[illegible] Life Pills [illegible] Bitters, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All the complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, night fevers and aches, piles, costiveness, consumption, rheumatism, scurvy, impurity of the blood, or sallow complexions, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicines now before the public. For Sale by the proprietor, W. B. MOFFAT, at his office, 335 Broadway, N. Y., and by Store Keepers and Druggists generally. [Feb. 13. 1y*

FITS! WHY PROMINENT.—For a long time there was a paragraph making its regular weekly appearance in our columns, with the startling but emphatic words, "Fits! Fits! always Fits." Well, to some an offensive caption, but not so to the benevolent and humane, who could sympathize in the sorrows of others.—Some persons are shocked at any indication of disease, and are even thrown into nervous excitement on witnessing a hearse or a coffin.—Such are to be pitied. We should always strive to look disease and even death in the face with calmness, and especially take every opportunity for alleviating disease. Viewed in this light, the advertisements of S. S. Hance, of 193 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., possess a certain interest, and those who know of any one suffering from Epilepsy, Spasms, or Fits of any kind, should feel it a pleasure to cut out his advertisement, or in some other way send word to the afflicted of the great value of his remedies. They can be sent to any part of the country by mail. Price, $3 per box. Two, $5—Twelve, $24. Jan. 23. 1m
