EASTER will give us a call on the 17th.

THE Maine Saw Mill at Selinsgrove gives employment to about fifty hands.

THE season fixed by law for Trout fishing commenced April. 1st.

FOR a glass of Lauer's ale call at Bachman's saloon.

SHERIFF WOLF moved into the jail on Tuesday last.

BEAVER has just received a lot of new goods; and rumor says that he is selling them very cheap.

WHOOPINGCOUGH still bodders the little ones in our borough. The flies will soon take its place.

WALTER SEITLER escaped from jail 1st Friday night and has not been heard of since.

TUESDAY morning we had a six-inch snow; in the evening of the same day we had about the same amount of mud.

ON the 18th inst, Isaac Platt, of Franklin township will sell at public sale a lot of life stock, household furniture, &c. See bills.

BOOB, our clothing man, has left us and opened up shop in Mifflinburg, where we learn he is doing a flourishing business.

A VALUABLE young horse, belonging to Mr. Harry Smith of this place was gored by a cow one day last week from the affects of which he died.

GRANELLO, the watchmaker, has moved his shop farther up town. He is now ready to accommodate his customers at his new place of business, nearly opposite the jail. Give him a call.

REV. R. LAZARUS requests us to state that he will open a select school in this place on Monday, April 11th, to continue eleven weeks. Tuition from $3.00 upward, according to the branches taught.

SEPHARUS S. SCHOCH's blooded mare injured herself a few days ago and, to relieve her of her sufferings, Mr. S. shot her. This was one of the best mares in the county and all lovers of good stock will be sorry to hear that she is dead.

FUNERAL services in behalf of Midshipman George K. Boyer, deceased were held in the Court House in this place, last Sabbath. An able sermon was delivered by Rev. Brensinger of Lewisburg, to a large and attentive congregation.

AN English paper contains the following advertisement inserted by a proud and happy father:

"Tosday, about one o'clock in the afternoon, my dear wife Catherine, born at Eberling, was happily confined of two girls and a boy. Barely ten months ago she had twins, making five children in one year." Je-he-o-ph-at!

PLANT TREES.—The season of the year is now here when those who wish to set out shade or fruit trees, should make arrangements for having it attend to. There is no more economical way of beautifying one's premises—and we may also say of adding value to them—than by planting trees that afford pleasant shade or yield fine fruit.

WHAT PROSPERS A TOWN.—Those who wish to see the town prosperous, should encourage the tradesmen and artizians. If merchants and mechanics do not receive the patronage of their friends and neighbors, they become discouraged and sooner or later look abroad for homes, where enterprise is fostered and rewarded. Encourage home industry, and the town will thrive. These are stubborn facts which should not be ignored.

FRESH GARDEN SEEDS.—Shindle & Swineford have just received a fresh supply of Garden Seeds from Landreths celebrated Seed Wharehouse, at Philadelphia. These seeds are the produce of ground near Philadelphia, (and therefore suited to our climate,) under the immediate supervision of Mr David Landrath, the senior partener and can therefore be waranted to prove to be precisely as represented. Call at the Drug Store in Middleburg. 3t.

WE learn that the eastern gable end of Dreisbach's Church, in Buffalo township, was blown in by the storm on Sabbath afternoon last. The brick came crashing through the ceiling to the floor, entirely demolishing the pews on both sides of the pulpit. An appointment had been made for preaching but, owing to the inclemency of the weather, there was no attendance, and, fortunately, no one in the church at the time of the accident.—Mifflinburg Telegraph.

IN Huntingdon, the other day, several boys concluded to play hanging, and proceeded to make the necessary arrangements for the execution. A young Cuningham, who volunteered to be the culprit, was placed on the scaffold, and the rope adjusted around his neck. At the signal of another lad, who was chosen to act as sheriff, the platform, composed of two chairs and a board or two, was kicked from under the little fellow, who was left dangling in the air, and struggling for life. Luckily the rope eventually broke and young Cunningham was permitted to go home and relate his experience in the hanging business to his mother.

IT is mighty hard for a burglar to make an honest living in New Jersey. Wednesday night, March 17th, a gang

...e safe. He worked at it until ...light, using up a dollar's worth of gunpowder, half a peck of cold chisels, and more drills than they ever had in the army of the Potomac. When he got into the safe, at six A. M., he found only nine cents and a revenue stamp. You can't imagine how disgusted that burglar was. He is at this moment the sickest man in New Jersey, and has lost his self respect so completely that he thinks seriously of running for the Legislature, and seeing how that form of rascality will pay an enterprising thief.

A MONSTER APPLE TREE.—The Mifflinburg Telegraph says: Mr. John R. Mench, of Limestone township, Union County, has an apple tree which he thinks is the largest in the county, and possibly the largest in the State. Its circumference is thirteen feet and two inches, and correspondingly great in its branches. Its age is probably over one hundred years, as Mr. M. is credibly informed. It is still vigorous and yields fruit abundantly. A former proprietor informed Mr. M. that one season seven barrels of cider were made from the fruit of this remarkable tree. We don't know how large apple trees grow nor how much fruit a single tree may produce, but we would like to hear if any of our Editorial brethren know of a tree greater than this Union County relic of a hundred years.

DIED

FOCKLER.—In Selinsgrove on the 31st ult., Mary Ellen daughter of John B. and Mary J. Fockler, aged 3 years, 1 month and 22 days.

Little Mary was indeed a lovely child, though young, she showed a precocity of intellect not ordinarily found in children of her years, and when we take into consideration trials and miseries of this earthly life we should bow our heads in submission before the judgement of the Almighty and say with one of his old and tried servants, "the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

Empty stands the little cradle,
Idly rocks the tiny bed,
No sweet dimple in the pilow
Neath a little golden head.

Idly hang the little dresses
Up against the darked wall,
And the little shoes stand empty
Where no fairy footsteps fall.

On our listening ear the music
Of her voice comes nevermore—
She is singing with the angles
Over on the father shore. * * *

In this place on the 2nd inst., Robert Harvey, infant son of Wm. A. Smith, aged 4 months and 20 days.

LORILLARD'S Yacht Club Smoking Tobacco is classed by all who consume it as the finest of all; it is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 2 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every sing for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourselves it is all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL."
