Terms of Peace.

Peace in France is now assured, and we are gratified to announce that the preliminaries have all been settled. Thiers and Favre and the consultative commission have accepted the following conditions:

First. The cession of Alsace and Mets, but Belfort is to be restored to France.

Second. Payment of a war indemnity of five milliards of francs.

Third. A portion of French territory, with some fortified town like Sedan, to remain in possession of the desperation wherewith all the warring ele-Germans until the conditions of the

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of multiform agonies, bereatements, devastations, the American Idea embodied in the preamble to our fathers' Decla-ation of Independence approaches its complete realization. The noble, inspiring assertion that "all men are created equal," and endowed by their Creator with inalicuable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, is no longer a glittering generality, a poet's fancy, a philosopher's speculation, but the recognized base of our political fabric. The benign Revolution, which dates from the Boston Massacre of 1770, finds its logical completion, just one century later, in the XVth Amendment, gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man born or naturalized in our Republic the shield and defense of the Federal Constitution. The billows of Caste and Privilege may roar and rage around that rock, and may transiently seem on the point of washing it away; but its foundations are deep laid and steadfast, and the breakers of Reaction and Slavery are burled against and dash their spray over it in vain.

We do not underrate the forces of Prejudice and Aristocracy. We aim to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE such a paper as no farmer can afford to do without, however widely his politics may differ from ours. Our reports of the Cattle, Horse, Produce, and General Markets, are so full and accurate, our essays in elucidation of the Farmers' Club and kindred gatherings, are so interesting. that the poorest farmer will find therein a mine of suggestions and counsel, of which he cannot remain ignorant without positive and serious loss. We sell THE WEEKLY to Clubs for less than its value in dwellings A Young man named William for waste-paper; and, although its sub-scription is already very large, we believe that a Half Million more farmers will take it whenever it shall be commended to their attention. We ask our friends everywhere to aid in so commending it.
