin, recalled—Know James P. Thomas; he lives in Rosewood street, between Third and Fourth streets; I live in the house.

Geo. W. Ferguson, sworn—Reside 635 Fisher street, Second Division, First Ward; I live there; I was present at the election; I was at the Second division; I was there; I was challenged voted; he gave his residence as Seventh street, between Fitzwater and Pine; I challenged voted; he gave his residence as 1537 Seventh street; I challenged voted; he gave his residence as 1537 Seventh street; I challenged voted; he gave his residence as 1537 Seventh street