New Counterfeit.—Lancaster Bank, Lancaster, Pa., 1's Re-issue relief. The general appearance of these notes is especially calculated to deceive the unwary, though the paper is somewhat different from that on which the genuine are printed—the latter being white and clear, and the former white, tinged with pink. The engraving, as a whole, is quite defective. The figure in the vignette has but three fingers on the left hand. So also the female on the left part of the note, who has an arm around an anchor—her right hand is minus a finger. Above this figure is a female whose right arm rests upon the top of the anchor; in the genuine her neck is bare, whilst in the bad note there seems to be two or three strings of beads around it.

The steamer Empire, which left Dunkirk on Thursday for Detroit, and whose non-arrival give occasion to great anxiety, arrived at Detroit on Sunday. She had a boisterous passage and got out of coals, but was not in any way injured. She had some three hundred passengers on board.

The Housewife's Help and Husband's Joy!

THE GERMAN WASHING FLUID

DOES away entirely with that laborious task of rubbing the clothes upon the wash board. It contains no ingredient whatever injurious to the finest fabric of the loom. The proprietor chooses this method to give it a trial, and if it does not prove to be as recommended, he asks no money in such case, but is responsible for the value of the fluid, which is put up in bottles containing each bottle. Read the directions. One pint bottle will last a family a long time, and save the clothes much by not rubbing, thus lengthening the life of the article—leaves no injurious stains of metal, acid, &c. if there be any, and the time and labor saved.

BOOK AGENTS WANTED.

The subscriber publishes a large number of most valuable books, very popular, and of such a moral and religious character that while any may safely engage in the sale of such publications, they will confer a great benefit, and receive a fair compensation for their labor.

Agents can make a handsome living, and their title has been offered an opportunity for a little employment at such a time as they may find convenient, or to devote their whole time to the business, according to their ability. There is not a town in the Union where a right, honest and intelligent person can fail of doing well by the sale of some of these publications.

TO WOMEN.

A Female Book Agent is wanting to contract with a lady in every town in the Union, to act as Agent for the sale of her publications. Ladies of good character, and who are competent to take charge of a small business, can find it a profitable employment. Address (post paid) to the proprietor.

TO THE TRADE.

Booksellers and Pedlers, Teachers of Schools, and Students, will find it to their interest to call at the Publication Office, when they will receive a catalogue of the books, and be enabled to judge for themselves of the value of the publications
