LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Extracts of letters from Judge Story, Chancellor Kent, and President Adams.

CAMBRIDGE, April 24, 1844.

I have read the prospectus with great pleasure; and entirely approve the plan. If it can only obtain the public patronage long enough, and securely enough, to attain its true ends, it will contribute in an eminent degree to give a healthy tone, not only to our literature, but to public opinion. It will enable us to possess, in a moderate compass, a select library of the best product of the age. It will do more; it will redeem our periodical literature from the reproach of being devoted to light and superficial reading, to transitory speculations, to sickly and ephemeral sentimentalities, and false and extravagant sketches of life and character. JOSEPH STORY.

NEW YORK, 7th May, 1844.

I approve very much of the plan of the "Living Age," and if it be conducted with the intelligence, spirit and taste that the prospectus indicates, (of which I have no reason to doubt,) it will be one of the most instructive and popular periodicals of the day. JAMES KENT.

WASHINGTON, 27th Dec. 1845.

Of all the Periodical Journals devoted to literature and science which abound in Europe and in this country, this has appeared to me the most useful. It contains indeed the exposition only of the current literature of the English language, but this, by its immense extent and compass, includes a portraiture of the human mind in the utmost expansion of the present age. J. Q. ADAMS.

PROSPECTUS.

This work is conducted in the spirit of Littell's Museum of Foreign Literature, (which was favorably received by the public for twenty years,) but as it is twice as large, and appears so often, we not only give spirit and freshness to it by many things which were excluded by a month's delay, but while thus extending our scope and gathering a greater and more attractive variety, are able so to increase the solid and substantial part of our literary, historical, and political harvest, as fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The popular and stately Essays of the "Edinburg Quarterly," and other Reviews; and "Blackwood's noble criticisms on Poetry, his keen political Commentaries, highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain Scenery, and the contributions to Literature, History, and Common Life by the sagacious "Spectator," the sparkling "Examiner," the judicious "Athenæum," the busy and industrious "Literary Gazette," the scientific and comprehensive "Britannia," the sober and respectable "Christian Observer;" these are intermixed with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the "United Service," and with the best articles of the "Dublin University," "New Monthly," "Fraser's," "Tait's," "Ainsworth's," "Hood's, and "Sporting Magazines," and of "Chambers's admirable Journal." We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit from "Punch;" and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of "The Times." We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

The steamship has bound Europe, Asia, and Africa, into one neighborhood; and will greatly multiply our connections, as Merchants, Travellers, and Politicians, with all parts of the world; so that much more than ever it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the condition and changes of Society to be hastening, through a rapid process of change, to some new state of things, which the merely political prophet can not compute or foresee.

Geographical Discoveries, the progress of Colonization, which is extending over the whole world, and Voyages and Travels, will be favorite matter for our selections; and, in general, we shall systematically and very fully acquaint our readers with the great department of Foreign affairs, without entirely neglecting our own.

While we aspire to make the "Living Age" desirable to all who wish to keep themselves informed of the rapid progress of the movement—to Statesmen, Divines, Lawyers, and Physicians—to men of business and men of leisure—it is stronger object to make it attractive and useful to their Wives and Children. We believe that we can thus do some good in our day and generation; and hope to make the work indispensible in every well informed family. We say indispensible, because in this day of cheap literature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is bad in taste and vicious in morals, in any other way than by furnishing a sufficient supply of a healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

We hope that, by "winnowing the wheat from the chaff," by providing abundantly for the imagination, and by a large addition of Biography, Voyages, Travels, History, and more solid matter, we may produce a work which shall be popular, while at the same time it will aspire to raise the standard of public taste.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by E. LITTELL & Co., corner of Tremont and Bromfield sts., Boston. Price 12½ cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remittances for and period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

To all subscribers within 1000 miles, who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication at Boston, the sum of Six Dollars, we will cont nue the work from the year, so long as shall be equivalent to the cost of postage;—thus virtually carrying out the plan of sending every man a copy to him Postage Free; placing our distant subscribers on the same footing as those nearer to us; and making the whole country our neighborhood.

We hope for such future change in the law, or the interpretation thereof, as will enable us to make this offer to subscribers at any distance.

Complete sets of the First Series, in thirty volumes, in the end of September, 1851, for the principal cities, free of freight, are for sale at sixty dollars.

Any volume may be had separately at two dollars, bound, or a dollar and a half in numbers.

Any number may be had for 12½ cents; and it may be worth while for subscribers or purchasers to complete any broken volumes they may have, and thus greatly enhance their value. E LITTELL & CO., Boston.

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is fraud on the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the CHERRY PECTORAL does not only as a general thing, but almost invariably, cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log-cabin of the American peasant, to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every State, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, and in many foreign countries it is coming to be extensively used by the most intelligent physicians. In Great Britain, France, and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection, the Cherry Pectoral is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies, Hospitals, Almshouses, public institutions, and in domestic practice, as the surest remedy the attending physicians can employ for the more dangerous affections of the lungs. In milder cases, and for children it is safe, pleasant, and effectual to cure. In fact, some of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found it efficacious in cases particularly incidental to childhood.

The CHERRY PECTORAL is manufactured by a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulteration.

We have endeavored here to furnish the community with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as should commend itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and effectual, which this has by repeated and countless trials proved itself to be; and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, to afford physicians a new agent on which they can rely for the best results, and the afflicted with a remedy that will do for them all that medicine can do

PHILADELPHIA,

WHERE the Proprietor is enabled, by increased facilities, to supply the growing demand for HOVER'S INK, which its widespread reputation has created.

This ink is now so well established in the good opinion and confidence of the American Public, that it is scarcely necessary to say anything in its favor, and the manufacturer takes this opportunity to say that the confidence thus secured shall not be abused.

In addition to the various kinds of Writing Ink, he also manufactures Adamantine Cement for mending Glass and China, as well as a superior Blue Dye; a trial only is necessary to insure its future use, and a Sealing Wax, well adapted for Druggists and Bottlers, at a very low price, in large or small quantities.
