From the London Daily News, 14th.

How the American Crisis Operates on British Trade.

Manufacturers and shippers at present do not know what to be at. The American crisis is overshadowing our industry. The whole of the cotton trade is involved in uncertainty, in an especial degree. We do not know whether the usual and necessary quantity of cotton will be grown: and if it be grown, we do not know whether it will be permitted to reach us. We do not know yet whether there is really to be war in America. Everything, it is true, points in that direction, but in the cotton trade, in the corn trade, in the metal trade, in all branches of our manufactures, in the money market, and in the stock exchange, there is general indisposition to do business, principally because the idea has continued to float through men's minds that the American difficulty, after all that has been said and done, may prove susceptible by other means than that of a long and desolating civil war. Then every one pictures to himself the immense effect that would be produced were even the mere prospect of an arrangement to be opened. How great would be the effect upon the price of cotton? What merchant can bestir himself boldly in ordering supplies from India and other regions, as long as there is a chance of the ground being cut from under his feet? What would be the consequence on the value of money, upon the bullion movement—glutted as the New York banks are with gold? What a rebound there would be in all kinds of public securities, home, foreign and American.

As it Should Be.—Ex-President Millard Fillmore, of Buffalo, has been appointed commander of the Buffalo home guards, called the "Union Continentals." The guards are composed of Doctors of Divinity, Doctors of Law, Doctors of Medicine, Lawyers, Capitalists, Merchants, Bankers, and politicians of national reputation. Men heretofore holding high military commissions are in the ranks. They number four generals, fifteen colonels, and forty-one lieutenants and ensigns. Such men are worthy to be headed by an ex-President.

Cold Weather in Europe.—Accounts from Europe report the weather since March extraordinarily cold, with drought and sharp frosts, which have checked, and perhaps in many cases injured vegetation.—From the south of France it is stated that irreparable damage has been inflicted on the vines by the frost.

One of the rifle companies from Arkansas, now in Virginia, is commanded by Captain Crockett, a grandson of the famous Davy Crockett. The company carry a banner upon which appears the inscription:—"Be sure you're right; then go ahead."

A Rochester shoe-dealer offers to present a pair of gaiters to the wife of every man in that city who will volunteer to defend his country.

The heart we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts,

A gentle heart, that throbbed but now,
With tenderness and love,
Has hushed its weary throbbings here
To throb in bliss above.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.—A Query. Why will you suffer? Dyspepsia is a brief but comprehensive term for the numerous diseases which affect the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Green discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, medical science was at fault and had exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with a disease that is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will as certainly cure the disease as the disease exists. Had it not this power, such testimony as follows would not be given in its favor:

DYSPEPTICS, READ!

ASHFORD, Oct. 6, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co:—

Gents:—Nine years ago I was so much reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burden. I resorted to various physicians of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I made use of the Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I mend that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it. After a lapse of years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never-failing antidote for the various symptoms which arise from constitutional derangements. I have since recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. CATHARINE RAYMOND.

FROM REV. N. N. REERS.

An influential and highly respectable Clergyman, lately a resident of Bath, N. Y.

BATH, N. Y., Dec. 23, 1859.

Messrs. SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Boston:—

One year ago last summer and autumn, I was very much afflicted with Dyspepsia, from which I found complete relief by taking the Oxygenated Bitters. I have entire confidence in them as a sure remedy for that disagreeable complaint. Yours, with much respect,

N. N. REERS, Pastor M. E. Church,
Lawrenceville, Pa.

GREAT DISCOVERY!—Ample tests, both by able practitioners and chemical analysis, have demonstrated the great value of Prof. De Grath's beautiful combination, called "ELECTRIC OIL," for the relief and cure of pain.—But the people themselves are rendering their verdict in a manner both unmistakable and satisfactory. More than two million bottles have been sold in a very short time—a great proportion of those who heard others recommend it, who had tried it. That it is a splendid discovery is every where acknowledged, and nothing like it was ever before prepared. The only genuine Electric Oil is Prof. De Grath's, which is to be had at all the respectable Druggists in the cities, and at wholesale and retail, at the proprietors' prices of the agent here. See advertisement.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure Cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address REV. EDWARD A. WILSON,
Williamsburg, Kings county,

Clove Anodyne

TOOTHACHE DROPS.—Complain no more of Aching Teeth.—These Drops have been extensively used by thousands whose experience has proved that the Anodyne will give immediate and permanent relief after the failure of every other remedy. It is pleasant to the taste and smell, and a few applications will entirely remove the pain and soreness from a decayed tooth, so that it may be filled and rendered as useful as ever. When the pain proceeds from the face, or from the gums around a tooth apparently sound, this Anodyne will give speedy relief by rubbing a few drops on the part affected. It has only to become generally known to be as highly appreciated by the public as it is by dentists.

Read the following letter from one of the most distinguished practical dentists in the city of New York:

"Messrs. Sands: Gentlemen—In the course of my practice I have extensively used your Clove Anodyne with much success for the relief of the Toothache, and as I constantly recommend it to my patients, I deem it but just to inform you of the high opinion I have of it over other remedies. I am yours, very respectfully, M. LEVETT, Dentist."

PRICE 25 CENTS PER VIAL.
