Our Senatorial District.

The following, from the Chambersburg Repository, shows us just how the matter stands in regard to the Senatorial question in this district:

"The fourteenth district, composed of Lycoming, Union and Snyder, though it was represented by Beck, Democrat, is Republican, and only bad management will elect a Democrat this fall. The election of last year gave the Republican party a majority of 451 votes. The Fifteenth Amendment will add somewhat to this majority. The Patriot calls this district debatable ground. It may be, but the weight of the argument is very much with the Republican side. If a Republican is not elected it must be for other reasons than the lack of votes, for there is a clear Republican majority in the district. Here then is one of the districts wherein a Republican Senator can be gained."

—It is time this district should be represented in the Senate by a Republican, and it is a shame that it has not been heretofore. We have a clean working majority in the district of at least 400 votes, which we can easily hold if we nominate a good man. Therefore let us put in nomination the right person—one in whom the people have confidence—and our word for it, the Senator from Lycoming Union and Snyder, will not be a Democrat.

McFarland Acquitted.

The McFarland trial, which has filled the New York papers for a long time, was brought to a close on Tuesday. After retiring long enough to give their verdict the weight of deliberation, the jury rendered a verdict in these words: "We find Daniel McFarland not guilty." This is an unqualified acquittal. Nothing was said about insanity, though that seemed to be the point or plea on which his counsel sought to clear McFarland. The verdict says virtually that McFarland committed no crime against the law or society by killing Richardson.

Of the issue of this case we have had all along little doubt. It is part of the unwritten law of this land that any man who tampers with the wife of another must take the consequences, be they what they may, and no American jury has yet been found to question the right of an outraged husband to inflict any punishment he may deem fit.

A New York telegram says the court room presented an almost indiscribable scene while the jury was out. Everybody was talking exceedingly to his neighbor, and the ladies were influenced by the utmost agitation. An occasional stir in the court room near the door drew immediate attention thereto, an the people started up only to settle back again and wait. When the jury did return, and marched slowly into the court room and into their seats, the most breathless excitement prevailed, a respiration of the auditors could be easily heard. Every eye was fastened upon the jurors, and McFarland himself gazed upon them intently, as if trying to fathom the calmness of their visages to learn his fate.

The jurymen took their seats and then the clerk called the names of each member, and the foreman was called upon for their virdict. He arose, and here came the moment of intense anxiety. To the usual question, the foreman replied, "We find Daniel McFarland not guilty." The jury were then polled. The scene which ensued baffles description. The enthusiasm reached such a height that it was impossible to suppress the noise and pent up emotions of six weeks They were given vent in the most demonstrative manner. McFarland was immediately surrounded by a number of friends, and hand shaking warm and earnest was divided between him and his counsel.

McFarland was discharged from custody by Record Hackett, and passed out of the court room into the street a free man, and followed by a host of people.

RIGHT.—Heretofore, in all criminal cases which have been settled by the parties, the costs have been paid out of the county treasury. By this rule a great deal of money was annually spent. Hereafter, however, a new and very proper rule will be applied, the last legislature having passed the following bill:

SEC. 1. That the laws relating to payment of costs in criminal cases shall not be so construed as to compel the payment of costs by the county where the case has been settled or arranged by the parties, and the parties to the case, the prosecutor and defendant or defendants shall be liable for the payment of the costs in all such cases.

An old man named Acker, aged seventy eight years, residing in Erie, became enamored of buxom widow aged forty-five, and eloped with her on Tuesday, leaving his wife aged seventy to shift for herself. The elopers were overhauled in Cleveland.

FREE TRADE.

"Occasional" writes from Washington to the Philadelphia Press under date of May 9th, as follows:

The men who clamor most against the internal taxes are those who clamor most for the reduction of taxes on foreign fabrics. They demand the removal of the income tax, of the whisky tax, and of the tax on foreign iron and the productions of foreign ship-builders and mechanics, for the purpose of perpetuating the foreign monopoly of the carrying trade by sea which grew up after the rebel corsairs had driven our vessels from the ocean. They oppose Government aid to American steamers for the purpose of supplanting British mail vessels on the Atlantic and the Pacific. They know that the success of their policy is to pave the way for repudiation, and to destroy the whole system of diversified industries. The position of the friends of home labor and of the public faith is to reduce domestic or interal taxation to its lowest practicable limit, and to collect the revenue cheifly by a tariff on luxuries and on all foreign articles or productions that come in competition with our own labor. As an illustration of the effect of free trade, it is estimated that the hands employed in cotton manufactories alone in this country amount to 208,000 persons. These manufactories, including the consumption by the employees and the materials used, absorb annually about fifty millions of dollars' worth of agricultural products, besides one hundred and twelve millions and a half of dollars' worth of raw cotton, used by the mills. Free trade would deprive these two hundred thousand men, women, and children of their present employment, and deprive the farmers of the steady demand of these work-people for agricultural products. We should be dependent on Great Britain for everything but farm produce. Thus we are to compete with the Old World in supplying the Old World demand for its chief staples! The St Louis Democrat, free-trade paper, whose editor is now in Europe, and is therefore well informed about what he writes, says that "The American farmer has no advantage over his foreign competitor. The trans Atlantic wheat-grower has a decided advantage over American producers in the fact that he can get hands at twelve to fifteen cents per day, while we must pay $2 and $2 50! In 1868 there was a short crop in Europe, and England paid us $21,786,116 for 12,427,412 bushels of wheat. In 1869 Europe had an average crop, and England pays us only $12,413,633 for 36,680,020 bushels. Here we treble the export for double the money. Suppose, instead of an average crop, Europe had enjoyed a very large crop: the price would have been still lower. What are we to do, then, to make money? We answer, develop our mines improve our water-powers, encourage the South to produce cotton, sugar, and rice to a greater extent, leaving the grain-raising to the North

But all this is only to be done by protecting our own labor. It is estimated that the reduction of the tariff advocated by the free-traders on pig iron in Pennsylvania alone will throw thirty thousand people out of a living, while it will bring no relief to anybody but the British iron manufacturers.

Perhaps the Republican free-traders in Congress are prepared to try the experiment of another Democratic administration. If so, they can have it by rejecting the sound advice of President Grant in his annual message, and of Secretary Boutwell in his printed reports and daily conversations. Pennsylvania can be held to no party which deliberatly slaughters her great industries and turns her people out of work. It is very true that the majority of the Republicans in Congress are not free traders; but they are strong enough, or ought to be, to prevent the success of measures which, while reducing the revenues, also reduce the advantages of the laboring millions. Our Republican friends should recollect that free trade, or the approach to it, helps the Republicans nowhere. It strengthens the Democrats in New Jersey, Ohio New York, and Connecticut; loses the Republicans Pennsylvania inevitably, and emasculates them in the West. Nobody asks for extreme protection. The day for that idea is gone; but the party that writes free trade on its banners, or supposes that the cause of American labor can be made subservient to the long hours and short wages of Europe, cannot hold this Government.

Let the Republicans in Congress look to it before it is to late Many of their wisest men are not, happily, caught by the follies of the free traders. Gen Schenck, the able chairman of the Ways and Means in the House; John Sherman, the clearhead of the Finance Committee in the Senate, with Kelley of Pennsylvania, Maynard of Tennessee, Bingham of Ohio, McCarthy of New York, Blair of Michigan, in the one, and Cameron of Pennsylvania, Drake of Missouri, Morrill of Vermont, and Williams of Oregon in the other, are not ready to sacrifice the practical benefits of our past triumphs for the sake of shadowy plausibilities. There is a class between the proclaimed protectionists and the proclaimed free traders—men who would yield much before they would yield the Republican party—men like Sumner, Morton Nye, Stewart, Thayer, Henry Wilson, Hannibal Hamlin, Carl Schurz, Lewis of Virginia, and the whole body of the Southern Republicans in both houses, who have too lately got out of the rebellion to place themselves in the hands of its leaders. But the Republican party is responsible, and it must bear its responsibility in this as in other great crisis.

There is a straight, honest way out of the peril Let the present tariff stand, with certain practical additions to the free list the removal of the tax on the tea and coffee, the decrease of the list of incomes taxed, and the increase of the tax op spirits. That in a general sense would be at once a re-

Decoration of Soldiers' Graves

The following order has been issued from the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic at washington:

WASHINGTON, April 30, 1870.—General Order, No. 8.—I. The annual ceremonies of 'Memorial Day,' which has been firmly established by national choice and consent, will take place on Monday, the 30th day of May.

II. All departments, districts, posts and comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic wherever dispersed throughout the land, will unite in such manner, and with such ceremonies, for the proper observance of the day as may be best suited to each respective locality; and all organizations, communities and persons whose grateful aid, sympathy and prayers sustained us throughout the dark days of the nation's peril, and those whose loyal, patriotic hearts beat in unison with our own, and who have heretofore, or may hereafter, join with us in the observance of the national memoial day, are hereby cordially invited to unite, and are earnestly requested to lend their aid and assistance in strewing the pure garlands of spring, that come with votive memories of love and prayer, o'er the mounds that mark the country's alter and fold in rest eternal our martyred dead.

This is the third public observance of a day which has become marked and national for this sacred occasion. Many are now missing from our ranks who were with us before Time, with busy finger, counts the hours for all. In the midst of life we are in death," and one by one our veterans are "mustered out" to join the grand army on high. Let this teach us that we should so live that when we too are gone, it can be said: He was a citizen, a soldier and comrade "without fear and without redroach."

III. It is desirable that the memorial services may be preserved, and department and post commanders will forward direct to the adjutant general at national headquarters a record of such proceedings as may occur in each locality Should the same appear in the press, or by pamphlet, a duplicate corrected copy if requested.

By order of John A. Logan, commander-in-chief.

WM. T. COLLINS,
Adjutant General.

The Indian Policy and Canada.

It is a remarkable and suggestive fact that in the late Red river troubles the Indians of that region, who are quite as war like and "savage" as those on our side of the line, warmly sympathized with the Dominion government and threatened to make war on the Riel rebels. Why is it that the Canadian goverament and the Englishmen controling or representing it have won the confidence and friendship of the savages, while our goverament and its agents are objects of Idian distrust and hatred? While we daily read of whites plundered and murdered by the Indians south of British America, peace prevails between the Canadian whites and the redmen beyond our border. The slaughters, scalpings and other evidences of Indian enmity in the territories of the United States within the last ten years would make a horrible book of mammoth dimensions, while Indian atrocities in British America, during the same period, have been almost if not quite unknown. The cost of our Indian policy, including military expeditions against the Indians, has been immense, while the Canadians manage their Indian affairs with comparatively trifling expense. Our authorities ought to take lessons of our northern neighbor in the art of controling the fierce red men of the forest. Evidently, the Canadian Indian policy is far wiser and better than that of our goverement, and the fact reflects very unfavorably upon our country and people.—The Day

Some idea of the extent of the Western egg trade may be formed from reading a paragraph in the Toledo Blade, stating that recently there arrived in that city in a freight train on the Wabash Railroad, seven carloads of eggs. There was in each car 125 barrels, or 875 barrels in all. Allowing 120 dozen eggs in each barrel, there were 1,26,000 eggs on board that train.

THE HOWARD INVESTIGATION.—The investigation of the charges against Major General O O. Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, is dragging along at a tedious rate and every day the evidences become stronger that Fernando Wood is on a regular wild-goose chase. Witnesses are examined and cross-examined in every possible way, on every point bearing in the least on Gen. Howard's official and unofficial acts, and the most complete and detailed testimony fails to show anything unfavorable to that gentleman. Those who are intimately acquainted with General Howard scorn the idea of his being found guilty on a single one of the charges, while the public generally, with the knowledge of his sterling integrity as an officer and a Christain gentleman, treat the matter in very much the same way.

NEW STORY BY MRS. HENRY WOOD.—THE SATURDAY EVENING POST of Philadelphia having purchased the advance sheets of Mrs. Wood's new story, "BESSY RANE," will commence the publication in the paper of May 21st. Those who have read "East Lynne," and the more recent "George Canterbury's Will," need not to be assured of Mrs. Wood's ability to write a splendid story. We understand that "Bessy Rane" fully maintains Mrs. Wood's reputation as a writer of great power and interest THE POST, apart from it stories, is one of the best family papers now published. Price $2,50 a year. Address H Peterson & Co., 319 Walnut street Philadelphia, Pa. Sample numbers sent gratis.

We will furnish THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, and our paper, to any address for one year, at the low sum of $3.25.

CANDIDATES' CARDS.

ASSOCIATE JUDGE.

EDS. POST:—The selection of candidates to be voted for at the ensuing primary election, is surely an act requiring thought and honesty of purpose; we should select none but honest, intelligent, and reliable men as candidates. For the office of Associate Judge, especially, we should have men of integrity, sound judgement and honest convictions. In the person of B. L. RAUDENBUSH, a citizen of Beaver, we have these qualities combined; and it is with pleasure that we recommend him as a candidate for the office of Associate Judge. He has always been an active Republican, and now we request that the Republicans of this county do an act of justice by nominating and electing him to this important office. CITIZENS OF THE BEAVERS.

EDITORS POST:—Permit us, through your columns, to recommend Hon. A. J. Middleswarth for re nomination as Associate Judge. He has served the people of Snyder county in that capacity, for one term, with fidelity to the people, credit to himself and honor to the position. He has demeaned himself as a faithful and efficient officer, as an affable and courteous gentleman, as a sound and purely ortadox Republican. He has contributed largely to the success of our party of which he has been a life-long member and justly merits a re election.
MANY REPUBLICANS.

TO THE VOTERS OF SNYDER COUNTY:—Being solicited by a number of my friends, I hereby offer myself as a candidate for Associate Judge at the coming primary election of the Republican party. Should I receive the nomination and be elected, I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office with fidelity.
HENRY D. MITCHELL.

SENATOR.

EDITORS POST.—Republicans of Snyder county, in a few weeks you will be called upon to select standard bearers, from your number, for the approaching campaign, and we recommend to your favorable consideration, COL. WM. G. HERROLD as a suitable person to represent this Senatorial District in the Senate of Pennsylvania. Col. Herrold's party fealty, integrity, ability and fitness will not admit of a question of doubt; and he justly merits the nomination. He will carefully guard and promote the interests of his constituency, and make us a representative of whom we may justly be proud. We venture the assurance that he will exercise every effort to advance every popular and feasible project which will enhance the interest of the people.
REPUBLICANS OF FRANKLIN.

ASSEMBLYMAN.

EDITORS POST.—We take pleasure in recommending to the Republican party of Snyder county, CAPT. WILLIAM H. HARDING, as a suitable person to represent us in Legislature of Pennsylvania. Fired with the zeal of the patriot, his pure ideas of equal rights and equal justice, he was among the first to offer his life a willing sacrifice on his country's alter in the late struggle for national life. Possessing every qualification to make a good Representative, it would only be a merited tribute to his service and heroic conduct to nominate him by an overwhelming majority. Our candidate for Legislative honors, Capt. Harding, is eminently qualified for and justly deserving of the public trust for which we recommend him. CITIZENS OF BEAVER.

EDITORS POST:—I noticed in your last issue that you have several recommendations for suitable persons for offices to be filled at the election next fall. Believing it to be to our interest as a party to nominate the best men for the respective offices, I would present the name of IRVIN SMITH, Esq., as a suitable person to represent the people of our county in the Legislature. Mr. Smith is a young man of more than ordinary ability; a staunch Republican; has served the party long and well, and heretofore has never asked anything within their power to bestow. If the Republican party of Snyder county place Mr. Smith in nomination, he will represent their interests at Harrisburg with honor and fidelity. Let us nominate the best men presented for our choice, and victory will perch upon our banner.
CENTRE.

PROTHONOTARY.

TO MY FRIENDS:—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-nomination for the office of Prothonotary, and respectfully solicit the suffrages of the Republican voters of Snyder county at the coming primary election.
JEREMIAH CROUSE.

REGISTER AND RECORDER.

EDITORS POST:—During the war, when soldiers were needed to protect our homes and guard the national honor, we said to our noble volunteers "Go, boys, and we will see that you are provided for should you be wounded." As a general thing our promises have been remembered and many wounded soldiers are now holding offices of trust and honor. Believing that our citizens are ever willing to honor those who imperilled their lives for us, we would urge the nomination of JAMES M VANZANDT, a citizen of your town, for the office of Register and Recorder, at the ensuing primary election. Mr. VanZandt served faithfully in our army nearly four years, and in that time was so severely wounded as to unfit him for hard manual labor. Therefore we think that he should be nominated and elected if elected we are satisfied that he will be an efficient officer. PENNS.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me, a subscriber, to suggest through the columns of your paper, the name of S. B. Schuck, of Middleburg, (formerly of Monroe township) as a suitable and worthy candidate for re-nomination for Register and Recorder of this county. He has proved himself capable, efficient, industrious and obliging. No one who has had occasion to enter the office can bear witness to the contrary. An excellent penman, a good accountant, a sound Republican deserving of success. Let us re nominate him BEAVER.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me to urge upon the Republicans of our county the propriety of re-nominating B. T. PARKS, Esq. for the office of District Attorney. Mr. Parks' brief official career has proven him to be an efficient and an obliging officer, and we can see no good reason why he should not be re-elected. At the breaking out of the rebellion, "Barney" was among the first to respond to the call for volunteers—served his country faithfully as a soldier nearly four years, in that time received wounds from which he will never fully recover, and now we think that it would be but a small return for the gratitude we owe an honorable soldier and an efficient officer to re-elect him. OLD BEAVER.

EDITORS POST:—Believing that a political party has a guaranty for success and perpetuity, only, when men of ability, sound integrity, persevering energy, and sober habits, who cannot bring dishonor upon themselves, nor reproach upon, their constituents, are selected for standard bearers, and knowing that L. N. MYERS, Esq., preeminently possess these qualities, and all the requisite qualifications essential to the honest and faithful discharge of the duties of District Attorney, we take pleasure in recommending to the Republican voters of Snyder county for nomination for that office, and feel confident if elected, that he will make a worthy and efficient officer. CENTRE.

COMMISSIONER.

THINKING that our township is entitled to a Commissioner this fall, allow me to present the name of ADAM J. FISHER to the Republican voters of our county in connection with that office. Mr. Fisher has always been an active and zealous Republican and has never heretofore asked for anything in the power of the party to bestow We think it would be but simple justice to place him in nomination at the ensuing primary election. Should he be nominated and elected, we will have an honest and competent Commissioner. PENNS.

THE office of County Commissioner is one of the most important offices to the tax-payers of a county, and to fill it we should have men of undoubted honesty and integrity. In connection with many Republicans, allow me to present the claims of CAPTAIN PHILIP KINNEY, of Beaver, for this important office. He is a man of sound judgement, honest and reliable, and if nominated and elected, will make a faithful officer.
FRANKLIN.

EDITORS POST.—Please announce that JOHN ROMIG, of Penns twp., will be a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the ensuing Primary Election Mr. Romig is well qualified to fill the office; is a good sound Republican, and will, if elected, make a good officer. J.

SURVEYOR.

EDITORS POST:—Please announce in your paper the name of A. K. GIFT, Esq., as a suitable person to fill the office of County Surveyor. Mr Gift has practiced surveying in this county a number of years, is punctual in business, and moderate in charges. I will not say anything as to his moral character as he is too well known throughout the county. If nominated and elected he will make a faithful officer.
A VOTER OF WEST BEAVER.

EDS. POST:—Please announce through your columns that DANIEL WEIRICK, Esq., of Centre township, will be a candidate for County Surveyor, subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the ensuing primary election. Mr. Weirick is an experienced Surveyor and is well qualified for the position. FRANKLIN.

AUDITOR.

EDITORS POST:—Believing that it is the right policy to retain good men in office, I would propose that we re-nominate DANIEL DIEFFENBACH for the office of County Auditor. He is a sound Republican, a good accountant, and should be re-elected. JACKSON.
